FOUR-DAY SALE WEEK IS VOTED

FOR BURLEY MARKETS IN STATE—NEW SCHEDULE DECIDED BY WFA THURSDAY AT LEXINGTON MEETING.

Tobacco markets throughout the burley belt will operate on a four-day schedule beginning this week, according to reports. It was agreed that Friday's sale will be discontinued, at least temporarily.

The new schedule was decided upon Thursday at a meeting in Lexington of the War Food Administration's Industry Advisory Committee on Burley Tobacco.

The shorter week was made necessary by the difficulty which is being experienced at redrying plants in keeping up with deliveries, according to Hugh W. Taylor, in charge of the WFA's Administration and Training Division. Many plants which ordinarily operate on a 24-hour basis have been operating on a basis of 10 to 14 a day.

The agreement on the four-day schedule includes Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia, North Carolina, Missouri, Indiana, Ohio and West Virginia.

The committee, which authorized WFA officials to restore the five-day week later in the season if conditions permit, also decided that no sales should start before 9:30 a. m. to afford inspectors more time for their work, and that sales would be limited to five hours a day from Monday through Thursday

The size of baskets also was restricted to 700 pounds, under a resolution adopted at the meeting.

Faith Williams, U. S. Dept. of Labor, 'When the Nations Get Together"; I. B. Hutson, of Washington, "The Farmers' Part in the War in 1944."

BURLINGTON P.-T. A. TO MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the Burlington P.-T. A. will be held at the school house Monday evening, January 10, at 7:30 p. m. All members are urged to attend.

Watch Service Held At Florence Baptist Church December 31

The people of the Florence Baptist Church held their annual Watch Night Service at the church the night of December 31. The service began at 9 o'clock with a patriotic service of one hour. Refreshments and a fellowship hour was held in the basement of the church. The final period was one of prayer and devotion with special emphasis on prayer for our nation and its leaders, the oppressed nations of the earth, our enemies in the present conflict and the boys in service and the general progress of the war in the coming year.

LLOYD MEMORIAL SOCIETY TO MEET

The Lloyd Memorial Society will hold its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Mary Fulton, Florence, on Saturday, January 8. All members are requested to be present.

FOOD PRODUCTION IMPORTANT IN 1944

EXTENSION ASSOCIATION TO HOLD SERIES OF MEETINGS IN NEAR FUTURE TO PLAN FOR COMING YEAR.

Home food production will play a more important part with farm people in 1944, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent and Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent. Boone County Extension Association and Homemakers' Club leaders will hold a series of meetings in the near future to plan ways and means of meeting both the economic and wartime needs for increased home food production and more efficient uses of home produced foods.

The 1944 educational program will include not only quantity production but greater varieties over longer periods of time, the more efficient canning, storing and preserving of these products and the more efficient and palatable uses of these products in the family diet.

Farm families have made remarkable progress in home food in recent years. Last year was a record home food production year. Higher quality foods were preserved for winter uses the past fall than ever before, according to the homemakers' club reports.

Christmas Seal Quota Falls Short Of Goal

According to a report just released by R. V. Lents, executive secretary of the Boone County Tuberculosis Association, the Tuberculosis Christmas Seal sale is 36 percent short of the county quota of $725. Mr. Lents stated that the quota could be reached by sending him your dollar now for the seals r ailed.

All schools are requested to make reports immediately to Mr. Lents. Don't forget that it is not too late to send in your dollar for Christmas seals. Put the county over the top.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ryle, of Louisville and Rev. Elmore Ryle, of Richmond, spent several days during the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manley Ryle.

Good Hens Pay Best

Good hens pay best, according to O. D. Perkinson, Assistant County Agent. High production per bird is a wartime must.

Every poultryman during December should carefully carry out the following practices:

1. Rigid culling of non-layers and poor producers. Feed is too high to feed poor producers.
2. Provide adequate housing with from 3½ to 4 square feet per bird free from drafts or dampness.
3. Full feed good laying mash and grain.
4. Provide a "noon lunch" in the form of a wet mash. Use skim milk if available.
5. Provide plenty of fresh water—prevent freezing of water.
6. Confine birds close to plenty of feed and water until noon.
7. Feed legume hay or give good range.
8. Use a deep litter on floor.
9. Examine birds regularly for lice and the house for mites.

Laying birds should pay a profit now. Cull birds are wasting valuable feed.

Reports were given in regard to the work accomplished in the district and the plans of work for 1944. D. W. Orcutt brought before the supervisors that payments will be made on conservation practices through the AAA program. These practices are contour cultivation, harvesting of vetch and rye seed, construction of terraces, diversion ditches and farm reservoirs.

It was agreed that quarterly meetings of the supervisors would be held in view of the gasoline and tire shortage.

Boone County was the 18th Soil Conservation District established in Kentucky. Now there are 39 districts with several more in the making. Slowly but surely Kentucky is becoming conservation conscious as well as the rest of the United States. We are thinking more about building and saving the soil rather than mining it.

FINANCE OF FIRE DEPT. IS SOLVED

ANONYMOUS CONTRIBUTOR WILL MATCH NEW SUBSCRIPTIONS UP TO $500—BUILDING FOR FIRE HOUSE OBTAINED.

The Burlington Volunteer Fire Department has been presented with a happy solution of its finances for equipment and housing same, if the people of this community will do their part.

Someone unknown to the department has offered to give $500.00 to help finance the Burlington fire organization provided $500.00 will be raised in addition to what has already been raised and pledged. For every dollar of new subscriptions to the fund from now on will be matched with an equal amount by this anonymous subscriber up to $500.00. In this way we will have $1000.00 in new subscriptions, in addition to the amounts already subscribed.

Make your donations to C. D. Benson, treasurer, as soon as possible and help this worthy cause. Remember when we raise $500.00 now it amounts to $1,000.00 to the fire company.

Arrangements have been made to house the fire truck and equipment in the brick building known as Library Hall adjoining Luther Smith's Grocery. This building will be remodeled to suit the requirements of the fire department, by removing a portion of the floor and arranging an opening in the front wall to permit entrance of the fire truck.

The department is in need of funds to finish paying for equipment and remodeling the building. Help to get this $500.00 anonymous contribution at once.

Producers Must File Dairy Feed Subsidy Payments, Is Word

Applications for the Dairy Feed Subsidy payment for November and December, 1943 should be made when all weight receipts for milk, butterfat, cream and butter are received. The payment will be at the same rate as that paid for October.

Some producers have not yet filed for their October payment. It is permissible to include the October weights along with November and December, and receive a combined pay for the three months, according to John E. Crigler, Secretary of the Boone County A. C. Association.

All producers are urged to submit their weight receipts as soon as possible, as it is doubtful if any weights will be received by the office from the dairy companies.

Mrs. Lizzie Duncan was ill last week with flu.

Crigler, Burlington, secretary-treasurer, or to contact one of the officers, directors or members.

AIRPORT ROAD IS DEDICATED

THURSDAY—PROGRAM SPONSORED BY NORTHERN KENTUCKY MOTOR CLUB—ALBEN W. BARKLEY HONOR GUEST.

Formal dedication of the Donaldson Highway from Erlanger to the new airport located near Hebron was observed Thursday. The program was sponsored by the Northern Kentucky Motor Club.

Senate Majority Leader, Alben W. Barkley and former State Highway Commissioner J. Lyter Donaldson, for whom the new road was named were guests of honor for the day.

A blanket of snow and near-zero temperature failed to daunt 400 business men and officials of Northern Kentucky and Cincinnati in their inspection of the new airport and dedication services for the new highway.

Senator Barkley, speaking at a dinner at the Lookout House, after the inspection, said a greater community spirit would come from efforts to make the new airport a Greater Cincinnati project. He said the state barrier, whether natural or artificial, meant little when community interest was considered.

Judge John B. Read and Judge C. L. Cropper spoke on behalf of Kenton and Campbell counties. District Highway Engineer Marion D. Ross presented the road to Kenton county on behalf of the state.

H. K. Moss, special agent in charge, Louisville Field Division, Federal Bureau of Investigation, today stated that arrangements have been made to hold the usual FBI Law Enforcement Conference at Covington, Ky., on January 11, 1944, between the hours of 1:30 p. m. and 4:30 p. m. Law enforcement officers from the following counties are being invited to this conference: Boone, Kenton, Campbell, Gallatin, Grant, Pendleton and Owen.

Mayor elect Thomas Fitzpatrick, Covington, will speak on the subject of "The Home Front." Police Court Judge Eugene C. Benzinger, Covington, Ky., will also address the officers. A War Department film, "The Battle of Britain," will be shown. FBI representatives will discuss national defense investigations, and an FBI firearms expert will demonstrate the proper methods of arresting and disarming.

Law enforcement officers in the state of Kentucky have worked closely with the FBI since the summer of 1940 when conferences throughout the entire United States were held by the FBI with law enforcement agencies to place into effect a Presidential Directive placing responsibility of conducting espionage, sabotage, and related national defense investigations upon the shoulders of the Federal Bureau of Investigation as well as calling upon all law enforcement agencies to aid and cooperate with the FBI in this program.

Only law enforcement officers will be permitted to attend the lecture and demonstration of the FBI, the address of Police Judge Benzinger, and the showing of the War Department film.

IN MEMORY OF MY MOTHER

I have lost a friend, a friend indeed ,
But I'll go to God for the comfort I need;
How much I'll miss your loving care,
You were always ready my burdens to share.
You were never too tired to kiss my tears away,
Always cheerful as a sunny day;
You taught me many lessons I'll never forget,
To always be honest and I would have nothing to regret.
I have lost a friend so kind and true,
Always making a cloudy sky blue;
It is always so hard to say goodbye
But I'll meet you in heaven on high.
I know you are happy in heaven today,
But it was God's will or you would not have gone away;
I thank God for sparing you to me so many years,
But the thought of separation brings many tears.
I'll think of you constantly and go often to your grave,
Dad is so lonely, but tries to be so brave;
I know it is only a short time until we will meet again.
We knew we had to part sometime but we are never ready for the end.
So now we will take our sorrows to one who loves us best,
Then when our work on earth is ended, we can in heaven rest;
As we look across the western sky at the setting of the sun,
May we remember, life for us has just begun.
You have kept your faith in God for so many years
You have faced many sorrows and shed many tears;
Now as we go down the valley one by one,
May it be a constant reminder that our final race is won.
Mother it is not because I am selfish, although
I would like to have kept you until Dad was called to go;
I know it will not be long, and how happy you will be,
When you and Dad are reunited, will be a pleasant thing to see.

"I am wondering as to whether or not it would be a good idea for the people of Boone Co. to instruct their Circuit Judge Ward Yager for him to instruct future grand juries to render no more indictments in Boone Co. for murder as Boone Co. juries will not convict however cold blooded the act may be and save the taxpayers the expense.

JESUS BUSY WITH HIS MINISTRY OF LOVE

LESSON TEXT—Mark 1:32-45.
GOLDEN TEXT—I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.—John 9:4.

Jesus said that He "must work the works of him that sent him" (John 9:4). And so we find Him going straightway about His Father's business. It is a good example He has set for us.

What He did and how He did it will give us many lessons which we may apply to our service. We can not do exactly what He did, but in His power we may do mighty works.

We find our Lord doing four important things—

I. Healing (vv. 32-34).

We will do well to include verses 29-31 in our thinking, for there we find our Lord tenderly sharing the sorrow of the home of a friend. One can picture the anxious hush that hovered over the home as distressed relatives and friends sought to alleviate the suffering of the one with a fever. They knew the possibility of a serious outcome of the illness. Many of us have gone through that dark valley. All at once there was new hope, and soon there was joy. Jesus had come and had brought healing. Many of us have also had that blessed experience.

Christianity is not a selfish faith, if it follows its Lord. We see in verses 32 to 34 that all the city came to His door with the diseased and demon-possessed, and He healed them all.

The account of the kindly and intelligent care of the sick is written large on the pages of the history of the Christian church. We do not have His divine touch of immediate healing, but we may have His compassion which served the multitude with tenderness and kindness.

II. Praying (vv. 35-37).

The Son of God sought out a place and a time for prayer communion with His Father. How often we who profess to follow Him fail to pray at all. Certainly we need the grace and power that prayer can bring far more than Jesus did. But, we say, we are so busy. So was He. We are tired. So was He. People will not let us alone. They also followed Him. We make excuses, but we have no real reasons for our unfortunate delinquency.

All men were seeking Him (v. 37), but still He took the needed time to pray. It has been said that "if you are too busy to pray, you are busier than God ever intended you to be."

When His disciples wanted Him, they had to look for Him in the place of prayer. Christian workers and pastors, do people find us there?

III. Preaching (vv. 38, 39).

Jesus said, "Let us go . . . that I may preach . . . for therefore came I forth." It bears repetition that while Jesus did many miracles (and not for a moment would we detract from their worth and glory), yet He repeatedly, by word and act, emphasized the importance of preaching.

Foolish though it may seem to the natural man (I Cor. 1:18-25), preaching the gospel in the power of the Holy Spirit is now, as it has been through the centuries, God's chosen means of accomplishing His purpose. What a pity that churches and pastors are forsaking it for book reviews, dramas, social hours, forums, and what not!

God give us a revival of great, humble, and fearless preaching of the Word!

IV. Cleansing (vv. 40-45).

There is a sense in which the cleansing of the leper was another act of healing, but leprosy is such a striking type of sin that the incident calls for special consideration.

Leprosy is like sin in that it is a destructive malady that pursues its insidious way without revealing its true nature until it is far advanced. It renders a man unclean, loathsome to himself and dangerous to others. At least such it was in the days of our Lord.

Was there then no hope for the leper? Yes; Jesus had come. The smitten man cried out, "If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean." And Jesus said, "I will . . . and he was cleansed."

So may the sinner be cleansed, for "whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Rom. 10:13). He will not turn the vilest of men away, for He came "to seek and to save that which was lost" (Luke 19:10).

There is another important lesson here. The man who was cleansed disobeyed the instructions of Jesus (v. 44), with the result that the Lord's ministry in that place was greatly limited.

We should obey the commands of God without question, and without any deviation from them. Disobedience, even though it be by reason of great joy and enthusiasm, results in confusion. Our Lord knows exactly what should be done in a particular place at a certain time. When He guides, we should conform—for our own good and His glory.

Naturally, however, it can't compare to Boone County where Mary Ellen, the baby and many friends I have known are. That is what makes a fellow appreciate the newspaper from home. . . . "As far as I know, there are no other follows here from Boone County, although I have met several from Kenton and Carroll.

We didn't get stuck once thanks to the engineers who went ahead of us and built bridges and cleared the way. . . . I was home on a 10-day furlough the first of November and old Boone County sure looked good to me. I will be plenty glad when this war is over and we can all, who live in Boone County, return there. . . . Camp Wheeler is a large camp, a regular city itself, located right miles from Macon, Georgia. . . . Thanks again for sending the paper, for I do look forward to getting it."

• • •

Harry Cook, stationed at the Sioux Falls, S. D. Technical School, writes:

"Received my Recorder here Sunday. As a rule this is one day sooner than I usually got it in Louisville, but the other mail service here is not so good. Letters take about five or six days to get here.

"The weather is very mild for this time of year. It only gets to about 20 above in the night and then to about 40 degrees during the day.

"This coal smoke is the worst part about this camp. It is smoky here at times until it is difficult to breathe.

"I haven't started to schoo as yet. Am hoping to start some time this week. Before starting I have to take a physical examination from the Flight Surgeon to see if I can qualify for aerial gunnery. I won't pass so will only take radio to qualify me for a control tower operator. Will also have to qualify (63%) with the pistol (.45 calibre). I am still hoping to get through this course so I can join my outfit (61st Wing Troop Carrier) which will be at Sedalia A. A. B., Warrensburg, Mo., about the first of March. The sooner I get out of this hole the better. I have met several Kentucky and Cincinnati boys here at the club.

"Was so sorry to hear about Mrs. Souther. Thanks a lot for the paper Pete. It is like a long, long letter from all the people at home. Wish I had Everett Cress' address so that I could write to him. Hope he gets to come home before long—he should with the malaria that long.

"Went to church here Sunday and really had a fine spiritual meeting. We studied the Sunday School lesson, 10th Commandment, 'Covetousness,' then preaching and communion. I hope to get to go back every Sunday.

"Well, Pete tell everyone hello and will see you some day. Boy, the pheasants are thick here. Wish you could be here to hunt."

Ed. Note—We are giving you the address of Everett Cress, 6th Construction Bat. Co. C, care Fleet Post Office, San Francisco, Calif.

Jimmie Masters, stationed in Mississippi with the U. S. Army writes:

"Have been receiving The Recorder for the past ten months, and it's a swell paper. I really enjoy reading it. It helps me find out just where all my friends are in the service and how they are getting along.

"We just arrived at Nashville, Tenn., today for our maneuvers, and I was sure glad to leave Mississippi, and I hope my next move is still farther north.

"I like the army fine, and it is really good for you, but I would rather be back in Boone County.

"I will close now, and I thank you very much for sending me The Recorder and I look forward to getting it each week."

• • •

Robert Henry England A. S., Co. 1630 U. S. N. T. S., Great Lakes, Ill., writes: "I guess you thought I didn't care much for The Recorder as I had not written to thank you for it. I have not had much time to write, but at least found time. I enjoy The Recorder very much, and it keeps me well posted as to what is going in Boone County. I like to read the letters other boys in the service write. . . . I am at Camp Green Bay but I am not in a Company with any of the boys from Boone County, but I see them once in a while. . . . Thanks again for The Recorder and I hope you keep up the good work."

Gayety Theatre

TONIGHT AND FRIDAY

An authentic sound track, recorded during the 1940 blitz of London, has been incorporated in the early sequences of M-G-M's "The Adventures of Tartu" produced in England by Irving Asher and directed by Harold Bucquet.

The detonation of Nazi bombs, the wail of sirens, the crackle of flames and crash of falling walls were caught by a daring sound technician during the height of the Luftwaffe's attack on the British capital. It is heard in scenes where Robert Donat, the star, is endeavoring to remove the fuse, from a delayed action aerial ohmb, during the height of a bombing.

• • •

SATURDAY

A cattle stampede, said to be one of the most exciting movie events in recent pictures, is a colorful highlight of Universal's "Frontier Badmen," which comes to the Gayety, Saturday. The thrilling incident supplies a surprise climax to a story dealing with a crusade against lawlessness during pioneer days.

Robert Paige, Anne Gwynne, Noah Beery, Jr., Diana Barrymore and other notables are featured in the adventurous new picture.

• • •

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Eleanor Powell "goes Western" in her latest screen role, and twirls a lariat a la Will Rogers. But in this case she does it in time to music. The lariat dance is a highlight in M-G-M's "I Dood It," in which she co-stars with Red Skelton in a musical funfest. Professional cowboys taught her to handle the ropes—the dance is her own idea.

It is one of a series of gay bits of entertainment in the side-splitting comedy of a pants' presser who marries an actress. Vincente Minnelli directed with a cast that includes Richard Ainley, Patricia Dane, Thurston Hall, Sam Levene, John Hodiak, Morris Ankrum and Butterfly McQueen, Jimmy Dorsey and his band are also featured.

• • •

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

Curious guy, this Eddie Albert, co-star with honey-blonde Anne Shirley in Paramount's "Lady Bodyguard," the romantic comedy thrill coming to the Gayety.

Eddie has a habit of getting up at three o'clock in the morning to go fishing. He'll have fish for breakfast seven days a week when he's in the mood—and still get to the studio in time for work.

HOME ORCHARDS THRIVE IN EASTERN KENTUCKY

Small home orchards loaded with choice apples were seen at a recent meeting of fruit growers at the farms of Virgil Slone and Ronald Harris in Winifred community, Johnson county.

The Slone orchard of about 60 trees was estimated to be carrying 1,000 bushels of apples, and the crop of some individual trees was considered worth $100.

Farmers in Winifred community cooperate in the production of fruit and poultry. Trees are fertilized and sprayed according to the latest methods of fruit production. None of the orchards contain more than 100 trees.

Contrary to the ideas of some persons, these successful fruit growers have their orchards on rich bottomland. "I can't afford to grow field crops on bottomland when I can grow fruit," Mr. Slone told the visitors. "One tree will produce enough apples to pay for a whole truckload of corn."

Fruit growers, farmers and county agents from several counties attended the meeting, which was arranged by County Agent Howard Burdine in the interest of promoting better fruit growing. Also attending were W. W. Magill, W. D. Armstrong and C. E. Harris of the Kentucky Experiment Station, and J. M. Feltner of London, field agent in 4-H club work in Eastern Kentucky.

Wartime Lighting Suggestions

HOW TO GET MORE LIGHT FROM YOUR PRESENT EQUIPMENT

Keep Lamps Turned Off In Unoccupied Rooms

Leaving lamps burning in unoccupied rooms not only wastes light but shortens the life of lamp bulbs, which use tungsten—a critical war material. Turn off all lamps and fixtures promptly when not in actual use. Your lamp bulbs will stay brighter longer, you'll get more useful light at less expense and you'll help conserve electricity and vital materials for the war effort.

SIX OTHER WAYS TO CONSERVE LIGHT

1. Remove and clean lamp bulbs and lamp bowls regularly. Dry thoroughly before using again.
2. Keep shade linings light. Clean or brush regularly. Repaint or reline dark-colored paper or parchment shades.
3. Sit close enough to the lamp to get all the help it can give your eyes.
4. Avoid direct glare from lamp bulbs by using shades deep enough and wide enough.
5. Arrange furniture so one lamp can serve two people. But be sure lamp is not too far away from either person.
6. Eliminate amber or flame-tint bulbs. Inside-frosted white bulbs of same wattage give much more light.

Electricity ..is vital to war production. Use all you need but don't waste it. Just because it's cheap and isn't rationed.

FOOT TEST

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

Usually the first sign of foot trouble is the running over of the heels of shoes.

In a strong healthy human foot the 26 bones are held together to form a substantial support for the weight of the body and they are held together in place by strong ligaments, tendons, and muscles. These bones are so arranged that they form four separate and natural arches.

The heel bone and ankle bone lean out of position more or less in almost every kind of foot trouble. The cause, is that ligaments, muscles and tendons which hold the heel bone and ankle bone in place, become weakened, and are not strong enough to hold these bones in their normal position.

Backaches, headaches and many body ills may be traced to feet. Even symptoms like those of rheumatism and arthritis now are being banished with proper shoes. Also nervous indigestion, sleepless nights, etc.—Adv.

COOKED A FINE DINNER; THEN THREW IT TO DOG

One lady recently stated that she used to throw her own dinner to the dog most of the time. It made her sick just to look at anything to eat. She was swollen with gas, full of bloat, had headaches, felt worn out and was badly constipated. Finally she got ERB-HELP and says she now eats everything in sight and digests it perfectly. She is enjoying life once more and feels like "some other woman" since taking this New Compound. ERB-HELP contains 12 Great Herbs; they cleanse bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish liver and kidneys. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get ERB-HELP! Dahlenburg's Drug Store, Erlanger.

We are in receipt of the following letter from Ira Vernon Smith, F. 1/c, 90 N. C. Battalion Co. D., Plat. 4, San Francisco, Calif., care Fleet Post Office, stationed at Pearl Harbor:

"For a long time I have been trying to find time to write you a few lines, but have just put it off as I have been a pretty busy Seabee since I have been at Pearl Harbor. I have had just about time to write home and that is all.

"I like this place fine, but would much rather be back home with all my old friends and have this war over, and I know that every boy in the service wishes the same as I.

"I have found 'Fats' Tanner since I have been here, and we both read the same Recorder and enjoy it very much. I read almost every line of it as seven people I didn't even know when I was home, seem to be real good friends of mine over here.

Tribute to the Fighting Seabees

"The Navy needed fighters and the Navy needed men
So they organized the Seabees who could fight and work again;
They took welders, riggers, boilermen, butchers, cooks and bakers too,
They put them in the Navy and showed the proper thing to do.
With a machine gun and a rifle the Seabees learned to shoot,
We used a big machete—a thousand other things to boot;
They taught us how to march and drill,
They taught us how to dress,
And we even learned to manage
To get seconds at the mess.
We learned just how to knock it off like any other gob,
They taught us all these many things in 13 weeks or less,
And what they didn't teach us,
At the rest we had to guess.
When we finished out our training
We left for Island X
We had all our own equipment,
It sure loaded down our decks.
The Japs they held the island
When at last we hove in sight,
We knew that they were ready,
So we prepared to fight.
We landed under heavy fire,
There was plenty shot and shell,
But we rushed up to the beach head
And we gave them plenty of hell.
We soon had wiped the Nippees out
Then we went to work
Every Seabee did his duty—
Not one was seen to shirk.
We built a mighty landing field,
A barracks and a dock;
About a thousand miles of road,
We made from solid rock.
We got things finally squared away,
'Twas mighty pretty to be seen,
Then we went back to the beach head,
Where we saw our first Marine.
They followed in behind us,
Though they said they got there first,
We had everything completely fixed,
They could even quench their third.
From the Halls of Montezuma
To the shores of Tripoli,
It used to be the Leathernecks,
But now it's all Seabees.
And when we reach the pearly gates and stand at Heavens scene,
There will be a Seabee waiting there
To greet the first Marine.

HOME-CANNED FOODS SHOULD BE BOILED

That home-canned peas, beans, asparagus, corn and all other non-acid vegetables and meats should be boiled vigorously for 15 minutes before being used, is the advice of Mrs. Pearl J. Haak, food specialist at the Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics. "Canned food should never be eaten as it comes from the jar," said Mrs. Haak, "even though there is no sign of spoilage.

Use the liquid in which the food was canned for boiling, suggests this food expert, adding a small amount of water if necessary. Gravies and soups will have more food value, and be made more tasty by the use of such liquids. For salads, both vegetables and meats should be chilled thoroughly after having been boiled the required length of time.

Tomatoes, being acid, need not be boiled.

Mold, fermentation or bubbling, disagreeable odor, dark unnatural color, white sediment or cloudy liquid in a jar of canned vegetables or meats, is an indication that the food has spoiled, and therefore is not fit for consumption of either man or beast. In such instances, boiling is not a sufficient precaution, said the food expert.

Housewives are warned not to feed spoiled canned foods to chickens, pigs or other stock. Spoiled corn and peas, for instance, are always fatal to chickens. All spoiled canned food should be buried or otherwise put safely out of the reach of animals.

Canned foods keep best in a cool, dark, dry place. When stored at too high a temperature, seals of jars sometimes break.

AMONG THE COUNTY AGENTS

In Letcher county, 1,400,000 quarts of fruits and vegetables were canned 38,000 pounds dried and 15,500 gallons of vegetables put in brine.

The Macoupin variety of soybeans yielded an average of 25 to 30 bushels per acre in Hopkins county; other varieties, 15 to 16 bushels.

Seed will be saved for local use in McCracken county by S. G. Lamond who sowed 30 acres each of certified balbo rye, winter oats and Thorne wheat.

Approximately 100 sewing machines in Fleming county have been put in runinng order in preparation for more home sewing.

Approximately 2,500 late lambs were sold in Montgomery county, each weighing more than 90 pounds.

The sowing of cover crops in Cumberland county was reduced considerably, due to the scarcity of seed.

More than 2,000 bushels of seed wheat, oats. barley and rye have been listed for sale in Barren county.

Approximately 2,000 acres of crop land in Fleming county have been seeded to vetch or crimson clover this fall.

BIG 4-H RECORD

Four hundred and eighty-six members of 18 4-H clubs in Crittenden county produced 396,810 pounds of livestock and poultry, canned 17,497 quarts of fruits and vegetables, bought $3,659 in war bonds and stamps, and worked 3,450 hours on their neighbors' farms.

Early History Of Boone Co.

By A. M. Yealey

Having received several letters in reference to the manufacture of salt in 1756 by the Indians and in 1812 by the whites in "Chapter of first things in Boone County." The questions asked were, "Why was this discontinued?" The writer will answer this question briefly by saying the cost of manufacturing salt was almost $4.00 per hundred weight at Big Bone Lick, which proved too high to be exported.

It took about 550 gallons of this water to produce one bushel of salt (80 lbs). The first mode of manufacture was to fill kettles with this water and hang them over an open fire, very often in their crude cabins. In this way it took about a month to make one bushel of salt, but later we find that trenches about four feet deep were dug and large copper kettles holding 25 gallons of this water would be placed on this trench. As many as ten would be placed side by side and the interstices between them would be stopped by flat rocks and clay. In this way a furnace was constructed and a fire was maintained in both ends, day and night. This mode reduced the expense about 50 percent or to about $2.00 per hundred weight but the cost of cutting and transporting the fuel and the weakness of the brine made it unprofitable.

We have in our possession Ephriam Tanner's shop book and find where he purchased salt in Cincinnati for $2.94 per barrel (280 lbs.) Sept. 1815, Mr. Tanner at that time lived between Florence and Union. We can readily see the salt only cost him about 1 cent a pound, yet at Big Bone the cost of manufacture was nearly 5 cents per pound. Other reasons why the manufacture was discarded at the Licks was the development of the salt springs at Mayslick and Blue-lick on the Licking river. Bullits Lick on Salt River near Louisville was well developed and the brine at this place was very strong and as high as 50 furnaces were built. At one time 600 men were employed and the price of salt came down where the cost of manufacture was about 1¼ cents a pound. No doubt if the wells at Big Bone Lick had been bored deeper a better grade of brine would have been obtained, but transportation of material for the development of the salt works here was difficult and we often wonder how these old pioneers did the wonderful things which they accomplished having nothing to work with except a hoe, ax, mall and shovel.

WAR TO REDUCE PET WAISTLINES

The war is reducing the waistlines of a lot of pampered pets, says Dr. W. W. Dimock, head of the Department of Animal Pathology at the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station. This is especially true in towns and cities, where red points are too scarce to allow many tidbits for house dogs and cats.

On the farm, Fido and Rover catch rabbits and get scraps from the family table. There are plenty of rats and mice for cats. War has made little difference in the life of farm dogs and cats.

For town pets the reduced diet is in some ways a good thing. It's bring down pet waistlines, taking off excess and unhealthy fat, and in general is for better health of dogs and cats. For one thing, town people are buying more commercial dog feeds, and these feeds contain a high percentage of water and a low percentage of animal protein and fat, being mostly cereal grains. It is difficult for a dog to put on much fat eating them.

Dr. Dimock thinks that most pet owners need not worry because their dogs and cats are not getting as much meat as they ate before rationing. It is likely they were eating too much to be in top health. A restricted diet will do them good.

When possible, dogs and cats should have some lean meat, Dr. Dimock says, occassionally a piece of liver and some fat. Fat especially lard, is considered a good feed for dogs. It is thought to prevent and correct some kinds of skin irritation in dogs. Those portions of animals (viscera) not commonly used for human food are really the best kind of food for dogs.

ACCORDING TO REPORT OF STATE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE — GROWERS RECEIVE $5,187,922.62 FOR CROPS

Kentucky burley sales up to Tuesday of this week totaled 11,528,115 pounds, for an average of $45.00 a hundredweight, a decrease of 63 cents from last week's average, the State Department of Agriculture reported.

Growers received $5,187,922.62 for their crops.

Highest average of the day, $47.43 was recorded at the Covington market where 354,750 pounds of leaf were auctioned. The Carrollton market reported sale of 784,964 pounds for an average of $46.90, which Cynthiana reported sale of 490,054 pounds for an average of $43.58. Lexington had an average of $46.47 for the day.

Fairly heavy sales prevailed throughout most of the markets, the War Food Administration reported.

The average reached at the Kenton Loose-Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Monday of $47.43 was believed to be the al-time high since the warehouse began operations. The high basket for the day brought $69 and low $13.

Former Boone County Girl Is Bride Of Vevay Boy

Miss Isabelle Brady, of Markland, Ind., became the bride of Emerson O. Williamson Ph. M. 3/c U. S. Navy, in an impressive double ring ceremony performed Christmas morning at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. L. S. Courtney, of Vevay.

The bride is the attractive and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brady, of Markland, Ind., and is a graduate of Patriot High School. For the past months she has been employed at the Jefferson proving ground at Madison, Ind.

The groom is the only son of Mrs. Naomi Williamson and the late Marion Williamson of Vevay, Ind., and is well known throughout the county for participation in the field of sports. He is a graduate of Vevay High School and was employed at the Charleston Powder Plant prior to his enlistment in the Navy more than fourteen months ago. He is stationed at present at Great Lakes, Ill., to which station he returned on Monday.

Mrs. Williamson will continue at her present employment.

The bride is the granddaughter of Hubert Brady of Burlington and of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Stephens, also of Burlington.

Their many friends join in extending hearty congratulations and best wishes for a happy and prosperous life together.

Hunters Urged To Turn In Report Of Game Kill For Season Of 1943

Frankfort, Ky—Kentucky hunters were today urged by S. A. Wakefield, Director of the Division of Game and Fish, to fill out the form on the back of their hunting and fishing licenses and mail them in to the Division offices here immediately, stating the amount and kind of game killed during the year 1943. The 1943 licenses expired on December 31 and new licenses for 1944 are now in the hands of the county court clerks of the state.

Wakefield pointed out that such information would be of great value to the Division in compiling data on the amount of game killed in Kentucky each year by the sportsmen and the types or species taken in the hunter's and fisherman's bag. This informative data would then be used as a guide for future restocking of game in wood and field and fish in streams.

Hebron Man Sells Tobacco Crop For Average Of $54 CWT.

M. F. Judy, of near Hebron sold approximately a third of his tobacco crop on the Kenton Tobacco Warehouse floor, January 3rd for an average of $54.00 per hundredweight. Mr. Judy had 3368 pounds to sell on the above date.

His high basket was $57.00 and low basket $46.00.

Mr. Judy stated that the tobacco sold January 3rd was a general run of his crop, the remainder of which should bring just as high a figure.

Four-H Club Tobacco Crops Averages 56.7

Harold Congleton, Burlington 4-H Club boy sold 320 pounds of tobacco for an average of $56.70 per hundred weight. Yield from one-eighth of an acre of land was 320 pounds. The land was very fertile and all the leaves were saved by priming and picking up ground leaves.

Tobacco Stalks Worth $15 Per Ton

Tobacco stalks properly handled are valuable fertilizer, according to H. E. Forkner, County Agent. Recent work at the Experiment Station indicates that if the fertilizer in a ton of stalks was purchased it would cost approximately $15.00.

This valuable fertilizer when properly used will return three or four times this amount in increased crop yields. The unfortunate part is that the fertilizer in the stalks is highly soluble in water and if left out in the weather and not applied to the growing crop most of the value is quickly lost.

One good local farmer the past week pointed out the practical difficulty in finding a suitable place to spread the stalks this time of the year. It was suggested putting them in a temporary loft in the tobacco barn, chopping them up in spare time and spreading on new grass and clover seedings so that there will be no difficulty in raking the hay crop. Each farmer will have his own individual problem on how to best handle the stalks. The important thing to remember is that in war times tobacco stalks are too valuable to leave out in the weather.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS TO MEET

The Men's Bible Class of the Burlington Baptist Church will hold their monthly social and business meeting at the church next Saturday night, January 15 at 8 p. m. All members are urged to attend.

350 WORKERS ARE PLACED IN COUNTY

SINCE JANUARY 1ST, ACCORDING TO W. M. SMITH, COUNTY FARM LABOR ASSISTANT—INCLUDES VARIETY OF JOBS.

The Boone County farm labor program has assisted local farmers in securing 350 placements of farm workers since January 1st, 1943 according to W. M. Smith, County Farm Labor Assistant.

The placements have included a wide variety of jobs varying from day workers, month hands and tenants to the securing of custom machinery and job contract work. The farm labor program has been extended thru January and until further notice. Present indications are that many farmers may encounter a more severe labor shortage in 1944 than during the past year.

The securing and placement of farm tenants has been the most important farm labor job the past thirty days. A large number of farmers have been assisted in this work.

Farmers who have not secured tenants for 1944 are advised to do so at the earliest possible date. Tenants who must move should complete their arrangements as soon as possible. The fewer the tenant moves the better for the war effort. Tenant moves are expensive and usually both the landlord and tenant experience considerable expense when moves are made. Often after the moves are made both parties see where the move could have been avoided.

Farmers who need tenants who must move are invited to contact the farm labor assistant at the County Agent's office. A list of available tenants and available farms are on file there.

TEN PLANNING MEETINGS SET

BY BOONE COUNTY FARMERS DURING NEXT TWO WEEKS—WILL BE BOTH HELPFUL AND INTERESTING.

Boone County farmers will hold ten community agricultural planning meetings during the next two weeks, according to H. R. Forkner. County Agent. Farmers at these meetings will outline the local agricultural improvement work they consider important during 1944. The community improvement programs will be coordinated thru a county committee composed of the chairmen of the community groups.

The schedule of the meetings follow:

Hebron, School building, Tuesday, Jan. 11, 8:00 p. m.
Verona, Bank, Saturday, Jan. 15 1:15 p. m.
Hamilton, School building, Saturday, Jan. 15, 7:30 p. m.
Grant, School building, Monday, Jan. 17, 7:30 p. m.
Constance, School building, on Thursday, Jan. 20th, 8:00 p. m.
Walton, basement room bank, Friday, Jan. 21st, 7:30 p. m.
Petersburg, school building, Monday, Jan. 24th, 7:30 p. m.
Burlington, County Agent's office, Tuesday, Jan. 25th, 7:30 p. m.
Florence, Town Hall, Saturday, Jan. 29th, 8:00 p. m.
New Haven, School Building, Monday, Jan. 31st, 7:30 p. m.

These meetings held each year are both helpful and interesting. Leading farmers attending the meetings give their past years' experiences in agricultural improvement and a recommended program is planned for the new year.

All farmers interested in the agricultural improvement work in their communities and the county are invited to attend.

SPORTSMEN URGED TO BUY '44 LICENSE

SERIOUS REDUCTION IN REVENUE FACED BY DIVISION OF GAME AND FISH, SAYS S. A. WAKEFIELD, DIRECTOR.

All hunters and fishermen were urged today by S. A. Wakefield, Director of the Division of Game and Fish, not to delay in purchasing their 1944 hunting and fishing licenses.

In his statement for publication, Wakefield pointed out that the Division of Game and Fish faces a "serious reduction" in revenues because of the war, and that the only funds available for furtherance of the Division's restocking program come from hunters and fishermen. He explained that purchase of the 1944 licenses now with the resulant revenue, would be of great assistance to the Division in its conservation program for the present year.

Wakefield stated that December is the big revenue month for the Division and during that month of 1943 the Division receipts were far short of those for 1942 and previous years. This decline resulted from so many men going into the armed services; men and women taking defense jobs with less time for sport and recreation; the rubber shortage and gasoline rationing and shortage of ammunition. The decline will continue as the war progresses and the only way revenue can be maintained is through the purchase of licenses by the people left back home. Even though a person might have no opportunity to hunt or fish, he or she can purchase a license and insure the continuance of the Conservation program in Kentucky and know that the money spent for such a license will help to keep the out-of-doors intact for the men when they return from the pursuance of a victorious war. These men can then get out their guns and fishing tackle to seek out the sports they once enjoyed in the past.

INCOME TAX BLANKS MAILED

ACCORDING TO S. R. GLENN, COLLECTOR OF INTERNAL REVENUE—RETURNS MUST BE FILED BY MARCH 15.

S. R. Glenn, Collector of Internal Revenue, announced today that he has begun to mail copies of the 1943 Individual Income and Victory Tax Return to the estimated 500,000 Federal income tax payers in the district of Kentucky.

Collector Glenn said, "Although these returns are not required by law to be filed until March 15, I cannot urge too strongly that everyone prepare and file his return as early as possible."

"There are," he said, "two major points that are vital for everyone to understand. First, many persons will owe a substantial tax and should start immediately to find out how much they will owe and to make plans for meeting the obligation. I must emphasize this as a simple matter of fairness to these taxpayers who may have overlooked this phase of the change-over to the pay-as-you-go system.

"Second, although many taxpayers will find that they are substantially paid up on their 1943 taxes, some of them, in fact, being entitled to refunds—it is still necessary for them to file a return."

Collector Glenn explained that, under the pay-as-you-go system, all current tax payments through withholding from wages or by means of payments on "declarations of estimated tax" are only approximate. Therefore, it is necessary to file a return at the close of the year to determine the exact amount of each person's tax liability and to determine whether he underpaid or overpaid his taxes. In instances where the current payments were less than the tax payable March 15, remittance of the difference will be necessary at the time of filing the return. This amount cannot be paid in installments. In instances where the current payments were larger than the final tax, the taxpayer will be enabled to secure a refund merely by filing his return.

Early preparation of returns will be advisable, Collector Glenn said, to serve as a guide to the thousands of taxpayers who will have substantial payments to make and need to know how much the taxes will be so that they can make advance preparations to pay these taxes.

Substantial payments will be necessary in certain instances because (a) most individuals who had a 1942 tax must pay at least one-half of the forgiven portion of that tax in addition to their 1943 tax, and (b) during the first six months of 1943 only the victory tax, but not the income tax, was withheld from wages.

Particularly, persons who took jobs for the first time in 1943 and those whose wages increased sharply from 1942 to 1943 may have substantial payments to make, Collector Glenn said. As an illustration, he pointed out that a single person who earned $2,000 wages in 1943 but had no 1942 tax, will owe nearly $130 on March 15, or nearly three and one-half weeks' wages. Since this payments must be made in one sum at the time the 1943 return is filed, the Collector pointed out the advantages of determining the liability and saving for it in advance.

In the past, many taxpayers have postponed filing returns until the last minute in order to delay the payments which had to be made with the returns. However, this year's great many taxpayers will find that, under the pay-as-you-go system, they are already substantially current in their tax payments. These taxpayers, especially, ought to find it convenient to file as early as possible.

In any case, early filing will help the taxpayer know where he stands how much he owes, or how much refund he should expect, it will assure him of any assistance he may need without standing in long lines; it will help the government and the war effort.

Who Must File

A return must be made by every individual who during the taxable year 1943—

Was single and had $500 or more income.

Was married and had more than $624 income.

Was married and, together with wife or husband, had $1,200 or more income.

In addition, a return must be filed by everyone who paid or owed a tax on 1942 income.

A return should be filed likewise by anyone claiming a refund of taxes withheld from wages.

The requirements for filing 1943 returns on or before March 15, apply to civilians and personnel of the armed forces alike, except that postponements or extensions are allowed those who are on sea duty or outside the continental United States. If a member of the armed forces is on sea duty or outside of the continental United States, his wife may also postpone her return if her own income is less than $1,200. There are several other special provisions applying to members of the armed forces, and Collector Glenn invited any service personnel needing tax advice to contact his office.

Forms To Use

As in the past years, there are two income tax forms. Form 1040, commonly called the "long form," may be used by any individual. Form 1040A, called the "short form," may be used by individuals who (a) are citizens or residents of the United States, (b) had in 1943 $3,000 or less income, and (c) received all their income from salaries, wages, bonuses, commissions, or other forms of personal compensation, or from dividends, interest and annuities. In the case of husbands and wives filing separate returns, each must use the same form.

Collector Glenn also stated that notices have been mailed or will be mailed in the near future to all taxpayers who filed returns in this district for 1942, showing the amount of each individual's 1942 tax and the amounts paid on that tax. These are two additional figures which income taxpayers will need in the preparation of their returns for 1943. The notices should be sent back to the Collector along with the return.

Go to your bank and volunteer your subscription and not wait for someone to call on you. This would make the task of raising our quota so much easier. The chairman, precinct chairmen and workers are donating their services without hope of reward except to hasten the day of Victory. Do your part by subscribing liberally.

In addition to the usual Series E, F and G bonds, the treasury offers a 2¼ percent bond dated February 1st, due 1970 but callable in 1965; a 7-8 percent Certificate of Indebtedness dated February 1, due in one year; and Treasury Savings Notes, Series C, due in 3 years, to yield 1.07 percent if held to maturity, or may be used for tax purposes.

Total amount to be raised in the nation is $14,000,000,000.00

In past drives the County chairman has been provided with gasoline coupons to meet the requirements of workers when using an automobile. In this drive the OPA advises that each individual worker will have to make application direct to the county OPA office for gasoline to be used in soliciting bond subscriptions.

Let's all do our best to raise our quota.

Local Jersey Herd Has Fine Record For '43

The S. Whitehouse Dunlap Farm received from The American Jersey Cattle Club their "Herd Improvement Registry" certificate for the year ending October 31, 1943. The herd is on test and is re-entered for the third consecutive year.

With all the adversities the farmers in 1943 had to meet, this herd of fine registered Jerseys came through with a good performance.

The certificate shows there were twenty-two cows in the herd which gave 132,281 pounds of milk, and 6695 pounds fat. The herd averaged 14.10 cows in milk. Each cow averaged 8242 pounds of milk, 5.06 percent fat and 417 pounds of fat on twice a day milking.

There were nine cows that produced over 400 pounds of fat during a 305-day lactation.

TRAINING MEETING AT BURLINGTON

BY HOMEMAKERS—FIVE CLUBS REPRESENTED AT MEETING—"CLOTHING ACCESSORIES" IS MAJOR PROJECT IN JANUARY

Homemakers attending the clothing training class in Burlington were told that they could do most of their spring shopping at home in the clothes closet or wherever their unused clothing is kept. Clothing leaders studied "mending and patching" and handmade clothing accessories. Only five clubs were able to send representatives due to the bad weather.

The morning was devoted to a study of methods of mending and patching. Clothing leaders were pleased to learn how to reweave a patch on woven materials and in knitted garments.

Clothing accessories such as hats, purses, gloves and collars were displayed at the afternoon meeting. Leaders discovered that many accessories may be handmade from leftovers at home.

The lesson at the training class was given by Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent, assisted by leaders.

All local clubs in the county will have mending and clothing accessories for their major project in January.

Following are the clubs scheduling meeting for the remainder of the month:

Walton, Mrs. Carrie Rouse, Jan. 13th.

Rabbit Hash, Mrs. Vernon Stephens, January 17.

New Haven, January 18th.

Bullittsville, Miss Mattie Kreylich, January 20th.

Florence, Town Hall, Jan. 21.

Taylorsport, Mrs. Essie Goodridge, January 21st.

COMMERCIAL PRINTING GOES TO WAR

The war has made us realize for the first time the importance to the nation of many activities that are merely taken for granted in time of peace.

We forget how much we need the electric light company until something causes the lights to go out in our homes. Then public utility service becomes the most important thing in the world. Similarly, commercial printing has been regarded as a matter of course until now, when the War Production Board is curtailing the amount of paper that way be used in commercial printing. We are suddenly made to realize, in consequence, that such printing plays a major role in so many of our activities.

Our telephone directors are a product of commercial printing. Commercial printers turn out the tickets that we use when we go to the theatre. Stores inform us of the goods they have on sale, and send us their bills, on products of commercial printing. Retailers know of the goods they can buy, and where to buy them, only because they have catalogs, directories and direct mail literature sent them by jobbers and manufacturers. These are among the most important products of commercial printing.

Were it not for commercial printing, businesses all over the country would have to multiply their sales forces many-fold, to reach their customers and service them directly. This would be impossible as a practical matter, under present conditions of manpower and transportation shortages.

At the same time, commercial printers have organized to conserve the use of paper in commercial printing, wherever possible. All factors in the graphic arts industry have joined in applying a program which call for:

1. Getting the "most" out of each sheet of paper.
2. Using the lightest practical weights and more readily available papers.
3. Using smaller sizes or changing formats.
4. Reducing spoilage and waste and improving reclamation of waste paper.
5. Eliminating waste in inventories and distribution.

This conservation program, in which users of commercial printing must play a large part, will assure the nation the minimum amount of commercial printing required to carry on its essential activities, and yet reduce the tonnage of paper that will be used in process.

FLIRTING WITH ECONOMY

All these reports about slashing taxes, and pressure for Government economy are really serious. The Congress is taking the bit in its own teeth and seems determined to enforce a few economies in Federal spending.

Treasurer Morgenthau's reasons for continuing his fight for $10,500,000 tax bill seems to be based on the theory that the national income has expanded that much and he wants to "take it away from 'em" before the new-rich spend it carelessly.

Nevertheless, the Senate is likely to decide on about one-quarter of that amount and back up the House appropriation, already passed.

JESUS ANSWERS HIS CRITICS

LESSON TEXT—Mark 2:23-3:6.
GOLDEN TEXT—Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.—Matthew 5:11.

Criticism and opposition was the constant lot of our Lord as He gave Himself in His labor of love for mankind. It follows His disciples to this day, for men seem to have not only ingratitude, but an evil spirit which rewards kindness with hard words and unjust accusation.

The scribes and Pharisees had already found ground for their complaint, for He had eaten "with publicans and sinners" (2:16). The fact that He went there to win Matthew and to heal the sinsick (2:17) made no difference. Then they wanted to know why His disciples did not observe a fast (2:18) in the solemn way they should. How could they, when the Lord was in their midst? They were joyful.

In our lesson we find these hating, watching enemies of our Lord's showing their bitterness in two ways.

I. Open Accusation (2:23-28).

They got at Him this time through His beloved disciples. It was the indirect approach so often used by cowardly people who want to hurt someone, but who dare not face him squarely. They spread evil reports or unkind criticism about a loved one, and thus wound the one they hate.

Their accusation was, however, in a sense a direct one. They claimed that He was the one who had permitted His disciples to violate the Sabbath law by plucking and rubbing the ears of corn to prepare them to be eaten. In other words, He had allowed them to do a secular thing on a sacred day and thus to violate the holiness of the Sabbath. What they did was not wrong, but they did it on the wrong day, said these critics.

Jesus met the charge by reaffirming the high viewpoint of God concerning man. We have lowered our conception of man's position, while at the same time exalting his undependable judgment.

Everything that concerns man is sacred in the sight of God. Hunger is natural, God made man that way. He gets hungry on the Sabbath day, so he must have food on that day. The Sabbath was made to serve him, and he must not be harmed or hindered by his servant.

Now, someone will say: "That means I can do what I like on the Sabbath—or the Lord's Day." No, it does not. What you need is right. What you desire may not be. You are more than an animal, so you must have more than physical rest and recreation on Sunday. You are more than a mental being, hence you need more than culture—reading, music or friendship on that day. You are a spiritual being and must have fellowship with God.

See how nicely it all balances up when we go God's way. Then nothing that concerns us is common or secular. It is all sacred.

II. Silent Hatred (3:1-6).

Open criticism is bad, but it becomes worse when it is hidden in the heart of a watching man (v. 2), one who looks for his opportunity to strike.

The scene is a most dramatic one. Jesus came into the synagogue on the Sabbath day as was His custom. (By the way, is it your custom to go to church on Sunday?) "In that synagogue was a man with a withered hand. Here occurs one of those incidental things, which are so full of beauty in these narratives. Seeking to find accusation against Him, His enemies nevertheless all unconsciously paid Him a supreme compliment. They associated Him immediately, not with the chief seat of the synagogue, but with the most needy man in the crowd."

"They watched Him" (v. 2). The air was full of silent, malicious, cunning hatred. Jesus faced them with an alternative so high, so holy and exacting that they dared not speak. He pointed out that we either do good or harm, heal or kill, by our response to a human need. It cannot be ignored. What would they do with it? Keep their strict manmade regulations, or honor God by helping a needy one on the Sabbath? They dared not answer.

Then He healed the man. He did not touch him. He did not do any work, except a miraculous healing. But it was enough. The Herodians and the Pharisees, who hated each other, now became friends because they both hated Jesus.

What an awful picture of what may be in the human heart, even in the Lord's house on the day of worship. What was in your heart when you last went into the church? Love and a desire for the good of your neighbor, or hatred and malice?

Here again our Lord declared the dignity of man in the plan of God, and placed his need above the keeping of a day. We are too little interested in the help we can give, and too fearful of the criticism of others.

A LETTER

The following letter was received from Mrs. Carrie Graves Dove, a former Boone Countain, who now resides at 7267 Franklin Ave., Hollywood 46, Calif.:

"Dear Sir:

"I wonder who the editor really is and if I ever knew him—seems strange not to know.

"After spending yesterday with the Rileys of Pasedena and reading their Recorder, I made up my mind I would give myself a Christmas present I could enjoy all thru 1944.

"Yes, I am one of those Boone County folks that enjoy The Recorder more than Fulton Lewis, Jr. even if I do have to read the '30, 40, 50 years ago' page first.

"What is there about Kentucky that makes every one blow about being from there, even if they were only born and lived there the ten following days? Why my children's chest expansion increases a good ten inches every time anyone is careless enough to ask where they are from.

"Of course I read The Recorder and feel very decrepit when I find the "Judge Cropper" is really Carroll Cropper. Of course I knew he was wise enough, but it is alarming to find out he is old enough to be a judge—but I guess Judges and Colonels come younger in Kentucky than anywhere else.

"It makes me very proud to know the boys that I new, grew up to be the Christian [illegible]en to take their fathers' and gr[illegible]ndfatthers' places in County and [illegible]tate. You people that live back there take that for granted because it has always been that way, but if you lived in Hollywood the 'hand of the isms and spams' as your Mr. Campbell of Bullittsburg once so aptly put, you would realize that there are many, many more thoroughbred people than horses in Kentucky. Of course a husband gets shot once in a while, but most husbands need shooting?

"Isn't this just like a woman, start a 'please find enclosed' note and end with a 'Gone With The Wind' letter?

"But may I wish for all of you a Peaceful and Happy 1944?

"Sincerely
CARRIE GRAVES DOVE."

SMALL GROWERS URGED TO POOL SWEET POTATOES

Pooling of crops to make up carload lots of sweet potatoes, and sharing of curing and storage facilities were urged this week by the War Food Administration to help dispose of the bumper crop of sweet potatoes that threatens to swamp the market.

"To meet the requirements of the government's support price program, sweet potatoes must be delivered in carload lots, said Daniel K. Young, state supervisor of the Food Distribution Administration. "Growers who do not have a large enough crop for a full carload should make arrangements in advance with other arrangements to pool their potatoes to make a load."

Sweet potatoes must grade U. S. No. 1 and be packed in rigid containers, as well as loaded in cars, to get the support price of $1.15 per bushel this fall. The support price rises to $1.50 for cured potatoes in rigid containers in January, and $1.65 in February and thereafter through the season. Prices for U. S. No. 2 grade with 75 percent U. S. No. 1 quality will be 15 cents per bushel less than the price for U. S. No. 1. While prices are considerably above the support level now, if a large number of green sweet potatoes are marketed this fall, prices may drop considerably. In that case the growers may wish to take advantage of the government's guarantee, the FDA official pointed out.

"The obvious way for the grower to make more money on his crop is to cure and store the potatoes for winter or spring sale," Mr. Young said. "While a small grower may not have curing and storing facilities, and may not wish to rent space himself, growers can profitably share space in suitable buildings."

Growers were also warned to put in orders for rigid containers early because of the shortage of crates and hampers.

With a great deal of enthusiasm, the project of the day, "Making an Afghan" engaged the nimble fingers of the group.

TONIGHT AND FRIDAY

How a likeable young Japanese graduate of an American college is transformed into a ruthless militarist, with tragic consequences to himself and his family, is dramatically told in RKO Radio's new film, 'Behind the Rising Sun."

Based on James R. Young's book of the same name, which relates the newspaperman's 13 years' experience in Tokyo, the picture graphically reveals the secret schemes of the Japanese war lords and their reason for the sneak attack on Hawaii.

Margo, Tom Neal, J. Carrol Naish Robert Ryan and Gloria Holden head the cast of the picture, which was directed by Edward Dmytryk.

SATURDAY

Little Diana Hale, age seven, is a full-fledged motion picture actress. But like so many of her older colleagues, her personal financial status is strictly out of her control. In this case, it is Diana's mother who holds the purse-strings.

Diana plays the role of a problem child in Paramount's "The Good Fellows." In private life, Diana is a problem, too, and is kept on a strict financial basis. If she eats all of the food that is placed before her; Diana's mother gives here a penny a day.

• • •

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

George Hale, well known New York theatrical executive and producer, was engaged by Universal to stage the musical production number in Olsen and Johnson's new comedy, "Crazy House."

Hale, recently of the Versailles, famous Broadway nightclub, has been associated as dance director or producer with numerous stage success. He produced the recent Al Jolson show, "Hold On To Your Hats."

• • •

TUESDAY

Bob Willis, currently supplying the music with His Texas Playboys in Columbia's Russell Hayden western, "The Lone Prairie" at the Gayety, wasn't in Hollywood long before he went into business. Wills bought out a haberdashery store in the ghost town of Forestville and is now making a tidy sum renting the riding accoutrements to Coast studios.

Also

In addition to becoming America's outstanding quartette, the Mills Brothers have attained great success in three tours of Europe, as well as in Australia and South America. These unusual singers are in "Rhythm Parade," the Monogram musical picture in which they are featured with Gale Storm, Robert Lowery, Margaret Dumont, the famous "N.T.G." and the Florentine Gardens Revue, and Ted Flo Rito's Orchestra.

• • •

WED., THUBSDAY & FRIDAY

Eve Arden, who made a hit in the Broadway musical comedy, "Let's Face It," has the same role in the Paramount film version which co-stars Bob Hope and Betty Hutton and which will be at the Gayety.

The talented Miss Arden will be seen as a mischevious, restless wife who suspects her husband of philandering and is determined to do something about it. What she does involves Bob Hope in some of his worst—and funniest—film troubles.

Others in the cast are Dona Drake, Cully Richards, ZaSu Pitts, Marjorie Weaver and Raymond Walburn. The film retains some of the original Cole Porter music that was written for the stage version, all top tunes.

"Ships are essential to Victory, and we shall continue our job of building them at record pace in 1944." — E. G. GRACE, president, Bethlehem Steel Company

Bethlehem in '43 built 380 fighting and cargo ships.

Value of the year's program equivalent to 1,000 Liberty ships.

★ ★ ★

"A SHIP A DAY," with a number to spare, was the record production delivered by Bethlehem in 1943 to the United States Navy, the British Navy and the U. S. Maritime Commission. This program was the greatest in magnitude and diversity ever accomplished by a private builder in the world's history. It marked the fulfillment of a promise made by Bethlehem a year ago to build in 1943 an average of "a ship a day" of major fighting and cargo craft.

The list of ships includes aircraft carriers, cruisers, destroyers, virtually every type of fighting craft, as well as a large number of Liberty ships and other cargo vessels. In addition, Bethlehem ship repair yards converted, repaired, and serviced over 7,000 vessels, a vital contribution toward keeping the Allied fleets in fighting trim.

Measuring the program by Liberty ships, a battleship is equal to forty Liberty ships; and the value of the year's work in Bethlehem's shipbuilding division was the equivalent of over 1,000 Liberty ships.

Part of National Program — Bethlehem is permitted to publish these facts as part of our country's total program. Led by the U. S. Navy and the U. S. Maritime Commission, America's shipbuilding in 1943 has been a national triumph of production.

We salute our fellow shipbuilders and their distinguished records.

We thank our thousands of suppliers whose efforts have been essential to our contribution.

We congratulate the men and women in the Bethlehem organization, in shipyards, steel plants, factories, mines, and in every division, all of whom have had a part in this effort.

Harder Task Ahead — The year's work in Bethlehem's shipyards, steel mills and other departments has been done by 300,000 men and women. More will be needed. Already a larger shipbuilding task has been assigned to us for 1944. We shall undertake that job with the knowledge that it must be done, at maximum pace, to hasten the day of Victory.

★ 38 TYPES OF SHIPS ★

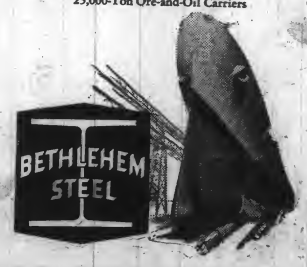
Program 70% Fighting Craft; 30% Cargo



Bethlehem's total wartime shipbuilding program includes approximately 1,000 fighting and cargo ships, 70% of the program being in fighting craft, and 30% in cargo. These are of 38 different types including the following:

TUBERCULOSIS ASSOCIATION THANKS BOONE CO. FRIENDS

I, as Executive Secretary of the Boone County Tuberculosis Association, wish to thank the good and civic-minded people of Boone County for purchasing Tuberculosis Christmas Seals. I also wish to thank the publishers of this paper who gave many, many lines of free space to promote the sale of the seals, and to the teachers and pupils who have worked untiringly to make the sale a success.

It seems that our goal will fall a little short, but even at that, Boone County people have purchased more Christmas Seals than any other time in history. We will give you a complete statement of the sale as soon as all the schools report.

Remember too, it is not too late to send in your dollars for seals.

Elders W. G. Kite and Tommie Stevens acted for the congregation, in this matter and following the Apostolic precedent imposed hands upon the two newly elected officers.

All the former officers being re-elected they were then duly charged with their Scriptural duties and obligations and inducted into office for the ensuing year. The officials for the year are, W. G. Kite, Tommie Stevens, and Jack Purdy, elders, serving 3, 2 and 1 year terms respectively; Allen Rogers, Elmer Jarrell, Harry Ashcraft, Dudley Rouse, and Wilbur Denniston, Deacons. BURLINGTON MAN FELT LIKE SWOLLEN BALLOON; FULL OF STOMACH GAS

Recently, a Burlington man stated that he used to feel like a swollen balloon after every meal. He would bloat full of gas and spit up acidulous liquids for hours after eating. Was terribly constipated. This man is one of the hundreds in this vicinity who now praise ERB-HELP. He states he was amazed at the results when he took this medicine. Now he eats what he wants without gas or bloating, and bowels are regular for the first time in years. He feels like a new man.

Welcome these Soldiers of Victory!

THE "shock troops" of your Government's 4th War Loan Drive—a drive that must raise $14 billion to put the punch behind the punch that may make 1944 the date of doom for the Nazis—will soon call on you to buy your personal quota of Bonds. For, of the $14 billion that must be raised in this Drive, $5.5 billion worth must come from individuals.

Welcome these American men and women—5 million of them—who are not only buying their share of Bonds but are giving their time to call on you, personally.

Every office, every plant, every home, every individual in America has a quota to meet. Your personal quota is at least one extra $100 Bond. That's above your regular Bond buying.

If possible, buy your extra Bonds during this drive at the plant or office where you work. A volunteer Bond worker will sell you there. Otherwise, welcome him to your home when he calls. Or find one in the thousands of retail stores all over the United States. They want to find you—you must help see that they do.

If you are unable to make your purchases from a soldier of victory be sure to go to one of these other special War Bond stations to buy your extra Bonds:

BANKS AND TRUST COMPANIES
U. S. POST OFFICES
SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS
BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS
BROKERAGE AND INVESTMENT FIRMS MOTION PICTURE THEATRES
CREDIT UNIONS
CERTAIN GOVERNMENT AGENCIES
NUMEROUS CORPORATIONS AND FIRMS FOR THEIR EMPLOYEES
PRODUCTION CREDIT ASSOCIATIONS
NATIONAL FARM LOAN ASSOCIATIONS
MISCELLANEOUS BOND BOOTHS
RADIO STATIONS
RETAIL STORES
NEWSPAPERS

Remember your job in this Drive is to buy more than your share of Bonds. That's the only way you can be certain you are still backing the attack. So be ready to meet your War Bond representative with an open check book.

"First Baptist Church
care Wallace E. Strader, Secretary
Burlington, Ky.

"Dear Friend and Brother:

"It is my request that you read this message to the people of our church:

A New Year's Message: Light Your Candles

"As the dawning year is fast approaching; in fact just a few days off, and since it is known by us all, that it will have been reached by many through blood and tears, my thoughts spring upward to a most high God, who through His infinite wisdom, knowledge, and mercy can and will do all things well. And who at a twinkling of the eye, cause all hostilities to cease; even unto the drama of life itself. It is henceforth my request and desire to make this plea to the praying public, that we may enter into the New Year upon bended knees, humble hearts, and willing minds, so as to act obediently to the Master's will throughout the ensuing year. As we see now and have known in ages past, that the superior men of all races and nations are depending and striving for peace through and by means of destruction of mankind. Though was as children of light know that a peace gained in this manner cannot and will not be a lasting peace. As we are told by His word: "That not by might nor by power, but by Spirit' sayeth the Lord. Therefore let us resolve to lift up voices, send up our petitions on and in the behalves of our fathers, sons, husbands and friends who are now serving somewhere. As we read of riots and clamorings in our own lands and among our people, it showers us with this thought: that we as Negroes have so many justifiable complaints that it is easy for us to stand around and curse the darkness. But remember the old Chinese proverb which states: 'It is far better to light one candle in the darkness, than to stand around and curse the darkness.' What we need even more than constructive criticism, is to have some one tell us how to light up the darkness. Of course we will not be able to wave a magic wand and bring into being an electric flood light, but we—each of us—can try to light our own little candles in the darkness; and we can be sure that if enough of these candles are lighted, there will be sufficient light to help us make our way gradually out of the darkness. The world is in outer darkness, but we are trying to bring light by the roaring of cannons, when it would be so easy to by faith and trust let God do the job for us, who in the beginning said: 'Let there be light' and there was light. No—we can not all shoulder a gun; but we all can send up our prayers to the One and only Master, Lord and Saviour of us all. As a New Year's resolution let us therefore resolve to pray as Daniel prayed who deemed it necessary to pray three times a day. I further resolve and request that the Secretary of this church send copies of this message to similar houses of prayer thruout the vicinity, that it may convey this thought, 'Though we are separated in person we are still united in Spirit.'

REJUVENATE.

Why Suffer With Your Feet?

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

Our years of research have proven that foot comfort depends on foot balance.

For years men have been guessing about foot balance, putting steel support under feet and elastic bands around feet, all sizes and shapes corn pads, plasters, callous plasters, etc. Yet people continue to suffer with their feet, legs, back and with various other aches and pains, resulting from feet in numerous cases, because they never had their body weight properly balanced on their feet with shoes.

Your feet may look regular to you, but, naturally you cannot detect weakness or have any way of testing for unbalance. But remember: 'Fat on the ribs" is by no means an adequate criterion of physical well being.

Don't take chances. If you are suffering with leg pains, knee pains, stiffness, backaches or severe headaches, or sleep poorly and are always tired, your feet may be the cause.—Adv.

LOCAL WORKERS HELP BETHLEHEM EXCEED SHIP-A-DAY PROMISE

300,000 men and women from all parts of the country are sharing the company's honors in having achieved the greatest shipbuilding record in history during the year 1943—380 fighting and cargo ships.

The government has permitted Bethlehem to reveal the fact that it exceeded in output its promise, which seemed fantastic when made at the beginning of 1943, that it would turn out a ship a day of major fighting and cargo craft.

The remarkable program carried out by Bethlehem included a 35,000-ton battleship, 27,000-ton aircraft carriers, 14,700-ton aircraft carriers, 13,000-ton heavy cruisers, 10,000-ton light cruisers, 6,000-ton light cruisers, 2,100-ton destroyers, 1,620-ton destroyers, destroyer escorts, tank landing craft, infantry landing craft, and many types of cargo ships including a large number of Liberty ships and Victory ships.

The value of the year's work was equivalent to over 1,000 Liberty ships and, in terms of man-hours, the company estimates the 1943 program was equivalent to the construction of 22 battleships. Approximately 70% of the ships built were fighting craft and 30% cargo vessels.

In addition to the amazing production record of new ships, Bethlehem yards also repaired, converted and serviced over 7,000 vessels, thus playin ga major role in keeping our fighting fleets in trim.

Approximately 300,000 men and women were employed by Bethlehem in its shipyards, steel mills and other divisions to accomplish this program. But because the company has set its sights still higher for 1944 it will be necessary to add still more to its present army of employees.

Food And Home Notes

Everyone knows about the "Food fights for freedom" campaign that was started in November. All are asked to produce to conserve, to share, and to play square, so that all will have enough. Each homemaker can do her bit by watching and saving in all phases of homemaking, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent.

Following are a few helpful hints given by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington:

Points For Fats

For every pound of leftover fats that you take to the retail meat dealer, you will receive in addition to the usual 4 cents, two brown points from ration book three. This means more brown points for the housewife and more glycerine for the war.

Kentucky's quota has been raised from 2,424,000 pounds in 1943 to 4,600,000 pounds in 1944. The collection at the present time is running approximately 60 per cent of the 1943 quota. The only way that Kentucky can possibly hope to make the new quota is for both town and farm homes to do their part.

Save Metal Jar Lids

Save all metal jar tops this winter. The War Food Administration advise houses. Especially worth saving are the small metal screw caps from coffee and other food jars, known as "size 63." Coffee jars on the market with paper caps can be used for canning with cap saved from other jars. In canning, the screw caps are put over metal discs which fit the top of the jar and have a rubber like compound on one side.

Care According to Container

Now that cooking fats, salad oils, coffee and other fatty foods are selling in glass instead of tin, they need to be kept in a place that is dark as well as cool to hold their good flavor. Specially colored glass is sometimes used to protect fats against rancidity, or clear glass jars are wrapped to shut out light. Foods in paper containers need to be carefully guarded against insects and moisture. Very often they will keep better if they are removed from the paper package and put in tightly covered tins or glass jars.

Popcorn

Popcorn loses its popping power if it becomes too dry. The steam that forms from moisture inside the kernel causes the popping. When popcorn does not pop well, put a tablespoon or two of water in a glass jar, fill the jar with the corn, shake it up and let stand a week or so. That will restore its popability.

Pressure Cookers Unrationed

Anyone who wants to buy a pressure cooker for home canning this year may do so without bothering to apply for a certificate from the local ration board, the War Food Administration has announced. Pressure cookers were officially removed from rationing to the last week of the old year, but only for use in food preservation.

Two sizes of pressure canners are on the market. The large size holds 14 glass quart jars, the small size 7 glass quart jars.

MAKING THE MOST OF YOUR LIGHTING

Shade Bare Bulbs

Glare from bare bulbs wastes light by making the pupils of the eyes contract—like facing bright headlights at night. Bare bulbs are also wasteful where downward light is desired. Shades control and direct light for such purpose. Special shades and diffusing bowls are available at low cost for almost every type of lighting installation. We'll gladly help you select the proper equipment.

An Efficient Glare Chaser ... is this plastic screw-in adaptor unit. Easily installed, it screws into drop cords or single-socket fixtures like a light bulb. Only $1.65, complete with 150-watt bulb, it provides abundant, glareless light at low cost.

OUTLOOK FOR LIVE STOCK IN 1944

PREPARED UNDER THE DIRECTION OF THE CINCINNATI PRODUCERS, UNION STOCK YARDS.

The year 1943 closes with the second largest food supply produced in our nation's history. During the year the largest number of hogs ever grown in this country were produced and the second largest number of cattle, sheep and lambs were marketed. All of this totals nearly twenty-five billion pounds of meat which has fairly well met the demands for our people at home, our Armed Forces and Lend-Lease. This large meat supply and a record production of all other food was provided with less labor, shortages of equipment and fertilizer but with favorable weather conditions which play a big part.

The New Year faces us with somewhat less numbers and further less tonnage in all species of livestock. It is reasonably estimated by the Government that army purchases of meat will remain about the same as for the past year and that civilian use will likely be reduced about ten pounds per person. Livestock numbers are in excess of feed supplies. It is estimated that total animial feed is about 16% less than required to feed out all livestock on hand for market.

In the light of decreased production it seems apparent to the Producers Cooperative Association that the average consumption of meat will be reduced somewhere between ten and fifteen percent of our 1943 consumption. Even with this, however, with good distribution the average individual will have nearly as much meat as the average number of years in the past.

Cattle Outlook

The Producers Cooperative Association estimates that cattle production in the Cincinnati market area of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky will be some fifteen to twenty percent under the slaughter of last year. Many cattle were sold this past summer and fall because of the uncertain situation resulting in the industry from Government regulations, further numbers were decreased because of the severe drouth situation, the high price of feed as well as being unable to secure concentrates, and in part too, the high price of replacement cattle early in the season.

The average weight of most feed cattle has been considerably under similar classes in previous years. It is estimated that the total number of cattle on feed in the feedlots are under-normal and the number of general cattle on farms is not more than seventy-five percent of normal in the Cincinnati area.

Hog Situation

With hogs the uncertain situation due to regulations, with much confusion resulting, the numbers will be somewhat less than of the previous year. However, feeding conditions were excellent, the quality above average and the weight heavier than previous years. Opinions on hog production vary from ten to fifteen percent less in 1944 than 1943 production.

Many brood sows were marketed during the fall months. The majority of hog producers report cutting down the numbers of bred sows and gilts.

The general hog situation looks like a more active market early this year and a need for all the hogs that will be available for slaughter during the year. Indications point to full use of all hogs coming to the Cincinnati market. For two or three weeks in early December numbers exceeded demand. Labor in packing plants not being available cut down killing from to 20 to 30 percent of last year's volume. This is now improving and we believe that all future supplies will be readily cared for.

Sheep and Lambs

The most serious liquidation of any species of livestock comes with sheep and lambs. This started more than a year ago and continued throughout 1943. The year 1943 proved to be one of the worst lamb producing years in our experience; the quality of the lambs for the most part was very poor and returns to owners generally not satisfactory. This price situation coupled with the drouth, and the dissatisfaction of OPA regulations not caring for seasonal variations proved to bring about a heavier liquidation. It is estimated that liquidation of breeding ewes by various sections amount from fifteen to twenty-five percent of last year's numbers. This means much fewer numbers of lambs to market the coming summer and fall.

The Cincinnati Producers Cooperative Association continues to help livestock producers not only in their marketing operations but also in the management and feeding of livestock, in the improvement of their livestock and in securing feeder stock and replacement animals. All of these services tend to aid in the total meat production so essential in the War Effort.

VICTORY WASTE PAPER CAMPAIGN

OPENS IN COUNTY—EVERYONE URGED TO COOPERATE—CHAIRMEN NAMED FOR VARIOUS PRECINCTS.

Mrs. Alan Gaines, chairman of the waste paper campaign, urges every community in Boone County to help in holding the line on the paper shortage. The paper shortage can be overcome by salvaging it on the home front, Mrs. Gaines stated.

Newspapers should be tied in bundles about twelve inches thick, and all magazines, record books and old books should be tied in bundles. Brown corrogated cartons should be torn apart and flattened. Wrapping paper, all bags from small ones to the large sizes used for cement, lime and fertilizer, shoe boxes, old posters, etc., are wanted. Wastebasket paper and envelopes are the best grade made. Leave the paper sheets flat and stuff in cartons.

It is the hope of the War Production Board that all schools will accept a quota of five pounds per pupil each week. The schools will receive the money from the sale of the paper.

The War Production Board has guaranteed payment on all paper collected before the fifteenth of February.

Dates for collection and collection mechanics have been set up in many localities. Those whom you may call for further information and who are acting as chairmen are as follows: Burlington, Mrs. H. FARM LOAN ASS'N. HOLDS MEETING

FINANCIAL REPORT SHOWS STRONG CONDITION WITH RESERVE OF $12,400—ASSOCIATION $600,000.00 IN LOANS.

The annual meeting of the Boone County National Farm Loan Association was held at the courthouse in Burlington, Tuesday of this week. E. A. Martin and William Hill were re-elected directors for a three-year term. Other hold-over directors were Thomas Hensley, Karl Rouse and A. G. McMullen.

During the past year B. E. Aylor paid his loan and was no longer eligible to serve as a director. Ira M. Tanner sold his farm and not being eligible to serve as a director; A. G. McMullen was appointed to fill out Mr. Tanner's unexpired term of office, expiring in 1946, and the members voted to approve this appointment.

Following the meeting the directors held an organization meeting and elected E. A. Martin, president; Thomas Hensley, vice president, and A. B. Renaker, secretary treasurer. E. A. Martin was appointed by the board as Investigator for the Loan Committee. The loan committee is composed of E. A. Martin, Thomas Hensley and A. G. McMullen. Alternate members are Karl Rouse and William Hill.

The financial report of the association showed a strong, healthy condition with over $12,400.00 reserve to take care of any losses, should any occur.

The officers do not know of any possible loss on any loan on the books and but five recent delinquencies, which will be paid in this month from tobacco sales.

Over $100,000.00 Federal Land Bank and Commissioner loans have been paid during the past year.

S. Beverly Davis and Mr. Wade from the Federal Land Bank were present and explained a plan for consolidating this association with the associations of Kenton, Campbell, Grant and Owen counties, with a central office to be located at Williamstown. The members unanimously voted against such a proposal.

Judge John L. Vest was present and made a talk advising that he did not think a consolidation would be any benefit to the Boone County Association.

The association has over $600,000 loans on its book as of December 31, 1943.

FORMER BOONE COUNTIAN DEAD

ROY G. RUCKEL, FORMERLY OF HEBRON, REPORTED AS DEAD BY NAVY DEPARTMENT—HAD BEEN MISSING FOR YEAR.

Notification that their son, Seaman Second Class Roy Glenn Ruckel, is now listed as dead after having been missing for more than a year, was received from the Navy Department by the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ruckel, 311 West Market St., Crawfordsville, Ind.

Two letters, one from Secretary Frank Knox and the other from Commander A. C. Jacobs, head of the Casualties and Allotments sections, were received by Mr. and Mrs. Ruckel.

The young sailor, who was 19 years old at the time of his enlistment on Aug. 8, 1942, had been missing since Dec. 13, 1942, according to the letters received.

He was a member of the armed guard crew of a merchant vessel which disappeared without a trace on that date. According to the message from Comm. Jacobs, no distress signals from the ship were heard; no wreckage was found and no member of the crew was ever heard from.

It is presumed that the ship was sunk by an enemy submarine off the east coast of the United States as the last message the parents received from him was a letter sent from Brooklyn, N. Y., and which was dated Dec. 5, 1942.

The original notification that the sailor was missing was received by the parents on Jan. 15, 1943, just a year ago.

Sec. Knox, in his message to the parents, said: "I extend to you my sincere sympathy in your great bereavement and hope you can find comfort in the knowledge that your son gave his life for his country. The Navy shares in your sense of bereavement and feels the loss of his service."

Ruckel was a former resident of the Hebron community.

FARMERS PLAN BETTER PROGRAM

FOR '44 ACCORDING TO COUNTY AGENT—IMPROVED METHODS WILL GREATLY AID IN INCREASED PRODUCTION.

Leading farmers meeting in community meetings are planning to carry out better production practices in 1944, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Meetings the past week were held in Hebron, Verona, Hamilton and Grant communities. Meetings during the next ten days will be held in Florence, Walton, New Haven, Petersburg, Constance and Burlington communities.

Better farm practices planned for 1944 todate include greater use of cover crop and permanent pastures, improved quality of hay crops, use of higher yielding hybrid seed corn, more economical feeding of dairy cows, parasite control in sheep, adjustment of hog and poultry numbers and healthy stock production, heavy uses of fertilizers to reach a goal of a ton of tobacco per acre, improved truck crops production and a more complete home food production program and the greater uses of farm labor saving equipment.

Hebron turned back the Burlington hoopsters Friday night on the home floor by a score of 40 to 20. Hebron led all the way with a 21 to 12 advantage at the halfway mark.

In a preliminary game the Hebron reserves down the Burlington second string men 32-2.

The Hebron Independent team defeated the Burlington five by a score of 42 to 30.

Walton will meet Burlington on the local floor Friday night of this week.

St. Henry high school hit the scoring packet Friday night when the team trounced New Haven 52-21 at the New Haven gym. In a preliminary game St. Henry's reserves won over New Haven 22-12.

New Haven took an early lead in the first five minutes of play holding a five-point lead, but the score was tied at the quarter 7-7. Fussing, star for St. Henry hit the hoop for 18 points in the last half, totaling 25 for the entire game.

INJURIES SUFFERED IN ACCIDENT MON.

CAR OF FLORENCE MAN SKIDS ON ICE, PLUNGES OVER EMBANKMENT—FLORENCE TRIO TREATED AT HOSPITAL.

Albert Riley, Lucille Worthington and Jo Worthington all of Florence suffered injuries Monday morning when their auto skidded on the Dixie Highway, near St. James Ave. in Kenton county, and plunged over an embankment for a 20-foot drop.

Albert Riley, the driver said the car began to skid on the slippery highway and that as he applied his brakes the auto swerved over the embankment on the left side of the road. The auto was badly damaged.

County patrolmen removed the trio to St. Elizabeth Hospital for treatment. Riley suffered cuts over the left eye. The Worthington girls suffered cuts on the legs. They were released after treatment.

Mr. Riley and his two passengers were enroute to work when the accident occurred about 8:00 a. m.

Good Attendance At Council Meeting

The advisory council of Boone County Homemaker clubs met in Burlington, Tuesday, January 11. County President, Mrs. Leo Flynn called the meeting to order, and gave an interesting review on the origin of our club collect, and a short sketch of its author. Mrs. Flynn advised all Homemaker clubs to use it and the pledge to the flag in their regular meetings. Minutes of last year's meeting were read and approved. Treasurer's report given and accepted. County chairmen responded to roll call with good reports on accomplished work, and excellent ideas for further advancement in club work.

Mrs. Alan Gaines was asked to introduce a gentleman representative of the War Production Board. He discussed the urgent need of paper by our government, and was here to interest Boone County folk in the waste paper drive being staged in our two neighboring counties. Mrs. Alan Gaines was named county chairman for the drive. Mrs. Gaines asked each local club president and citizenship chairman serve on paper salvage committees.

Miss Lula Logan, assistant state leader of Home Demonstration Agents discussed the State Farm and Home meeting at Lexington on January 25-28 inc. Two county delegates were appointed, and Miss Logan hoped each club would send a delegate.

Miss Mary Hood Gillaspie discussed some important amendments to the Federation Constitution to be dealt with at the State meeting.

Clipping Received From Local Boy In England

George Powers, formerly of Verona, now stationed with the U. S. Army in England sent the following clipping concerning the trial of Joan Kiger, and taken from a paper in England:

"Burlington, (Kentucky)—Wednesday.—Jo Annkiger, the 16-year-old schoolgirl who told how she had shot her father and brother in a nightmare, was acquitted of a charge of murder here to-day. Her mother was also acquitted on a similar charge by the jury of 12 farmers.—B.U.P."

CHAIRMEN HOLD BOND MEETING

WAYS AND MEANS DISCUSSED FOR RAISING BOONE COUNTY'S QUOTA—MORE INTEREST URGED BY LEADERS.

A meeting of precinct chairmen of the War Finance Committee in connection with the Fourth War Loan Drive was held at the court house last Thursday night. Only eight of the twelve chairmen responded to the call for this meeting. Those present discussed ways and means for raising Boone County's quota of $500,000.00 and it was felt that more interest must be given toward the war effort by everyone in these drives. This country is practically the only country in the war that has not suffered from bombs being dropped on our homes and which has not suffered by women and children being wounded, torn and bleeding.

The high prices for tobacco now being marketed and the high wages being paid the factory worker is because of those young soldiers bleeding and dying on the battle fields of foreign countries. Can you look a soldier in the face when he returns knowing that you have been spared hardships of war and been permitted to remain at home making money while he was suffering the torments of Hell for you without knowing that you have gone the limit in purchasing War Bonds in this Fourth War Loan Bond Drive now in progress.

Wake up Boone County citizens, there is a war going on! Get behind this Fourth War Bond Drive. Don't purchase a small bond and think you have done your duty—you have only done your duty when you buy to your very limit.

Go to your bank at once and make your subscription. The coupon bond purchased before February 1st will not carry any accrued interest to be paid. After that date you must pay accrued interest. It is to your interest to subscribe before February 1st, however, the drive does not close until February 15th.

Let's haye a good report for our County papers next week.

A. D. Yelton is again serving as Co-Chairman with Mr. Renaker, and has charge of publicity and other details of the drive.

Due to a typographical error in last week's bond article we are reprinting a list of bonds being offered. The list follows: In addition to the usual Series E, F, and G bonds, the Treasury offers a 2¼ percent bond dated February 1st, due in 1959 but callable in 1956; a 2½ percent bond dated February 1st, due 1970 but callable in 1965; a 7-8 percent Certificate of Indebtedness dated February 1st, due in one year; and Treasury Savings notes, Series C, due in 3 years, to yield 1.07 percent if held to maturity, or may be used for tax purposes.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ryle and family and Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Akin and daughter were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Earl Easton and family, one night last week.

SOLDIERS WILL GET THE BALLOT

There has been a lot of discussion about the so-called soldier vote bill before Congress, the question being whether the Federal Government or the States should take charge of the program and arrange all the details.

The dispute has been enlivened by news from the battlefronts, all to the effect that men in the service expect to cast their ballots in the next Presidential election. Really, it doesn't make much difference whether the Federal Government or the States carry out the details. But, there seem to be distinct limitations on the amount of mailing matter that can be supplied to the men in the field and on the ships.

Apparently the responsibility rests upon Congress, and as the air clears of arguments and controversy it begins to look as though the practical way is for the Government to conduct the election. If the States can help, well and good.

The obligation rests upon the Home Front to supply the battle fronts with ballots as well as bullets. Methods and means to do it, will be worked out. That seems to be a settled fact.

A NATURAL REACTION

OPA officials in New York City should be nearly convinced that housewives have no desire to play detective. In reply to four thousand personal letters in quest of price checkers, the Manhattan War Price and Rationing Board managed to secure eleven women volunteers. Eleven out of four thousand is a pretty poor batting average. According to the OPA, a New York housewife simply does not want to be a "police woman."

Housewives have always had their own way of dealing with merchants who seek to exploit consumers. Their methods are effective. They just quit patronizing stores that arouse their ire. As a result, this country has perhaps the most efficient retail distribution system in the world. Housewives are satisfied that it is treating them fairly, and that retailers on the whole are doing the best job they can under difficult circumstances. Therefore, why make their task harder?

POWER TO DESTROY

Federal income taxes have increased 700 percent since Pearl Harbor, says Paul Mallon, with the brunt of the burden falling on already overtaxed sources of revenue. Taxes have now reached the point where it is no longer likely that extensive new industries will develop from accumulated savings. Neither the money nor the incentive is left for such purposes after the tax bills are paid.

The gravity of the tax situation brings the American people face to face with a serious choice. As Harley L. Lutz, eminent authority on tax matters, observes: "Concretely and in terms of an historical parallel, it is the choice between the Ford fortune and the Ford automobile. If they (the people) should decide that there shall be no more fortunes, they will also thereby decide that there shall be no commodities of mass comfort and enjoyment other than those now known. A few large fortunes would appear to be a small price to pay to gain the full benefit for all of the creative and productive capacity which can be stimulated most effectively and most certainly by allowing those who succeed to keep the fruits of their success."

Fifteen state legislatures have resolved for a constitutional amendment limiting Federal income taxes in peacetime to 25 per cent. The instinct of self preservation should stimulate other states to similar action. Unrestricted Federal taxing power in the hands of a strong central government has become a menace to the sovereignty of the states, as well as to the freedom of the individual.

COLLEGE PUBLISHES HOME FOOD LEAFLETS

"If you grow your own food you can have all you want of what you need for health and vigor, at small cost." So declare specialists at the Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics in a leaflet called "Grow Your Own Food."

Another leaflet of interest just at this time is called "Your Vegetable Garden." It tells what to plant, how to plant it, and how to take care of it.

Still a third leaflet of interest just at this time is, "Keep Chickens and Eggs for Home Use." It tells how to have a small flock that will supply all the eggs a family can use.

These leaflets may be had free of charge at offices of county agents or home demonstration agents or by writing to the college at Lexington.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL
SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

JESUS TEACHES IN PARABLES

LESSON TEXT—Mark 4:1-9, 26-32.
GOLDEN TEXT—If any man hath ears to hear, let him hear.—Mark 4:23.

Parables were often used by our Lord, particularly when He had truth to reveal which was not for unbelieving heart, that had hardened themselves against it (see Matt. 13:10-16).

The method is that of telling an earthly story, true to life (hence, not a fable), which is placed alongside of the spiritual truth it is designed to teach. It thus differs from an allegory, which gives the meaning with the story (see John 15:1-6).

Jesus used parables in our lesson to teach the truth that the good seed of the Word of God will be received in various ways and will bring forth widely differing results. He—the Lord—was the Sower, and the field was the world (Matt. 13:37, 38).

We note first that in that field there were and are—

I. Four Kinds of Soil (Mark 4:1-9).

The reception of the seed is determined by the condition of the soil. The great field was essentially of one kind of soil, but it had become widely different in its ability to take in the seed and bear fruit.

The interpretation of this parable is given by our Lord in the verses immediately following (vv. 3-20). It has striking application to our day.

A road, or beaten pathway, was a common thing in the fields of Palestine. On such hard soil a seed found no place to grow, and the birds carried it away. Such is the condition of a man who permits the heavy and sinful traffic of this world to harden his heart against spiritual truth. If our heart has reached that stage we should ask God to break it up. The birds (always a symbol of evil in the Bible are Satan and his emissaries. They are always busy about carrying away the Word of God when it is truly preached.

The rocky soil was a thin layer of good soil on a rock ledge. At first this caused rapid growth, but without deep roots it could not survive the heat of summer. This is the one who enthusiastically responds to the gospel appeal, but living without real conviction and repentance, he has no stability when persecution comes.

The thorny ground—where the growing grain was choked by weeds—typifies the professed believer who lives in worldliness. The friend of the world is God's enemy (James 4:4). Note the things which destroy spiritual life (v. 19), and shun them. In the good ground—open to receive and ready to yield itself for the growth of the seed—there is abundant harvest. Even here there is a difference in the amount of fruit. Why not be a "hundredfold" believer?

Changing the picture a little our Lord now speaks of—

II. Normal Growth and a Good Harvest (4:26-29).

This parable, found only in Mark, has a lesson for the sower. He is not to expect the harvest immediately after the time of sowing. There is a period of patient waiting while God is producing the growth (and only He can do it!)—then the joy of harvest.

There are many lessons to learn here. We who serve the Lord in teaching or preaching the Word are too impatient, too eager to be able to announce results. God is always willing that things should mature naturally and in due season. Let us wait for Him and be at rest in our spirits (v. 27).

Then let us be glad as the seed begins to show signs of maturing, but let us not be slow to gather the harvest when it is ready. Some forget to gather the spiritual fruit of their labors, possibly having long since lost patience and interest.

We should also be encouraged by this parable to continue sowing the seed, knowing that it will find place in the hearts of some and bring forth fruit unto eternal life.

Next we are warned to be on our guard against accepting or approving—

III. Abnormal Growth and an Evil Harvest (4:30-32).

The mustard is an herb, not a tree; hence this parable gave warning that there would be an overgrown religious system calling itself Christian. The birds are (as in the parable of the kinds of soil) evil men, or "isms," or organizations eager to take shelter in a religious system without spiritual power.

The church had such an abnormal growth when Constantine espoused Christianity as a political move, mixed it with paganism, and elevated it to a position of worldly power.

All this was and still is contrary to God's plan for the church. He wanted a spiritual body distinguished by lowliness, meekness and service. These are the things that mark the true Christian spirit. The marks of true Christianity are always those of likeness to Him who said: "I am meek and lowly in heart," who came "not to be ministered unto but to minister."

Outlines Practices That Make Possible 20% Increase In Food

The United States has 358 million acres of suitable cropland now in use, from which the U. S. Soil Conservation Service estimates it is possible to get an average of 20 percent increase in food production almost immediately by the use of standard conservation practices. This average increase has been recorded on thousands of farms under conservation plans.

Land in the United States is divided on the basis of its ability for sustained agricultural production into eight classes. The classes range from highly productive, non-erodible areas to wasteland, and the first four classes constitute our cropland. These four classes and the type of conservation practices that might need to be applied to them to bring about this increase in food production are:

Class I Land

Class I land (50 million acres) is the most desirable cropland and will produce moderately high to high yields, the Soil Conservation Service has found. It is easily worked, nearly level, subject to very little erosion, free from overflows, well-drained and required no special management practices. Ordinary good farming practices are required, such as replenishment of nutrient elements removed by crops and lost by leaching, tillage practices to maintain good soil structure, crop rotations to control diseases or pests, or green manure crops to replenish organic matter. All of these practices are well known, and any or all are commonly required to maintain production of even the best cropland.

Class II Land

Class II land (123 million acres) is suitable for cultivation with easily applied practices of erosion control, water conservation, drainage, and irrigation. Crop yields due to low fertility can be improved by addition of fertilizers or lime. Erosion-control and moisture-conserving practices most commonly needed on this type of land are contour tillage, strip cropping, cover crops, crop rotations that include grasses or legumes, rough tillage, stubble mulch, and basin listing.

Class III Land

Class III land (140 million acres) is suitable for permanent cultivation with intensive management practices. It may require water conservation, drainage irrigation and correction of low fertility by addition of fertilizer or lime. Frequently a combination of practices, and always a higher degree of management skill, is required to maintain satisfactory production on class III land than on classes I or II. If class III soil is on slopes so steep that erosion control is imperative, it may need long crop rotations, diversion ditches, waterways, contour tillage, cover crops, stubble mulch, rough tillafie, or basin tillage—usually several of these on the same field. Needed drainage or irrigation systems are likely to be more difficult to install than on class II land.

Class IV Land

Class IV land (45 million acres) is suitable for only occasional or limited cultivation. It may be steeper, more severely eroded, more susceptible to erosion, more difficult to drain or irrigate, less fertile, more open and porous than class III land. It is not good for row crops, and is best used for permanent vegetation such as grass or hay. In humid regions much class IV land may be cultivated occasionally by growing a grain crop every five or six years, followed by several years of hay or pasture. If it is in trees at present it should be left in trees unless needed for pasture. Although some of this class IV land is nearly level it cannot be drained sufficiently well for use in growing intertilled crops. In semi-arid regions, some class IV land can be used for growing feed crops, provided only a small acreage is cultivated in one place and surrounding land is left in grass. Class IV land in dry country is generally not suitable for production of wheat.

A BADGE OF HONOR FOR PATRIOTIC AMERICANS

Display it proudly--do your part in the FOURTH WAR LOAN

This is 1944 — year of decision.

Millions of your fellow Americans are poised for all-out attack on Fortress Europe. They are prepared to sacrifice everything — even life itself — to deliver a knockout blow.

But guts alone won't do the job. It'll take mountains of munitions and supplies which must be kept coming in a never-ending stream. What has been used up to now is only a trickle compared to what will be needed when the Big Push begins.

And that's where you come in. You can do your part by buying extra War Bonds during the Fourth War Loan. Not with your spare change. Not by spending what's left over after indulging your fancy. But by digging down deep . . . by doing without things . . . by sacrificing with the same selfless devotion to duty that is being shown by our boys over there.

The Fourth War Loan begins January 18. Buy at least one extra $100 War Bond as your personal contribution to Victory.

Let's All BACK THE ATTACK!

COMMITTEES OUTLINE COUNTY WAR PROGRAM

Five committees planned a wartime farm program for Madison county, Kentucky, and placed their recommendations in the hands of County Agent J. L. Miller. Here are some of their suggestions.

Keeping the number of burley tobacco plants under 9,000 to the acre will save labor but will not reduce yield or quality. Plants should be spaced 12 to 21 inches in rows 3 feet 3 inches to 3 feet 6 inches apart.

Use more fertilizer on about all crops, especially on tobacco. Spray tobacco plant beds with the bluestone-lime solution to help control diseases.

Grow disease-resistant varieties of tobacco, hybrid corn, balbo rye and other improved grains, and alfalfa.

Produce hogs in line with feed grown in the county. Raise two litters a year on clean ground. Vaccinate against cholera. Provide pasture, minerals and balanced rations.

To cattle, feed less grain and more hay and pasture. Grow balbo rye and barley for grazing. Control the heel fly.

Use the new phenothiazine treatment to control sheep parasites. Feed grain to standardized lambs. Produce 200 to 250 pounds of hay for each ewe.

Buy baby chicks as close home as possible and from good hatcheries. Select a good laying strain; hatch in March for early fall eggs; raise chicks on clean ground; sell roosters when hatching season is over; cull flocks and feed well.

FLORENCE HOMEMAKERS

The Florence Homemakers will hold their next meeting at the Town Hall on Friday, January 21 at 10:30 a. m. Please answer roll call with your 1944 New Year's resolution.

FOUR REAL ESTATE DEALS COMPLETED

THREE FARMS AND ONE PIECE OF TOWN PROPERTY CHANGE HANDS DURING PAST FEW DAYS.

Mrs. Chester Tanner sold her farm of 107 acres located on the hill east of Limaburg to Rollie and Cartney Kenton last week. The improvements consist of two dwellings, two large barns and other outbuilding. The land is very productive and has been in Mrs. Tanner's family many years. The Kentons had sold their farm of 345 acres out on the East Bend Road several weeks ago to Mrs. Edna Doan of Covington. but formerly of Harrison County. It will be recalled that the Kenton family moved from Bourbon County to this county two or three years ago when they purchased the farm where they now reside, and we are glad to learn that they will continue to reside in Boone County.

Willaim Wahl sold his farm of 40 acres one mile east of Hebron on Highway 20 to Alfred Dolwick of Constance last week and will give possession March 1st. This farm has been in the Wahl family more than fifty years.

Mrs. Louisa B. White sold her farm of 98 acres 1½ miles out on the Burlington-Belleview highway last week to Jesse J. Vastine of Covington. Mr. Vastine is a close friend of Mr. W. A. McLoney, who owns the farm known as the Sam Hall farm on which there is a log house. The White farm has been idle for the past 17 or 18 years and the buildings need repairing. Mr. Vastine plans to clean up the land and repair the buildings and make it his home later on.

Mrs. Blanche Beemon sold her house and lot in Petersburg to Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Rector a few days ago, where Mrs. Beemon's father and mother lived until their death, and was formerly the home of James Thompson and family. Mr. and Mrs. Rector and daughter have rented their farm to a tenant and will move to Petersburg as soon as they can make some needed repairs to the house.

All of the above sales were negotiated through the real estate agency of A. B. Renaker and J. G. Smith.

4-H CLUB LEADERS SERVE MANY YEARS

Unusual records of men and women who have served as leaders of 4-H clubs over a period of years is reported by Farm Agent J. T. Cochran of Gallatin county. Miss Mary Turley of the Napoleon Club has served for 17 years, while Mrs. J. W. Groves of the Drury Chapel Club and Mrs. Margaret Gardt of the Warsaw Club have served nine years. In the Steeles Creek Club, Mrs. Sile Ryde has been a club leader for eight years, Jack Perry, nine, Mrs. R. W. Ewbank, five, Mrs. William Perry, 11, and Jasper Seaver, nine years. Ten other leaders have served from two to four years.

Gallatin club members last year helped in wartime production of hogs, sheep, poultry, hybrid corn and tobacco. Members of girls' clubs conserved food by gardening and canning; they also carried a clothing project.

Genealogist Seeks Heir To $12,000 Estate

Chicago, Ill., Jan 20—A $12,000 estate to which he will be the sole known heir if found, is hunting for Robert von Gundy, 64, who walked away from his father's funeral in Covington, Ky., in July, 1910, and was never heard from again.

This was revealed here today when Walter C. Cox, probate genealogist, 208 S. LaSalle St., took over the direction of the search, on behalf of the estate, at the request of attorneys. Mr. Cox, who specializes in tracing family trees and missing relatives to settle estates, said that the whereabouts of von Gundy appears to be a "perfect mystery."

"There is, of course, the possibility that he may have since died, and if so his children, if any, would be claimants to the fortune," Mr. Cox said. "While it is said that he 'had a girl' when he dropped out of sight, it is not known if he ever married.

"Robert von Gundy was the son of Jacob and Stella von Gundy, nee Baird, who were, as far as we can learn, born in Covington and married in that city August 15, 1878, where Jacob also had a sister, or second wife, named Clementine, who died in 1911.

"Robert was born in 1879, when he was 13 years old, his father took him to Louisville where the latter reportedly worked for the street car company until about 1909, when the two returned to Covington, and Jacob and Robert von Gundy are found listed in the 1910 Covington city directory as living at 614 Washington St., and giving their occupations as traveling salesmen. Because the father died on July 26, 1910, and other information, there seems to be some grounds for the belief that the Jacob von Gundy listed in the Washington St. address was Jacob, Jr., a brother of Robert.

"Robert is known to have attended his father's funeral because he is shown by records of H. Linnemann & Moore, now Henry Linnemann & Sons, who conducted it, to have rented a conveyance. When the funeral was over, Robert was seen leaving town, to be heard from no more, insofaras we can learn.

"What became of Robert's mother, is unknown, except for reports that she died in Cincinnati, but no vital statistics record of this has been found. Robert is known to have had two other brothers, Thomas, who died in 1885, and Fenton, who died in 1888. Reports of a third brother, Jacob, Jr., are not definite and may be erroneous."

BOWEL CLEANING POWER OF ERB-HELP MEDICINE

One man recently took ERB-HELP three days and said afterward that he never would have believed his body contained so much filthy substance. He says his stomach, intestines, bowels and whole system were so thoroughly cleansed that his constant headaches came to an end, several pimply skin eruptions on his face dried up overnight, and even the rheumatic pains in his knee disappeared. At present he is an altogether different man, feeling fine in every way.

ERB-HELP contains 12 Great Herbs; they cleanse bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish liver and kidneys. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get ERB-HELP. Dahlenburg's Drug Store, Erlanger.

Selective Service Changes

Occupational deferments generally will be denied 18 to 22-year-old registrants other than those in agriculture, fathers and non-fathers alike, unless they are engaged in activities in which deferment is specifically authorized, according to Selective Service. Furthermore, all registrants will be given pre-induction physical examination at least 21 days before being inducted. Therefore, the period of three weeks in the enlisted reserve now granted by the army and the one-week period granted by the navy will be eliminated. These changes become effective February 1.

Social Security For Farmers

Social insurance for farm operators, farm workers, business and professional men, household workers, and employees of governmental and non-profit organizations was recommended by the Social Security Board in its eighth annual report. The Board urged inclusion of these groups in an expanded social security program which would include insurance against costs of medical and hospital care without disturbing the present principle of free choice in selection of physicians or hospitals. The Board recommended that a comprehensive social insurance system should be set up now while earnings are "at record levels" in order to have it in full operation for the postwar period.

To Stabilize Ration Buying Power

Under the new ration token plan effective February 27, the housewife will be able to buy about the same amount of rationed processed foods and meats-fats as she can now. Point values will be adjusted so the individual's allotment of 60 points for buying meats and fats will buy the same amount as the present allotment of approximately 64 points. Similarly, under the token plan the 50-point allotment for processed foods will buy an amount equal to the present 48-point allotment.

Pre-War Baby Carriages Back

Pre-war model baby carriages, strollers, walkers, and pushcarts will re-appear on the market in about six weeks, according to WPB. Greater availability of steel makes possible the production of these pre-war models.

Asks Farmers' Help In Woods

To mobilize farmers on farm woodlands and for work in forest industries, the War Production Board, War Food Administration, and War Manpower Commission have combined forces. Farmers and farm workers are asked to devote their spare time, particularly during the slack winter-spring period, to work in the woods and wood industries. Production of 14 million cords of domestic pulpwood will be necessary in 1944 to supply the needs of our armed forces overseas and meet essential home front ware requirements, according to WPB's paper division. Farmers have nearly 139 million acres of farm woods which annually produce about one-third of all forest products and 38 per cent of the country's pulpwood.

More Food For School Lunches

America's school children have been assured by the Office of Price Administration more generous amounts of food for lunchroom and cafeteria meals under a new plan for providing rationed foods to schools. The new allotments were worked out by OPA in close cooperation with school lunch and nutrition experts of the Food Distribution Administration. The Government school lunch program, which went into effect one year ago, is a wartime measure to make sure that school children will have a well-planned and nutritionally appropriate noon meal.

Advice For Soldiers Overseas

When writing to soldiers overseas, particularly those in the tropics, home folks may help contribute to their health, says the War Department, by reminding those overseas men of the necessity of following the advice of their medical officers.

Tractor Production Up

Production of wheeled tractors in December was the largest for any month in two years—in excess of 20,000 as compared with 4,200 in December, 1942. However, according to the WPB, the curernt rate of production must be maintained in order to meet the tractor quota of 209,000 for the 12 months that will end June 30. This will not be easy because many of the parts needed for tractor production are also used in landing craft, now in urgent demand by the armed services.

He attended Simon Kenton High School at Independence, Ky., graduating in the class of 1938, and then attended the Covington Commercial College in Covington, Ky., before entering the employ of F. W. Woolworth in Covington.

Clyde E. King, "Barbel" Detail Box 61, U. S. Submarine Base, New London, Conn., writes:

"I have just finished reading the paper I received today. Since I have written to you last, I have been transferred to brand new submarine that is just about completed here at the Electric Boat Co. at New London, Conn. It's name is "Barbel" and will be commissioned March 16, 1944.

"I have been receiving your paper for quite a few months now and we will be sent to a Submarine base in the Southwest Pacific soon! I will send sufficient funds so that I may still receive this paper over there.

"As you probably already know, the patrols that we make are long and tiresome. During a three-month patrol, a fellow could read everything and of course, he would like to have something that he knows. We don't get any mail while we are out on patrol, so we really have piles of letters waiting for us!

"I am expecting to be home on leave before the first of March as the Captain of our submarine is trying to give the entire crew leave before leaving port. So I will stop in personally and thank you again for sending the paper."

Ed Note—Clyde, there will be no charge for your paper, regardless of where you may be stationed—it will follow you there, without cost.

HOMEMAKERS MARKET DOES BIG BUSINESS

A farm women's market in Barren county brought $4,858 to its five contributors in 1943, an increase of $2,173 over the preceding year. Largest sale days were in May and December, when $232.69 and $480.65 respectively were taken in.

A total of approximately $1,100 was made by Mrs. Clem Davidson, who used her earnings to pay the high school expenses and music lessons of her daughter, and to buy war bonds. Mrs. Elwin Bordon reported to the home agent that she purchased an electric brooder and 200 chickens, and did a considerable amount of home decoration besides other expenditures. War bonds, church dues and furniture were some of the uses to which Mrs. Shelby Riherd put her earnings. All of the women agreed that besides being remunerative the work was enjoyable.

PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE

The nail, like the hair, is a specialized epidermal structure. It is composed of two layers, the mucous or the soft layers, and the horny which constitues the nail proper. The nail bed is the tissue covered by the nail. The posterior end of this is the matrix from which the nail grows. The exposed portion of the nail is termed the body and the posterior portion embedded in the groove is the root. Accidental white spots on the nail are due to the presence of air between the lamellae.

Ingrown nails is a condition in which the free edge of a nail has penetrated through the skin layers and become imbedded in the soft parts of the toe.

In 98% of the cases shoes are the cause. How often have you put shoes on in a store (that knows nothing about feet) that are long enough when you are sitting down, and the minute you stand up they are short. It is an absolute impossibility to fit feet unless you can control feet with the shoes you are being fitted in. This is important. The foot must be locked at the arch so as to hold the foot back against the heel so that the shoe that gives you ¼ of an inch clearance when selling does not get short when you stand up.

SOIL EROSION

Hillside planted to alfalfa alone. Grass should be planted with alfalfa to prevent erosion.

Soil erosion continues, even with the greatest of care. We have often thought that our soil erosion problems were over when we sowed our fields to alfalfa or grass. The above field was sown to alfalfa alone and note the severe gullying.

It is a good practice when sowing alfalfa or any other grasses to sow a mixture of legumes and perennial grasses, i. e., alfalfa and orchard grass, alfalfa and timothy or bluegrass. One of the best combinations is alfalfa and orchard grass. One of the best ways to get a bluegrass sod is to sow bluegrass with alfalfa. Of course, alfalfa will not grow if the land isn't sweet. Lime and phosphate are very essential.

The effectiveness of grass in preventing erosion is shown by an experiment carried on at the Missouri Experiment station over a fourteen-year period. The field had a 3.68 foot fall per 100 feet. From data compiled it would take 3043 years for the soil to erode, 7 inches where a bluegrass sod was established, but only 50 years if cultivated to continuous corn. In other words corn ground will erode or wash away 60 times faster than sod land. Taking into consideration (1) the labor involved to plow, cultivate and harvest a corn crop; (2) the cost of restablishing a sod; (3) the greater amount of soil lost by erosion; (4) the actual value of corn harvested compared to the grazing value or hay crop; (5) also corn is more apt to be sold as corn or in animals than grass or hay. Can we afford to grow corn in Boone County?

For this week's problem, figure out what you would have to get per bushel for your corn that would justify you to plow up a good sod. Isn't it about time to cast aside the plow with the shovel and the hoe and pick up the mowing machine with the fiddle and the bow? More harmony.

In addition to their singing and famed impersonations, Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland dance their most extensive routines yet in M-G-M's filmization of the Gershwin Broadway hit of a few seasons ago, "Girl Crazy." Judy sings and dances the lovely melody, "Embraceable You," and teams with Mickey in the finale number to dance and sing "I Got Rhythm."

In addition Mickey does two novelty numbers, "Treat Me Right," with June Allyson, and "Can You Use Me?" with Judy. Tommy Dorsey and his band supply the musical background. Also in the cast are Nancy Walker, Gil Stratton, Robert E. Strickland, "Rags" Ragland, Frances Rafferty and Guy Kibbee.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

Edward G. Robinson, star of Columbia's "Destroyer," coming to the Gayety, should act like a dyed-in-the-wool Chief Boatswain's Mate in this new picture. His personal technical adviser, who spent some time putting him through the paces, was Chief Boatswain's Mate Joe Kavel, who has 23 years of Navy service to his credit.

He was Chief on the USS West Virginia when it went down at Pearl Harbor, and since then he has taken part in the naval attacks on Gilbert and Marshall Islands, Wake and Marcus Islands. Robinson patterned his characterization after Kavel.

627 Madison Avenue Covington CO. 1430

Early History Of Boone Co.

By A. M. Yealey

The writer has been requested to state in his articles the cost of a Negro slave prior to the Civil War. This would be a difficult task as the price of a slave varied according to the laws that were passed by the U. S. Government and also the State Government.

On February 3rd, 1849 the House of Representatives of Kentucky passed this resolution by a vote of 93 to 0: "Resolved. That we the Representatives of the people of Kentucky are opposed to abolition or emancipation of slavery in any form or shape, whatsoever, except as now provided for by the Constitution and By-Laws of the State."

Previous to 1833 there was a law in Kentucky that prohibited any persons from purchasing and bringing into the state slaves for their own use. This law was amended in 1849 so you could purchase and bring into the state slaves for your own use.

In 1845 Calvin Fairbanks and Delia A. Webster from Vermont were encouraging the slaves in Kentucky to leave their owner. Many became restless and attempted escape. On Sept. 27, 1853 there was a stampede of slaves over the Ohio River, 32 from Mason and Bracken county, 9 from Campbell and 14 from Boone county. These escapes had a tendency to reduce the cost of a slave.

On January 8, 1855, seven slaves were sold to settle the estates of persons who were deceased, and the lowest price paid for a slave was $1,015 and the highest price paid was $1,505.

On April 12, 1862, the U. S. Congress abolished slavery in the District of Columbia and appropriated $100,000 to colonize any liberated slaves who wished to leave the U. S. and $1,000,000, out of which to pay a loyal owner $300 for each slave if applied for in 90 days. The U. S. Congress here set the price as we find on May 5, at a sale of eleven slaves at Richmond, Ky. The lowest price was $140 per slave and highest price $388 and the average was $246.

We hereby give you the sale of a slave woman that was sold at Gunpowder, Boone County 1839. Copy of the sale:

"December 30th, 1839, we have this day sold to Jacob Crigler a Negro woman named Tinie which we warrant to be sound in body and mind and the title goes to you under our hands this 30th day of December 1839.

Joseph Kendrick,
Jacob Clarkson."

Although the price paid for Tinie was not stipulated in the above sale, the writer has other papers of Mr. Crigler's in his possession that leads him to believe the price paid was $180. Mr. Crigler was a good business man and perhaps he did not care to pay in order that he might find out for himself whether or not Tinie was sound in body and mind.

So we see that the passage of laws by Congress and state had much to do in the price of slaves.

SECTION TO DISCUSS POST-WAR PLANNING

A forum to discuss the subject, "What Should We Plan for When Peace Comes?" will be part of the program at the rural church and rural community session at the annual Farm and Home Convention at the University of Kentucky Jan. 25-28.

The rural church will be represented by the Rev. W. J. Clarke of Sparta, Ky.; business and industry by Washington Reed of Lexington, chairman of the committee on economic improvement for the eastern district of Kentucky; agriculture and the rural community by J. E. Standford of Louisville, executive secretary of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation and education by Dr. H. L. Donovan, president of the University of Kentucky.

Another speaker at the rural church and rural community session will be Miss Flora Dodson of Louisville, whose subject will be, "My Experience in a Japanese Concentration Camp."

The Kentucky Rural Church Council will meet during the convention.

Farm women and members of homemakers' clubs will hold meetings throughout the four days of the convention. Among the speakers will be Mrs. Chu Shih-ming, wife of an official in the Chinese legation in Washington, and Miss Dodson.

Farmers will attend general sessions for two days and then divide into groups to discuss soils and crops, livestock raising, dairying, poultry keeping, improved seeds, and food production.

BIG LEAF YIELD

From 1.2 acres of Ky. 16 burley tobacco Autrey Janes of Adair county sold 2,170 pounds of leaf for $1,127.98. Manure was spread on the land and vetch turned under the first week in May. After breaking, 600 pounds of 20 percent superphosphate to the acre was worked into the soil, and 350 pounds of complete fertilizer was applied along the rows before setting.

More Shells For 1944 Seem Likely

Frankfort, Ky.—News of the shotgun shell situation and hope for a decided improvement during the coming 12 months was contained in a letter received recently by S. A. Wakefield, Director of the Division of Game and Fish from Virgil Chapman, Congressman from the Sixth Kentucky District, who is a member of the House Select Committee on Conservation of Wildlife Resources.

Mr. Chapman reveals that the committee and the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service have set a goal of 240,000,000 shells for farmers and hunters for 1944 and says it is apparent this reasonable supply can be made available without interfering in any way with the needs of the Army and Navy. Chapman's letters is as follows:

"For several months Mr. Ira Gabrielson. director of the Fish and Wildlife Service, and the Select Committee on Conservation of Wildlife Resources, of which I am a member, have as you know, tried to secure the manufacture and distribution of sufficient shotgun shells for farmers and sportsmen.

"Eight hundred forty-one million shells were made in 1941 and many were left over for use in 1942. The normal pre-war production was approximately 700,000,000 annually.

"This year, notwithstanding all the efforts made, only 82,000,000 less than one-seventh of the normal supply, were made.

"Our committee conducted a hearing last week (week of Dec. 6) in which it was brought out that the inability to obtain a larger amount of ammunition this year was due partly to the slowness in placing orders, but to a greater extent to the inability to obtain brass, one of the most important strategic metals for military purposes, and the reluctance of the manufacturers to make steel-based shells.

"The first shells manufactured were ordered distributed in Northern States because, in the migration of birds, their seasons come first. Consequently there was a severe shortage in Southern States.

"The Army has cancelled a number of contracts and several plants have been closed. There is no powder shortage. It is believed that a larger amount of brass and copper strips, in addition to steel strips, will be available to manufacture shells for the next season. The goal has been set at 240,000,000 shells, about one-third of normal production.

"The Army and Navy appear to have no objection.

"The request has been based on three things, the necessity of controlling so-called pests by farmers, the need for proper recreation in the interest of civilian morale for the more than 13,000,000 citizens who pay for a hunting license, and consideration of the food supply, which produced in dressed game last year, 255,000,000 pounds in the continental United States.

"It is now apparent this reasonable supply of ammunition can be made available without interfering in any way with the needs of the Army and Navy.

"Here is hoping that we may secure the 240,000,000 shells for 1944."

Deloris Wilson has been suffering with mumps.

Word was received here of the illness of Ezra Aylor, of Florence.

BOYS MAKE $1,018 FROM TOBACCO CROP

That farmers who used the lime-bluestone treatment of tobacco harvested the biggest yields was stated by Farm Agent C. V. Bryan of Taylor county. Nolan and Dan Beningfield were given nine-tenths of an acre for tobacco by their father. They used Ky. 16 seed, the beds were treated twice with lime-stone, 12 loads of manure were spread and 400 pounds of 4-12-8 used in the rows. The boys harvested a crop of 1,814 pounds of tobacco which sold for $57 per hundred, netting them $1,018 above expenses.

Robert Cowherd produced 5,700 pounds on three acres of turned crimson clover sod which was heavily manured and beds treated. His crop averaged $55 per hundred pounds. On the farm of Allison Shipp, 1,650 pounds of Ky. 41A were produced to the acre, which sold for $51 per hundred.

MRS. FANNIE SCOTT NAMED CHAIRMAN

OF COUNTY INFANTILE PARALYSIS CAMPAIGN—MONEY IS DIVIDED BETWEEN STATE-NATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS.

Plans are being made for the annual fund-raising drive to raise money with which to fight infantile paralysis in the State and in the Nation.

In Boone County, the campaign will be under the leadership of Mrs. Fannie Scott of Florence, Ky., whose appointment as chairman for the county was announced by H. St. G. T. Carmichahel, State Chairman.

The money given by the people of the State is divided into two equal parts. One half is sent to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, which uses it for research into the cause and cure for this disease, and also sends nurses, doctors, money and other help to any area where an epidemic rages.

The other half is turned over to the Kentucky State Chapter of the Foundation, which pay it out when called on by the Kentucky Crippled Children's Commission, in cases of infantile paralysis only. The Chapter also brought to Kentucky in 1942 during an epidemic a trained Kenny technician, who is still working at the Kosair Hospital in Louisville, where an average of thirty children from all over the State are receiving treatment. The Chapter also sent two trained nurses to the University of Minnesota for a six-months course in the Kenny method and is paying their salaries at the same hospital, where they are stationed.

The Kentucky Tuberculosis Association gets 33 percent of the sale, and it cost about 5 percent of the sale for stationery, stamps, and prizes for the school children who aided in the drive. AGRICULTURE COLLEGE PLANNING STATE-WIDE DRIVE FOR MORE FOOD

A state-wide program to encourage the production of more food on farms and in town is announced from the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics. Farm families will be urged to produce as nearly as possible their entire food supply, and town and city people will be urged to increase the size of their gardens. Many town families also can raise poultry, it is stated.

The program will be carried into every county and community in Kentucky, it is announced. Working in cooperation with county farm and home agents will be a large number of neighborhood leaders. These leaders will be specially trained to pass along information on the production of vegetables, fruit, poultry and dairy products.

In connection with the all-out food production program, the College of Agriculture and Home Economics has issued six leaflets which can be had free at the offices of county agents, county home demonstration agents or from the college. They are: "Grow Your Own Food," "Your Vegetable Garden," "Keep Chickens and Eggs for Home Use," "Grow Fruits and Vegetables," "Canning Fruits and Vegetables," and "The Family Cow."

"The test of the food production program is what families will have on hand next December," said Miss Myrtle Weldon, state leader of home demonstration work. "In 1943 Kentucky farm families had approximately 100,000,000 jars of canned food and vast quantities of stored fruits and root crops. The goal for 1944 is to top the outstanding achievement of last year."

Reports on this work will be made from time to time. Two sales reported recently indicate this practice is profitable.

Florence Man Buys Registered Jersey

A registered Jersey cow has been purchased by Pedro Crawford of Florence from Charles F. Kinsey & Son. The name of the animal is Sybil Volunteer Ivy 1413640.

The whereabouts of all registered Jerseys is known and carefully watched over by The American Jersey Cattle Club, with offices in New York City. This important job is made possible through registrations and transfers made by Jersey breeders everywhere. Tattoo identification, somewhat similar to fingerprinting, keeps individuals of this dairy breed always known.

Jerseys make up 42 percent of all dairy cows in the United States. Because they produce the world's richest milk, and because there are more Jerseys than any other breed in America, their role in National Defense is an important one. Increased production of Jersey milk guarantees the protective food needs of here and abroad.

Mrs. William Greenup and daughter Sue, of Union, were calling on friends and relatives here, one day last week.

Pressure Cooker Owners Urged To Ask For New Instructions

Anyone who has purchased a Victory Pressure Canner made by the National Pressure Cooker Company is requested to destroy the instruction and recipe book that came with the canner. Either write direct to the firm or contact Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent, Burlington for a new instruction book.

The National Pressure Cooker Company has requested all old recipe books be destroyed because definite improvements in instructions have been made recently.

All pressure cookers have been removed from the ration list since the last week in December.

$71,675.75 SOLD IN WAR BOND DRIVE

ONE HUNDRED EIGHTY-FIVE SUBSCRIBE DURING FIRST WEEK—DRIVE CLOSES FEBRUARY 15TH.

Subscriptions for the first week of the Fourth War Loan Drive in Boone County, ending last Saturday night amounted to $71,675.75 from 185 subscribers.

This is a very good start on our quota of $500,000.00. All county chairmen are requested to organize their workers and make an active campaign to see if a window sticker can not be placed in the window of every home in Boone County. All subscribers should ask for one of these window stickers when making a subscription at your bank if the bank employees should overlook giving you one. This will show that you are doing your bit in this drive.

One day last week a tenant farmer sold his crop of tobacco for $700.00 and when he came to one of the banks in the county to cash his check he purchased $600.00 in Series E. Bonds, saying that he had purchased $200.00 in E bonds in previous drives and wanted to do all he could in this Fourth War Loan Drive. He further stated that he had no close relatives in the army but that he would gladly make his government a present of his $800.00 in bonds if it would stop this war immediately, and that he felt the more bonds we buy the quicker this war will end and that he expected to put every dollar he could possibly spare into War Bonds.

These War Bonds purchased by this man is practically all the wealth he possesses. If everyone was as patriotic and loyal to his country as is this man, our quota would be reached without any trouble and within a short time. How many more citizens in Boone County have we like this?

The drive closes February 15th, but please do not wait for the last week to enter your subscriptions. Try to get more than half the quota before February 1st.

The 2¼, 2½ and the 7-8 percent bonds are dated February 1st and you should subscribe for these issues before February 1st, otherwise you will be required to pay the accrued interest from February 1st on subscriptions made after that date. You should also subscribe for Series E, F and G before February 1st because all bonds of this series dated in January bears interest from January 1st, but you do not have to pay this accrued interest, and you therefore gain a month's interest.

Full steam ahead this week!

FAITH PRODUCES MIRACLES

It is rumored that the Germans are about to spring a miraculous secret weapon upon the world capable of obliterating cities at a single blow. Far fetched as the idea may sound, Allied leaders long ago ceased underestimating German resourcefulness. They are driving to knock out the Nazis before they can come forth with any more death-dealing surprises. Our bombers are reaching with growing force into the industrial vitals of Europe. They are carrying loads of explosives that dwarf previous efforts of the Luftwaffe.

The average layman has little conception of the miracles taking place right here in our own country which make possible two-thousand-ton air raids on Berlin. One of those miracles is 100 octane gasoline. Two years ago daily capacity for the manufacture of 100 octane was only about 40,000 barrels—enough to fuel a single five-hour raid engaging 1000 4-motored bombers, similar to recent Berlin attacks. Now it is approximately 200,000 barrels daily, more than five times as much, and before many months it will double again. Without 100 octane gasoline, our bombers would be unable to carry out their missions.

A significant fact about the 100 octane miracle is that it has been financed principally by the oil industry. The oil companies have spent hundreds of millions of dollars perfecting this high test fuel and building production facilities. All of which means the oil industry has faith in the future of private enterprise. It is endeavoring to demonstrate in action rather than words that industry operated by private citizens, if given a fair chance, has the resourcefulness and flexibility to lick any problem confronting it.

WHAT MADE AMERICA GROW?

Post-War planning is running along two distinct lines. One group believes that it will be the function of government to provide the jobs and productive ability which will bring prosperity to the country after the war. The other group, realizing that America grew and became prosperous through the individual enterprise system, believes that private industry must again take up the responsibility.

If we are to become a totalitarian state with all enterprises run and controlled by the government, then there will be only one source of jobs and that is the government.

On the other hand, if the individual enterprise system is to be maintained, and every pool indicates that the people of this country want it to be maintained, then the only force which put the system in motion—private capital—must be encouraged.

Capital will not be ventured unless it is assured of a square deal. The Wagner Act, as administered, has been and is so one-sided that it will be, after the war, the most powerful force in existence in discouraging ventured capital. That is only another way of saying that it will be the most powerful force in the world exerted to restrict employment. Eliminate or modify the wagner Act to give enterprise an equal and fair break and private capital will come out of hiding and put people back to work.

CARE REQUIRED IN USING FROZEN FOODS

Freezing in itself does not spoil canned foods, say foods specialists at the Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics. However, when food swells in freezing it may break a glass jar, or cause a tin can to bulge, so that spoilage organisms may enter. When a jar of frozen food breaks, there is danger that the food may contain some of the broken glass; hence, that jar and contents should be discarded. All canned foods which have frozen should be examined. Those that show leakage should be used at once, prepared like any canned food. Containers which show bulges but no leakage should also be used as soon as possible, if they cannot be kept frozen they may have a break too small to let leak out, but that would let organisms in. As a safeguard. it is advisable to boil such thawed foods for 15 minutes before tasting.

MIXES OWN FEED

Mrs. Thurmond Johnson of Greenup county cleared $130 on her flock of 85 hens in two months time. Following the suggestions of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics, Mrs. Johnson mixed her own home-grown feeds.

FLOCK IS PROFITABLE

Mrs. Lucian White of Knox county sold $169.75 worth of eggs in one month, from her flock of 185 Rhode Island Reds. Her profit was $124.84. The hens laid an average of 21 eggs in the 30 days.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D.
Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for January 30

Lesson subject and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

JESUS USES HIS POWER TO HELP

LESSON TEXT—Mark 4:35-41; 5:35-43.
GOLDEN TEXT—Why are ye so fearful? How is it that ye have no faith?—Mark 4:40.

Help—that is what man needs, and nothing but the power of Christ will suffice to meet his fears and sorrows. Christ appears in Mark as not only the matchless Teacher of the parables we have just studied, but the mighty Worker.

This is the gospel in which Christ is presented as the Servant of Jehovah, who came to use His infinite grace and power for our deliverance.

Two great fears gnaw at the vitals of man's existence. Life is full of awful dangers, and death is so dreadfully final and sorrowful. He is afraid to live, and afraid to die—apart from his faith in Jesus Christ. We find the answer to both these fears as we here see—

Jesus' Power Overcomes

I. Fear of Life's Dangers (Mark 4:35-41).

The long day of teaching had ended (v. 35), and the disciples carried out His request that they go to the other side of the lake to rest. Just "as he was" they departed, and before long the tired Jesus was asleep. We know how He felt, and what is even more blessed, He knows how we feel when we are tired.

As He slept a sudden storm (common on the Lake of Galilee) brought deathly fear to the hearts of His disciples. For the moment they saw only the angry waves, the smallness of their boat, and the hopelessness of their situation.

Had they forgotten Jesus? With Him in the boat, they had no reason to fear. They called on Him, and in His majestic and authoritative "Peace be still" the wind and waves recognized their Master's voice.

Should we not learn that in this day of fears and alarms, we may (if we are Christians) count on His presence and His power. If we look at the overwhelming waves of circumstances and think how frail we are, surely our hearts shall fail us for fear. But if Christ is with us, we are in no danger.

Now they were struck with awe at His power. "Sometimes the deliverances we sought of our Lord so reveal His presence and power that His followers are more deeply moved than they were by the perils which threatened. Whether mastering the storm, or standing unseen in our midst today, He appears to the eye of faith, clothed in divine energy and power" (Erdman).

II. Fear of Death's Deep Sorrow (5:35-43).

Trouble is a visitor in every home, it does not matter how securely that home may be founded upon wealth or social position. Frequently, death chooses a shining mark in taking a dearly beloved child. Children strike their roots deep into our hearts and when they are torn from us our whole beings are rent and convulsed. Such was the great storm of sorrow which had come upon the home of Jairus, leading him to make the brave step of faith and hope which brought him to Jesus.

Then as Jesus turned to go with Jairus a woman touched Him. He stopped to seek her out and commend her for her faith. The seeming delay must have greatly troubled Jairus, particularly when the servants came and informed him that he need no longer trouble the Master since his daughter was dead. Not infrequently we have similar experiences, where it seems that while God has promised to help us, He has been turned aside and has forgotten us. The psalmist in Psalm 42:3 cries out, "My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?"

Our Lord was not troubled at all by the message of the servants of Jairus, but He showed His thoughtful consideration for the father by reassuring him with the words, "Fear not, only believe."

Everywhere fear blocks the way of human peace and progress. Divine wisdom offers a remedy for it all—only believe. We excuse our lack of faith by the conditions which confront us, but none of us face conditions worse than those which confronted Jairus. His daughter was dead and he was told to believe! He obeyed and his faith was rewarded.

When He said, "The child is not dead, but sleepeth," our Lord did not mean that actual death had not taken place, but He meant that in the sight of God death is like a sleep. In the eyes of Christ spiritual death was undoubtedly far more terrible than physical death. A man may be physically alive and yet being spiritually dead be worse off than a man who, though physically dead, is spiritually alive.

After putting forth the mourning scorners, the Lord performed a miracle by simply speaking to the child and saying, "Little girl, arise."

Here then is the Lord who can overcome every fear, in both life and death. Is He not the one we need as our Saviour?

Stand Up Straight

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

Standing and sitting erect require less muscular effort than the slumped posture for the normal, healthy person. With the body in an erect attitude the center of gravity passes more nearly through the center of the body and places the weight on bones and ligaments that are by nature equipped to meet this demand. When the head slumps forward, the shoulders droop, the spine curves and the abdomen bulges; then muscles must take on more and more of this burden, of weight bearing, a burden for fatigue and later actual deformity of certain of the bones and joints.

The first necessity in good posture is good feet.

Show me a person with good posture and bad feet. It's almost impossible.

But show me a person with good posture and I'll show you a person with good feet, for good posture starts with good feet. The foundation of any super structure is the most important.

Don't suffer another day with your feet.

No matter how many shoes or trial supports you have tried, try just one more and have one of our foot comfort specialists make a free foot analysis and show you how to get rid of all foot pains, leg pains, backaches and headaches. Even artritis and rheumatism pains are often mistaken—most times when feet are corrected the pains vanish. We know we can help you to stand up straight.—Adv.

"HARDWARE HEART" KILLS MANY COWS

Many cattle are lost every winter from swallowing nails, staples, bits of wire or other metal objects, according to veterinarians at the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station. These objects lodge in the second stomach, and some of them work through into the heart, killing the animals.

Cattle often swallow bits of wire that break off when falling wires are removed. Other objects that may cause death of livestock are nails, screws, bolts, nuts, razor blades, hair pins, coins, needles and buttons.

Sometimes whole handfuls of metal objects are removed from a cow's stomach, the accumulation of months or even years.

Food factories now use magnets to remove metal objects from grains and ground feed. It is considered good practice to examine home-made feeding mixtures. The Experiment Station men point to the need of care in unbaling hay and in handling nails, staples and other metal materials around feed bins and troughs.

HE'S BACK!

He's done his part and more—have you?

They're coming back—the gallant men who've been wounded in action.

Tell them the war's as good as won and that there's no need to buy more War Bonds.

They know first-hand what invasion costs in blood and lives and money. They know the real fight's just begun . . . that wishful thinking can prolong the war and waste thousands of lives needlessly.

They're looking to us to keep on backing the attack . . . to help get it over sooner by providing the overwhelming weight of arms it takes to win.

We can't match their sacrifice but we can show them we're in the fight by buying extra War Bonds during the Fourth War Loan.

Buy at least one extra $100 dollar bond now . . . and keep on buying Bonds until Victory.

Show Your Colors!

This sticker in your window shows you bought extra War Bonds during the Fourth War Loan. It's your battle flag here at home.

We are in receipt of the following letter from Miles Goodridge, ASN 35260216, Btry B. 92nd F. A. Bn., APO 252, care Postmaster, New York, N. Y.:

"For sometime I've wanted to write and thank you again for the paper. Since I last wrote a lot has happened, but at last I might say I'm somewhat settled. I am in England now and like it fine. It's almost like home, after spending so many months with the Arabs.

"The trip from Africa was something I'll never forget, but was glad to leave the place.

"Again Pete, I want to thank you for the paper, I enjoy it very much and it keeps me up on the home news. Some of the news I noticed wasn't so good in regards to the two boys missing. I knew both and was very sorry to learn of the report.

"There isn't much news, or rather they wont let you write any, so I had better close."

* * *

Cpl. Emil D. Hoffman, ASN 205-43100, Bty C 103 (AAA) AW Bn., APO 230, care Postmaster, New York, N. Y., writes:

"I am writing this letter thanking you and many friends, who make it possible for me to receive our home town paper over here.

"You know Pete, when a fellow has put in twenty-one months overseas, some of them being a little difficult at times, he thinks a lot about home. When he receives news about home in letters or papers—especially your paper, it makes his heart glad to see that people back home still think about him and are behind him one hundred percent. All this he knows will help to bring him home sooner to all of his friends and loved ones.

The Recorder has informed me of the whereabouts of many of the local boys who left home to join the Armed Forces, of whom I have often thought. I'm hoping to run into a few of them soon. I know what they feel like. We've been over here quite some time and it gets mighty hot, and not from the sun.

"I met Lents Harrison from Union, but I only got to see him a couple of days. I really felt good seeing someone from home.

"I am now in England for the second time. I saw in the paper about Ray Brooks and a few other boys, but they can bet their bottom dollar we will make it up for them before next July.

"Tell all my friends hello for me."

Mrs. Carl Roehm (nee Stephens) of Lawrenceburg, Ind., has received word from her brother, Major W. G. Stephens, that he has been promoted to Lieut. Colonel.

Lieut. Col. Stephens is stationed at Patterson Field, having been transferred there from Mobile, Ala. He is a graduate of West Point Military Academy.

The following letter was received from Sgt. Ernest L. Hager, Btry A 862nd AAA AW Bn., APO 937, care Postmaster, Seattle, Washington:

"Will attempt a short letter in regard to my recent change of address. I am now stationed at Fort Greely, Kodiahk, and would like to inform you of my new APO number which is 937.

"I will be unable to disclose much information as to my present location, but will add that I like it very much, as living conditions here are much better than I have been used to in the past several months.

"As it happens three years ago today I left Boone County as a volunteer for the service. Little did I know I would be in this long, but will say I do not regret a single day of my service for such a worthy cause.

"Being a communication Sergeant for the past two years, I have received and sent a lot of news, but none of it touched me quite like the news I received from The Recorder. As I am the only one in service stationed here that I know of from Boone County. The Recorder is about the only source of news I have from the other Boone County boys stationed all over the whole universe.

"I want to thank you for sending me The Recorder, and may I use this to say 'hello' to all my friends."

Pfc. Hobert Willoughby, Jr., ASN 35801269, Btry C, 770 F. A. Bn., Camp Bowie, Texas, writes: "A few lines this morning to let you know that everything is swell and that maneuvers are over, so we are going back to Camp Bowie, Texas for a while—how long, no one knows.

"I sure hope our outfit goes across soon, as staying on this side of the pond doesn't help win the war and that is what everybody wants.

"I can't say much about Louisiana maneuvers, except that it is plenty rugged."

* * *

The following letter was received from Pvt. Robert T. Cain and Sgt. George Black, 338th Engrs. APO 600, care Postmaster, New York, N. Y.:

"We have been receiving The Recorder and thought we would take time to write you a few lines to thank you for sending the paper because it really helps a lot—not only us, but there are several other fellows look forward to reading it.

"Everything is pretty well under control over here. Of course you know we can't write and let you know what's going on as much as we would like to, but Pete Black and I are both on the night shift and like our work very much.Black is the boss on the job and I'm an aid man, and I have it pretty, easy and so do the Sergeants.

There are three prisoners who come over every day and shine our shoes and keep the tent looking nice for us.. In return we give them a pack of cigarettes and teach them a little English. They all say after the war they want to go to America. They're not alone there, we also want to go to America after the war, but they'll probably get there before us.

Sgt. Black is sitting right beside me and he asked me to put in a round about way that both of us are the proud owners of the Good Conduct ribbon. We're the only two that came in together that received this honor. But just between us, Uncle Sam can have all the ribbons he wants, all we want is to come home, and we're going to come home too.

"We sure would like to be back home in Boone County to do some hunting. All the boys we hear from are always telling us about the good game they are getting. We're after more important game, and 30-30 shells aren't rationed and we don't need a hunting license to hunt Germans.

"Robert Stevens is still doing his part. I haven't seen him for two months, but I do write him. Our regiment has split up and he isn't with us. Paul Clore is still kicking and writing Miss V. Horton about four times a day. It must be love!

"Well I believe I better thank you once more for the paper, because it's really a morale builder, and it would be awful hard to do without it. We'll say so-long and will write again soon."

* * *

We are in receipt of the following letter from Pfc. Charles R. Wood, ASN 35796445, 3rd G. S. S. Class 44-10, Laredo Army Air Field, Laredo, Texas:

"Just a few lines to say hello to you and all my Boone County friends and to thank you for sending the good old paper regularly. Although I've been here for about four weeks now, I've received one Recorder and it really was welcome. I'm sending my new address Pete, so I'll be looking for The Recorder soon.

"I've just started to school this week. The course lasts seven weeks and if I make the grade I'll receive my Gunner's Wings when I graduate. Then, if the rule is not changed by then, I'll be home for a ten-day leave. That's what I'm really looking forward to, getting back to good old Boone County again.

"This is a nice field here and the weather has been warm down in this part of the state, but Texas can't begin to compare with Kentucky.

"Again let me thank you for the paper and tell all my friends, hello."

* * *

Aubrey E. Knox, with the Fifth Army in Italy, writes:

"Just a few lines to thank you for sending me the paper and to let you know of a change in my APO number. This makes about five times my number has changed.

"I enjoy reading the column for the boys in the service, but would like to hear more from some of the fellows over here where it's 'hot' and 'cold' at the same time. (Hot lead and cold weather). Tonight is the first time it has been comfortable for three weeks—too much snow and rain to live like anything but a dog.

Up where the shells fly you don't have big fires and lights at night and it's not a bad idea to keep them down all the time either. We get a laugh at some of the restrictions on 'maneuvers' and blackouts at home. We do smoke our cigarettes at night and used to have our picture shows outdoors at night. We paid no heed to the fact Jerry used to bomb us every day and some nights too. Don't think the Germans haven't a few planes left, because I've seen 42 at one time dive bomb our positions. It's a thrilling and dangerous positions to see those birds dive at you knowing that when he pulls out of the dive there's a bomb coming on down.

"We boys of the 'Fighting Fifth' get pretty sore sometimes when we read about strikes and griping some of our friends (?) back home do. We say 'Brother if you don't like it back there at sixty bucks a week we have a nice cold muddy foxhole complete with rifle bayonet at sixty bucks a month, (if you live a month).'

It's been pretty hard sledding since I landed at Salerno and that's one place I'll never forget as long as I live. Things were pretty rough there and lots of boys are still there. I saw some of my buddies get it there, and that hurts worse than a regular wound. A dead soldier laying on the ground isn't a very pretty sight to see. Most people don't realize just how terrible things can be.

"This letter may sound a little different than most of the letters you print in your paper, but that's the way I want it. I can't agree with most of the fellows that write in and say how they love the Army. I haven't stood reville, inspections, guard mount, or anything like that for almost a year. There just isn't any place for them in a fighting outfit. We have three invasions to our credit, by the way.

"My new APO number is 464, so please change it as my papers are slow enough as it is. They are always five weeks old or older. Our mail service is none too good, but our Xmas boxes all got here before Xmas and that helped a lot. Thanks again for the paper and here's hoping we have old Hitler saying 'Uncle' by the fall of this year. It can't be too soon for us. Almost two years over here now and I know I've travelled by land and sea over twenty thousand miles in that period of time. Here's hoping for the best for '44."

Charles E. Nixon, Elmer L. Snelling, both of Petersburg, newly inducted personnel of the United States Army have been sent forward from the Reception Center at Fort Thomas, Ky., to Camp Croft, S. C., according to a report from the Public Relations Division.

Pvt. H. Everett Monteith, Co. D, 12th Battalion, Camp Wheeler, Ga., writes:

"I want to thank you for sending me your interesting paper. I certainly enjoy reading it, as it helps keep me informed of what is going on back home. I wish all of you and the people of Boone County the best of luck.

"I hope we can get this war over with in a hurry, so we all may have peace and freedom again.

"I would like to hear from all of friends. I will answer all letters."

Lt. James C. Conner, care Officers Mess, Camp Murphy, Fla., writes: "I want to take this opportunity to thank you for sending me the Boone County Recorder. I have been receiving it regularly since I have been in the army and I certainly appreciate it. I also want to let you know that my address has been changed."

Nicholas S. Furnish F 2/c, Co. 14-144 Section E., Navy Pier, Chicago, Ill., writes:

"I received my first copy of The Recorder today. I was sure glad to get it as I have miss it a lot in the last month. My friend and shipmate, Fred (Bud) Scheben received it while we were in recruit training, so naturally the first thing we did was to sit down and read the home news. Since then we have been separated and I haven't seen The Recorder up until now.

"I want to thank you a lot for the paper, although I am not a native of Boone County, I have made Hebron my home since September of 1942, but want to return there and make it my permanent home.

"I have made a lot of friends in Boone County and I must say that you will find no better people wherever you may go. I have never had the pleasure of meeting you, but I hope that in the near future we will meet.

"I enjoy all of the paper but naturally I prefer the section devoted to 'Our Boys in The Service.' Through this column we can all keep in contact with each other.

"I am now stationed at the Navy Pier, Chicago, Ill. My training is on Diesel motors. I get 8 weeks here and then will be eligible for advanced training in Diesel.

"Again I wish to thank you for The Recorder which I enjoy a lot."

We are in receipt of the following letter from Cpl. Earl Adams, 1455 Q. M. C., Army Air Base, Marietta, Ga.:

"I want to thank you for the paper, for I surely do appreciate it. It makes you feel like you aren't so far from home when you can read the news from home every week.

"I am still in Georgia and like it fine, because I'm closer to home, and I expect to see the folks in February."

Clyde E. King, stationed with the Submarine Division, New York, N. Y., son of Mrs. Bess Zinermon, of Florence, writes:

"I have just returned from home, where I had been on an emergency leave, as my father has been ill. When I received my mail I had two of your papers waiting for me and I sure was glad to get them.

"I tried to drop over at Burlington to see you, but I spent most of the time at the hospital with my mother.

"I wish to thank you very much for sending me this paper as it really feels good to know that you are not forgotten. I sure like to read of what all my friends in Boone County are doing and hoping that this is all over soon, so that all of the sons and daughters from Boone County can be back at the farms again, as that is what I am to do when I get back. Thanking you again for the paper, and saying 'hello' to good old Boone County, I will close hoping to see you in person the next time to express my appreciation."

Ed. Note—Clyde would like to hear from his Boone County friends. His address is Clyde E. King, U. S. Submarine 348 Fleet Postmaster, New York, N. Y.

Early History Of Boone Co.

By A. M. Kealey

No doubt the oldest pioneer who made Boone County his future home before emigrating was Christopher Zimmerman, who was born in Orange County, Va., about 1743. His wife's maiden name was Maria Tanner of Culpepper County, Va., a daughter of Frederick Tanner and Elizabeth (Aylor) Tanner. Mr. Zimmerman was the father of 9 children, 7 girls and 2 boys, all of these children being born in Virginia.

Nancy, one fo the girls, married John Rouse one of the pioneers that helped with the settlement of the Hopeful neighborhood in the year 1805. Mr. Rouse built his log house on what was in the past, known as the Henry Lewis Tanner farm and in 1810 had his father-in-law, Mr. Zimmerman come to Boone County, where he erected for himself and wife a log house not far from his daughter's.

Mr. Zimmerman was a Revolutionary soldier and was present at the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown, Va. He never forgot his military bearing as he always wore his knee breeches, cocked hat and gold buckles on his shoes. He liked to ride horseback and spent much of his time riding up and down the narrow creek roads, through the woods, as though he owned the vast area of land over which he traveled.

Mr. Zimmerman had one of the foremost sugar camps in Boone County in 1811. He tapped a great number of trees and the water was transferred from the tree to pails by means of elder troughs. When these pails became full it was gathered by a team of oxen hitched to a sled loaded with barrels, then transferred to large kettles where it was made into maple syrup or sugar.

In looking over Mr. Tanner's shopbook, we find that he did much work for Mr. Zimmerman, such as making iron spoons with long handles to stir the syrup—a great number of candle sticks, a set of harness for oxen, 10 nails, 4 pair door hings, 4 pair of window hinges and many other articles.

Mr. Zimmerman died in 1832 and was buried in the private cemetery on the Perry Utz farm. It is hard to distinguish his grave as field stones were used as markers and there is a great number of them.

His boys were Joshua, born Aug. 22, 1771 and Frederick, born Nov. 30, 1775. His first wife was Susan Tanner. After her death he married Lucy Snyder. He owned a great number of acres of land where the old Dr. Scott residence is located. His youngest son, Frederick married Rosanna Crigler. The boys moved to Boone County before their father moved here to make his home.

In Lee county, Marcus Calmos marketed 3,146 pounds of tobacco grown on 1.9 acres.

More Coffee, Cocoa in 1944

Extend Sale of Ration-Free Shoes

Sales of certain (chiefly novelty) types of women's shoes, ration-free at three dollars or less a pair, have been extended an extra week—through February 5, OPA has announced.

To Fight Gas Black Market

A plan whereby gasoline ration coupons are mailed to individual motorists from carefully guarded central issuing stations is now being established by OPA. The plan is expected to eliminate thefts of ration coupons, give OPA a check of issuance, and eliminate a great load from local boards. To further fight black markets, about February 1 OPA will issue a notice urging endorsement of coupons to be inserted in newly issued gasoline ration books.

Pork From Farm Slaughterers

Twelve red stamps in book four, which are numbered "S" and lettered from "A" through "M" may be used for buying pork and other rationed meats from farm slaughterers. These stamps will not be used by consumers in general until February 27. They will have same expiration dates for purchases from farmers as in city markets. The stamps are worth 10 points each, making a total value of 120 points. This does not give the individual who buys from a farm slaughterer a larger meat ration than anyone else. It merely allows him to buy a fairly large amount at one time. In addition, brown stamps in book three may be used ahead of their regular validity dates when used in buying from farmers.

See Where War Bond Money Goes

Employees of the Department of Agriculture were the first government group to inspect the U. S. S. American Mariner, new Liberty training ship for the U. S. Merchant Marine, and see how their war bond money was being spent. This ship is the largest ever to sail up the Potomac river to Washington. Claude R. Wickard, Secretary of Agriculture, told the employees he expected them to achieve their fourth war loan goal of $4,779,602 and pointed out that they had over subscribed their third war loan quota by almost 25 per cent.

Steel Springs For Furniture

In about 60 days, steel springs for upholstered wood furniture will be on the market, according to the War Production Board. Manufacturers may use a limited quantity of steel springs under a new WPB ruling.

Returned War Dogs "Reprocessed"

When the war dog comes home, he will return in his pre-war state of docility with an honorable discharge certificate and service record, the War Department has announced. Dogs are "reprocessed" to assure their welcome return to the community, and are taught to be friendly with all rather than the few to whom they were officially detailed for war duties. Dogs are given a thorough physical examination before being sent home and are returned at government expense.

Price Down On Some Peas

Retail prices of whole dry peas should be about one and one-half cents a pound less, and of split dry peas about two cents a pound less, under a recent OPA regulation, effective January 26.

Ease Restrictions On Plumbing

Consumers who wish to buy plumbing, cooking, and heating equipment in most cases no longer need authorization from WPB. Some of the items which need no priority rating are—bathtubs, lavatories, toilets, laundry trays, sinks showers, shower stalls, condensation pumps, chemical toilets, drinking fountains, septic tanks, grease interceptors, flush tanks, scullery sinks, and wash fountains. Unrationed cooking and heating stoves also may be purchased without WPB authorization.

Can You Picture KENTUCKY without Police?

Today, we all owe a tremendous debt of gratitude to men and women in the uniforms of Uncle Sam's fighting forces. They're on duty today at the four corners of the earth and on all the seven seas—protecting our lives and our way of life.

And we musn't overlook the splendid job that other men in the uniform of our police forces are doing. Their "zone of operation" may be Kentucky rather than Kiska, it may be the highway to the next town rather than the airways across the Atlantic, but their job is fundamentally the same — protecting us and ours.

We Kentuckians can indeed be proud of our police organizations—city, county or state. Most of us have few occasions to call upon the service of our police forces—but that in itself is a tribute to their efficiency. They're on the job day and night whether we need them or not.

Some of us in the Greyhound organization, because of the nature of our work, have more frequent occasion to cooperate with the police than do many of our fellow citizens of Kentucky. For instance, we are in a position to see clearly how much the police of this community, as well as those of neighboring communities, have contributed to the safety and convenience of bus transportation. The aid these men have given in arranging the most practical and satisfactory routes through towns and cities is typical of their skillful handling of all traffic problems.

Greyhound's most important job, as we see it, is to make near and good neighbors of all the communities that our buses serve in Kentucky—and we feel that the able cooperation of police forces throughout the State has made it possible for us to do this job with greater efficiency.

Due to a shortage of dressing rooms, Bill got the one originally used by Bonita Granville when she was only in her teens.

SATURDAY

It's getting to be more of a headache every day to be a Hollywood producer or director.

Take for instance the dilemma of Director Ralph Murphy whose latest picture for Paramount "Salute For Three" called for a good many scenes in a canteen for servicemen. Naturally, the canteen had to be supplied with soldiers and sailors. Unfortunately for Murphy, however, the draft call kept depleting his supply of extras. In a race against the call to arms, Murphy shot the canteen number first, so you'll see an adequate number of servicemen in the film.

"Salute For Three" co-stars Betty Rhodes and Macdonald Carey.

It's a musical romance with five hit tunes, Cliff Edwards and Dona Drake.

Pin-up picture for the man who "can't afford" to buy an extra war bond . . .

YOU'VE HEARD PEOPLE say: "I can't afford to buy an extra War Bond." Perhaps you've said it yourself . . . without realizing what a ridiculous thing it is to say to men who are dying.

The very least that you can do is to buy an extra $100 War Bond . . . above and beyond the Bonds you are now buying or had planned to buy. In fact, if you take stock of your resources, you will probably find that you can buy an extra $200 . . . or $300 . . . or even $500 worth of War Bonds.

Sounds like more than you "can afford"? Well, young soldiers can't afford to die, either . . . yet they do it when called upon. So is it too much to ask of us that we invest more of our money in War Bonds . . . the best investment in the world today? Is that too much to ask?

Conservation News

By J. Casper Acree

Two pastured areas separated by fence. The area on the left has been over-grazed. The field on the right has been under better management.

Grass farming is the surest way for improving depleted soils, as well as retaining what we have left. Old pastures will do a great deal of extra grazing if we do a little work on them. Probably the first step would be brushing and rocking; that is, cut or deaden undesirable brush and trees and trim some of the lower limbs off the best trees, using some of this material for mulching galded areas. Loose rock should be piled so that they can be removed for crushing later on.

Rev. Wm. Smith said that he deadened or hacked around several trees about this time last year and that all of them died.

Nearly all of the land in Boone County needs lime and phosphate. If this material is available at least two tons of lime and 300 pounds of 20 percent phosphate should be applied per acre. Now, also is a good time to thicken grass stands and to seed bare spots. A mixture of grasses should be used. On sweet land a mixture of sweet clover 5 lbs., redtop 2 lbs., ryegrass 5 lbs., and bluegrass or orchard grass 5 lbs., should be used, and on sour land lespedeza 5 lbs., redtop 2 lbs., ryegrass 5 lbs. should be used. The rate of seeding of this mixture per acre of course depends on the stand of grass already established. After we have a good pasture and want to keep it we must practice pasture rotation. Note the picture above. The left side of the fence has practically been grazed into the ground, while on the right side there is a heavy cover.

Fields should be arranged so stock can be moved from field to field every three or four weeks. This not only is beneficial to the pasture and stock as far as grazing value, but it will help control parasites. Last, but not least, where at all possible fields should be clipped so as to encourage even growth and to get rid of undesirable growth. Then too, these clippings return to humus faster where they have fallen down on the ground.

Spring Must Be Here

Bulldozers came out of their winter hiding like a swarm of bees last week. Spring must be here!

One outfit is building ponds on Omer Cleek's farm this week, and is scheduled to go to the Bob Green and J. B. Heizer farms next week. Mr. Heizer had the soil conservation District to locate two reservoir sites for him. After completing one of the dams he plans on pushing a pipe line through the dam so that water can flow to a concrete trough below. By using an automatic cutoff he will have clean water available for the stock at all times. Also by extending the pipe he can furnish water to another field eliminating digging another reservoir. He is thinking of building a second reservoir east of the barn, using the dam for a roadway, eliminating considerable erosion down a steep slope, used for a lane. These reservoirs will be stocked with fish furnished thru the district.

A second bulldozer built a nice reservoir on the Helen Tomlin farm at Verona this week. Mr. King, operator of the farm, is certainly proud of the fact that he will have plenty of water next year. Likewise a pipe was placed through the reservoir dam and a fence will be built to keep stock out of the reservoir. This reservoir was staked out by the district and will be stocked with fish.

A third reservoir being constructed this week is on the Orville Kelly farm. Orvills says he has worn out several pencils putting down the number of gallons of water he has hauled the last few years. When this reservoir is completed his water problem should be over for it will have a depth of eighteen feet. This reservoir is being constructed under district supervision and will be used as a demonstration fish pond. Thru the bottom of the dam an eight-inch string of tile was laid, and a drain trap will be built at the upper end of the string so that it will be impossible to drain the reservoir at any time. An inch pipe will be run through the tile to furnish stock water to a trough below. This reservoir will be stocked with fish, fertilized and an account will be kept of the catch.

Little by little Boone County is becoming a county of many reservoirs. Information on how to construct farm reservoirs can be secured at the county agent's office or the Boone County soil conservation district office.

INCREASED YIELDS PAY COST OF TILE

How increased corn yields paid the cost of tile drainage in one season is related by Elza Little of Wolfe county. He installed tile in a 15-acre field and then planted corn in the spring of 1943. The drainage brought an increased yield of 40 bushels to the acre.

There is more land in Wolfe county that could be profitably drained, according to County Agent Charles E. Gabbard. He predicts increased interest in the rehabilitation of good bottom lands.

THINK IT OVER

How about doing a little cold turkey thinking after you lay aside this newspaper tonight?

You've got a good job. The chances are there is someone else in your family, perhaps two or three, working. Your son or your brother—may be away at war.

This war must end sometime. Your whole family, your neighbors, are praying it ends soon and those fighting boys of yours will come home safely.

But will you be ready for whatever happens when peace comes? Will you have something laid away? We're all hoping there'll be jobs aplenty, jobs which mean making something for somebody's happiness and not for somebody's sorrow. That's where your War Bonds come into the picture. Sure, Americans own billions of dollars of War Bonds now; and before this 4th War Loan ends they will have put away billions more. But how about you? You're the one that counts. The bigger the pile of War Bonds you have when peace comes, the bigger chance you'll have to slip right into the post-war world you're dreaming about tonight.

So "Let's All Back the Attack."

TOTAL OF $197,987 IS SUBSCRIBED

IN FOURTH WAR BOND DRIVE —BELLEVIEW FIRST PRECINCT TO RAISE QUOTA WITH BEAVER SECOND.

Subscription for the week ending January 29th amounted to $129,474.25 which brings our total subscriptions to $197,987.50 so far in the Fourth War Loan Drive. In addition to this we have received official notice that the Standard Oil Company of Kentucky has allocated $2000.00 of its subscription to Boone County. We have also received notice that the Federal Land Bank of Louisville has allocated $3000.00 of its subscription to Boone County. The Federal Land Bank, not being a commercial bank receiving deposits, is permitted to subscribe for bonds the same as an individual in this drive, and counts on quotas. The people of Boone County appreciate these two subscriptions which came as a surprise and unsolicited.

We understand the Union Light, Heat and Power Company placed a $3000.00 subscription through the Florence Deposit Bank which is included in the total above, and counts on the quota of the Florence precinct. The allocations of the Standard Oil Company and the Federal Land Bank will count on the quota of the County as a whole.

The Belleview precinct is the first to report 'over the top" in its quota, with Beaver following a close second. Several other precincts report that they are confident of exceeding their quotas. With a little work and a close canvas by the precinct chairmen and their workers, we believe every precinct can raise its quota. Many people wait to be solicited. Be sure to see everyone.

There is only one more issue of this paper before the close of the drive February 15th. Let's have the full quota raise before this coming Saturday night as our reports must be prepared and given to the press on Monday for the previous week's subscription. Boone County must not fail! The eyes of our soldiers are upon us. What is your answer to them? What will be the opinion of our own Boone County soldiers who are in camps and on the firing lines if our quota is not raised?

Your subscription may be the means of saving the life of one of your neighbor boys. Can you sleep soundly at night if you have not subscribed liberally? Go back to your bank and make another subscription before February 15th. Don't expect someone to come to see you. This is your war! The soldiers need your help! We have only raised 40 percent of our quota.

SPECIALIST WILL VISIT BOONE CO.

FOR SPECIAL MEETING WITH ORCHARD MEN ON WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 16—FRUIT GROWERS URGED TO ATTEND

W. W. Magill, fruit specialist, College of Agriculture, will meet with Boone County growers in two planning meetings on Wednesday, February 16th, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent.

The morning meeting will start at 10:00 a. m., from the county agent's office in Burlington, followed with a field trip to one of the local orchards. The afternoon meeting will be held at 1:00 p. m. at the farm of William H. Moore, Hebron, Ky.

Boone County growers produce some of the highest quality fruit. Insect and disease control are two of the most difficult factors in quality fruit production. The annual winter fruit planning meetings aid growers in analyzing their past year's production problems and in planning their new year's production program.

All fruit growers are cordially invited to attend one or both of the above meetings.

Man Who Eye-Witnessed Japanese Barbarism Speaks To The American People

The following statement by Commander Melvin H. McCoy, U. S. N., one of the survivors of Japanese terrorism now in this country, speaks for itself. Commander McCoy, who escaped from a Japanese prison camp, speaking on behalf of the men still in Japanese hands, has requested that this message be transmitted to the American people:

"Jap brutality is beyond description. I would not wish any more of our boys to have the same experience. I am sure that if those prisoners still in Jap hands could send a message to the United States, they would ask that the home front back them up by buying as many War Bonds as they can during the Fourth War Loan Drive.

"And if we can get a message back to them that Americans are supporting the fighting front, I am sure that their spirits would be given a needed lift, despite the brutual treatment.

"I surge all of you, those with brothers, son and fathers who are seeing action in the Pacific theater to back them up by buying bonds so that they would have the necessary supplies to avenge our men who have suffered at the hands of the Japs."

There is no way we who stay at home can avenge this revolting cruelty. What we can do is pathetically little. If all of us put every cent we own into War Bonds, it would still be only the humblest gesture to the boys who are doing the fighting, the suffering, the dying.

ORDER PROTEIN FEEDS AT ONCE

SAYS COUNTY AGENT—ORDERS PROBABLY LIMITED TO 30-DAY SUPPLY—NO PROMISE MADE TO FILL ORDERS.

Boone County farmers who are in need of protein feed to supplement the shortages of home grown feeds should list their orders immediately with the county AAA office in Burlington, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Orders will probably be limited to a thirty-day supply. The protein supplement will either be soybean meal or cottonseed meal.

There is no definite promise that orders can be filled. The War Food Administration is supposed to allot 20 percent of the protein feed supply to farmers direct. The handling of the orders will be through the County AAA committee.

Protein supplement has been one of the bottlenecks in livestock production. There is a possibility that farmers may get some relief from this shortage, by filing orders now for their needs.

The County Farm Bureau has been working on a solution to the local protein shortage and recommends this method of approach.

DROP OF 37.5 PER CENT IS SHOWN

IN BURLEY SALES DURING PAST WEEK—AVERAGE FOR WEEK IS $44.38—STATE AVERAGE IS $44.40.

Volume of sales on the nation's burley tobacco markets dropped 37.5 per cent during the past week, as compared with the previous week.

The approach to the end of the auction season also found the general quality of offerings slightly lower, causing the average for the week to decline to $44.38 a drop of 30 cents from last week, the War Food Administration reported. The average has dropped slightly each week since the beginning of the season.

Gross sales for all states totaled 29,747,832 pounds, compared with 48,287,152 for the week before. Kentucky sold 26,245,706 pounds of the week's total with all markets still operating except Greensburg, which closed for the season. The state average was $44.40.

Several Kentucky markets were scheduled to close this week, it was announced, and the WFA reported that 90 percent of the estimated season's crop has been marketed.

The season's total burley sales to date are 364,541,781 pounds for an average of $45.67.

FARMERS CAN HELP IN CHANGES

THAT MAY FOLLOW WAR, SAYS DEAN THOMAS P. COOPER OF THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY.

How farmers as individuals can prepare for postwar changes was recently discussed in an address by Dean Thomas P. Cooper of the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics.

As individuals, farmers can do much to soften possible postwar shocks, he said. "Individual responsibility is very great," he declared. "Perhaps the most important single step is to enter the postwar period free of debt or at least have debts so reduced that they can be easily handled.

"If there is any one lesson that should have been learned from the last war, it is the importance of having one's financial affairs in good position.

"During this period of shortages of all kinds, it is important to set aside funds for replenishments in the future. Agriculture is using up its structures, equipment and machinery at a more rapid rate than it is able to obtain replacements. Therefore, it is well to invest in bonds sufficient amounts from income during the war period to make possible the necessary changes in the home, and to permit the purchase of the required machinery, equipment, trucks, automobiles, freezing units, etc., to enable operation of the farm to the best advantage.

"This is the time to set up funds for the modernization of the home that you and your wife may have long planned; for the construction of new barns and other buildings, fences, and for the development of needed conveniences; electricity, of course; ample water supply, a real problem in many areas of the state; running water in the home and barn; and sewage disposal. Too, the individual should look forward to the rebuilding of the soil, in the event it has been farmed too hard; to develop the woodlots, and to see that they are protected. It is the time to provide for the education of the younger children.

"Thousands of our farmers will make such plans, set aside the money safely for the future and utilize it as the material they need becomes available in the postwar period. It will do much to help meet many of the problems which would otherwise develop at that time . . .

"Then after the war we will do the reasonable things that provide for better and more comfortable living, education and many other enterprises we should undertake.

"Through such procedure, we shall probably find ourselves in a position to meet whatever may come, instead of being impoverished through speculation or the expectation of a continuance of wartime prices and wartime demand.

"Agriculture's problem will be different, but the foresight and common sense of farmers will enable them to meet the situations as they arise."

$3,000,000 BOOSTS TEACHER SALARIES

STATE SENATE O. K.'S HOUSE BILL ADVOCATED BY GOVERNOR WILLIS—WILL MEAN AVERAGE OF $20.00 INCREASE.

Legislative approval for adding $3,000,000 to public school teachers' pay was completed Monday night when the Kentucky Senate gave unanimous approval to a measure the House previously had adopted 95 to 1.

The supplemental pay, applying to the current scholastic year and retrocative to last July 1, was advocated by Governor Willis who was expected to sign it in a few days.

The measure affects some 18,000 teachers, and Democratic Senator Roy McDonald, a Cadiz teacher, expressed hope it would "attract back 3,000 of the best-qualified teachers," who left the profession for better paying jobs.

The money is to be distributed among the school districts on the basis of school population and Senator McDonald estimated it would mean an average of $20 more a month for teachers.

NEEDED: RULES FOR RECONVERSION

The attention focused on the current labor situation by President Roosevelt's request for a national service act points up the wisdom of the policies of one of our major war producers, General Motors, in allocating its manufacturing operations since the country's production of war materials was started in June, 1940. Since it is carrying the heaviest war production assignment in the nation and has a production army of more than 450,000 within the United States, the policies of this company are important to all Americans.

C. E. Wilson, president of General Motors, in testifying before the Truman Committee on future reconversion of war industry, stated that it had been the company's policy to try to obtain war orders for each of its plant cities and for every plant. He explainplained that this was intended to protect the workers in those different plants as well as to produce war equipment with the greatest efficiency and the least new floor space and machinery. This meant enabling the company's employes to continue working in their own communities, thus preventing unnecessary population shifts and the disruption of communities, and avoiding some labor unrest. It meant also getting the war goods out as quickly as possible. It was good planning.

Other policy points listed by Mr. Wilson and equally important to all Americans included active cooperation with the government from the beginning of the defense program in planning production, accepting trial orders, engineering cooperation, mass production of war materials for which production equipment was on hand or could be obtained, seeking orders for the more complicated war materials—thus using the Corporation's engineering and manufacturing experience for the tough jobs and leaving the simpler jobs to smaller concerns, and undertaking war work in a quantity proportionate to the company's peacetime capacity—about 10 percent of the country's output of metal products.

Other policies established by the company in 1940 were to accept contracts of any type proposed by the government—in other words, try to do business the way the customer wanted, to subcontract component parts for all war materials to dependable and competent contractors with the necessary production equipment, and to utilize existing plants and equipment to the limit, requesting new facilities only when absolutely necessary.

These rules, adopted long before Pearl Harbor, not only indicate how General Motors has been able to produce more than $5,000,000,000 worth of war materials since that day, but also to point out how necessary is the establishment of fundamental policies in advance of a large undertaking. This applies to the present situation in which manufacturers are wondering what rules the government will lay down for reconversion. For as Mr. Wilson said in listing his company's policies, "we had eighteen months going in, and we should make some plans going out of the war."

THE PAPER CRISIS

According to reliable Washington information less than 20,000 more men set to work cutting pulp wood would solve the paper shortage crisis confronting the country. This additional manpower could cut sufficient pulp wood to keep all the paper mills running.

Here are some examples of the growing crisis in paper materials: The supply of wood pulp fell from 980,000 tons in September 1942 to 470,000 tons in November 1943. Stockpiles of waste paper dropped from 590.000 tons in October 1942 to 220,000 tons in November 1943. The WPB thinks these inventories are below a workable minimum.

Unless vigorous steps are taken to rebuild the raw materials stockpiles, there may be additional curtailments in paper allotments for newspapers, magazines, commercial printing, boxes, packages, books and the thousands of other uses to which paper is put. To meet all of the demands on even the current restricted allotments, 14,000,000 cords of wood must be cut in the United States in 1944.

Many paper mills are closed down today because of lack of raw materials. Others are operating only a few days a week. Yet every paper requirement could be filled if the War Manpower Commission would recruit only 18,500 more men for work in wood cutting.

Also, the problem could be partially solved if the Army Provost Marshall would assign additional prisoners of war to cutting wood. It is estimated that fewer than 500 prisoners of war are engaged in this kind of work in the United States at this time. It is said that the decision of using prisoners of war to cut wood rests with the local camp commanders. But surely a directive from the War Deparment would encourage these commanders. Also, there are 10,000 Japanese-American citizens available in relocation centers who could perform this kind of work. A large part of the sugar beet crop was saved last fall by these Japanese-Americans. The U. S. Employment Service has not made any effort to recruit these evacuees to cut wood.

It is both a patriotic responsibility and a profitable enterprise for farmers and others who have wood lots to cut wood for pulp purposes. Every newspaper published in a farm area is in a position to help farmers dispose of this wood to the paper mills.

In England it is an offense to throw away as much as one wrapping from a package of cigarettes. We may not have come to that but it is certainly the responsibility of every American to save every bit of paper and turn it in or sell it to the paper salvage drive.

Printers and buyers of printing must of course, conserve paper by accepting lighter weights of paper and by using smaller sizes when possible.

All in all, we believe the paper crisis can be overcome. The War Manpower Commission will have to bestir itself. Maybe a few letters written to Manpower Commissioner Paul V. McNutt in Washington urging that manpower be allocated for wood cutting might help.

The local and regional offices of the U. S. Employment Service can do a great deal to help this work along, and it would be interesting to see what would happen if a lot of our local citizens gave the facts of this situation to their local and regional offices of the U. S. Employment Service and politely suggested that something be done about it.

At a time when all of us are conserving paper and salvaging waste paper, surely the War Manpower Commission and the U. S. Employment Service can do their part and find the 18,500 workers to put pulp wood.

Three hundred lockers have been rented in the frozen food bank soon to be built in Pendleton county.

JESUS FEEDS THE MULTITUDES

LESSON TEXT—Mark 6:35-44; 8:1-9.
GOLDEN TEXT—I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.—John 6:35.

Hungry! That word describes the crying need of the greater part of the world's population. Men who have vaunted themselves because of their ability and ingenuity have brought the nations of the earth into such awful confusion that even God's abundant provision cannot reach the needy ones.

God is concerned about man's physical need just as truly as He is about spiritual needs. This story brings Christianity into action on a level that all will appreciate—the need of food for the body. It works there as it does everywhere.

The supply of every need of man is God. "My God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus" (Phil. 4:19). Countless Christians have found it to be true that we may trust God—completely—and for everything.

The stories of the feeding of the two groups of people show the wrong and the right attitude toward man's need. In two approaches to the problem the disciples were wrong. Then Christ showed them the right way.

I. They Can Take Care of Their Own Need (6:35, 36).

"Send them away"—that was the plea of the disciples when the multitude of those who had followed Him became hungry. The people were there because they were interested in Christ. They had come in a hurry (v. 33) and had not brought food. The problem was on the disciples' hands, and they sought the easiest way out. Let them shift for themselves—"Send them away."

The church has followed their example in dealing with the social problems of the people down through the years. The result is that being denied fellowship, comfort, and help by a church which was too busy building up a vast organization or a beautiful order of worship, the common people have responded to the appeal of political leaders who have provided a substitute for what the church should have given them.

When Jesus put upon them the direct responsibility to feed the people, the disciples changed their "slogan" and said:

II. We Should Like to Help, but We Cannot (6:37).

Reckoning hastily on what a small boy had brought for his lunch (trust an alert boy to be ready!), the disciples soon demonstrated that it was impossible to feed this great throng. (See similar reasoning in Mark 8:4).

Logic is such a devastating thing when it operates apart from faith in God. They were absolutely right in their reasoning and in their calculations, but they had forgotten the one factor that really counted. Jesus was there, and Jesus is God, and God is omnipotent.

As we face the need of the world now and after the war, we wonder how the peoples of other lands can be fed without depriving our own land of what it needs. It is a great problem, and we ought to pray for those who must work with it.

But let us not forget that all that we have comes from God, and that He is able to do "exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think" (Eph. 3:20). The Christ who multiplied the loaves and fishes is our Living Lord today, and ready and able to do it again.

III. Jesus Said, "I Have Compassion on the Multitude" (6:38-44; 8:1-9).

He started right. Instead of shutting His heart against the tender desire to help, He let His love for the people control. Then instead of magnifying the difficulties, He multiplied the provisions. And lo, there was enough for all, and to spare.

"He commanded . . . and they did all eat" (vv. 39, 42). When God speaks, all the limitations of the finite disappear, and the needs of men are fully met—with "twelve baskets full of fragments" left over!

Note the orderly manner in which our Lord met this situation. Five thousand men, with women and children to swell the throng, were seated on the grass. Jesus took the loaves and fishes and blessed them. You who forget to return thanks at the table, notice that quiet and meaningful act. Then He broke the loaves and divided the fishes. No doubt they were multiplied as the disciples passed them out to the people.

God is able to do that very thing even in our day. Perhaps not in just the same manner, but surely those who serve Him have marveled as they have seen that "little is much when God is in it." Let those who labor in difficult places with limited resources take heart—and trust God.

Note the care with which the fragments were collected for future use. It took this war to teach America how shamefully wasteful it has been.

The Blood Stream

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

The blood stream has several important functions. For instance it feeds the tissues from the products of digestion; it carries away waste matter and it aids in equalizing the temperature and the water content of the body.

Blood is not just plain fluid, but has two parts. A yellowish fluid called PLASMA, in which float solid particules called corpuscles. Then there are three kinds of corpuscles are the protectors of the body and multiply at a great rate of speed. In other words, the white corpuscles enable the body to resist infections and throw off contagious disease.

Friends, now that we understand how important a part our blood stream plays in the health of our entire body, it is easy to see that we should be careful not to choke or cramp this blood stream in any way.

When you cramp blood vessels and shut off blood supply to any part of the foot, every school physiology book tells us that you not only deprice it of the food it should have to keep healthy, but the slower blood stream cannot clear away waste matter as it should. We find chemical deposits form at the joints of the feet and the legs and then inflamation develops leading to pain and discomfort that makes you miserable all over. These symptoms are often mistaken for arthritis rheumatism or some other ailment. Backaches, headaches and many body ills may be traced to the feet.—Adv.

It is said that tobacco stalks in Ballard county, if properly used, would be worth 40,000 to farmers as fertilizer.

HOW ODT HELPS KEEP FARM TRUCKS ROLLING

Almost all of the products raised by the Nation's seven million farm families, at some time between farm and consumer are transported by motor truck, according to the Office of Defense Transportation, and nearly all farm supplies are transported to farms by motor truck.

The ODT says that more than one and one-half million trucks now are in such agricultural transportation service, and approximately 1,050,000 of these trucks are owned and operated by farmers.

To meet war-time farm transportation needs, the Division of Motor Transport of ODT developed a program for the conservation and utilization of these farm vehicles and undertook to provide for orderly and continued movement of farm supplies to farms.

To assist in carrying out this program directly to farmers, OD organized county farm transportation committees in each of the 1,022 agricultural counties of the United States. These committees lead in developing local programs to conserve and utilize farm vehicles—analyzing a farmer's operation and dovetailing his production and and marketing requirements with available transportation. They help farmers complete applications for new trucks and assist ODT district officers in determining the certification necessary for certificates of war necessity without which no truck can legally operate.

In reviewing applications for certificates of war necessity, one committee helped make it possible for the ODT district manager to revise original recommendations and thus effect a reduction of 1,073,372 miles of travel and save 125,000 gallons of gasoline. Another district manager reviewed gasoline requests with his county farm transportation committee and saved 435,733 gallons of gasoline—39 percent of the amount of the original requests.

MANY REPORTS OF TOBACCO PROFITS

Adam Kalb of Bracken county primed 13 acres of tobacco twice to save 4,160 pounds, for which he received an average of 53 cents a pound. The approximate cost of priming was $300.

Many farmers in Knox county report high prices for their tobacco crops. Charles Winn, Jr., received an average of $54.15 per hundred for 3,090 pounds. He grew root-rot resistant Ky. 16. Goble Goosey, who grew the same variety, harvested 1,326 pounds per acre, which sold for $54.79 per hundred.

One of the highest tobacco yields in Rowan county was grown by Dewey Nickells, according to Farm Agent Forrest S. Brame. On 1.1 acres, Mr. Nickells grew 2,054 pounds which sold for $53.65 per hundred. He applied 800 pounds of phosphate when he seeded vetch in the fall of 1942, and the following spring he drilled 500 pounds of 3-8-6 to the row. He used Ky. 41A tobacco.

A few years ago, the farm of Hobert Morris in Owsley county produced 400 pounds of tobacco to the acre. In 1943, more than 1,400 pounds were produced on the same amount of ground. Two hundred and fifty-eight pounds were primed, bringing almost $132. Mr. Morris, who used a cover crop of vetch and rye, with an application of phosphate, 500 pounds of commercial fertilizer and some manure, is convinced that such practices pay, according to Farm Agent H. M. Williams.

Douglas Hall of Trigg county produced tobacco weighing 12 ounces to the plant, or 2,100 pounds to the acre. He used fertilizer liberally.

BUY Extra WAR BONDS

This sticker in your window shows you bought extra War Bonds. It's your battle flag here at home.

Sure — we'd all like to see headlines like these. But just waiting and hoping won't make them come true.

The plain truth is that while we now hold the initiative in this war, we have yet to penetrate beyond the outer perimeter of Axis defenses. We still have a long, hard road to go . . . a road that will be longer and harder if there is any let-down now.

That's why you're being asked to buy extra War Bonds during this Fourth War Loan. To keep our fighting men supplied with the weapons they need to win . . . at a minimum cost of blood and lives.

Remember — war eats up munitions at an incredible rate. The bonds you bought last year won't win today's battles. So buy at least one extra $100 bond now . . . and keep on buying bonds until Victory.

Let's All BACK THE ATTACK!

Tire Rationing Is Drastically Cut

Under a drastic change in tire rationing regulations announced Saturday by OPA, eligibility of a motorist for new passenger car tires will be based on the "purpose" for which he drives rather than the kind of gasoline ration he has.

The OPA office for Boone County was informed that the new regulations became effective Tuesday, February 1. It gave rationing boards authority to decide who are the "most essential drivers."

Scarcity of used and reclaimed rubber tires has "grounded" many essential A and B drivers, OPA officials explained. The amendment will make certain that the increasing number of new tires which will become available this year will get into the right hands.

The new program divides motorists into thre categories: One, highly essential occupational drivers; two, less essential occupational drivers, and three, non-essential drivers.

Sets Maximum Vegetable Prices

To prevent sharp increases in fresh vegetable prices, the Office of Price Administration has announced maximum prices for carrots, spinach, peas, snap beans, eggplant, peppers, and cucumbers. The action, effective at the country shipper level, January 31, will become effective 15 days later at wholesale markets. Exact retail prices in each community will be announced by the regional and district OPA offices.

Canning Sugar Now Available

Housewives may now get five pounds of canning sugar by using stamp No. 40 in ration book four, OPA has announced, and additional canning sugar later will be available on application to local boards. Stamp No. 40 will be good 13 months through February 28, 1945.

Farm Support Price Program

Average prices to egg producers ranging from a low of about 30 cents a dozen during the spring to a high of about 40 cents a dozen in late fall or early winter are planned by the War Food Administration in its price support program for carlot graded eggs for 1944. WFA also announced its proposal for support prices on other farm productions, subject to congressional action.

May Tighten Farm Deferment

To maintain their deferments from military service because of their agricultural activity, the 1,700,000 registrants engaged in agriculture may be asked to increase their production goals, according to Commander Patrick H. Winston, assistant executive selective service system. Approximately one million of these deferred men are non-fathers.

To Relocate Physicians, Dentists

Any municipality, county, or other local subdivision of government suffering from an acute shortage of physicians or dentists may now apply to the Surgeon General or the district office of the U. S. Public Health Service or through the State Health Officer requesting the relocation of a physician or dentist. The Public Health Service agrees to pay moving costs and to pay the relocated doctor $250 a month for the first three months. The doctor agrees to practice in the community for not less than one year, and the community agrees to contribute one-fourth the government's cost to the Public Health Service.

Help For Truck Owners

Owners of farm trucks and other truck operators are requested by the Office of Defense Transportation to cooperate in a reporting system which the ODT has established to help truck and bus operators with their tire-procurement problems. Any operator eligible for tires but unable to obtain a tire certificate from his local rationing board because of exhausted quotas or other reasons, is asked to report that fact to his ODT district office, stating the reason given by the board for the denial of the certificate. This information will enable the ODT to determine the kind of action to be taken, if assistance is warranted.

Ration-Free Rubber Footwear

OPA will permit some ration-free sales of rubber footwear by retailers and jobbers who have excess and slow-moving stocks that otherwise might be wasted thru deterioration. Retailers and jobbers desiring permission for such sales must apply in writing to OPA district offices. A minimum of 15 days will be required between filing of application and granting of "non-rationed" stickers, which identify the released footwear.

Round-Up

U. S. civilians will get 63 per cent of the vitamin A allocation in 1944, WFA says, as the army gets most of its vitamins thru a balanced diet . . . Burn any packing material that comes with gifts from soldiers abroad to avoid insect pests and plant disease, advises the Department of Agriculture. The department also advises that started chicks, three or four weeks only, have better chances of survival for the poultry beginner than newly hatched chicks have . . . With the largest winter cabbage crop in history, WFA has asked the kraut industry to make 80,000 more tons of kraut. . . . Total U. S. war casualties as announced up to January 25 were 142,289—including 32,662 dead, 47,123 wounded, 32,699 missing and 29,805 prisoners of war . . . In general, ration cost of meats is higher and of canned vegetables, lower during February—WFA has ordered packers to set aside at least 80 per cent of all canner and cutter beef for the U. S. armed forces . . . Prices of fresh tongue range from four to five cents less per pound under recent OPA regulation than under the previous regulation . . . Farmers and other bulk users of gasoline may replace losses from their storage facilities resulting from fire, theft, accident, or other extra-ordinary circumstances, under a new OPA procedure—WFA will soon release approximately 4,000 cases or 120,000 pounds of dry pea or soya soup powder from government reserves to civilian consumers . . . The farm freezer industry advisory committee has recommended to WPB that 25,000 farm freezers, combining cold storage and freezing elements, be made and distributed in 1944.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Sonja Heine's future depends for the most part on her ice skates. It occurred to her that under wartime restrictions she would not be able to purchase as many pairs of skates as she customarily required in the past. Since the leather needed for the uppers is rationed and the blades demand the finest quality steel, it is not surprising that Sonja should desire to protect her skates—and her future.

So Sonja, the lovely skating star of 20th Century-Fox's new film "Wintertime" decided to ask Lloyds of London to insure five pairs of her skates for $250,000. She felt that since she could make no more purchases it would be wise to protect the ones she had against any catastrophe, natural or otherwise.

THIS FARM BOY GAVE ALL...
You are only asked to lend your money!

LIEUTENANT (j.g.) PAUL BAKER, Navy pilot, with five Jap aircraft to his credit in the day's fighting, was hovering over the aircraft carrier Lexington at dusk, awaiting the signal to land. His gas tanks were nearly empty. Suddenly, over the horizon Jap planes were spotted. It was feared the Japs might discover the Lexington and try a suicide attempt. Baker's order to land never came. His landing lights might have given the Lexington's position away. Without hesitation, Lieutenant Baker turned his plane away from the big carrier and headed for the open sea, luring the Japs after him. He disappeared into the night, never to be seen again. The Lexington was safe.
You can buy extra Bonds!
Paul Baker had a big decision to make. It took him about two seconds.
We, at home, also have a decision to make. We are asked to buy extra War Bonds at once. Our boys at the front are depending on us in this Fourth War Loan. Our patriotic impulse is to say "yes" first and look around for the money afterwards. Let us obey that impulse! It will do us good in more ways than one!
Paul Baker sized his situation up in two seconds... and acted. We, whose duty is so trifling by comparison, need scarcely more time in which to do ours!
Think! We are asked to make an investment, not a sacrifice! We are asked to invest the money we would normally use to replace automobiles or farm machinery or repair buildings and fences. We are asked to establish a depreciation reserve which will be available for replacements after the war; to build up a financial reserve for unfavorable years that may come later, or for the education of the children, unexpected hospital bills, or the payment of taxes and debts.
War Bonds are the best form of financial reserve ever offered you. Your money helps finance the war. By postponing unnecessary spending you speed production of planes and munitions to win the war. The gradual expenditure of your reserve after the war will provide jobs for returning soldiers and help stabilize the nation's finances in the postwar adjustment period.
Ask yourself: Have I a single valid reason why I should not buy extra War Bonds? Then, like Paul Baker, make your decision and act!
Get ready for the day when Johnny comes marching home

If you have a boy in the service, think what it will mean to have him come back and share with you the joy of equipping the farm with the best in tractors and other machinery. Think what it can mean for you to have the cash to put the children through college. Think what it can mean, a few years hence, to have new farm buildings or a new home or complete modern conveniences about the place.
To thousands upon thousands of farm and ranch owners who have bought extra War Bonds, these things are assured. For the first time in their lives they are going to be able to have the things they've wanted. Some of them are your neighbors. How about you?
YOU NEVER GET LESS THAN YOU LEND
And you get ⅓ more than you invest
When held 10 years, Series E War Bonds yield 2.9% interest, compounded semi-annually. You get back $4 for every $3.
CASH WHEN YOU NEED IT
Of course, no one should cash a Bond unless he has to; but if an emergency comes along, your War Bonds are like money in the bank. Uncle Sam will redeem them in cash—at full purchase price—any time after you've held them 60 days. Don't hold back a single dollar unnecessarily from the purchase of War Bonds. YOUR HELP IS NEEDED.
The Fourth War Loan is on! Your dollars are needed as much by Uncle Sam today as you will be needing them tomorrow.

IN MEMORY

Of our only child, little Henrietta Rose Black, who passed away Feb. 18, 1935, at the age of 4 years.

Darling you have gone and left us,
No one knows how our heart aches with pain;
We lay at night with tear stained pillows,
Trusting and praying to meet you again.
God in heaven please have mercy.
Thou knowest how much sorrow we are to bear;
We pray to God in all His glory to meet
And be with you up there.
Dear Jesus tell our baby
Mother and Daddy knows she's there,
We are coming to her some day,
When Jesus says "Your time is here."

RURAL YOUTH DAY SET FOR MARCH 25

BOONE COUNTY YOUTHS TO MEET AT FLORENCE AT 9:30—COMPETENT AND TRAINED LEADERS WILL BE HEARD.

This, and following articles, which will be in The Recorder weekly for the next several weeks, will be addressed especially to the youth of Boone County. We hope that any parents who read this article will call attention to it to their children who are 12 years of age or older.

Realizing that the world of tomorrow will be run by the young people of today, it is the sincere desire of many of the leaders in this County that we give to the youth of this county all the advantages possible, both spiritual and material. Realizing also that all material gain and wealth and prosperity comes from the earth which is the Lord's, there must be a direct connection between things spiritual and things material.

In order to create a feeling of mutual understanding, fellowship, and unity among the young people of our county, a number of the leaders of the county are endeavoring on Saturday, March 25, to gather all the young people of our county together at the Florence school beginning at 9:30 in the morning, for the purpose of holding a Rural Youth Conference, at which time we will discuss the following subjects under competent and trained leadership:

1. The Spiritual, Cultural, and Physical Advantages of Living on a Farm.
2. The Priceless Heritage of the Farm.
3. Rural Life versus City Life.
4. Cooperation of Federal and State Agriculture Agencies as a Means to a Democratic Way of Life.
5. Means Toward a Good and Happy Life on the Farm.
6. Conservation and Wildlife.
7. What the Farm Youth Needs and Wants.

Under these headings each young person will have opportunity to express himself or herself as to what they feel would be the best solution to the subject.

We ask for the sincere cooperation of every organization in our county, the Church, the 4-H Clubs, the Boy Scouts, the Girl Reserves, the Hi-Y, the Parent-Teacher Associations, the Homemakers' Clubs the Utopia Club, the schools and all other organizations that are interested in giving our youth a better understanding and encouragement in facing the world of tomorrow.

Let us not forget the date—Saturday, March 25, the time 9:30 a. m., the place Florence school.

Young folks—this is for you The cost—nothing. So let's talk it up!

UTOPIA MAKES PLANS FOR 1944

WILL SPONSOR RECREATION PROGRAM, FEATURING FOLK GAMES—MEETING SET FOR FEBRUARY 17TH.

The Boone County Utopia Club will sponsor a special rural recreation program in 1944, accordlng to Elva Akins, Club Reporter. All communities in the county are invited to take part.

The recreation program will feature folk games and community group games that will be of special interest to the older youth. Carl W. Jones, Older Boys and Girls Specialist, will be in charge of the leaders' training program.

All who are interested in rural youth training are urged to attend the Utopia meeting Thursday evening, February 17, at Burlington school, at 7:45 p. m. A special meeting for the leaders wanting additional training will be held Friday evening. Mr. Jones will assist at both meetings.

Boone County Red Cross Nursing Activities

All schools have been visited during the past month, and health inspection done in most of them. Immediately following these inspections the nurse visited as many homes of children with marked defects, as time permits. The results are very gratifying. In most instances parents have needed corrections made immediately.

Now that the Home Nursing group in Walton High School has completed the course, another class has been started in Hebron High School. Hebron was selected because an authorized Home Economics instructor may give a part of this work, and there is not sufficient time left in the school year for the nurse to do it all.

Due to the present shortage of doctors and nurses, the National Red Cross is stressing Home Nursing classes, probably more than any phase of Public Health Nursing at the present time.

When school is out, the county nurse will have time for a number of classes. Any community in Boone County desiring this course, may have it at that time if the request comes in before other plans have been made to take the nurse's time. There should be from twelve to twenty in a group.

Requests may be made to R. I. Rouse, Chapter Chairman, Mrs. Walter Ferguson, Chairman of the Nursing Committee or Elizabeth Lowry, County Red Cross Nurse.

FARM LEADERS PLAN PROGRAM

HOME FOOD PRODUCTION CONTESTS PLANNED—TEN POINT PROGRAM OUTLINED AT MEETING.

Boone County "Live-at-Home" program leaders met at Burlington last Wednesday afternoon to plan ways of encouraging greater home food production in 1944. The leaders recommended the following program to be carried out.

1. Every family attempt to raise all the home food requirements possible and to can, store, preserve and use these foods, so that every rural family has an abundant supply of highly nutritious foods.

2. A county contest be held this year in which the rural family that does the best job of producing and storing for winter receive a special prize. The prize to be sponsored by local business organizations. The winners of the contest will be judged by a special committee approved by the Homemakers' organization.

3. One or more garden demonstrations in each community.

4. One or more canning demonstrations in each community to be sponsored by Homemakers' Clubs.

5. Timely news articles on food production.

6. Special information letters to all garden leaders.

7. Hold poultry production meeting on March 1st.

8. Distribute leaflets on improved garden, canning and other home food production practices thru Homemaker clubs and 4-H clubs.

9. Sponsor food production demonstration at 4-H Rally Day and the Fair.

10. Each Homemakers' Club and Community Agricultural Improvement Committee has elected special home food production leaders to assist in carrying out a better home food production program this year.

Holidays Returned

Governor Willis signed a bill repealing a 1942 law that limited for the war's duration state holidays to Independence Day, Labor Day and Christmas.

The repealer, sponsored by banks and other interests, had an emergency clause making it effective immediately.

In addition to the three allowed under the 1942 act, the others that regain recognition are New Year's Day; Lee's Birthday, January 19; Lincoln's Birthday, February 12; Washington's Birthday, February 22; Decoration Day, May 30; Confederate Memorial Day, June 3; Columbus Day, October 12, and Armistice Day, November 11.

In accordance with the above law, all banks in Boone County will be closed on Saturday, February 12, Lincoln's birthday, and will observe all others mentioned as legal holidays.

Can Openers Still Have Plenty To Do In County Kitchens

Rationing has not emptied the shelves of Boone County residents of canned foods it was revealed today, a total of 73,035 cans being used monthly, according to A. H. Nugent, general sales manager of the American Can Company.

Mr. Nugent based his figure on the government's compilation of 10,820 ration book holders in the county and the statement by the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics that the per capita consumption of canned goods during 1943 was .225 cans a day. On the basis of the average size pre-war can, approximately 177 pounds of pure metallic tin is reclaimable for the war effort from these cans, he explained.

Men in service eat 8,000,000 cans of food a day and millions of pounds of canned items are being shipped abroad for lend lease, he said.

Many foods strange to American palates are being packed in cans for shipment overseas. One of these is "Tushonka" for Russian highly seasoned pork packed in lard. Squid, a variety of octopus, is being canned for Italian consumption. Canned foods for England are usually seasoned quite differently to those intended for American use, Mr. Nugent said.

COMPLETION OF FIRE HOUSE NEAR

VOLUNTEER WORKERS URGED TO REPORT FOR FIRST MEETING AT FIRE HOUSE WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

The old Burlington Library building which has been selected to house the Burlington Volunteer Fire Department equipment is nearing completion, after being rearranged to house the fire fighting trucks and to serve as a meeting place and headquarters for the firemen.

The major construction work was let to a local constractor, which was completed last week. There remains considerable cleaning and repairing to be done, that can be handled by local persons at any time. The plans now is for everyone interested in the completion of the Fire Department to meet at the fire house at set intervals to do this work at the earliest possible date.

The first work meeting was Wednesday night, February 9th at 7:00 p. m. The success of these meetings will determine just how soon we will be able to complete the fire apparatus and get the organization to functioning.

Work meetings will serve as a forerunner to the organizational meeting which will be held just as soon the equipment is ready for use. The Board of Directors will select the volunteer firemen and they will be trained by experienced men in the correct way to fight fires and to use fire equipment.

All equipment is now in the hands of the department, but must be assmbled and put in order before the department can go on the road. Every person who lives in the Burlington is urged to give whatever time you can to the remainder of this work as it might be your own home that needs fire protection first.

Both heat and lights are now available in the fire house and work can be done at night. If you are unable to attend the first meeting, please contact some interested person and make known your desire to help and you will be informed of plans to complete this work.

17 HOMEMAKERS ATTEND MEETING

HELD AT LEXINGTON—HIGHLIGHTS OF FARM AND HOME WEEK TO BE GIVEN AT FEBRUARY-MARCH MEETINGS.

The program of Farm and Home Week was considered exceptionally good by the six homemakers from Boone County who attended the four-day meeting. Eleven others attended one or more days' programs.

The local group was particularly interested in the Wednesday program which was devoted to descriptions of life in occupied countries and in prison camps. Miss Margaret Roed, who had escaped from Norway, felt that "perpetual vigilance is the price of liberty." Madame Chu She-Ming told how the Chinese are trying to minimize hate so that a lasting peace will have a firmer foundation after World War No. two.

Highlights of Farm and Home Week will be given at each Homemakers' Club during the latter part of February and March.

Those who atended part or all of the program are Mrs. Albert Willis, Mrs. Albert Pfalzgraf and Mrs. Jonas Stevens, Bullittsville; Mrs. Vernon Pope, Burlington; Mrs. John Schram, Mrs. Joe Berkshire, Mrs. Harold Conner, Mrs. Clyde Arnold, and Mrs. John Martin, Florence; Mrs. Gilbert Stewart, Verona; Mrs. W. County Bond Drive Far Short of Quota

ONLY FIFTY-FIVE PERCENT OF QUOTA REACHED, ACCORDING TO COUNTY CHAIRMAN—TWO PRECINCTS JOIN HONOR ROLL

Subscriptions for the past week in Boone County in the Fourth War Loan Drive amounted to $91,298.25, making a total of $289,285.75 subscribed to date in this drive. This is just a little over 55 percent of the quota of $500,000.00 for this county.

Hebron and Bullittsville have joined the honor roll with Belleview and Beaver in having exceeded their quota. Burlington precinct has subscribed $50,868.75 on its quota of $68,483.54. Figures on other precincts are not available.

Some heavy work and heavy subscriptions will have to be forthcoming before February 15th if Boone County raises its quota.

Make no mistake—reaching our local goal in the 4th War Loan is the same as winning a battle over the Germans or Japs. Not making our local quota is like losing a battle—like quitting in the midst of action!

Our boys didn't count the cost when they took Tarawa. We can't count the cost in winning our battle. The only difference is that at Tarawa their very lives were at stake. And they gave them—for us.

We are not asked to give our lives. We are not even asked to give our dollars. We are asked to lend them, at good interest—so that we can help hasten the war's end. So that we will have money to tide us over when the war does end. So that we will be able to send our children to school or college, and buy the fascinating new products of industry when automobiles once more replace automatics. All thanks to the safest investments in the world today—WAR BONDS!

But remember—we can't make our county quota unless you first make yours. The State can't make its quota unless we make our quotas. And we as a nation can't make our quota unless each state comes through.

Your quota is clear—buy at least one extra $100 Series E War Bond. Invest more if you possibly can—$200, $300, $400—invest to the very limit of your ability, just as our boys invested their lives, the very limit of their abilities, at Tarawa! For America's freedom—for your freedom!

We cannot—we must not fail our fighting men now. Making our quota in the 4th War Loan is one battle only we can win. Start punching from your pocket—today!

Every patriotic home in America will want to display this emblem. Paste it on your front door or on your front door or on a window to show that you have done your part in the 4th War Loan.

FARMERS PLAN IMPROVEMENT

OF PASTURE AND HAY PROBLEMS—RECOMMEND FULL TOBACCO ALLOTMENTS TO INCREASE INCOME.

Pasture and hay improvement are the two major agricultural improvement problems in Boone County, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Farmers in ten community agricultural improvement planning meetings held during the past three weeks were unanimous in their opinions on this need. They also recommended the growing of the full tobacco allotments as a source of increased cash crop income.

Pasture forms the cheapest source of all livestock feed. Abundance of cheap feed is the most sound basis for all livestock production. Seven pounds of pasture are equal to 1 and 1-3 pounds of corn or 1 pound of soybean meal. One acre of excellent pasture is equal in total feeding value to a 64 bushel corn crop. Hay is the second cheapest source of feed and ranks next in importance to good pasture.

Good pasture has been one of the most misunderstood and undervaluated crops produced on the farm. The leaders in planning the 1944 agricultural program have recommended a year round grazing program that will start in the fall, with early sown small grains and legumes that occassionally furnish some pasture during the winter month and greatly reduce the hay requirements during the early spring. The small grain pasture would be followed with high quality permenant pastures with good lespedeza pastures in the fall.

Farmers are faced with high priced seeds and less available labor. Regardless of seed prices every farmer should seed well all land ready for seeding this spring. At least two grasses and two legumes should be seeded. Lime, phosphate, manure and in many cases division ditches are great helps to higher production.

Contrary to general opinion the county rates high in quality pastures and hay production compared to the adjoining surplus corn and hay producing areas.

On Sunday February 6, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie McMullen, Sr., entertained the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Kirtley and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Ryle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark and son, Mrs. Dorothy Ryle, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. McMullen, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Hoard and sons, Miss Loretta Hoard, and Cpl. Leslie T. McMullen, Jr.

BURLEY SALES VOLUME DROPS

DURING PAST WEEK—SEVERAL HOUSES CLOSED, ACCORDING TO REPORTS OF STATE DEPARTMENT.

Kentucky burley sales last week were less than half the volume of the week before, according to the figures reported by the State Department of Agriculture.

For the week beginning January 29, Kentucky markets sold 26,345,706 pounds, while during the last week the poundage dropped to 12,465,137. This amount brought $5,460,726.17, an average of $43.81 a hundredweight, or 59 cents below the $44.40 of the preceding week.

Total volume last week for the nation's burley marts was given as 14,251,973 pounds by the War Food Administration, for an average of $43.67, or 71 cents below that of the previous week.

Markets holding their last formal auctions last week—though some will sell odd lots informally—included Springfield, Bloomfield, Bowling Green and Glasgow, Ky., and Huntington, W. Va. Only two sales were conducted on the Tennessee markets during the week.

A STITCH IN TIME

Oldsters who lived through the reconstruction years following the last war will unanimously approve legislation that will provide payments of a few hundred dollars to every soldier mustered out of service. This is a payment that might be described by a commercial term "for value received." It will forestall such tragedies as those of 19-19-20 when tens of thousands of veterans searched everywhere for jobs and couldn't find them.

Then some group started the idea of "A march on Washington," and that led to the "soldiers bonus armies," making their appeals to Congress. Finally thousands of veterans were driven out of the Capital. Those men wanted jobs, and wages to enable them to take up the broken threads of life and to support their families. No one wants to see a repetition of that kind of desperation and misery. The answer is found in mustering-out pay, which Congress is making in as liberal sums as possible.

PUBLIC OPNION AND PREJUDICE

Polls of public opinion appear to have been reduced to measuring the importance of public prejudices. Reporters who take their whirls through Washington and other large cities find that the "man in the street" is apt to have decided opinions, and he may "love" or "hate," without moderation. Those "men in the street" will tell you that the whole country is going to the bow-wows if so-and-so is elected, while all will turn out fair and lovely if this other fellows gets in. He may be talking about Roosevelt, Wallace, Dewey or Willkie—those four being the most popular victims of loose conversation. One matter of importance on the great Home Front concerns the recovery of what might be called "sober-thinking."

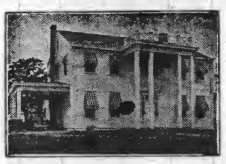
—o—

GOOD AND BAD NEWS TRAVELS FAST

There isn't any particular evidence in the National Capital that Congressmen absorbed much more information from their own people during their trips back home than had reached them in the ground-swells before they went away.

Things are different from what they were in the first World War when it took weeks to discover the trend of events "back home." We have better newspapers and faster news than 25 years ago; radio has changed communication to a matter of minutes. The airplane has done as much in annihilating time in transportation.

—o—



FRAUDS AND CRIMES

A few firms that have had war contracts are being put on the carpet in Washington while other concerns and individuals are being prosecuted. The number of robberies, murders and crimes have increased alarmingly. It is all too bad. But it is history repeating itself. We had the same conditions in the first World War, and there is no reason to believe that frauds and crimes will be less than last year. It's just too bad—so be careful and "watch your step."

The Greatest Mother In The World

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

Mother nature gives the birds microscopic eyes to see tiny grain from a distance, and how she cares for us humans.

For instance, when we bruise our feet by wearing poorly constructed or ill fitted shoes. Nature sets up protective layers, corns, callouses and bunions, at the point where the attack is directed, and by means of pain telegraphs the brain that danger is at hand and how do we respond to nature's signal? Usually, by padding these protective layers, or paring them. This of course, does relieve the pain but does NOT remove the cause of the trouble corns, callouses and bunions are merely symptoms telling you there is something wrong inside your feet.

Permanent relief will be obtained when you relieve pressure on delicate nerves and tissue, when you straighten up weak, inrolling feet that throw the strain of weight bearing into the outer arch. Eo, if you would really get at the bottom of your foot ills, by all means, see our foot comfort specialists—they will make a scientific foot analysis of your foot. Then foot comfort is absolutely assured.—Adv.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL
SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D. Of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for February 13

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

JESUS ON THE MOUNTAIN AND IN THE VALLEY

LESSON TEXT—Mark 9:2-8, 17-27.
GOLDEN TEXT—I believe; help thou mine unbelief.—Mark 9:24.

The vision of the mountain top prepares the believe for service down in the valley. "Where there is no vision the people perish," said the wise man of old (Prov. 29:18). For want of a true vision of God, a knowledge of His truth, and the God-given constraint which makes men give themselves in sacrificial service, the people will perish in their sins.

But let men come to know the truth as it is in Christ, learn to know Him as the Son of God glorious and powerful, and then let them translate their knowledge of Christian truth and their personal spiritual experiences into the daily ministry to the needs of their fellow men, and there will be songs of salvation and joy.

I. Knowing (vv. 2-7).

The transfiguration of Christ doubtless meant much to Him in preparation for His coming death and resurrection. It was a foregleam of His kingdom glory.

In this lesson we are concerned with the experience of the disciples rather than the feeling of our Lord. Fundamental in both Christian life and service is a clear understanding of the person and work of Christ. One may come to Christ knowing little more than that He is the divine Saviour, and one may enter into Christian living with a meager knowledge of the doctrines of the Bible. But the Christian who fails to grow in knowledge will not grow in grace as he should.

God sets no premium on ignorance, in fact it is quite evident that the great blight on the Christian church today is the appalling lack of understanding of God's Word.

The disciples came to a fuller conviction that He was the Son of God as they saw Him transfigured and heard the Father say, "This is my beloved Son." They learned more plainly the truth of His coming death for the sins of all mankind. They saw in the indescribable beauty of that moment the foregleam of His coming glory. What important truths these are—His deity— is redemption—His coming kingship. Do we have a clear grasp of these truths? If not, let us search the Scriptures.

II. Growing (v. 8).

"Jesus only." He filled their vision and their hearts. They had made spiritual progress as they had seen His glory and heard the commending voice of the Father.

Great experiences of spiritual renewing and power are necessary to effective life and testimony. They may not be in outward manifestation, in fact they are more often in the inner recesses of the soul; but they transform men and send them forth to magnificent living for God. One wonders if much of the dearth of power in the Christian church is not to be attributed directly to the lack of such experiences with God.

The disciples had an unforgettable mountaintop experience. Even so have many others found the secret of power.

Let us remember that such privileges are not reserved for a few, they are the birthright of every Christian. Power without knowledge is a dangerous and destructive thing, but knowledge without power is a dead thing.

Let us study God's Word but let the truth be baptized in the overflowing spiritual power of personal experience with God.

In regeneration all that Christ is and has for us is made available. If we have not taken out our inheritance let us do it at once.

III. Serving (vv. 17-27).

One of the lessons that seems hard to learn and to keep constantly effective in the life of a Christian is that mountaintop experiences of spiritual uplift are not an end in themselves, but a preparation for service. All too often we come to regard such times of peculiar blessing, whether in the privacy of our own room or in the great conference of Christian workers, as something which should glow warmly in our own hearts, making us glad in the Lord, and not as a preparation for ministry to others.

Jesus and the disciples went up to the place of prayer, into the place of glory, and down to the place of service. How fitting is that sequence.

Much confusion exists in the church because those who have foolishly abandoned God's Word and substituted the energy of the flesh for spiritual power have been most diligent in service to humanity; while those who know and accept the truth about Christ, and who profess to believe in the power of the Spirit-filled life, have failed to serve their needy neighbors.

"But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up" (v. 27). Verses 28 and 29 indicate that the disciples might have done the same by believing prayer.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Of my mother, Mrs. Carrie M. Gross, who passed away February 10, 1943.

The echo of her voice, her eyes, her smile,
Just as they were, are with us all the while;
Even though beyond the gate,
Our loved one has found happiness and rest,
There is comfort in the thought,
That a loving God knows best.
Sadly missed by her husband, daughter, son-in-law and grandchildren.

Private William R. Walton, 351-28173, Service Battry, 56th F. A. Bn., APO 8, care Postmaster, New York, N. Y., writes:

"Allow me to thank you for all the past issues of the Boone Co. Recorder that I have received. My appreciation is deep for you in the splendid way you have been keeping me and my buddies supplied with the news back in good old Boone County.

"From Northern Ireland, I send all the best wishes to you and your capable staff, and a hearty hello to all my friends back home."

• • •

David L. Tanner, Company 385 A. S. Barrack E. 21, USNT, Sampson, N. Y., writes: "I am in the Navy now and am sending you my address so I can receive The Recorder and to let the other boys know where I am. . . . I am the only one from our group who was sent to New York. I would like to know where they have been stationed. . . I will write you a letter when I have more time. I like O. K. so far."

Robert Stephens, stationed somewhere in Africa, writes:

"How is everybody around Burlington by now? I am doing very well I guess and am in the best of health. I am still stationed here in North Africa. I have been here eight months now. I guess eight months isn't so long but it has seemed like a long time to me.

"I haven't seen Paul Clore or Ralph Cain for two months or more. They are out somewhere on a job. I think we were pretty lucky to get to be in the same regiment. If a fellow has someone to talk to once in a while that he has known all of his life it makes him feel he isn't so far from home.

"Well Pete, I have been receiving the paper quite regularly since I have been over here, and I really do appreciate your sending it to me. Most of the time I have a little time after mail call that I can read letters and the paper. When I get the paper I think I read every word in it at least once, sometimes I read part of it the second time. I don't think anyone back home can imagine how much the Recorder really means to all of us fellows from Boone County.

"I would also like to thank all my friends for the nice letters and cards sent to me at Christmas. I would like to answer all the letters but I don't have enough time to answer all of them.

"We went on a ten-mile hike Thursday night and we had to get up at regular time the next morning for work. A colored fellow told me one day that if a man lived through this war he never would die. I think he was almost right.

"Thanks again for The Recorder and tell everyone I said hello. I hope to be back in Burlington in another year.

"I will have to close now for it is about ten thirty and tomorrow is another day."

Pfc. Harold T. Rich 35468783, Med. Det. 17th Inf. 1st Bn., U. S. Army, APO 7, care Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif., writes:

"It gives me great pleasure to write a letter for an issue in our domestic paper. I want to thank you and your fellow employees for your kind and efficient work in making it possible for us boys who are in the armed forces to receive news from the home front.

"I received my first copy of your paper dated October 18th since I have been in the South Pacific. Nine days were required to get it here, but taking everything into consideration, that was excellent time.

"The climate here is very uncomfortable, as it is very hot and dry, but when it rains, it pours.

"I have been in the army seventeen months and I have seen action in the Aluetions Islands. It was cold there, but I enjoyed it what time I was there. Right now I am enjoying the best of health and getting plenty to eat, although I'm in the hospital now, but looking forward to getting out before long.

"I look forward every week to receiving news from the folks at home and I especially enjoy reading the section 'Our Boys In The Service' because that is where most of my friends are.

"I have been all through the North and South Pacific, and there are many interesting places I would like to write about if I could. Maybe I will be able to write about them later.

"I'm proud to know I'm a citizen of the county, and to know I'll be welcomed along with the other fellows returning there in the near future.

"I am somewhere in the Hawaiian Islands, is all the news I can give at the present.

"Well, think I've talked enough of your time away, so will close. Tell all the Boone County folks hello and will see you again sometime. I am sending my address and will appreciate hearing from any if not all of my Boone County friends."

• • •

Ralph E. Marlow, ASN 35878128 Co. C, 6th Bn., 2nd Platoon, Camp Wheeler, Ga., writes:

"I have been trying to write you since I have been here. Have been rather busy so I am getting to it now. I receive The Recorder every week. I certainly enjoy reading all the news from home. Several of the boys are here in Wheeler. I see some of them, but not often. I enjoy reading what the boys have to say.

"I have five more weeks here, then will be finished. Hope to have a few days off then. Will try to stop and see you and all the fellows.

"We have had nice weather thru most of our training.

"Will again thank you for The Recorder. Tell all the fellows hello."

• • •

We are in receipt of the following letter from Pvt. Orville E. Hodges, Co. 3 1st IIB, 2nd Platoon, Camp Wheeler, Ga.:

"I thought I would write to you and thank you for sending me The Recorder. I have received it two weeks now and it makes a fellow feel good to read about friends back home. There are several other boys that read it too, for they say they like to read the letters that boys have sent, from overseas especially the one that Aubrey E. Knox wrote. I am with them all the way for people back home don't know just what a soldier goes through in camp and overseas.

"I don't think it will be long until I will be over there for I have six more weeks training, then I don't know where they will send me, and I don't care, for the sooner we get over there the sooner the war will be over.

"People back home complain about having to buy War Bonds, but I can tell them this, we boys in camp buy bonds and at the end of the month we have $10.00 or $15.00 to spend and they complain if they don't have that much ever Saturday night to spend. I think we all must help.

"I want to thank you again for the paper and tell all my friends hello. Hoping to see them soon."

Soon, he will be given a series of aptitude tests to determine whether he will be selected to attend one of the Navy's service schools, or will be assigned to active duty at sea.

T-5 Lawrence L. Aylor, Hq. Co., 38th Inf. Div. APO 38, care Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif., writes:

"Just a line to inform you of a change of address. We have reached our destination safely and the trip was most enjoyable. Wish to thank you for the past issues of The Recorder and I shall look forward to hearing the latest news of those of the most interest—the people of Boone County."

W. R. Tanner, of Curtis, Bay Md., writes:

"Have received the last two editions of your paper for which I wish to express my thanks, and also want to commend you on your plan of keeping the service front well informed on the home front. Nothing cheers a man away from home like news from home.

"Wishing you continued success in your business."

• • •

Wilbur Shinkle, of Fort Bragg, N. C., writes: "I have been on maneuvers in Tennessee for over two months. They were really rugged, as it snowed or rained and was near zero all the time. We were there except for a few pretty days.

"Since I, same as all the soldiers who receive the Recorder, enjoy the news from Boone County, I would like for you to change my address to the new one here at Ft. Bragg.

"I am always thankful to you for The Recorder."

The following letter was received from Carl Rudicill, stationed with the U. S. Army in Iran:

"I suppose you think it is a long time between letters, but nevertheless I'll never forget the people back home. The Recorder still arrives about every two weeks and it is just like a bundle of mail from home. I even read all the advertisements from front to back. Of course, the most interesting is the local news and With Our Boys in the Service. That is one way we can check on some of the friends in the service to really find out where they are. Although we are far away and have been for some two and one-half years we never grow tired of the news from home.

"Apparently from what I have read, Boone County is well represented in every part of the world, and from what I remember about all the peace-loving boys of the County, if it is trouble the Axis are looking for they are bound to find it when they meet the country's representatives.

"Of course here, we are still rail roading, and I am quite sure Hitler feels the sting of supplies Uncle Joe is receiving. The only bad part is we can't give more, and get this mess cleaned up sooner.

"I have read the Senator's statements, who vsited this country, and it is only fair to say that public opinion laughed at them too soon.

"So much for what is happening all over the world, I only hope that the people will forget about political maters long enough when this is over and not let it happen again in twenty more years.

"We had a very nice Xmas and New Years—turkey both days, so much better than last year, that I believe everyone forgot they were in the army for those two days.

"I have been working from four in the afternoon till twelve at night. Can't say so much for the hours, but there is nothing else to do, and who am I to gripe?

"Tell everyone hello for me and I hope to be seeing everyone soon."

OLD KENTUCKY

By Frances Richmond

I was born in Old Kentucky, where the sky's a bit more blue!
The grass a little greener, and friends are kind and true.
I love its hills and valleys, its fields of waving grain;
Its meadows where the lambs play, in sunshine or in rain.

My heart's in Old Kentucky, tho my home is far away,
It's where my kindred gather, each year, just for a day;
It's such a glad reunion, for all to meet again,
Though the absence of a few is sure to bring us pain.

I love dear Old Kentucky the state that gave me birth!
It's noted for its friendliness the best there is on earth;
When God made Old Kentucky, He must have loved it too,
For He gave it more of beauty, than anyone else could do.

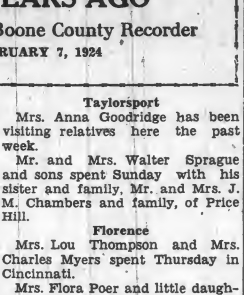
RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Lucky is the youngster who attends a school where the well-planned hot lunch is as regular a feature of the daily schedule as the noon hour itself. For those not so fortunate, it is up to the homemaker to see that a substantial, tempting meal is carried from home. In many schools, teachers and parents together have worked out some scheme for re-heating jars of soups, chocolate or other food brought from home. Milk in some form should be a "must" in every lunch menu.

A good lunch gives the child a satisfied feeling, keeps him from getting sleepy and restless, and enables him to do better work.

A bulletin, "Lunches for School Children," No. 365, by foods specialists Florence Imlay and Pearl J. Haak of the Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics, gives menus and recipes for both individual and group lunches. Copies may be secured free from offices of county agricultural or home agents, or from the college.

A packed school lunch menu: Fruit-nut bread and butter sandwich, enriched bread and meat sandwich, carrot strips, milk (or cocoa for re-heating), canned fruit or apple, cookies.



Fruit-Nut Bread: 2 c. white flour, 2 c. wholewheat flour, ½ c. brown sugar, 1 c. seedless raisins or chopped dried fruit; ½ c. chopped nuts, 1 teaspoon salt, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 2 eggs, 2 c. milk, 2 tablespoons melted fat.

Mix together well the flour, sugar, raisins, nuts, salt and baking powder. Add milk and melted fat to well beaten eggs. Combine the two mixtures and stir vigorously until all the flour is dampened. Pour into greased pans, allow to stand 15 to 20 minutes, then bake in a moderate oven, 350-375 degrees, for 45 minutes.

The 4th WAR LOAN is your opportunity to do something about it!

It's Time to Take the Offensive. Your government has the men it needs to do the job in the front lines — great men all! But it doesn't have the money it needs, by a long way. That's your job! And the immediate task is the Fourth War Loan — Your chance to take the offensive not only in support of the men who are fighting and dying for you and your loved ones, but also in support of your own future!

What are you going to do about a wornout tractor, about repairing fences and buildings, about replacing depreciated machinery and equipment? Will you be ready with money in the bank when these things are needed?

You will if you take the offensive now! Put every extra dollar into U. S. War Bonds — the best form of financial reserve ever offered you. Think! You are asked to make a sound and prudent investment — not a sacrifice!

When Your Boy Comes Home

Will your boy come back to a farm or ranch with no financial reserves, no future? Or will you greet him at the gate with a bundle of War Savings Bonds — for working capital, new machinery, better buildings? And if your children are going to college, why not be sure they get there by buying today the Bonds that will pay the cost.

No need, really, to tell an up-to-date farmer or rancher what he needs financial reserves for. You know more reasons than anyone else can enumerate for setting aside extra dollars to meet the future. Now is your chance to do it . . . and help fight the war, too!

Go on the offensive! Buy all the Bonds you can — today!

You Never Get Less Than You Lend! And you get ⅛ more than you invest. When held 10 years, War Bonds yield 2.9% interest compounded semi-annually. You get back $4 for every $3.

Cash When You Need It. If an emergency comes along, your War Bonds are like money in the bank. Uncle Sam will redeem them in cash—at full purchase price—any time after you've held them 60 days. Don't cash them unless you have to. And don't hold back a single dollar unnecessarily from the purchase of War Bonds. YOUR HELP IS NEEDED.

Facts About War Bonds (Series E)

You can buy War Bonds from your bank, postmaster, mail carrier or Production Credit Association. Don't wait. Do it by mail if you can't get to town!

You Lend Uncle Sam	Upon Maturity You Get Back
$18.75	$25.00
37.50	50.00
75.00	100.00
375.00	500.00

For America's Future, for Your Future, for Your Children's Future, Invest in EXTRA War Savings Bonds

This window sticker identifies you as the purchaser of extra War Bonds during the Fourth War Loan. It is a badge of honor to be displayed with pride. Be the first in your neighborhood to have one. Buy an extra War Bond today!

RED CROSS GOAL SET AT $8,700.00

IN BOONE COUNTY, ACCORDING TO IRVIN ROUSE, CHAIRMAN —QUOTA LAST YEAR WAS $4,300.00.

On March 1 the largest Red Cross drive in history will be started in this country, with a goal of two hundred million dollars. Boone County's quota has been set at $8,700.00, and plans are now being made by the County Chairman, Irvin Rouse, to meet it.

When it is considered that Boone County has about 950 boys in the Services, and that if ten dollars were collected for each boy, the quota would be more than obtained, it seems it should be done. Surely Boone County would not want any one of its boys to feel there was not ten dollars worth of interest in him at home?

Last year Boone County's quota was $4,300.00, but because of unprecedented responsibilities, due to the war, our quota is more than doubled. This means each individual subscription must be doubled too. Start now to prepare to meet this obligation.

Among other services, your Red Cross helps service men with personal problems, sends food parcels to war prisoners, aids service families and disabled veterans, operates service clubs overseas, recruits Army and Navy nurses, handles emergency messages for servicemen and families, collects life saving blood, provides comforts, cheer and recreation in hospitals, makes surgical dressings, and helps when disaster strikes at home.

BURLEY GROWERS WILL HEAR HUNT

SPECIALIST WILL DISCUSS IMPROVED METHODS OF WEED PRODUCTION FOR HIGHER QUALITY AND YIELD.

Boone County's 1943 million dollar tobacco crop will be discussed in a meeting at Burlington Friday evening, February 25, at 7:45 p. m., according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. FIRE MEETING SET TONIGHT

FOR ALL PERSONS DESIRING TO WORK ON FIRE EQUIPMENT—WARNING SIREN TO BE INSTALLED THIS WEEK.

A work meeting has been called for Thursday night of this week at the firehouse in Burlington at 6:30 p. m. for the purpose of completing the fire truck and getting ready for the first test of the truck and fittings which must be done before the paint job can be completed.

The outside warning siren is to be installed this week and will have to be tested thoroughly before put into operation. Everyone is urged not to become alarmed when the siren is sounded as it will be only for testing purposes until everyone is notified otherwise. It will also be sounded to notify everyone of a fire meeting at the firehouse.

Much practice will be required for our men who are to handle the fire equipment and everyone is urged to cooperate and not become alarmed until you are notified that the department is really in operation.

A fire department is no better than the organization behind it, and therefore it will take a lot of hard training on the part of the firemen in order to have a good Volunteer Fire Department. Please remember these men are giving of their time and money in order to train themselves to protect our property from fire. With the cooperation of everyone we can have a good rural fire department.

FEED SHORTAGE IS PREDICTED

BY L. A. VENNES, UNLESS GOOD CROPS ARE PRODUCED THIS YEAR IN TALK TO BOONE CO. FARMERS WEDNESDAY.

L. A. Vennes, market specialist from the College of Agriculture, advised livestock producers in a meeting in Burlington Wednesday, February 9, to expect less feed per head of livestock in 1944 and 1945 unless good crops are produced this year. Livestock numbers are at record highs and the surplus feed supplies of former years are practically exhausted.

Boone County farmers normally import feed and should make every effort this year to produce the maximum amount of feed needed for their livestock. This may mean considerable adjustment in livestock numbers on some farms.

Danny Welch, sheep salesman and Mr. Whistler of the Producers Cooperative Livestock Association outlined livestock marketing problems of the Cincinnati Livestock Market in recent months. A special livestock committee was appointed to represent the county at the Cooperative Livestock Marketing meeting in Cincinnati on February 17th.

SOLDIERS WILL RECEIVE PAY

WHEN DISCHARGED FROM U. S. ARMY—SUMS OF $100 TO $300 WILL BE GIVEN SOLDIERS DEPENDING ON SERVICE.

Boone Post No. 4 of the American Legion of Kentucky has received a supply of forms to be used by World War II veterans in making application for their muster-out pay, it has been announced by C. G. Kelly, post adjutant.

Honorably discharged World War II veterans desiring to make application for muster-out pay may procure a copy of the form, together with information as to where it is to be mailed, by calling upon Adjutant C. G. Kelly at Burlington, Ky.

All service men and women under the rank of captain are eligible to receive muster-out pay except those over 38 years who asked to be discharged to take a civilian job; those dishonorably discharged and students in the Army's education training program.

The muster-out pay bill as enacted by the Congress provides $100 to veterans with less than 60 days of domestic service; $200 to veterans with more than 60 days of domestic service, and $300 for those with service overseas or in Alaska.

Procurement and distribution of these forms by the local Legion Post, according to Adjutant Kelly, is just another example of the organization's willingness and desire to be of service to the men and women honorably discharged from World War II.

Bond Quota Exceeded By $100,000, Is Report

COVINGTON FIRMS ALLOCATED OVER $50,000.00 TO BOONE COUNTY — MANY PRECINCTS OVERSUBSCRIBED.

At the close of business last Friday night, Saturday being a bank holiday, total subscriptions to the Fourth War Loan Drive amounted to $364,066.25 which was approximately $136,000.00 short of Boone County's quota of $500,000.00, with Beaver, Belleview, Burlington, Petersburg and Hebron-Bullittsville announcing "over the top."

All day long Monday and Tuesday of this week the telephone wires were kept busy urging the precinct chairmen and their workers to make extra effort to raise this shortage. Walton, Florence and Constance announced Tuesday that their quotas had been raised, and with some oversubscriptions in many precincts it can be stated that all precincts are "over the top" and Boone County has again met the call of our country.

When the news went out Monday morning that Boone County was short $136,000.00 on its quota, several business firms of Covington who are interested in Boone County and who receive business from this section, allocated over $50,000.00 of their subscriptions to this county, just in case we needed it. The county chairman also received a wire from Louisville stating that they had allocated $15,000.00 to us and were prepared to give us more if we needed it in raising our quota.

While it developed that we would not have needed this help, but it was a magnanimous jesture on the part of these men who feel an interest in Boone County and its people, and by these outside allocations it is now predicted that our county quota will be exceeded by close to $100,000.00. A more detailed report will appear in this paper next week.

Two More Boone County Farms Reported Sold

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil O. Vater, of Newport purchased 115 acres, known as the Lon Utz farm, in the Big Bone Baptist Church neighborhood, from the Garrison heirs. The purchasers expect to move to this farm March 1st.

Both of these sales were made the past week through A. B. Renaker. These farms have been in the Garrison families for almost a century and were sold to settle the Garrison estate.

VALUE STRESSED OF YOUTH RALLY

SCHEDULED AT FLORENCE SCHOOL MARCH 25—CONTENTED RURAL LIFE FOR YOUTH IS AIM.

This is the second of a series of articles leading up to the Rural Youth Conference which is to be held at the Florence school March 25th.

The greatest value that we receive from getting together is the inspiration that comes to us when we meet and mingle with each other. There are no "self-made men." While many have had to strive to overcome difficulties in order to attain a certain goal, someone, sometime in that person's life gave him the inspiration to fight for that goal.

"There is a time we know not when,
A place we know not where
That marks the destiny of man,
To glory, or despair."

As a group of young people are brought together, one life may touch another in such a way that the ultimate destiny of one is changed.

If we are to be a happy and wholesome individual there are numerous phases of our nature that must be developed. We recognize as the most important of the following: The physical, mental, social and the moral or spiritual. Each of these may be divided into other characteristics that should be developed. We cannot be the person we should be and neglect any of the above parts of human nature. A person may be a physical giant, but if he is not developed mentally he is an undesirable. He may be strong mentally and not developed socially or spiritually and therefore be an undesirable.

The Youth Rally takes into consideration the complete individual and will strive to weave all of this into one central idea—a happy contended rural life.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

JESUS TEACHES TRUE GREATNESS

LESSON TEXT—Mark 9:33-39; 10:13-16, 42-45.

GOLDEN TEXT—The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.—Mark 10:45.

Ambition to be great is not wrong—provided one has a proper conception of greatness, and seeks it in a right way. Every one of us should be our very best, not for selfish reasons, but for God's glory.

The disciples were earnest and eager to have a place of honor with the Lord in glory, but even in that holy purpose they became selfish and argumentative. Jesus gives several marks of a truly great man.

Greatness Means Being—

I. Not First, but Last (9:33-35).

The way of the world is to seek the place of "No. 1 man"—to be looked up to, honored, and served by all. True greatness takes the last place, the place of a servant; and lo, God regards that as the first place.

It is not a question of timid diffidence, or self-effacement, but a willingness to take the humble place in order to serve all.

II. Not Proud, but Humble (9:36, 37).

"Great" people of is world have no time for children. Let them be cared for by servants, teachers, anyone at all, but not by their "distinguished" parents.

But Jesus said that the one who set aside human pride and received a child with humility of heart and mind—and in His name—received the Lord who gave them life—spiritual as well as physical—and is interested in them; in fact, He is with them and hence when we receive them in His name, He is there!

III. Not Exclusive, but Co-operative (9:38, 39).

John, quick to apprehend spiritual truth, saw in the teaching of Christ concerning the little child the condemnation of something he had done.

The man who casts out demons, or who gives the disciple of Jesus a cup of water, in His name—that is, with true faith in Christ, and in His power, and for His glory—must be a believer. He may not belong to our group or circle, he may not speak our language, he may not use our methods, but if he is serving Christ we should not forbid him or speak evil of him. You and I may not like one another's appearance, or voice, or methods, but let us love and co-operate with one another for Christ's sake!

IV. Not Important, but Approachable (10:13-16).

Some who think they are great, pride themselves on being hard to reach—protected from the rabble and their problems by secretaries and servants.

The disciples had built up such an idea of the importance of Christ in their own minds. He had never given them any ground for it, either by word or deed.

So the man who is truly great follows in the Master's footsteps. He is approachable, kind, has time for simple folk and little children. If that isn't true of a man he is not great—no matter what he may think of himself or what others may say about him.

V. Not a Supervisor, but a Servant (10:42-44).

Christianity is not organized after the manner of secular government (v. 42). Much of the mischief that has come to pass in the church is the result of "running the church" as an organization, when it should be allowed to develop as a living organism.

The way up is down. That is always true in the spiritual realm. The Son of man came not to be ministered unto but to minister, yea, to give His very life (v. 45). Shall not those who bear His name walk the same path of humble self-denial?

Anyone who observes with even a little care knows that the church of Jesus Christ is hindered most seriously by the presence of pride and selfish ambition. Some people will not work unless they can rule.

Are there then no Christians who humbly serve the Lord? Yes, praise His name, there are many, and wherever they are found they are the salt of the earth.

VI. Not Unselfish, but Sacrificial (10:45).

The world is full of people who want to be served. Their little personalities swell with pride and pleasure if someone else cringes and bows, and serves.

There is nothing commendable about being served. The great and good thing is to serve.

The Son of man—Himself the Lord of glory, the One who might have called legions of angels to do His will—came "not to be ministered unto but to minister." That service meant going about doing good even when He was exhausted and worn. But it meant far more than that, for it took Him to the cross where He gave "his life a ransom" for us. Are we ready to learn of Him?

AMERICA'S FIGHTING POWER
stems from his genius

THIS week America honors the memory of the man whose genius led to the development of an industry that has proven to be one of the nation's greatest assets in its hour of greatest peril.

If Edison were alive today he would be profoundly thrilled by electricity's contribution to America's gigantic war production program—by the endless flow of arms made possible by America's unchallenged leadership in the field of power production.

But back in 1879 when he perfected the incandescent lamp and later in 1882 when he gave the world the first practical central station electric system, he was not thinking of electricity as a producer of materials for destruction. He visualized it as a servant of mankind that would ease man's labors, make goods more plentiful and cheaper, and improve living standards beyond any previous conception in history.

Edison lived to see his dream come true. And when this war is won, electricity will continue its interrupted march of progress, bringing new comforts and conveniences, new benefits to mankind.

For America, birthplace of the electrical industry, has the power to win the war... and the power to take the lead in building toward that better world that is sure to come when peace returns.

WITH OUR BOYS IN THE SERVICE

We are in receipt of the following letter from Thomas J. Stewart:

"Except for the dire dearth of time I would have made my "debut" in the good old Recorder, long ago.

"It is the fightinest combat engineers I am now assigned with, and after my training is completed I will be associated with an Army Society who have the perogatives and distinction of being "First in battle and last to leave." That is the spirit and tradition of the whole Army Engineer Corps.

"Our training routine is decidedly strenuous and comparable in some respects to varied branches of the army moulded into one. We learn the basic tactics of the Infantry and then go onto master the military arts allied with engineering such as building bridges, roads, laying and removal of mine fields, tank traps, demolitions, etc.

"Although I should like to, mindful of news space conservation, I am reluctant to give you a resume covering our various activities here at the post in one 24-hour day. But sometime again in the future I might consolidate some of the highlights briefly. Here I have seen the evidence and have drawn my conclusions as to why we are "second to none."

"I have had the slight misfortune of having had an injury to my ankle while training. Temporarily I am recuperating amid an atmosphere of charming and efficient army nurses of our Post Hospital, which fortunately also allowed me the pleasure of some added correspondence.

"Thank you kindly for The Recorder which I have enjoyed immensely. Give my regards to all my friends."

• • •

Pfc. Wm. B. Shotwell, 2nd Sig. Co. 2nd Inf. D., APO 2 care Postmaster, New York, N. Y., writes:

"Just a few lines to give you my change of address. I'm now in North Ireland after traveling all over these British Isles. The news I can write home is very little so this won't be much more than a note.

"I have met a few boys from Kentucky, but not any from Boone County. As yet I haven't been out of camp much, so there is still a chance of finding someone.

"I have been assigned to the 2nd Division, a very good outfit, known from the last war, when France honored them for their work. It is mostly an outfit made up of fellows from Texas. That is about all I can say about my outfit. However, I can say I really miss getting The Recorder. I haven't received it since I left the states, and this is the first chance I have had to get my new address to you.

"This is supposed to be the land of roses, where Johnny Doughboy found his rose. Well, frankly, I wouldn't trade my little girl in Boone County for all the so-called roses of Ireland.

"Well do get the address changed and I want to thank you for the many copies I received back in the states."

• • •

Pvt. Kenyon Clore. 35675375, Hq. and Hq. Co., 7th Army, APO 758, care Postmaster, New York, N. Y., writes:

"I just received two issues of The Recorder and after reading "With Our Boys In Service' I felt rather guilty for not writing sooner to show my appreciation. Nevertheless I've been receiving it regularly and certainly enjoy it a lot. Keeps a person up on the goings-on of the boys in service and finds out their location.

"I cannot say where I am but I'm in good health and working every day. Haven't been fortunate enough to run across any of the boys from Boone County.

"Must say the Boone County Recorder is strictly on the ball and gives a G. I. many minutes of pleasure. Thanking you again—you're doing a swell job."

Long Illness And Your Feet

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

Long illness or long convalescence often may be the cause of painful muscle spasm in the lower limb and foot. In either circumstance long periods of inactivity, lack of exercise, coupled with the weakened condition of the body cause the muscles to lose tone and become weak and flabby.

The foot, while lying, as in bed, cannot and is not held in a normal position in relation to the limbs and rest of the body. The foot is held in an extended position, which allows a shortening of the large muscles in the back of the limb, and allows the weaker muscles in the front of the limb to stretch.

When partial strength, to the patient, is restored and he finally is allowed to walk, it is imperative that the bones of the foot are properly supported in shoes designed to distribute body weight evenly over the whole bottom surface of the foot, and to relieve further, the strain on the muscles, ligaments and tendons, until normal strength and muscle tone return.

An ordinary "strong looking" shoe is not the solution to this problem. Ordinary shoes with so-called arch supports and flat base planes, can only allow the foot condition to degress further.

At this time special attention should be paid to the inner construction of the shoe. The base construction and inner foundation of the shoe should be shaped to the NORMAL CONTOUR of the bottom of a NORMAL FOOT. The inside of the shoe should resemble the normal foot print in soft turf or sand.

Such a shoe with sound construction and foot shaped base planes is found in an especially built surgical shoe.—Adv.

Protect Home Cured Meat Against Pests

An ounce of prevention will save all the pounds of cured meat, according to the report given at Homemakers' Clubs this month. Infested meat causes a great loss in money and ration points to owners of home cured meat. Every pound of meat ruined by insects is the same as giving a pound to the enemy.

Eliminate breeding places of meat-house pests. Brush and scrub thoroughly all places where meat has been stored. Keep insects out of meat storerooms as they can fly and carry mits.

All home cured meat should be cured and wrapped before Spring. Wrap each piece separately and securely in heavy greaseproof paper. All folds of paper should be sealed with paste or gummed tape. Wrapped ham should be placed in a closely woven cloth sack and hung in the meat house so that pieces do not touch each other. The exposed side of cut hams and shoulder should be covered with melted paraffin to prevent mold.

A bulletin on "Protect Home Cured Meat from Insects" may be obtained from the Home Agents' office in Burlington.

"The House of Quality"—Your Money's Worth or Money Back

ERLANGER, -:- KENTUCKY

DO YOU WANT HEAVY MOTOR TRUCKING TO CONTINUE AFTER THE WAR?

TO HELP the war effort, Kentucky suspended its law which limits to 18,000 pounds the gross weight of trucks using the State highways. NOW, the trucking interests want the Legislature to pass a law permitting trucks, weighing 40,000 pounds, to use the principal State highways AFTER the war. These trucks, once admitted, could not be kept off the lightly constructed county roads.

Under the present law when the war emergency ends, the 18,000-pound truck weight limit will again become effective. This law SHOULD NOT BE CHANGED NOW because:

1. It does not interfere with the war effort, since trucks weighing 40,000 pounds will be allowed to operate during the war emergency.

2. Highways and bridges are being pounded to pieces. How can we tell now what condition they will be in after the war, or how much money will then be available to rebuild and maintain them?

3. Trucking companies and oil firms are pocketing the added profits from these wartime concessions, for the rates charged shippers and the price of gasoline have not been reduced.

4. It is unfair to permit these interests to continue after the war to capitalize the sacrifices the public is making now.

5. The bigger trucks mean higher cost of road maintenance and greater menace to the traveling public.

Why There Should Be A "Fair Field and No Favors" Between Competing Carriers

1. The railroads in Kentucky pay each year more than $1,000,000 for maintenance of county roads, bridges and city streets. Total gasoline, license and weight taxes paid by common and contract carrier trucks are not more than $650,000 in a normal year.

2. For support of our schools the railroads pay in taxes more than $2,500,000 a year. Common carrier trucks are paying only about $15,000 in school taxes.

3. Annual railroad property taxes in Kentucky are more than $5,000,000. Compare this with only about $35,000 property taxes paid by common carrier trucks.

4. Kentucky is one of few states having no highway debt. Some states have nearly bankrupted themselves in a futile effort to maintain roads for oversize trucks. Nine Southern states owe $750,000,000 on road bonds.

5. It was officially estimated in 1942 that Kentucky's needs for road reconstruction and relocation by 1950 would be $218,000,000 if the State highways (about 17% of all roads in the State) are to be brought up to standards adequate for the heavy trucks.

If You Are Opposed To the "Big Truck" Bill, Ask Your State Senator and Representative To Vote Against Any Such Legislation

The Railroads Are Presenting This Matter To You Because Their Interest and That of the General Public Are Relatively the Same

Pastor Pays Tribute To William Gideon Kite

The following sermon was was given by Bro. Sam Hamilton, Minister of the Belleview Church of Christ at services for Mr. Kite:

We read in the fifth Chapter of Genesis of a certain patriarch named Enoch, on whom the sacred text says, "Enoch walked with God, and he was not, for God took him." A certain little girl was asked to tell the story of Enoch by her Bible School teacher. "Enoch," said the little girl, "used to go on long walks with God. One day they walked a lot farther than usual, and God said 'Enoch, you're awfully tired, come into my house and stay and rest.'"

The saint whose tabernacle lies before us, was long accustomed to taking long walks with God, for he walked with Him all the days of his life. Last Wednesday afternoon they walked a little farther than usual. The voice of the gentle companion whispered, "Gideon, you're very tired come into my house and stay and rest."

The passing of William Gideon Kite was like his living, characterized by gentleness and peace.

It is often said on occasions of this kind, that our remarks ought to be addressed to the living rather than to the dead, and I agree, if it is clearly understood just who is really dead and who is really living. Eternal life is not merely endless life as some would think, but rather it is a life of a different kind altogether. Or better still it is a quality of life which may be, yea must be entered into and begun in here and now. "This is life eternal, that they may know thee the only true God and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent." Eternal life is a walk with God that begins here and now, and never shall cease even for one moment. Who is alive in this final and absolute sense? They who walk with God, and they alone.

I have no reason to doubt and every reason to believe that "Grandad" for that's what he will ever be to me, is not in the lifeless form in the narrow house before us, but that even now he is in his familiar seat on the right front. I preach with the feeling that his kindly eyes are upon me. "Verily, verily I say unto you, he that heareth my word and believeth Him that sent me, hath eternal life and cometh not unto judgment, but hath passed out of death unto life."

I want to tell you about a man and a book. To this end I have selected a curious text. I hope my more critical listeners will pardon its removal from its context, for I believe that the occasion merits such usage. May I refer you to the seventh chapter of Judges, the last sentence of the 20th verse, "The sword of the Lord, and Gideon." The character of Gideon, is one of the interesting highlights of the Book of Judges. He was no son of a princely family, nor was he one of the intellectuals of the day as the world measures that commodity. He was the robust son of an ordinary farmer, himself a true son of the soil. He was threshing wheat when the angel of the Lord came to call him to take up his mission as Judge of Israel and conqueror of the hosts of Midian and Amelek. He is not the first that laid aside the plow and took up the sword of the Lord, and if we would have a robust ministry, he must not be the last. An honorable host have followed in his train. Perhaps the most noteworthy thing that was ever said of this mighty character, is the sentiment contained in our text: "The sword of the Lord and Gideon."

But my thought at this moment is not upon Gideon the powerful Judge of Israel, but rather upon a Gideon whose gracious life lies enshrined upon the sacred pages of your memories, and mine. Another Gideon who made the Lord's battle his chief avocation, and all other things secondary.

Again my thought centers not upon the mighty sword of the Lord with which Gideon of old put to rout the hosts of the heathen, but upon the "Sword of the Spirit" with which our Gideon "fought earnestly for the faith once for all delivered to the Saints."

Paul tells us that the "Sword of the Spirit" is the "Word of God." And again he tells us that the "Word of God is sharper than any two edged sword, piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, and quick to discern the thoughts and intents of the heart."

"Gid" Kite, as he was affectionately known to all, made that "Word" not only his rule of life, but he made it his life. To him it was not only a lamp unto his feet and a light unto his pathway, but a mirror of the soul, by which the thoughts and intents of his heart were plainly reflected.

"Gid" Kite loved that word better than he loved life itself for he knew Him who said, "My Words they are spirit and they are life."

With him that "Word" was not an adornment for the living room table, but rather the keen edged instrument of destruction with which the Lord Jesus would and does slay his enemies with the breath of His mouth."

In the skillful hands of Gideon Kite, "the Word of the Lord" was the all powerful rapier with which false faiths and teachers, were quickly exposed, and with which erring brethren, were stiffled in their gainsaying. Many in this house have felt your hearts laid bare by one subtle thrust of that instrument at his hand.

Gideon Kite was a man of peace, but he sought not the peace which the world gives, but the peace of God which passeth all understanding. He never sought peace at any price. He knew that the wisdom that cometh from above, is fire pure then peaceable, gentle easy to be entreated. He knew that Jesus his Lord was first "King of righteousness" then "King of Peace."

Gidean Kite loved the Church of Christ and spent an entire lifetime in practicing its faith, teaching its doctrine, and living its life. Because he was a man of "The Book," he could lend his life and influence to no sect or ism which received any other name practiced any other doctrine than those clearly revealed on the sacred page.

He was not interested in any subtle theological speculation concerning things not clearly revealed, nor was he entrapped by any subtle philosophy and vain decit, after the traditions and creeds of men. In short the "Book", was with him the end of all controversy.

To all who knew him well, he was never thought of apart from the Church of Christ. To think of the one was to think of the other. When I first came to Belleview, some of my friends on the other side of the river asked me, "Is Gid Kite still active in the Church of Christ?" If I had known him then like I know him now, I should have answered, "Gid Kite still lives." For life for him was not to be thought of apart from the Church of the living God.

The gist of all these remarks is simply this: Gid Kite had that quality of life and living that the Bible describes as life eternal, and for such life there is no condemnation but a passing out of death into life. I haven't preached Grandad into Heaven, there is no necessity, he lived in it all his life.

To the family and brethren in Christ, I say, "You haven't lost him for how can anything be lost when you know where it is?" Let us all rather dedicate ourselves anew to the task he loved so well, and to which he gave his last full measure of devotion. Let us take up the mantle of consecration which he has now cast aside, and firmly resolve that such a life shall not have been lived in vain.

To everyone who knew him and loved him, I want to leave one indellible impression. I want you always to remember, the man and the Book, the Sword of the Lord and Gideon.

"He walked with God and he was not for God took Him."

KENTABOO HOME DESTROYED SUN.

TWO OTHER HOMES DAMAGED IN EARLY MORNING BLAZE—FAMILY NARROWLY ESCAPE DEATH.

The home of William Julifs, in the Kentaboo Subdivision, Florence was destroyed by fire early Sunday morning. Three small children and their parents narrowly escaped death, according to Fire Chief Al Hue of the Florence Volunteer Fire Department.

The fire damaged two adjoining residences of Willis Bevis and Forest T. Utley. Three fire departments, Erlanger, Elsmere and Florence battled the blaze for approximately three hours.

Fire started in the basement of the Julifs home and was discovered by Mr. Julifs who led his family to safety. Total damage of the fire was estimated at $4,100 by Fire Chief Al Hue, of Florence.

A cold wind hampered firemen in their battle with the flames. Water scarcity was another hindrance. After emptying three cisterns, the firemen formed a bucket brigade to keep their pumpers in operation.

When it became obvious that the Julifs home was doomed firemen concentrated their efforts upon saving the Bevis and Utley homes. Estimated damage to the Utley residence was $1,000 and to the Bevis home, $100.

Petersburg Baptists Plan All-Day Meeting

The Petersburg Baptist Church will hold an all-day meeting on Sunday, March 5th. On this day special prayer services for our boys and girls in service will be conducted.

At this meeting we will burn a note which the church has redeemed, and celebrate the first anniversary of the pastor Edw. Furginson.

Lunch will be served at 12:30 by the W. M. U. ladies who are asking that each one bring a covered dish.

Rev. R. A. Johnson, pastor of the Burlington Baptist Church will bring the afternoon message.

All members and friends of the church are invited to attend this meeting.

Utopia Recreation Program Is Success

The special recreation program sponsored by the Boone County Utopia Club at Burlington last Thursday evening was attended by more than sixty people. The program was considered a full success by all attending.

Rural supervised recreation among the older youth is considered one of the important needs, according to the Utopia Club members and many of our local leaders.

The folk games which featured an important part of the Thursday evening meeting are only one phase of a well-rounded recreation program. Basketball, baseball and the many other community and county contests are all important phases of the work hard and play hard recreation programs that help build strong community and county pride and spirit.

The Utopia Club plans to sponsor a second recreation program featuring many of the old fashioned folk games at their Utopia Club meeting to be held Thursday, April 20. The purpose of the meeting will be to train local leaders to develop these programs in their communities. The Club extends a hearty invitation for all who are interested, to attend and to take part in this meeting.

Noel and Geo. Walton have sold their East Bend Bottom farm to J. C. Acree, of the Farm Conservation Bureau. The consideration was not disclosed.

Hebron took a 15-3 lead at the end of the first quarter and went ahead at the half 31-11. In the third quarter the winners led 45-11.

Wyman Stephens was high point man for the winners with 17 while Presser collected seven for Burlington.

In a preliminary game, Hebron trounced the Burlington reserves by a score of 32-10.

Burlington dropped their second game of the week when they entertained the New Haven five on the local hardwood. New Haven was on the short end of the score at the end of the first quarter, but forged ahead of the Burlington boys in the second quarter by a count of 22-16, and maintained their lead throughout the remainder of the game, with the final score 42-28. Wharton collected 18 points for the winners, while Kelly led the attack for Burlington with 11.

In a reserve game the Burlington second string men took the New Haven boys into camp by a score of 17-15.

POULTRY SCHOOL DATE ANNOUNCED

J. E. HUMPHREY, FIELD AGENT WILL ASSIST IN DISCUSSIONS ON WARTIME PRODUCTION PROBLEMS, MARCH 1ST.

The annual Boone County Poultry School will be held at Burlington on Wednesday, March 1st, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. J. E. Humphrey, Field Agent from the College, and local poultrymen will assist in the discussions on wartime production problems.

The school this year will be divided into two parts. The morning program starting at 10.00 a. m., will be devoted to commercial and large flock production problems. The afternoon program starting at 1:00 p. m. will be devoted to special farm flock and home food supply problems.

Poultry properly handled is one of the most profitable sources of farm food supplies and farm incomes. Poor practices however quickly develop into unprofitable situations. The school will attempt to bring the best ways of developing and keeping the farm flock on a paying basis. All who are interested in poultry are invited to attend.

CITIZENS URGED TO COOPERATE

IN RURAL YOUTH CONFERENCE AT FLORENCE, MARCH 25—UNDERSTANDING AND FELLOWSHIP STRESSED.

This is the third of a series of articles regarding the Rural Youth Conference which is to be held for the rural youth of Boone County on Saturday, March 25, at the Florence school. It is for the youth of 12 years of age and over. The purpose of this meeting is to unite the youth so that there will be a mutual understanding and fellowship among them and to present and discuss the problems that confront them at the present time.

One of the problems is cooperation of federal and State Agricultural Agencies as a means to a democratic way of life. When this subject is discussed each person will have the opportunity to express himself or herself as to what they feel and how to work forward to a better solution.

All groups that are interested in the development and education of the rural youth are invited to assist and encourage the work. This country was founded on the democratic principles of life and it should be the desire of the youth of today to help in the development of all activities that will tend to keep it that way.

Again, keep the date of March 25 in mind, and be there, and bring your friends.

FARM MACHINERY CEILINGS ARE SET

AUCTION PRICES MUST NOT EXCEED 85 PERCENT OF ORIGINAL F. O. B. FOR EQUIPMENT LESS THAN 1 YEAR OLD.

Because many farmers need to replace or add to mechanical equipment they require to produce this year's crop, the Office of Price Administration is endeavoring to keep prices for used farm machinery sold at auction in line with established prices for dealers, S. J. Yeary, Price Specialist of the Lexington office, announced this week.

The Office of Price Administration has set ceiling auction prices on nine of the larger-type farm implements, which comprise some 60 per cent of the total dollars volume of sales of used farm machinery sold at auction, Mr. Yeary said. These items are combines, corn pickers, farm tractors, (except crawler types), motor or tractor operated hay balers, hay loaders, manure spreaders, side delivery rakes, and combinations of these listed items with other items of farm equipment designed for mounting thereon, when the combination is sold as a unit.

Ceiling prices for these items are not to exceed 85 per cent of the original f. o. b. factory list price for machinery less than one year old and not to exceed 70 per cent where the machinery has been used for a year or more.

To help enforce the regulation, Chester A. Bowles, head of the Office of Price Administration, has asked all auctioneers to see that established maximum prices are not exceeded and that a deserving purchaser gets the machine in cases where several bidders offer the maximum price.

Mr. Bowles also called attention to the requirement in Maximum Price Regulation No. 1?3 that every auctioneer shall file notice of every public or private auction sale of used farm equipment at least six days before the sale. These notices should be sent to the Lexington District Office.

In spite of difficulties in enforcing this regulation, the Office of Price Administration has found that for the most part auctioneers are willing and eager to cooperate, Mr. Yeary said.

Grow Greens For Calcium

Loose-leaved varieties of greens should be included in the spring garden to insure calcium in the family menu, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent. Keep an eye on calcium is the advice given to gardners and family meal planners.

Greens can be a pretty good number-two source of calcium. Green cabbage and green lettuce, mustard and turnip greens, broccoli, collards and kale are all excellent sources of calcium.

Ninety-nine percent of the calcium in the body is used in building and repairing bones and teeth. Milk is the number one source of calcium. Include as much milk and milk products in daily meals as wartime conditions permit, and waste none.

Now is the time for gardeners to plan a well balanced program for their garden. Greens prove to be one of the first early vegetables from the spring garden.

RED CROSS RALLY SET FOR MONDAY

BOONE COUNTY SCHOOL BAND WILL FURNISH MUSIC—INTERESTING PROGRAM HAS BEEN PLANNED.

Monday, February 28, at 8:00 p. m., there will be a County Red Cross rally in the Florence School. This is free to the public, and a most interesting program has been arranged.

Music will be furnished by the Boone County School Band, and a film, "After Pearl Harbor" will be shown. T. C. McDaniels, of National Red Cross Headquarters, will deliver one of his usual inspiring messages, and a record made by Service men, telling the value of the Red Cross to them, will be played.

This will give the public the opportunity to learn why Boone County has been asked to raise $8,700.00 in the drive starting March 1, and everyone is urged to be present.

No doubt, this meeting will explain more fully than any other medium could, the increased demands on the Red Cross, due to the War, which has made necessary this greatest drive in history. You will become conscious of what this organization means to Service men, and will learn more of its functions, which include the securing of blood plasma for use in battle injuries, maintaining field directors and staff members who work among soldiers at home and overseas, operating service clubs, aiding families of Service men, sending foods, clothing and letters to prisoners of war, recruiting Army and Navy nurses, enlisting nurses' aids, teaching home nursing and first aid, making surgical dressings, and many other benefits both to Service men and civilians.

To be sure Boone County's quota will be met in this drive, the following quotas have been assigned the various precincts, based on their assessed valuations: Beaver, $335.42; Belleview, $342.92; Bullittsville and Hebron, $773.80; Burlington, $1,191.61; Carlton, $311.71; Constance, $486.08; Florence $1,-960.47; Hamilton, $289.51; Petersburg, $477.96; Union $705.89; Verona, $429.26; Walton, $1,395.37.

16 UNITS REQUIRED OF LOCAL FARMERS

IN ORDER TO RECEIVE DEFERMENTS FROM MILITARY SERVICE, ACCORDING TO SELECTIVE SERVICE.

Information furnished to the Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics says that "farmers and farm workers now deferred from military service because of occupation, whose agricultural activity does not conform to national aims, may be called upon in the near future to increase their production goals sharply or face cancellation of their deferments."

Farmers or farm workers have been deferred in accordance to a war unit production plan, 16 units being used as a basis for agricultural classification, with some persons deferred for as little as eight units.

"In the forthcoming agricultural season, 16 war units may cease to be merely a guide and may become the minimum of individual activity," the Selective Service statement said.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL
SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, B. D.
Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for February 27

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

JESUS PRESENTS HIMSELF AS THE MESSIAH

LESSON TEXT: Mark 14:1-10, 15-18.
GOLDEN TEXT: Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed? And Jesus said, I am.—Mark 14:61, 62.

As our Lord entered upon the last week of His earthly ministry, the time had come for Him to present Himself officially to His people as their Messiah. As He did so, we observe that He then had and now has a right to claim all that we have and are, as well as to exercise judgment over us.

I. His Right to Property (vv. 1-7). We are so prone to call our possessions our own, and to hold them for our selfish purposes. Just a moment's reflection makes us aware that we are but stewards holding our things, as we hold ourselves, for the use of God.

That means that the Lord need only send for what we have, and we should gladly yield it to Him. "The Lord hath need" is the only requisition we need. He has absolute priority. And yet the very fact that He has need of us and what we have, dignifies our service or sacrifice on His behalf.

How surprising it was that the One who made and upholds all things (Col. 1:16, 17) should have to say, "The Lord hath need of him," in sending for a humble beast of burden. Yet therein lies a marvelous truth. He has graciously so ordered the universe that He has need of us and of our possessions.

Let us also learn the important lesson of unquestioning obedience taught in verse 4. "They went their way" to do what the Lord told them to do. How greatly simplified and glorified would be the lives of Christian people if they would thus obey Christ.

As He came riding into the city, we observe

II. His Right to Praise (vv. 7-10). God says, "Whoso that offereth praise glorifieth me" (Ps. 50:23), and the believer recognizes that "praise is comely for the upright" (Ps. 33:1). Jesus is entirely worthy of the praise of every heart and voice.

Presenting Himself as their Messiah, Jesus received the enthusiastic acclaim of His disciples and friends, who were probably joined by others who were drawn by the excitement.

The Pharisees did not join in (see Luke 19:39, 40) nor did the city, not even knowing who He was (Matt. 21:10, 11). So it is today; some love and praise Him, some hate Him, others just ignore Him. Of which class are you?

He gave Jerusalem and the nation a final opportunity to receive Him. It was not yet to die, but it was their last chance, as it is time comes in the life of every one of us. They rejected Him. Do we?

But even though some did reject, let us not forget that there were those who shouted "Hosanna," who cast their garments down before Him and waved palms of victory and joy. Thank God for their holy enthusiasm. Pray God that we may have a little more of it.

III. His Right to Punish (vv. 15-18).

People like to hear about a God of love, one who knows their weakness, and is kind toward their infirmities. But we must not forget that God shows His love by a great and holy hatred of sin, and a desire to deliver us from that sin. This means that He must and will deal in drastic fashion with those who persist in their sin.

A second time He drove out from His Father's house those who had made it a place of merchandise, of commercialized thievery.

This is a majestic picture. The Son of God and Son of Man steps into the center of this unholy traffic and with mighty, holy indignation (not anger) drives it out. The people who had suffered long because of this religious racket, which paid a nice "cut" to the priests themselves (probably as a "gift" even as such things are managed now), were jubilant.

We read in the same story in Matthew 21:12-22 that the boys who were in the temple (for such is doubtless the meaning of "children" in verse 15) were so delighted at this magnificent exercise of His divine authority that they broke out into "Hosannas," which really amounted to a holy "Hurrah."

Well, why not? Hurrah for our Lord! He will not tolerate iniquity even though it hides under the cloak of religion. He is not afraid to speak out and to act against sin and corruption.

Possibly the church would reach a good many more men and boys in our day if it would step out in faith to fight the wrong and support the right. Then maybe the young men would shout, "Hurrah for the church."

The chief priests and scribes were afraid and displeased and began to plot against Him. The passage in Matthew indicates that their anger was aroused both by the acts of Jesus and the praise of the boys.

--that still sells at pre-war prices!

Other wartime living costs have risen sharply, but electricity is one item in the household budget that is as cheap now as it was at the outbreak of war.

During the past 15 years, regardless of the ups and downs of other prices, the cost of electricity has followed a steady downward trend. Though the average monthly bill has remained about the same, due to increased use of lights and appliances, the average customer of this company is getting about twice as much electricity for his money now as he did 15 years ago.

Today, more than ever, electricity is your biggest bargain!

Can You Picture KENTUCKY without Schools

Kentucky's youngest generation is hard at its wartime job of learning to be good and useful citizens. We've all come to think of a good education for our children as the natural birthright of young Americans—but building up and administering a school system as fine as Kentucky's is a gigantic task.

More than 600,000 students are enrolled each year in Kentucky's schools and colleges. There are 7,644 primary schools, 806 secondary schools and 37 colleges and universities. The range of studies runs from kindergarten games through the three "R's" to the most advanced scientific and sociological research. Thousands of teachers are devoting their lives to the work — and to them goes much of the credit for its success, as well as to the administrators of each institution, to local and county school boards, and to the Kentucky Department of Education.

We of the Greyhound Lines take the same pride as all other Kentuckians in our State's educational achievements. We know that our own organization is aiding the school system both with tax support and transportation service. Those of us whose children are benefiting directly from the splendid schooling afforded them feel doubly proud.

In wartime even more than in peacetime, the things that draw us all together, that unify our efforts, that make us good neighbors in every sense, are the things that count most heavily. Both good education and good transportation have decisive parts to play in shaping the present as well as the future of Kentucky in the post-war world.

Foot Comfort Specialist at—

PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE

814-816 Madison, Covington

Will they thank you for good strong feet?

Oh, you mother of a child—you want his manners to be nice, you want his brain to be quick, you want his hands to be agile—but don't you want his feet to be sturdy and true, well-shaped and graceful? Are those of your daughter?

You mother of a child, twenty years from now his feet will be walking up to get a diploma, or confidently marching in to get a job, maybe walking up to an old church altar to meet a bride in white. (Or it may be the bride herself): Your child may never thank you for good strong feet, he'll take them as a matter of fact. But what will he think if they're not good strong feet? Sure he'll still love you—but "why didn't mother make sure I was growing up right?"

It is a responsibility, just one of the many a mother takes on when she brings a child into the world.—Adv.

DIXIE DRY GOODS STORE IS SOLD

TO LITT BROS. OF CINCINNATI, OHIO—CLEARANCE SALE IS ANNOUNCED THIS WEEK.

The business known as the Dixie Dry Goods Co., Inc., of Erlanger, Ky., has recently been purchased by Litt Bros. of Cincinnati from Mrs. Lola Herschling, of Ft. Mitchell.

The store will be conducted under the same trade name as in the past, but will become a part of the ten other stores now being operated by Litt Bros., Inc.

Only a part of the present merchandise will be carried as regular stock, and therefore the store will have to be cleared of the stock now on hand in order to make room for the new lines which will be on sale soon. The sale of odd lots in all departments will be underway this week, closing out entirely our nice stock of glassware and dishes.

The store when remodeled will have a complete line of infants' and children's wear, ladies' dresses, hosiery, underwear and accessories —also men's and boys' pants, overalls, jackets, sweaters, underwear, hats and accessories.

The new management invites you to visit the store at your earliest convenience and share in the rare bargains now being offered in order to clear entire stock. —Adv.

FORTY FARMERS ATTEND MEETING

RUSSELL HUNT, TOBACCO SPECIALIST HEARD AT BURLINGTON FRIDAY—STRESSED PRODUCING POUNDS.

Forty-two farmers from all sections of the county on last Friday evening at Burlington, heard Russell Hunt, tobacco specialist from the College, present radical new fertilizer recommendations for 1944. Mr. Hunt stressed the importance of producing pounds in preference to quality, to meet the big shortage of smoking tobacco. Both quality and quantity production will probably bring the farmers the most total dollars.

Fertilizer recommendations planned to bring farmers the largest yields per acre include (1) turning under Vetch or Vetch and small grain as a green manure crop; (2) turning under 10 to 20 loads of manure peracre; (3) spreading tobacco stalks now so that they will be used up and disease will be killed by plowing time; (4) covering land with decayed straw or hay; (5) applying of from 500 to 1,000 pounds of phosphate per acre broadcast and turned under; (6) applying of 1,000 pounds of complete fertilizer per acre by turning under 700 pounds and putting 300 pounds per acre in the row, and (7) in many instances the side dressing with 200 pounds of ammonium nitrate per acre where abundance of phosphate and potash has been applied. Not one but all of these fertilizer treatments may be applied on most fields in order to secure highest yields. Many farmers following these recommendations the past year secured more than a ton of tobacco per acre. Hunt warned against applying over doses of nitrogen fertilizers without applying sufficient phosphate and potash to give color and quality to the crop.

Plant bed treatment with bluestone lime, setting of the crop 3½ feet by 18 inches to save plants, labor and sticks and use of heavy yielding disease resistant varieties were included in the other recommendations given by Mr. Hunt. He advised that the new 41-A variety being grown by many local farmers would be a rough green growing crop in the field but if allowed to mature would ripen fully and would give a high yielding high quality leaf. Experment Station No. 52 is more disease resistant and is a lower yielding, higher quality variety.

RED CROSS DOING SPLENDID JOB

SAYS PETERSBURG SOLDIER WOUNDED IN ITALY—SIMILAR REPORTS WILL BE HEARD IN FUTURE.

"The Red Cross is a wonderful organization. It follows right behind the firing line, and I was taken to one of its Casualty Clearing Stations the first place after I was wounded." So spoke Corporal Wilson Edwards, of Petersburg, when he was home recently after having been wounded in Italy.

You will hear similar statements from all Service men. General Dwight Eisenhower, himself, has said, "I consider the Red Cross an auxiliary of my Army, and simply couldn't get along with it. It is doing a perfectly magnificent job in every way."

If all our Service men could speak to the Red Cross today, they would say, "Thanks." They thank you for the blood plasma that has saved their lives by the thousands, for help given their families in time of need, for more than 500 million bandages made last year, for the nurses recruited to care for them, and for putting a Red Cross Field Director with them wherever they go, to untangle personal problems. They thank you for the coffee and doughnuts served practically on the battle field, for the entertainment you have sponsored, and for millions of articles of clothing and other personal supplies. They thank you, if they should happen to be in prison camps, for the eleven-pound food packages sent them every week.

They do not thank you, of course, for what the Red Cross is doing on the home front, because they know little about it—but you do. You know about the hundred thousand Nurses' Aides, without whom our hospitals would be greatly crippled; the Gray ladies working in the hospitals; the disaster relief ready anywhere in the country for instant response; the First Aid course, the Nutrition service, the accident prevention program, and the home nursing courses.

Yesterday, March 1, the Red Cross opened its drive for two hundred million dollars and is asking Boone County for $8,700.00, twice the amount raised last year. This is no Red Cross Roll Call, where you are asked to join the organization for a dollar. This is a War Fund Drive, and you are expected to give your limit, so that the 950 Boone County boys in the Service and all other boys in Service may continue to receive the benefits that only the Red Cross can offer.

If you are not solicited personally, it is your duty to make your contribution anyway, and it can be done easily by mailing it to County Chairman, Irvin Rouse, Burlington, or by contacting your local solicitor.

Following is the list of precincts, with their quotas and chairmen: Beaver, $335.42, Mrs. Ruth Greene; Belleview, $342.92, Miss Kathryn Clore; Bullittsville and Hebron, $773.80, Mrs. Jameson Aylor; Burlington, $1,191.61, Mrs. Jim Smith; Carlton, $311.71, Mrs John Ryle; Constance, $486.08, Mrs George Kottmyer; Florence, $1,960.47, Mrs. Lewis Houston; Hamilton, $289.51,, Mrs. J. C. Acree: Petersburg, $477.96, Mrs. Raymond Witham; Union, $705,89, Mrs. Martha Huey; Verona, $429.26, Mrs. G. C. Ransom; Walton, $1,395.37, Mrs. Clayton Jones.

Erosion Control Meeting Set March 8

Earl G. Welch, Agricultural Engineer from the College of Agriculture will meet with Boone County farmers at Burlington on Wednesday, March 8th to demonstrate approved methods of water conservation and erosion control thru use of mechanical equipment, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent.

The meeting will be held at 1:00 p. m. CWT. All farmers are invited to attend.

Food And Home Notes

February and March often prove to be difficult months for the homemakers to plan menus that are varied and interesting in appearance, and pleasing to the appetite. The housewife needs to spend more thought during the late winter in planning meals that are both nutritious and pleasing at the same time, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent. Following are suggestions made by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington.

Give Good Eggs a Break

Once eggs are in the kitchen, it is up to the cook to give a good egg a break—a chance to do its best for food flavor and value. A good egg offers tops among proteins for tissue building and repairs, iron for red blood cells, phosphorus and other minerals, good quality fat and three vitamin B's plus vitamin A and D in varying amounts, depending on what the hen was fed.

Three home storage pointers should be followed: (1) Don't wash eggs until ready to use them, (2) speed eggs to the refrigerator or other cold place without delay, and (3) store eggs away from strong-smelling foods.

At cooking time, keep in mind that an egg toughens at high and prolonged heat.

While eggs are plentiful homemakers can again turn their cooking talents to fluffy egg treats for the family such as sponge cake, meringue and souffles. The temperature of the egg affects the whipping of the white and separation of white from yolk. A chilly egg just out of the refrigerator separately most easily because the white is firm and the yolk less likely to break, but the white whips best after the egg has warmed up to "room temperature." Whites should be whipped stiff but not dry, or until the white will hold up in a soft peak and looks glossy. Salt will help egg whites hold their stiffness. A pinch of salt or cream of tartar added at the start of whipping will give the foam greater volume and stability. Even a small particle of fat on egg beater or egg yolk in the white will prevent it from beating stiff.

Quick Vegetable Soup

Soup for six made with savory vegetables and half a pound of beef, cook in just 40 minutes. What makes it quick is using ground beef instead of simmering meat slowly to make stock. Ingredients: One-half pound ground beef, one tablespoon fat, one-half cup chopped onion, two teaspoons salt, one-fourth teaspoon pepper, one bayleaf, six cups water, one cup green beans (fresh or canned), one cup sliced carrots, two cups medium chopped cabbage, one-half cup chopped celery and leaves, three and one-half cups tomatoes. How to make: Brown ground beef in fat; add onion, cook 3 minutes; add salt, pepper, bayleaf, celery and leaves, water, green beans (if fresh), carrots, cabbage. Cover, cook until vegetables are tender. Add tomatoes and green beans if canned, the last 15 minutes of cooking. Making of this vegetable soup can be varied, by substituting vegetables on hand.

Old time cooks generally used more molasses in their cooking than is used today. Several old molasses favorites have been almost forgotten. One is molasses sauce for hot puddings, which was made with molasses, lemon juice, salt and butter, and tasted something like the more familiar butterscotch sauce. Another old-timer was molasses pie which had a cornstarch custard filling. Indian pudding is a low baked combination of cornmeal, molasses, ginger and salt. Have you tried gingerbread waffles served with applesauce?

The Lloyd Memorial Society will hold its regular monthly meeting Saturday, March 4th at the Town Hall in Florence.

Fifteen Blood Donors Wanted March 7th

Appointment has been made for fifteen blood donors from Boone County for Tuesday, March 7, at 11:15 a. m. Those who are to go are urged to be at the courthouse by 10:30, where transportation will be provided.

Anyone desiring to donate a pint of blood to the Armed forces is asked to notify Mrs. Lou Pope, Burlington, Ky., R. 1 or call Burlington 473.

ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING DATE SET

FOR PURPOSE OF COMPLETING PERSONNEL — DEMONSTRATION OF EQUIPMENT TO BE GIVEN SUNDAY.

Directors of the Burlington Volunteer Fire Department have called a meeting at the courthouse Friday night at 7:30 p. m. for the purpose of selecting active firemen for the department.

Every citizen in the community is urged to be present at this meeting, as all rules and regulations governing the fire department will be discussed and adopted, as well as the selection of the firemen who will serve on the department.

The directors urge everyone in the entire Burlington area to be present at this meeting as your ideas and suggestions will be helpful in perfecting a good organization.

The department's first truck is practically ready for service, and a demonstration of the truck in operation will be given Sunday afternoon at 3:00 p. m. in front of the courthouse.

An extensive effort has been made by volunteer helpers in the past two weeks to get one truck in operation to furnish protection to the community while minor details are being worked out by the Board of Directors and members of the fire department.

Farm Gasoline Rations May Be Issued In Installments

Six-month gasoline rations for non-highway use on farms may be issued in installments rather than all at one time, as in the past, the OPA has announced. If the local board has issued the farmer only part of his ration, when the farmer needs more gasoline he makes no formal application but simply asks the board for it. The board then either will issue the remainder of the total six-month ration as originally determined or issue such portion of the remainder as the board decides the farmer needs for the rest of the six-month period.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL
SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

Lesson for March 5

JESUS URGES HIS DISCIPLES TO WATCH

LESSON TEXT: Mark 13:3-10, 31-37.
GOLDEN TEXT: Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh.—Mark 13:35.

God has a plan, and even now when men seem to have turned all order into chaos, we know that God is working out His purpose. The important crisis in that plan of God which we now await is the return of Christ, His second coming.

He will come secretly to call His own Church, the Bride, to Himself, and then He will come openly, in great glory, when every eye shall behold Him. Then His enemies shall be confounded, and His eternal kingdom be established.

We look for His coming, but while we wait (and it may not be long!) we are to occupy for Him until He comes. Our lesson tells men

I. What to Expect While Waiting for Christ (vv. 3-9).

First, we note that we are to expect the coming of false teachers and false Christs, who will claim to be the fulfillment of the prophetic Scriptures. We need only one admonition concerning them, "Take heed that no man lead you astray."

There have always been such false leaders who for the ominence or gain afforded them are willing to offer bewildered mankind all sorts of panaceas whereby it is supposed to solve its problems. It seems that these men increase in numbers when great crises, such as war, come upon the nations. Do not be misled by them. Just because a man seems to be devout and professes to be interested in Christ's return does not make him a dependable teacher. Are not these the very ones Jesus warned against? They must meet the test of all of God's Word.

Christ warns believers that before the end of the age there will be world-wide war, earthquakes in many places, and famines. These are to be expected, and will come. But here a word of caution is needed. We must not seize upon present events and rush out (or into print) and tell people that "this is it!"

We should be alert in relating world events to the teaching of Scripture, but let us "make haste slowly." But let no one assume that the need for caution justifies him in ignoring either the Word or world events. We are to be alert, well informed, spiritual and ready.

II. What to Do While Waiting for Christ (v. 10).

Preach the gospel! That is our first and most important business. Our Lord said that the whole world was to be evangelized before the end came. Please note carefully that He did not say that all nations will be saved, but that they will hear the gospel.

That is our responsibility—to see to it that every nation has a full and free opportunity to hear the blessed gospel message. We have not done it, and the failure of the Church at that point is a dark blot on its record.

There seems to be a revival of interest in the work of missions now, and there are many who believe that at the close of this war almost the entire world will be open for Christian missionaries. This will probably be true for a limited time only, and it is the urgent business of the Church now to prepare the missionaries who will then be needed.

And in the meantime we should all be busy about the all-important matter of teaching and preaching the gospel. It is the best preparation for the coming of Christ and the thing we would want to be doing when He comes.

III. How to Live While Waiting for Christ (vv. 31-37).

There should be an air of expectancy constantly characterizing the Christian. We are looking for Someone—yes, a very definite and glorious One—our Lord Himself.

We do not know when He will come (v. 32). That is a matter hidden in the eternal counsels of God the Father, a secret into which angels do not pry, and which even the Son did not know. Why then do foolish men attempt to learn it? Beware of any man who sets a date for Christ's return or for the end of the age. He is setting himself up as being superior to Christ, and you can be sure that he is an impostor.

We do not know the day, but of the fact we are sure. Christ is coming again! So we are to be watchful as we wait. God has not called us to stand idle, looking for the dawning of that glorious day. We are to be about His business but everywhere and always, wide awake and looking for Him.

That kind of a believer (and all believers should be that kind) will pray. We are to "watch and pray." They go together. The one who prays will watch. The one who watches will pray. Possibly some of us are not praying because we have fallen asleep and no longer watch for His coming. Then too we probably fell asleep because we did not pray.

THANK GOODNESS
. . . here's one item that hasn't gone up!

Electricity is an exception among rising living costs
Electricity is one bright spot in these days of rising living costs. Food, clothing, rent, furnishings, almost everything else you buy has gone up — except electricity.
Like your own living costs, our taxes and operating costs have risen sharply since the war, but in spite of this fact electricity was never cheaper than it is today. The average residential customer of this company is getting about TWICE as much electricity for his money now as he did 15 years ago.
Perhaps you haven't noticed much of a change in your monthly bill, because you have been adding lamps and appliances all along, but the saving is there just the same. The dollars you spend for other things buy less and less, but your electric dollar buys more today than ever before.

Children's Feet

N. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—

PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE

814-816 Madison, Covington

Ninety-nine out of a hundred babies are born with good feet, even if they do appear to be flat at the start. We say babies are born with flat feet because the bony masses in a new-born baby's feet are held in place by fat pads. As the baby starts to stand and walk, these fatty pads are absorbed and muscles take their place. But about the third year the arch of the foot should be pretty well defined if the child is going to have any arch. We say if, because every one is not meant to have the same color of hair or eyes.

Perhaps when the child starts to stand he is overweight, or undernourished or has gone thru a serious illness. In that event the muscles may not develop enough to produce an arch in the foot. He then grows with a natural flat foot. The condition is rarely painful. However, many cases of flat feet can be averted if the child is provided with shoes that hold the weak foot in alignment. Such shoes are usually wedged slightly under the inner border of the heel bone. This prevents tipping in of the ankles and by over correction has a tendency to cause the muscles on the inner border of the leg to shorten. These muscles are the ones which keep the foot arched.—Adv.

LARGE NUMBER ATTEND MEETING

OF BOONE COUNTY RED CROSS WORKERS HELD AT FLORENCE FEBRUARY 28—$8,700.00 IS COUNTY'S QUOTA.

The splendid attendance at the Red Cross Rally in Florence, February 28, and the first reports of the Red Cross War Fund Drive now in progress, point to the fact that Boone County's quota of $8,700.00 will be raised, according to Chairman Irvin Rouse.

This does not mean that it will be easy. Our quota is twice that of last year, so our contributions must be twice as large. Each person is responsible for making his own contribution. Solicitors have been appointed in each community, but if you are overlooked, you may contact your local chairman or send your check direct to County Chairman Rouse.

One of the functions of the Red Cross is the delivering of emergency messages pertaining to death, sickness, etc., between Service men and their families. Now with a large number of new men, most of them fathers, soon to be inducted from Boone County, demands for this help will be greatly increased. Our Service men appreciate this link with home, which only the Red Cross affords. They are also grateful for the things the Red Cross does for them personally, such as supplying blood plasma and bandgages, recruiting nurses, providing field workers in all areas, maintaining service clubs and canteens where there is always to be found a touch of home even in the most distant lands.

The Red Cross is financed wholly through voluntary contributions, It is our privilege to be able to support this great organization, which is the only civilian group in a position to give such help to Service men. "Make your gift as large as your heart."

SALVAGE FAT BADLY NEEDED

SUBURBAN AND FARM HOUSEWIVES ASKED TO COOPERATE —LARGE DEFICIT IN KENTUCKY, IS WORD.

The 1944 quota for kitchen grease has been raised 48 percent above 1943 in Kentucky and Boone County. The only way for Boone to make their quota is for both suburban and farm homes to do their part, according to Mary H. Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent. American homes are entrusted with an important job in collecting kitchen fat. The Kentucky Salvage committee reports that they will have to receive at least double the quantity of fat they have been receiving to make up the deficit.

There are three reasons for saving fat: (1) You need to eat some to keep well; (2) you need some to cook with, and (3) your country needs it to make munitions.

Every housewife should remember several fat facts. Overheating is the surest way to spoil any fat. Don't let it "smoke"—its flavor and food value will be ruined. Not even a teaspoonful of fat skimmed from soup or gravy left in the fry pan or roasting pan, or the smallest piece of fat trimmed from meat should find its way to the garbage can. Fats saved from cooking spoil more quickly than new fat. Strain it while hot and keep it in a closely covered container in a dark, cold place away from strong smelling foods. Rancid, spoiled fats are not good for cooking or salvage.

The government reports that one pound of waste fat which you cannot use for cooking provides enough glycerine to make 1.3 pounds of gunpowder. Turn yours in to your butcher! He will give you four cents for each pound plus two meat points.

FARMERS FACE $100,000 SEED BILL

IN PRODUCING 1944 CROPS IN BOONE COUNTY — WILL BE HIGHEST SINCE WORLD WAR ONE.

Boone County farmers are faced with an approximate $100,000 seed cost in producing their 1944 crops, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. There were aproximately 20,000 acres of cultivated crop land the past year, a large part of which must be seeded back to grasses and clovers. There are also approximately 3,000 acres of tobacco and 15,000 acres of corn, 600 acres of truck crops and parts of 120,000 acres of the permanent pasture and hay land that may need some seed.

Seed costs per acre will be the highest per acre on record since World War I. Regardless of seed costs farmers are urged to seed every acre that will bring a return. Many farmers will spend as high as $8.00 per acre for needed seeds. With hay costing $40.00 per ton and grain high and scarce, few farmers can afford to buy feed. The most expensive crop is no crop at all. The least expensive crop and the most profitable crop is he high yielding, high quality crop.

Mark Cook, chairman of the County A. A. A. Committee, advises that the A. A. A. is paying this year $5.00 per acre on permanent pasture seedings of at least 20 pounds of seed per acre containing at least 5 pounds of a legume and two grasses.

Spring, while not ideal is a good time to seed most grasses. Grasses adapted to most Boone County soils include timothy, red top, Kentucky and Canada Bluegrass, and orchard grass. Spring is an ideal time to seed alfalfa, red clover, alsike, sweet clover and Korean lespedeza.

Lime and phosphate aid young grasses and clovers get established and grow. The A. A. A. is advancing phosphate. Gaines Aylor, Hebron; Val B. Dolwick, Burlington, R. I; Ernst and Joe Dance, Walton; and William Loze, Constance, are delivering limestone.

Grow your food and feed crops in 1944 to make money and to produce needed food crops.

THE RED CROSS IS YOU

You'd like to help the boy they just brought in to the dressing station, personally. The Red Cross is there instead.

You'd like, too, to give comfort to that prisoner of war in an enemy camp. The Red Cross can do it for you.

And the wife and children unexpectedly in need with the soldier-husband away at war—you'd like to help them. The Red Cross takes your place.

Cigarettes, food, bandages, blood—sympathy, comfort, hope, understanding — these the Red Cross dispenses freely—in your name, for the Red Cross is YOU. The Red Cross is the extension of YOU — everywhere there's need.

GIVE TO IT GENEROUSLY.

WARNING ISSUED BY ELECTRIC CO.

KITE FLYING NEAR ELECTRIC WIRES IS DANGEROUS, SAYS R. M. HALL, MANAGER COMMUNITY PUBLIC SERVICE.

With the kite flying season at hand, Community Public Service Company again issues its annual warning about flying kites near electric power lines.

"Every year, scores of boys and girls throughout the country are killed or seriously injured flying kites near electric lines or trying to take down kites caught in electric wires, says R. M. Hall, power company manager. "This is largely the result of ignorance of the hazards involved, for no child would intentionally risk his life or deliberately cause a service interruption. Therefore we ask the cooperation of parents in seeing that the following safety precautions are called to the attention of their children:

1. Don't use fine wire or metallic string.
2. Don't use wet string or fly kites in damp weather.
3. Don't use metal kite sticks or wire bindings.
4. Don't climb poles to get kites caught in wires.
5. Don't poke sticks at tangled kites or try to pull them down by their tails.
6. Always fly kites in open fields, away from power lines and busy highways.

"Both fine wire and the tinselled string sold for gift wrapping are conductors of electricity and so is string that is wet," cautions Mr. Hall. "When a conductor of this kind falls across a power line, it may result in a fatal shock to the kite flyer, and may also cause a short circuit that will interrupt power service. Children should use only dry cotton string in flying their kites and they should avoid the use of metal or wire in making them. If a kite becomes tangled in electric lines, it is best to call our office and let one of our men take it down. In climbing a pole to get a kite a child may come in contact with a live wire or in attemping to pull it down by its tail or poke it loose with a stick, he may cause two wires to come together causing a service interruption."

Local Boy Writes From Italy Of Splendid Red Cross Help To Soldiers

Pvt. Raymond E. Witham ASN 35873813, Infantry Co. B., APO 15123, care Postmaster writes the following letter to his parents:

"Dear Mother and Dad:

"It is Sunday once again and I just finished dinner. I'm going to church around 2:00 p. m., so I have time to write a few letters. I will number my letters from now on so you can keep track of them.

"Are you able to read what I am writing? It is hard to tell just what size to write.

"The Red Cross is really doing a job and don't let anyone tell you they aren't. They gave coffee and doughnuts to the boys the other night and everyone had all they could eat. You can always go to the Red Cross and find out where I am if you are slow in getting my mail. Just give them my serial number or APO number.

"I really am enjoying this life. If this was peace time everything would be swell. Well, I'll close for now."

Boys from Boone County in all branches of the service are receiving many benefits from the Red Cross organization, and that is more reason that we should go over the top in our present Red Cross drive in Boone County. Let's back our boys up on the battle front—contribute generously.

POULTRY STILL PROFITABLE

SAYS J. E. HUMPHREY, POULTRY SPECIALIST IN TALK AT BURLINGTON MARCH 1—OUTLINES GOOD PRACTICES.

Poultry is still profitable despite higher feed costs and lower egg prices, according to J. E. Humphrey, Poultry Specialist from the College. Humphrey addressed poultrymen attending the annual Poultry School held at Burlington, March 1st. He qualified his statement according to present egg and feed prices and where good production practices are followed.

Feed supplies will be scarce in 1944. All poultry production practices should center around efficiency in uses of feed. Greatest efficiency and largest profits are secured only when maximum production is maintained. Low producing birds should constantly be culled for meat. To find the approximate number of eggs per hundred hens necessary to pay for the feed alone, take the price of feed and multiply it by three, divide this figure by the price per dozen eggs. All eggs per day received above this figure are profit above feed costs. This figure based on $3.50 per cwt. feed and 28 cents per dozen eggs is 37 eggs per hundred hens. Most good flocks are producing from 50 to 67 eggs per hundred. The 2,000 laying hen flock of Grant Maddox of near Florence, during February, averaged 16.41 eggs per hen for the month, or 57 per cent production. Smaller flocks ordinarily should secure a higher percent production than larger flocks.

Poultry leaders attending the meeting made plans for the following educational program to be carried out during the year:

1. Close culling of flocks when egg production falls below profitable point.
2. Buy day old healthy chicks in preference to started chicks.
3. Make efficient poultry production in the Homemakers' Club a part of the monthly "Live at Home" discussions. A definite monthly meeting discussion was planned.
4. Summer tour of leaders' flocks, inviting neighbors to attend for short educational meetings.
5. Plan for poultry school next year, analyze the year's results and plan for the new year.

Aylors To Hold Open House For Son, Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Aylor are holding open house Sunday afternoon, March 12th, from 1 to 6 o'clock at their home in honor of their son Chief Petty Officer William W. Aylor, who is spending his first furlough in the states after being stationed in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii for five and a half years.

Due to his limited stay here, it will be impossible for him to see all of the people he would like to, therefore a cordial invitation is extended to all of his many friends to come in to see "Bill," as he is better known.

YOUTH PLANS FOR FUTURE

BOYS AND GIRLS ATTENDING CONFERENCE WILL COOPERATE IN DEVELOPING BETTER UNDERSTANDING.

This is the fifth of a series of articles regarding the Rural Youth Conference to be held for the young people of Boone County on Saturday, March 25, at Florence School. All young people of Boone County on Saturday, March 25, at Florence School. All young people over the age of 12 years are invited to attend. The boys and girls attending will cooperate in developing a better understanding in the need for fellowship and neighborly cooperation among our people.

Youth is the one hope for making the future a better place in which to live by those who have mastered the wisdom of age. "Youth longs, manhood strives, but age remembers." Youth longs to take over the reins to do a full man's or woman's job.

The rural community above all else is proud of its youth. The farmer scolds his son for the poor handling of the plow and then looks on with deep and sincere pride as the youth plows a straight and narrow furrow, displays skill in the field or home, on the basket ball floor, baseball diamond, school room or other community or county activity. No where else in the world can greater fellowship with nature, parents or a more sincere feeling toward God and man be found than in the rural community.

Youth has an interest in the present and the future. He realizes the success of the future depends not only upon himself but upon all other contacts, including his cooperative responsibilities with his neighbors and to his community.

Youth has problems in common with his neighbors and to his comthese problems are misunderstood, often he would like to have these problems analyzed and expressed by other youth. IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL
SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

Lesson for March 12

JESUS BETRAYED, DENIED AND CONDEMNED

LESSON TEXT: Mark 14:10, 11, 53, 54, 66-72; 15:12-15.
GOLDEN TEXT: He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief.—Isaiah 53:3.

The time had come! Jesus was about to be condemned and crucified; and though sinful men thought thus to rid themselves of the One who had pierced their hypocrisy and unveiled their unrighteousness, His death was, in the providence of God, the giving of Himself for our sins.

What He endured as He went to the cross is enough to break one's heart, for here we see the denial, betrayal and compromise of men.

I. Christ Sold for Money (14:10, 11).

When one sees the awful things which have been done and are being done for money in this world, it becomes clear why the Bible repeatedly calls it "filthy lucre."

"Money! How many awful things have been done for money. How many dishonest officials have secured high places in government by money! How many people have lost their lifesavings because some shrewd, crooked broker schemed to take their money away, because he wanted it. How many millions of people have been kept in poverty because men cared more to increase their wealth than they did to relieve the distress of those who worked for them . . . Money is what keeps the dance halls going; a lust for money is what keeps our breweries and distilleries open; it is money that makes men want to produce lascivious plays and motion pictures" (W. M. Smith).

Fundamentally, it was the love of money that made Judas betray his Lord. "What will ye give me?" was his question (Matt. 26:15).

But money is not the only price with which men may be paid. We find ne[ed]

II. Christ Deserted for Comfort (14:53, 54).

Peter would not have risen to the suggestion that he sell his Lord for money, for Satan was too smart to stir his loyalty by such a suggestion. He used another method with Peter.

Things had become very difficult for our Lord. He was led away to be falsely accused and subjected to persecution. It was no longer comfortable to be at His side, as it had been when He fed the multitude and healed the sick, and silenced His enemies.

This was cold unpleasant business. Why should Peter get mixed up in it? After all he could just as well keep a safe distance, and besides it was warm at the fire. Oh, yes, the enemies of the Lord had kindled it and stood around it, but that didn't need to make Peter an enemy of His—or did it?

How many Christians who would meet with hasty and courageous denial the suggestion that they sell their Lord, have betrayed Him by warming themselves at the fires of this world.

III. Christ Denied for Fear (14: 66-72).

Peter, the staunch defender of our Lord, who had assured Him that no matter how cowardly the others might be, he would stand fast (Mark 14:29), now quails before a servant maid. He curses and swears to try to strengthen his words of denial.

What had happened to Peter? He had become so at home by the fire of the enemies of his Master that he was afraid to confess his relationship to Him. He had followed so far off that He had lost touch with the Lord, and was again like the Peter who on another day looked away from the Master's face and feared the boisterous waves (Matt. 14:30).

Peter was afraid, and he denied his Lord. How many there are who are like him. They tremble before an unbelieving world, and fearing the scoffing of poor, weak, sinful men, they deny their Lord.

It is time that Christian people took courage and stood up for the Lord in all times and circumstances.

IV. Christ Condemned for Convenience (15:12-15).

Pilate found no fault in Christ. He had no desire to condemn Him. He wanted to set Him free. But it proved to be politically inexpedient. To stand by his convictions concerning this innocent person would have greatly inconvenienced him in many ways. So "wishing to content the multitude" he delivered Jesus to be scourged and crucified.

Men and women today are willing to condemn Christ anew because to submit to Him and bear His name would require of them a sacrificial living which they are not willing to give. So they pass Him by, and go on to a Christless eternity.

It costs something to follow Jesus—to stand true to Him in a rejecting world. One wonders at times whether this is not one reason why God does not send a revival to the Church. We are probably not willing to bear the inconvenience. It would upset our regular order of life.

Sunset and even star,
And one clear call for me;
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound or foam
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and even bell
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness
Of farewell when I embark.

For tho from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

TO THE PEOPLE OF KENTUCKY

THIS communication is a reply to the Courier-Journal's editorial of March 2, entitled "No Velvet Glove on this Iron Hand", based upon its front page news story of March 1, concerning the failure of the Senate to pass the bill increasing the weight of trucks to 40,000 pounds.

The purposes of the communication are: (1) to refute the implication in the news item and the editorial that the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company controls the Kentucky Senate, which is in effect an insult to those members who recommitted and thus defeated the truck bill by a vote of 21 to 15; and (2) to disprove the claim of the Courier-Journal that the L. & N., by its opposition to this truck bill, was endeavoring to defeat legislation that is in the public interest.

THE ATTACK ON THE SENATE

We assert that there is no justification whatever for the reflection upon the integrity and intelligence of the Senate members. The L. & N., in conjunction with the Chesapeake & Ohio, Illinois Central, Southern, and other Kentucky railroads who jointly act through the Kentucky Railroad Association, having been advised by the truckers' own repeated publications that this bill would be introduced, prepared to meet the issue by presenting the facts to the Legislature and the public. This was done solely by public advertisement through circulars and pamphlets, and argument before the Committee in rebuttal to the like circulars, pamphlets and arguments of the truckers. Thus the Senate reached the same conclusion as that of both houses of the Legislature in 1932, when the original weight limit bill was passed.

In 1934, 1936, 1937, 1938 and 1940, the big truckers sought to increase the limits, but the Legislature of its own accord, and certainly through no domination of the L. & N., defeated such efforts. As illustrative of continued opposition of the public, in the last preceding contest, in 1940, many representatives of the public vigorously resisted efforts to increase weight limits, among others, 75 Fiscal Counts, 20 City Councils or Officials, the Associations of County Judges, Commonwealth Attorneys and County Attorneys, numerous civic organizations and clubs, and many newspapers.

Public Sentiment Supported the Passage of the 1932 Act

The Courier-Journal seeks to give the impression that the 1932 Act was passed, not as a result of public demand, but through the domination of the L. & N. The fact that public opinion almost unanimously supported the bill is shown by the vote of 34 to 1 in the Senate and in the House by 88 to 5. Its enactment was strongly advocated by the Chairman of the Highway Commission. The Courier-Journal approved this law. In its issue of January 1, 1934, it said:

"Legislators should resist vigorously the effort to increase the limitation on weight and size of trucks permitted to operate on State roads."

And on January 5, 1934, it denounced the effort to increase the limits, as follows:

"To increase these dimensions would be an outrage. . . . For ordinary commercial traffic, including farmers, manufacturers, merchants' trucks, the present size limits are large enough. They might even be reduced."

In reflection of public opinion in the matter of big trucks, just before the 1936 Legislature, the Louisville Times said on November 6, 1935:

"There might even be, eventually, public carrier highways, or one-way roads, as a result of popular protests against conditions the public now suffers too patiently."

Surely it will not be contended that the L. & N. then dominated the Courier-Journal and Times, but there would be as much justification for that as there is for the charge that it then dominated or now dominates the Legislature.

A Permanent Increase of Truck Weights Is Not Now Justified

In 1942 an act was passed which increased the limit, but only for the duration. The 40,000-pound limit is in use now, and will be until the end of the emergency. The sole purpose of this bill, advantageous only to the big truckers, is to saddle those increases upon the people after the emergency, regardless of the unpredictable physical condition of the roads at that time and the equally unpredictable funds then available for road construction and maintenance. In view of these unknown factors, permanent legislation as to truck weights and length is, at this time, wholly unjustified.

THE PROPOSED WEIGHT INCREASE IS NOT IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST

In objecting to the bill to increase the weight and size of trucks, we are not opposing the public interest. From the beginning of this controversy we have invariably stated that if we could not show that our view was in the public interest, then we would not ask the public's support.

The Louisville Times recently declared that the sole issue was whether or not the State's roads were strong enough to carry the additional loads. There is also the additional issue as to whether such increased weights are justified in the light of the increased danger and inconvenience to the traveling public.

Damage to the Roads

Upon the issue stated by the Times there is ample support for the proposition that the damaging effect of heavy trucks is alone sufficient to defeat this bill. Such authorities as Major General Phillip B. Fleming, Administrator of Federal Works Agency; Major General C. P. Gross, Chief of Transportation, Service of Supply, U. S. Army; Mr. Donald Kennedy, former President of the National Association of State Highway Officials; and many other state highway officials, have recently stated that the war-time traffic is destroying the highways of the nation. For example, the Chief Highway Engineer of North Carolina said that, "It will take $50,000,000 and three to four years' work to put North Carolina's highways back into the same shape they were before Pearl Harbor." Surely, no one will contend that Kentucky's highways can stand the heavy truck traffic better than highways of other states.

Kentucky Highways Are Inadequate for Heavy Traffic

But looking to the condition and capacity of Kentucky highways, we refer to testimony of Mr. J. Lyter Donaldson, then Highway Commissioner, at a hearing before a United States Senate Committee in 1942, when the truckers were endeavoring to take the regulation of size and weight of trucks away from the states and leave that entire subject to the Interstate Commerce Commission. His testimony was to the effect that since the Kentucky highway system had not been constructed for loads in excess of 18,000 pounds, only the war emergency justified the State in permitting the use of its highways by heavy trucks. Among other things he said, referring to the State highway system:

" . . . most of our mileage is too narrow for safe accommodation of heavy mixed traffic. . . . In the words of our chief highway engineer, we have 'several hundred bridges which are not only inadequate, but dangerous' from the standpoints either of load capacity, width or vertical clearance. . . . Even our best roads are not by any means composed of high-type paving."

As to the country roads, constituting 78 per cent of the highways, he said:

" . . . no one could reasonably contend that larger or heavier trucks should be permitted on any of them."

As to which he pertinently added:

" . . . as a practical matter, it would be quite impossible to keep them off such roads if they were allowed on State highways."

Kentucky's Road Situation Is Not Comparable to That of Other States

The inadequacy of the State highway system to permit the operation of heavy trucks is a consequence of the State's traditional policy of building its roads out of current funds. Other States, with greater resources, or by the use of borrowed money, have better and higher type roads. The State of Kentucky has no road debt. Compare its condition with that of our neighboring State of Tennessee, with a road debt of $67,000,000 and of the Southern states generally, with a combined road debt of $753,000,000.

What is the consideration offered to the public and to the State to justify it in assuming the increased cost of construction and maintenance of highways, which would be incurred if those highways were made adequate for oversize trucks? And what is the consideration for the added inconvenience and danger to the traveling public incident to the operation of such trucks?

The L. & N. is a citizen of Kentucky and it believes a good citizen. It has invested about $150,000,000 in fixed property and for the expansion of industry and commerce therein. It pays taxes for the support of the State and local governments, roads and schools. It gives employment to approximately 17,500 persons in Kentucky. Its welfare is inextricably tied to the development and prosperity of the State. Like any other citizen and taxpayer, it has the right to present its views to the public and Legislature on any matters that affect its interest, but it asserts with confidence that it has not taken an attitude on any controversial question which is inconsistent with the ultimate public interest.

WITH OUR BOYS IN THE SERVICE

Fort Knox, Ky.—Upon completion of an intensive 10-weeks course in the maintenance and repair of the peeps and jeeps, scout cars and trucks that give the hard hitting armored divisions their speed of movement, a class of qualified automotive mechanics had been graduated today from the Armored School.

Among the graduates were: Cpl. William Lytle Smith, of Erlanger, Ky., son of Mr. Raymond R. Smith of Burlington R. 2.

The soldier students received thorough instruction in the theory of automotive mechanics and fundamental shop practice in the school's Wheeled Vehicle Department. They studied actual engines, skeleton vehicles and visual aids of many types.

Practical repair and maintenance work was performed on vehicles in the field, working in wind, rain and other difficulties to give the soldier students practice under battle conditions. Expert Army and civilian instructors gave lectures and supervised work in shop and field.

The Wheeled Vehicle Department is one of eight in the huge Armored School, headed by Brig. Gen. Joseph A. Holly, commandant. The school operates on two seven-hour shifts six days a week. Students on the early shift march into classrooms at 6 a. m. and complete their day's program at 1 p. m. The second shift comes in behind them and works until 8.

The following letter was received from J. D. Jarrell, A. M. M. 3/c, Box 22 (M) N. A. S. Navy 116, care Fleet P. O., New York, N. Y.

"Just finished reading the paper, so will try and write a few lines. I can't begin to tell you how much we enjoy the paper. Through your paper we get the complete news of good old Boone County. It sure is a big help.

"There is just one thing I haven't been able to find out about. Did anyone do any hunting this year? I know Doc and Tie and you did. You didn't let Doc outshoot you this year, did you?

"There is not much news to write about here. We are having some fine weather and go swimming almost every day.

"I made my petty officer's rating last month so I am now an Aviation Mech. 3/c. I am now working in a pilot's library and training office, but I expect to start work on planes any day.

"Well, I have a little work to do so guess I will close for now. Thank you again for the paper."

David L. Tanner A/S Co. 385, Unit E 21, USNTS, Sampson, New York, writes: "I received by first Recorder January 29th and was sure glad to get it. I read it from article to article. I was glad to hear from all of the other boys who are in the service.

"I like the Navy fine, but I don't like the kind of weather we have here in Sampson, N. Y. The sun shines one day, the wind blows cold the next, and the ground is covered with snow the next day. It is the most changeable weather I have ever seen.

"It was mighty hard for me to get used to the way the fellows talk up here. They talk so fast it's hard for me to understand what they say, but I am getting used to it by now.

"They really shove us through our boot camp. We arrived here January 22nd, and our Company is booked to return home for our leave Feb. 22nd, so that isn't so very far off—and then, Kentucky here I come.

"Thanks for The Recorder."

Pfc. William F. Bell, Co. A, 61st Bn., 1 Plt., Camp Walter, Texas, writes:

"They told me that when I came into this man's army that I would receive The Recorder free. I wish you would please send it to me.

"I am the only Boone County man in this camp I think. I am in the Infantry. We started our training this morning. I arrived here last Thursday, the 10th.

"This sure is a windy country. Well, as I am not much of a writer I will close for this time, wishing you the best of luck, and that I get The Recorder soon."

Ben R. (Britch) Stephens has arrived safely overseas. His address is Pfc. Ben R. Stephens, ASN 351-22506, Co. K., 149th Infantry, APO 38, care Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif.

He states he made the trip and didn't get sea sick. He is at Oahu, Hawaii. He writes the weather is splendid, warm days and cool nights, fine to sleep when you have a chance.

He would like to hear from any of his friends who have time to write.

Howard S. Ryle S 2/c, U. S. N., ATB, Security Guard Co., Little Creek, Va., writes:

"Just a few lines to thank you for the home town paper, The Recorder I have been getting all the time, and it is sure welcome for I get a lot of news about all the happenings back home.

"Out of the group that left Burlington together, there are only two of us left here at the base. The other boy is Elmer Cave, and I get to see him every few days.

"The weather here has been like spring up until last week, and then we had a lot of rain.

"The Navy hasn't worked me so hard but they do have good chow. I am S. P. on the ferry from Little Creek to Cape Charles."

* * *

Stanley Tanner S 2/c writes:

"I have been back three weeks from my leave, so I guess I had better write to you. I had a seven-day leave, but only spent three days at home as I had some things to do here and had to get back. I can proudly say I sure did enjoy myself while I was home. I wanted to visit Burlington, but my time was short and I wanted to spend my time with my parents.

"Florence sure has changed a lot. You used to walk down the street and see boys standing out in front of Ed Osborn's store and down at Bob & Gene's, but not any more. There sure isn't very many left. But I guess if they keep taking the Tanners and Aylors from around there, we will win this war—not only the Tanners and Aylors, but everyone else besides. I can't see how it can last much longer, as many as there is in service it is bound to be over soon.

"I am enjoying myself and I really mean it—I like Navy life fine.

"Well, Pete it is getting late so I guess I had better close now. Tell everyone hello and thanks for the nice letters I have received."

* * *

Vernace Taylor C. M. 2/c, C. D. 2219 Camp Thomas NABD, Davisville, Rhode Island, writes: "I have been receiving The Recorder ever since I came in the service and I really can't tell you how much I appreciate it. When I was a boy, we lived in Hebron and now with me still getting a paper from the old home place I can still know what the boys are doing back home. Thanks again and please send the Recorder to my new address."

* * *

Jake Hughes, a former resident of Burlington writes the following interesting letter:

"No doubt you will be surprised to hear from me after all of these years. My reluctance to write doesn't mean that I have forgotten you or any of my friends that I once knew in Boone County.

"I want to take this opportunity to express my thanks for The Recorder that I receive regularly. Although many of the names mentioned in your paper are new to me, there are many which I recognize and after reading them and the various happenings, I am vividly reminded of a place that I once called home. I suppose it has been about eight years since I have visited there, but it will always hold a warm spot in my heart.

"Unfortunately, I haven't been corresponding with anyone from Boone County, but if any of my old buddies wish to drop me a line, I shall be glad to receive it and happy to answer it. I regret that I haven't run onto anyone out here from home, although I believe there are a few in this vicinity.

"Have been in the South Pacific twenty-one months now and over six years in the Marine Corps. I believe I am permitted to say that I took part in the Treasury and Bougainville operations. Outside of that there is not much that I can say except that I am in Artillery ordnance.

"Am in excellent health and the food out here has been very good with a few exceptions.

"I look forward with keen anticipation for the day when this mess is over and I shall be able to visit Old Kentucky and renew my acquaintance with my friends and relatives.

"Again let me thank you for sending The Recorder, my only connection with a happy past.

"I shall be looking forward to a letter from you and from anyone who wishes to write me."

Lard Free In March From Rationing Cost

The Office of Price Administration freed lard from rationing last Thursday for the month of March, while the War Food Administration allocated 50,000,000 pounds of lard to soap making for the month.

The two actions were taken, the agencies said, because the current rate of hog slaughter is boosting lard production to record-breaking levels.

Deliveries of lard to soap manufacturers must be completed by March 31. OPA added that whether lard will continue ration free depends upon civilian allocations in subsequent months.

Lard is listed on the March ration values table, effective last Sunday, at three points a pound. It was explained that the table was printed prior to the decision on Thursday's action.

Housewives will continue to get two ration points a pound for their waste kitchen fats, although fresh lard has been made point-free in March.

Eleven members of the Fayette County Homemakers' Chorus spent several hours Christmas Eve singing carols to the less fortunate.

STORED POTATOES BRING BIG CASH DIVIDENDS

Sweet potato growers in Graves county who stored their crops for December and January sales realized approximately double the market price of digging time. One hundred and three growers stored 5,000 bushels of eating grade potatoes, receiving a net price of $1.75 for the Nancy Hall, and $2.05 for the Porto Rican variety. Growers stored 2,500 bushels of seed potatoes, also. Indications are that there be an increased planting of around 1,200 acres in 1944, according to farm agent Wilson R. Hoover, with the Farm Bureau cooperative association operating two storage houses.

SINCE 1863

BULLITTSVILLE HOMEMAKERS

Our club met at the home of Mrs. Anna Mikkelsen on Feb. 23. Ten members and one guest answered roll call. We regret that several of our members were unable to be present on account of illness.

After a lengthy business session were were adjourned for lunch.

Since this day happened to be the birthday anniversary of our hostess, we made the lunch hour a surprise party and presented her with a lovely birthday cake and many useful gifts.

This club day was a very busy one for Miss Gillaspie and she was able to be with us for only part of the time. We feel the day is incomplete without her.

After lunch, the project of the day, "Household Pests," was very ably presented by Mrs. Mikkelsen. Useful bulletins were distributed to all. Mrs. M. M. Lucas brought the day to a successful close with her fun session.

We were adjourned to meet March 16th with Miss Mattie Kreylich.

Mrs. Pfalzgraf, Secretary.

Surgical Shoes

N. TULCH

Foot Comfort Specialist at—

PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE

814-816 Madison, Covington

HISTORY—Mrs. G. E. M. suffered headaches and neckaches. Her neck ached so intensely at the base of the skull she could hardly see. Days at a time she could not get out of bed because of the severity of the pains. She read one of our ads., telling of the good work we were doing, and decided to see what we could do for her. After a very short time wearing surgical shoes, pain in the head and neck lessened till finally it disappeared entirely and she is well and happy. It is now possible for her to do her own work even when it is necessary for her to climb stepladders. Surgical shoes seemingly worked miracles for her.

COMMENT — Strain on ligaments and tendons naturally has a weakening effect upon muscles. Continued neglect of these conditions may be the cause of your aches and pains in the neck and back and you have been unable to get relief, come in and let us see what we can do for you.

If your ankles are weak and you are constantly rolling them, surgical shoes are definitely the answer to your problem—Adv.

FLORENCE HOMEMAKERS

The Florence Homemakers held their regular meeting on Friday, Feb. 18th with a good attendance, there being 22 for dinner. In order to have some meat for dinner, we pooled our supplies, meat stamps and bought the material for a meat loaf. As Mrs. Mary Fulton is such an excellent cook, it fell her lot to make the meat loaf.

During the business session, a check for $5 was handed in as an appreciation for the loan of our hospital bed.

Mrs. Sayre read the article on Tunisia in the tour of the Mediterranean series. These letters are very interesting and much enjoyed. We had three new members, Mrs. Pfeiffer, Mrs. Fitzgerald, and Mrs. Davidson.

Mrs. Lillian Schram our delegate to Farm and Home Week, gave a partial report, which will be finished at the next meeting. The lesson on Eradication of Household Pests was most instructive, though not so pleasant as some we have had.

Plans were made for the completion of the Afghan we had started and a meeting was called for the following Tuesday afternoon at the home of our hustling president, Mrs. Ann Conner.

As our next meeting falls on St. Patrick's Day, we are planning a party in his honor in connection with the regular schedule and a donation toward the Library Fund is asked from each member.

REPAIR FARM BUILDINGS for greater production

How to do it with CONCRETE and save scarce materials

To increase food production to meet war requirements it is essential that buildings used to house livestock and store crops be in good repair.

Concrete foundations under barns, hog houses or poultry houses will restore these buildings to usefulness and provide protection against rot, termites and waste and damage caused by rats.

Free booklet, "Restoring Old Farm Buildings With Concrete" tells how to make essential repairs with the use of little or no steel or other scarce materials.

If you need help, get in touch with your concrete contractor or building material dealer.

DOUBLE LEAF YIELD AFTER COVER CROPS

Leslie Coomer of Lee county almost doubled his tobacco yield on the same ground in two years time through the use of cover crops. In 1941 he made his first planting on four-tenths of an acre, producing 400 pounds which sold for $60. The following year he plowed under a vetch crop and added manure; he harvested 580 pounds which sold for $196. In 1943, Mr. Coomer again plowed under vetch which had an application of superphosphate fertilizer and manure. He harvested 739 pounds and received $332 for his crop.

Farm Agent T. H. Jones reports that Wilson Browning, another farmer in Lee county, marketed 1,948 pounds of Ky. 41A on 1.4 acres which was approximately 300 lbs. above the county average per acre.

JOHN B. BERKSHIRE

In the recent death of John B. (Jack) Berkshire, Petersburg lost one who will be greatly missed in the community and in many hearts.

Mr. Berkshire was born and reared and lived beyond the allotted three score years and ten in and near Petersburg and was well known in Boone and surrounding counties.

In his early life he was associated with his father in the mercantile business, but later served the community as carpenter and contractor. However, his greatest contribution was that of friend, and counselor of the entire countryside.

Early in life he united with the Christian Church and was a beloved and valuable member thruout his life. The church made him an Elder and many are the testimonies of the spiritual uplift and encouragement from his quiet talks at the communion table. In fact it was "a little talk with Mr. Jack" that put so many at peace with themselves and their fellowmen and caused them to seek life, not valued by the passing moment, but over the large span of years and in the light of the teachings of Jesus. Not until the resurrection will be know the number who found him an understanding, sympathetic friend, elder brother and fellow citizen.

We shall not soon find another such beloved citizen.

BELLEVIEW FIRST TO GO OVER TOP

IN RED CROSS WAR FUND DRIVE WITH TOTAL OF $375.50 COLLECTED—DON'T WAIT TO BE SOLICITED.

First "over the top" in the Red Cross War Fund Drive in Boone County is Belleview, which has already raise $375.50 on a quota of $342.92. This splendid work by Miss Kathryn Clore, Chairman, her organization and the citizens of Belleview is a challenge to the other communities of the County. Watch this paper next week to see which is the second precinct "over the top."

Do not wait to be solicited. Hunt your local chairman, and make your contribution—make it large—for our quota of $8,700.00 is more than twice that of last year.

Following is the list of precincts, their chairmen and quotas:

Beaver, $335.42, Mrs. Ruth Greene; Belleview, $342.92, Miss Kathryn Clore; Bullittsville and Hebron, $773.80, Mrs. Jameson Aylor; Burlington, $1,191.61, Mrs. J. G. Smith; Carlton, $311.71, Mrs. John Ryle; Constance, $486.08, Mys. George Kottmyer; Florence. $, 960.47, Mrs. Lewis Houston; Ha , ilton, $289.51, Mrs. J. C. Acre; Petersburg, $477.96, Mrs. Raymond Witham; Union, $705.89, Mrs. Martha Huey; Verona, $429.26, Mrs. G. C. Ransom; Walton, $1,395.37, M s. Clayton Jones.

The Red Cross is wholly dependent on voluntary subscriptions, for it receives no federal aid. It is always on hand in an emergency, and now that we are in the greatest emergency of all—War—demands on it are unprecedented.

All of us have heard from our local boys such expressions as "We don't know what we would have done without the Red Cross." General Douglas MacArthur has said "The Red Cross never has failed the American soldier." It is up to us to insure the continued services of the Red Cross. Make it your personal responsibility to see that Boone County as a whole goes "over the top."

The meeting is sponsored jointly by the Cincinnati ODT office and the Cincinnati Livestock Marketing Committee. HOME NURSING CLASSES PLANNED

WILL BE NATIONAL CAMPAIGN BEGINNING FIRST OF MAY—WILL GREATLY AID DOCTORS IN CARRYING OUT ORDERS.

Because the nation is feeling more and more the effects of a constantly growing shortage of physicians and nurses, which since Pearl Harbor has drained every community until the health of civilians is potentially in danger, the American Red Cross has instituted a national campaign for Home Nursing classes to begin the first part of May.

This is based on no hollow ambition for numbers, no superimposed goal imagined by an impractical committee; it is a concerted effort to meet a wartime need felt in every hamlet of America.

Health and education authorities who make up the membership of the National Council on Red Cross Home Nursing met recently in the nation's capital and set a figure of 3,000,000 persons needed to study home nursing as a means of easing this shortage. To train this number, several years of steady work will be required.

It is not a campaign that can be ended soon, if ever. No military victory, not even a declaration of peace, can insure normal health service. The wounded being brought back require continued hospitalization. It will be years before young doctors will wait in empty offices to establish a practice, or before nurses can be had for "luxury" illness. The homemaker must learn self-reliance, freedom from fear, the sure technique born of skillful under professional nurses if she is to meet this emergency.

The Red Cross Home Nursing course makes no pretense of turning out skilled nurses. It requires only a few hours a week of informal classroom lectures and demonstrations. Women who enroll soon learn its limitations. It does not teach midwifry, self dosing, short cuts to health. It is a sane practical course that teaches respect for the doctor's orders, economy in using his time.

Marion G. Howell, President, National Organization for Public Health Nursing; says: "No one can estimate the importance of the contribution which the holders of Red Cross Home Nursing certificates have made to the health of this country, particularly in war time. The teaching of Home Nursing is important, both in war and in peace. In these days when all nursing staffs are depleted, it is even more important that our fine American women in charge of families and homes are prepared through such programs as the Red Cross gives in Home Nursing courses." Stella Goostray, Chairman, National Nursing Council for War Service, says: "Professional nurses ask the women of our country to enroll in the Red Cross Home Nursing course and to share with them in meeting the nursing needs of a nation at war."

Dr. Thomas Parran, Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service, Dr. James E. Paulin, President American Medical Association, health commissioners and other medical authorities endorse the course. Dr. Ragnar T. Westman, commissioner of Health, Seattle, says: "I consider Red Cross Home Nursing a most important field of public health education, and hope it will continue as a permanent peace program."

Information about classes for Boone County can be obtained from R. I. Rouse, Chairman of the Chapter, Elizabeth Lowry, Red Cross Nurse or a member of the Nursing Committee for your community.

RURAL YOUTH AND THEIR NEIGHBORS

WE CAN ONLY HAVE PEACE WITHIN WHEN WE ARE AT PEACE WITH OUR NEIGHBORS —ATTEND YOUTH RALLY.

When Jesus said, "love thy neighbor as thyself" he was giving a command to an educated lawyer. This lawyer was seeking to ensnare Jesus and cause him to be confused. Jesus never lessened or belittled the laws of Israel, but always added to them the spirit. The lawyer could no longer say after he had talked with Jesus he did not know the real meaning of the law of love.

To love God alone with all of our mind and soul is easy for many. And then to love our neighbor on top of this is even harder. If a person is to be a Christian, then all the laws must be kept and not minimized. To love our neighbors means to share with them our substance when in need, to share our hopes and faith, and help them to understand more clearly the real meaning of a brotherly world that God has created.

In the totalitarian state individuals are forced to share their lives and views by the state, but in a Democracy the individual shares his views with others because of the love he has in his heart for his fellow citizens. Today as never before, we as young people of our nation need to realize, we need to learn the full law of loving our neighbors as ourselves in order that we can build a stronger Christian faith. Today our world is standing in need of the fulfillment of this law of life. We can only have peace within when we are at peace with our neighbors. The way we achieve love is by sharing. The youth of Boone County, when they meet March 25, will have a greater love for their neighbors because they will know them better in sharing their views and mutual hopes.

FARMERS STRESS EROSION CONTROL

AT MEETING HELD WEDNESDAY MARCH 8TH AT BURLINGTON —RESEARCH RESULTS PRESENTED BY EARL WELCH.

Farmers attending the county Agricultural Engineering meeting at Burlington Wednesday, March 8th, urged that erosion control through contour cultivation, contour seeding, hillside ditches and terraces be widely used in Boone County, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Earl Welch, Agricultural Engineer from the College, presented research results that snowed once erosion control practices are set up, there is practically no difference in the amount of labor required to cultivate and harvest crops grown under the erosion control program.

Erosion control experiments show that eighty per cent of erosion takes place during the planting and cultivating season and that frequently 60 tons of soil is lost during this period. Seldom less than 6 to 10 tons are lost. When the present heavy fertilizing program of from one-half to a ton of fertilizer per acre is considered, this plant food addition is very insignificant compared with erosion losses.

Crops planted on the contour and on land where hillside ditches or terraces are constructed, conserves water and gives marked increase in crop yields and gives better stands of grasses and clovers.

The A. A. A. this year is giving substantial payments for contour seeding of small grain crops, construction of hillside ditches and farm pond or reservoirs.

The basic principle for starting contour cultivation is to lay off guide rows on the contour. The Soil Conservation Service is rendering a most valuable service in training and assisting farmers in planning erosion control work. J. C. Acree, County Soil Conservation Service Agent, in Burlington, phone Burlington 94, is assisting farmers in working out erosion control plans for their farms. Approximately 40 farmers in the county were assisted in this work last year. Additional information on improved methods of erosion control is available at either the Soil Conservation Service or County Agent's offices in Burlington.

Mrs. Stanley Baker, of Indiana, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maurer and son this week.

KENSINGTON WOMAN KILLED

SLAYER TURNS WEAPON ON SELF, FOLLOWING QUARREL— SLAYER WAS FORMER NEIGHBOR.

Mrs. Grace Ellis, 33 years old, wife of Harry J. Ellis, a garage mechanic, was shot in the breast by Duke Wilson, 61, of 105 Center Street, Erianger, Monday at her home near Kensington Lake. Wilson, then apparently shot himself in the heart with the same weapon, a shotgun.

Sheriff Williams, called to the Ellis home, stated that Mrs. Ellis' daughter, Beulah 13, witnessed the slaying of her mother. She ran from the house to a near-by grocery owned by J. M. Callen, and telephoned the sheriff.

Sheriff Williams stated that when he entered the house to investigate the tragedy he found Wilson's body lying in a room adjoining that in which Mrs. Ellis was killed.

Sheriff Williams said he was told by the daughter that Wilson visited the Ellis home earlier in the day and quarreled with Mrs. Ellis.

Thomas Carr, Boone County Magistrate returned a verdict of murder and suicide, after an investigation.

Wilson was a former neighbor of the Ellis family, having owned a farm across the road. He recently sold his farm and moved to Erlanger. The Ellis residence is located at Kensington Lake on the old Lexington Pike.

Grass Seed Averaging 25 Per Cent Higher

Grass and clover seeds are averaging more than 25 per cent higher than last year. Prospects are that seed may be higher and more scarce in 1945.

The best time for spring seeding of grasses and clover is at hand according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Clovers that should be sown are red clover, mammoth clover, alsike, korean alfalfa, and sweet clover. Grasses include timothy, red top, orchard grass, and Kentucky and Canada bluegrass.

Farmers are urged not to neglect their spring seedings because of high seed prices. The A. A. A. is subsidizing seedings of at least 20 pounds of grasses and clovers on limed land at the rate of $5.00 per acre on the soil building allowances. At least five pounds of the mixture must be legumes.

You Render A Service To Our Boys Over There By Giving To Red Cross

I send myself to stand beside my Service Man as long as he needs my help.

I would go if I could, to be there with him.

I would cheer him when homesickness pulls him down.

I would try to make him forget the horror he has witnessed.

I would take his worries on my shoulders and relieve his mind of fear for the welfare of those at home.

I would give him comforts, things not expected at the time and place, and precious on that account.

If my Service Man were taken prisoner I would see that he got extra foods, warm clothing and needed medicines.

If he were wounded I would furnish my blood to save his life, and surgical dressings to bind his wounds.

I would be beside him in the hospital to give him comfort, and to make the hours less long.

If he were crippled I would help him adjust himself to his new and smaller world, and were he discharged for disability I would seek to safeguard his interests and to see him and the family through any difficulty.

I am needed to do these things. I CAN do them—for I am the Red Cross. By my generous gift to the RED CROSS WAR FUND, I DO them all. The fund—unprecedented in size to meet the unprecedented need—greatly need my gift. This is my share.

FOOT TEST

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

Usually the first sign of foot trouble is the running over of the heels of shoes.

In a strong healthy human foot the 26 bones are held together to form a substantial support for the weight of the body and they are held together in place by strong ligaments, tendons, and muscles. These bones are so arranged that they form four separate and natural arches.

The heel bone and ankle bone lean out of position more or less in almost every kind of foot trouble. The cause, is that ligaments, muscles and tendons which hold the heel bone and ankle bone in place, become weakened, and are not strong enough to hold these bones in their normal position.

Backaches, headaches and many body ills may be traced to feet. Even symptoms like those of rheumatism and arthritis now are being banished with proper shoes. Also nervous indigestion, sleepless nights, etc.—Adv.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL
SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

Lesson for March 19

JESUS CRUCIFIED

LESSON TEXT: Mark 15:22-27, 29-39.
GOLDEN TEXT: He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.—Isaiah 53:5.

The crucifixion of Christ brings us to that darkest of all days in the history of the world, when wicked men with cruel hearts and hands crucified the loving Son of God. But, thanks be to God, it was also the day when bright hope shone forth for sinful humanity, for in His death Christ bore our sins upon the tree, the veil was rent, the old sacrifices were set aside, and the "new and living way" was opened into the "holiest" by the blood of Jesus" (Heb. 10:20).

The cross is not just an ornament to decorate the steeple of a church, or to adorn man. It speaks of the black horror of the cry, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" But it also tells of our God, who "so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son" as its Redeemer.

What does Calvary mean to us? It means that—

I. The Saviour Died So We Could Live (vv. 22-27).

The details of and circumstances surrounding the crucifixion are of deep interest to every Christian. We stand with Luther and weep as we see Christ's unspeakable agony, not only of body but of spirit, and we cry, "For me, for me!" How can any believer contemplate the cross and withhold self, substance, or service from Christ?

There would be less careless, selfish living if we would go often to the story of the death of Christ and recognize the loving, sacrificial devotion of Christ.

Equally heart-searching is the message of the cross to the unbeliever. He knows he is a sinner (Rom. 3:23); he knows that "the wages of sin is death" (Rom. 6:23), and he knows that "neither is there salvation in any other, for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved" (Acts 4:12). Here at the cross he meets that one "who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed" (I Pet. 2:24).

Note the difference between the two thieves who were hanged with Jesus, for it is the difference between those who face Christ in our day. One railed on Him (Luke 23: 39), while the other, repentant, had a faith that looked all the way into Paradise (Luke 23:43).

II. The Son Was Forsaken So We Could Be Accepted (vv. 29-36).

Awful was the railing and mocking which our Lord endured on the cross. It must have made His devoted, loving heart well-nigh break as He saw the scorn of the very ones He died to save.

Yet it was as nothing compared to that moment when He who knew no sin "was made sin for us" (II Cor. 5:21). Bearing the awful load of the sin of the world He knew the bitter agony of being forsaken by the Father. He turned His head away and we hear that saddest of all cries, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?"

We cannot fathom the full meaning of that hour, we dare not attempt to explain it, we can only accept it and thank God that because He did become sin for us we may be "made the righteousness of God in him" (II Cor. 5:21). He died that we might live. He was forsaken that we might be "accepted in" Him "the beloved" (Eph. 1:6).

After the darkness, however, comes the light. He died not as a martyr, a vanquished gladiator defeated in battle; no, there was victory.

III. The Veil Was Rent So We Could Enter (vv. 37-39).

The death of Jesus was not the pitiful weakening of a human martyr. Here was the Son of God, crying with a loud voice (v. 37), giving up His spirit to the Father (Luke 27:46), declaring that the work of redemption was "finished."

As a visible indication of that fact, and as a declaration that the old dispensation of law had given place to the new dispensation of grace, God tore the temple veil in twain. Only He could have done it.

No man could have torn this sixty-foot long, twenty-foot wide, and inch-thick curtain, and note that it was torn from top to bottom. This was the act of God. This veil had hung in the temple to keep all but the high priest out of the Holy of Holies, and he entered with fear and trembling but once a year as the representative of the people.

Now all this is changed. We have now, "brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil."

Therefore, "let us draw near with a true heart and full assurance of faith" (Heb. 10:19-22).

Cleaner Cows Less Labor with CONCRETE PAVED BARNYARD
A concrete-paved barnyard is a big aid to dairymen producing high quality milk. Fall, winter, spring and summer it helps keep cows out of mud, dust, filth—cuts down work of cleaning cows before milking. A big factor now that farm help is short and every effort is being made to increase milk production.
When cows wade through mud they waste energy needed for producing milk. Owners say a paved barnyard soon pays for itself by helping produce more and better quality milk.
Paste coupon on penny postal and mail today for free instructions for paving your barnyard or building other durable, thrifty, sanitary structures with concrete.
If you need help, get in touch with your concrete contractor or building material dealer.

Play Safe, Son!
Don't Fly Your Kite Near a Power Line
KITE flying is great fun but danger lurks when kites are flown near power lines. Many a child has lost his life by using wire for kite string or climbing a pole to get a tangled kite. Don't take any chances. Play safe by following these suggestions:
Rules for Safe Kite Flying
1. Don't use wire or metallic kite string.
2. Don't fly your kite with wet string or in damp weather.
3. Don't use metal kite sticks.
4. Don't climb poles to get tangled kites.
5. Don't poke sticks at tangled kites or try to pull them down by their tails.
6. Always fly your kites in open fields away from power lines and busy highways.
If your kite becomes caught in electric wires, call our office. We know how to remove it safely without causing a service interruption.

4-H ACTIVITIES

The 4-H did a great job last year, so great that the President wrote letters to all of the Assistant County Agents in the United States thanking the 4-H for the great job.

You fathers of the boys can help them a lot. Most of them are new to the idea of farming and will have disappointments as they carry on with their project. It will be up to you farmers to encourage these boys.

You may think this little bit won't help much, but just think of that boy of yours overseas.

E. S. Ryle Seeks Information In Regard To Ryle Family

E. S. Ryle, of East New Market, Md., writes the following interesting letter:

"While in Washington, D. C., recently I spent an hour in the National Archies, 7th and Constitution Ave., inspecting the early census regarding the early Ryle family. Knowing many of this lineage would be interested I am advising you as follows:

"The 1790 census of North Carolina shows John, also James Ryle living in Anson County near Wadesboro. John a bachelor and Jas. with a family of four adults. The census of 1800 shows these two not reported, but a Whitmill is reported in North Carolina. The Kentucky census for 1800 is missing, but the 1810 census shows John and James with families in Boone County also Elijah and Larkin both bachelors.

"The family name in both census in North Carolina is spelled Ryel and in Boone County Ryle. This may be due to the enumerator in North Carolina who may have erred in both census. Whitmill Ryle came into Boone from North Carolina.

"Unfortunately no names are given except the head of each family. No data as to where born or age at time of census.

"The records do show that the Ryles held a few slaves who may have come into the family thru dowery.

"We know subsequently in Boone County thru inter-marriage with the Pearsons, Calverts, Stephens, Clores and others that a few slaves were held. There are a number of slave graves on the J. H. Walton farm near Rabbit Hash, who were poisoned while jointly owned or controlled by a Pearson, who married into the Ryle family.

"So far as I know no Ryle ever took part in the Civil War except Deverarix Ryle who was on the Union side. The Ryles were, it seems, indifferent to slave ownership.

"It is impossible to trace the family tree thru census until 1850, but by presumption it seems John Ryle was a younger brother or son of James. That the more numerous Ryles in Boone County are direct from James.

"John Ryle settled on the J. H. Walton farm and built the lower part of the house which is log. James Ryle settled on Gunpowder hills near Waterloo. I have trace of part of the family who passed into Tennessee and some who are in Texas from a long time past.

"If anyone interested in this family tree can help, kindly write me."

CONTOUR CULTIVATION BOOSTS CROP YIELDS

Two thousand acres were cultivated on the contour in Grant county, Kentucky, last year. On 1,200 acres of corn, farmers reported increased yields averaging eight bushels to the acre. On 800 acres of tobacco the average increase was about 125 pounds to the acre.

The latter part of the season was dry, and the State College of Agriculture and Home Economics says the benefit from the water conserved by contour cultivation probably was greater than in a year in which rainfall was more evenly distributed through the growing season.

New Farm Gasoline Rules

To aid in the drive against the Black Market in gasoline, the Office of Price Administration announced that after April 1 the five-gallon "R" coupon will be invalid at fillin gstations and may be used at filling stations and may be used bulk plants or who have it delivered into storage tanks on their premises. Farmers buying most of their gasoline at filling stations have until April 1 to exchange at local boards their "R" coupons for "E" coupons, which will be accepted at filling stations. After March 15, "R" and "E" coupons in all cases must be endorsed whether for gasoline delivered into storage tanks or picked up at filling stations. However, to ease the task of endorsing these coupons, the consumer buying a large quantity of gasoline may endorse a whole strip or block of coupons with a single signature and address written across the required number of coupons given as a unit for his single purchase. For one gallon he continues to endorse one "E" coupon.

Ammunition Saved For Farmers

while it is possible that by fall there will be sufficient rifle and shotgun ammunition for game shooting, the WPB said that for the time being none can be spared from supplies needed by farmers to protect crops and livestock. No ammunition will be made available for amusement purposes.

Addressing Letters to Seamen

Many letters to seamen are being improperly addressed, often in violation of national security rules, the War Shipping Administration reports. The address of the steamship company, a specific street address, or a place name of a foreign country should not be given. The proper form to be used is Seaman's name, Name of Ship, care of Postmaster San Francisco, New York, or New Orleans, (depending on coast from which addressee sailed.) The return address of the writer should appear in the upper left corner with the name of the Steamship Company in the lower left corner.

150,000 Planes Since March, 1941

Of the 150,000 planes produced by the United States since March, 1941, the U. S. has retained 122,000 for its own use and has shipped 28,000 to its Allies; the Foreign Economic Administration has announced. The Allies paid cash for almost 7,000 planes and received more than 21,000 under lend-lease. The British and Russians produce most of the planes they are using, but American Lend-Lease planes with British, Norwegian, Polish, Czech, and other allied pilots are playing a vital role against Germany.

Promote Unrationed Foods

To increase the consumption of unrationed foods, the Retail and Wholesale Food Distributing trade and the restaurant and hotel industry are conducting a campaign that will reach its peak during March and April. Foods to be specially emphasized are oranges, potatoes, eggs, breakfast cereals, enriched bread, soy flour and grits, macaroni, spaghetti, egg noodles, crackers, orange and grapefruit marmalade, peanut butter, and coffee.

U. S. ASKS FARMERS TO PLANT 16,000,000 ACRES MORE THAN LAST YEAR

"Food Fights for Freedom," and every American farmer has been asked to do his share in planting and cultivating the 16,000,000 acres that are needed over last year's record total.

With farm labor short, every piece of farm machinery must be kept in the fields working, if this goal is to be reached.

"Our organization," says W. Bartons of Erlanger, Ky., local agent of the Standard Oil Company, "felt that we could best serve this program by helping the farmer keep his trucks, tractors and farm machinery in fighting trim, and free from rust and dirt. Our drivers have been trained to assist you in caring for your farm machinery, and preserving its life. In addition, each tractor operator can secure from our driver a free Wartime maintenance Manual, that will help you keep your farm machinery 'Fit and Fighting.' I hope our farmer friends will take advantage of this service, and call on the Standard Oil man for any service he can render, in keeping their trucks, tractors and machinery on the job."

BIG LEAF YIELD IN WOLFE COUNTY

More than a ton of tobacco to acre was produced by W. W. Hampton, tobacco leader in his community in Wolfe county. From two acres, he harvested 4,464 pounds which brought him $2,161. That a number of farmers in that community had yields almost as high was reported by Farm Agent Charles E. Gabbard.

W. M. U. NOTES

The W. M. U. of Union Baptist Church held their regular monthly meeting at the church on Feb. 9th.

After a short business our program committee presented a very interesting program on our Missionary Work in Africa.

At the conclusion of our program 13 of our members went to Florence to visit Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Huey, who has been an invalid for sometime. Our faith was strengthened by the inspiring message Bro. Huey brought to us on "Being an Invalid to the Glory of God."

Mrs. R. K. Newman, Pub. Chmn.

In Adair county, Bun Rice reported a yield of 386 pounds of tobacco on two-tenths of an acre. Average sale price was approximately $52 per hundred.

Pfc. Wilford Hodges, Co. A., 337th Engrs. Rgt. APO. 464, care Postmaster, New York, N. Y., somewhere in Italy, writes:

"I thought it was about time I was droping you a few lines to let you know that I am fine, and hope that my Boone County friends are o. k.

"Really I'm ashamed of myself for not writing to you more and thanking you for send me The Recorder, because that paper means so much to me. I can read it and find out how and what all goes on back home. The Recorder gives me so much comfort when I read it.

"Italy is beautiful in some sections, while in others it looks terrible. I wouldn't want to live in this country. The soil here seems to be very good. The people till their land over here with shovels and some have plows pulled by oxen. It seems as though this country is far behind the times.

"Again I want to thank you for The Recorder."

Pfc. Paul L. Clore 35663236, Co. A 338th Engrs, APO 782, care P. M. New York, N. Y., stationed somewhere in Italy, writes:

"I haven't written to you lately, so I will write a few lines. How goes everything around Burlington? I sure would like to be there, but maybe I can be before too long.

"I'm not in Africa anymore, I'm in Italy. My APO has changed 782. I guess you think my address changes a lot, but that's the Army.

"While I was in Africa I was at (censored) and (censored) I've heard a lot about (censored) but it still can't compare with the cities in the States.

"Ralph Cain and Bob Stephens are still with me, but George E. Black is not.

"I'm writing this letter by candle light. I know now how the people had to read and write years ago. We are staying in tents, eight men to a tent. We have to make our own bunks.

"It's a sight to see the people over here, especially at chow time. These Italian kids will come up and beg for something to eat. They even get things out of the garbage can and eat it they are about starved to death. That's what war is like if it's in your own country, so we ought to be glad it's not in the U. S.

"Well, I'll say so-long for now. I hope to see you soon."

Ed. Note—Thanks for the letter Paul, and we hope to see you and all of the other Boone County boys in the near future.

Stanley Tanner S 2/c, MCTC, Section Base, Little Creek Branch, Norfolk, Va., writes:

"I thought I would send you my new address so you could send me The Recorder. I am about 12 miles from Norfolk, in a little place called Little Creek. It is right on the Cheasepeake Bay. I can't say I like it here, but I guess when I leave here in about 8 or 9 weeks I will go to a worse place.

"I came down here with twenty-five other boys but don't know any of them. Friends if there is anyone in Norfolk or Little Creek from Boone County, send me their names and addresses so I can look them up.

"I will attend school and then go to a mine sweeper somewhere in the Atlantic.

"I want to thank you again for sending me The Recorder and I want to tell everyone hello."

Pfc. Willard E. Barnes stationed in New Guinea, writes the following letter:

"I wish to thank you very much for your kindness in sending me your paper, and I am sure that all the boys in the service appreciate it as much. The paper is sometimes two or three months old, but it is always like a letter from home, and I read every line. It is the only way I have of knowing where and what the other boys of Boone County are doing.

"I would like very much to hear from Goodridge, Scott, Wilson, Ryle, Hager and I can't think of the others just now, but if he reads this he will know that I was thinking of him. We entered the service together, January 13, 1941. I have not seen nor heard from any of them in two years.

"I am now with the Air-borne troops in New Guinea. I can't say anything about this place, so I won't mention it. I think that most of you have a good idea of what jungle life would be like. I may add that the weather is very hot.

"Those who wish to write, my address is Pfc. Willard E. Barnes, 35115286, 675th (AAA) M. G. Btry, APO 929, care Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif."

Cpl. D. D. Williamson, ASN 352-65425, Div. Hq. Co. 3rd Armd. Div., APO 253 care Postmaster, New York, N. Y., writes:

"I want to thank you for sending me The Recorder. I have been receiving it since my time in England and it certainly helps me to keep in touch with my friends of good old Boone County. With all the nice letters I receive and the paper I keep pretty well up on the news. It makes anyone feel good to get the paper and read about his buddies in the service, but hope we can all be home together soon with freedom.

"When I was home I always enjoyed reading the Recorder every week, but now it means more than ever to me.

"I don't have much time to write but will try to write a little about things of England that may interest you. Admitted by my English friends young and old alike, England is 20 years or more behind time. For instance driving is done on the left side of the road, the roads being very narrow in most places and you are always going up or down hill or taking a right or left curve. All roads are lined with a ground or stone embankment as where ours have ditches. The cars are small and of anywhere from six to ten horsepower. It's an odd sight to watch these little cars go traveling along the highway at 30 or 40 miles per hour. There are few cars on the highway due to petrol rationing.

"Most of the traveling is done on bikes and over here you don't pump a bike, you pedal it. They are as numerous as cars and people here think nothing of pedaling from two to ten miles every day back and forth to work.

"A few other oddities are: Instead of a stop sign on a side road it's 'Halt, Major Road Ahead.' A tavern is known as a pub, a radio is known as a wireless, all buildings are made of stone and the roofs are either straw or shale. Most of their music and bands emphasize the string instrument and an orchestra will play all tunes in the same tempo. Their favorite dance is the quick step and they like to stamp their heels on the floor, making a 'heck' of a racket.

"Heating of homes is mostly by fireplaces and they know very little of central heating. Smoking is permitted in all theaters (cinemas) and ash trays are provided on the back of the seats in front of you.

"Tea is had at six each evening and supper at 10 or 10:30, as soon as the boss comes home from his favorite pub. Dart throwing is the favorite pastime of pubs goers and we Yanks enjoy ourselves in beating the Englishman at his own game. Seems like everybody from six to sixty, male or female smoke, and they sure do go for our cigarettes.

"I could write more about England, but guess you are tired of reading this. I will tell you a few of the best towns that I have been in over like, Liverpool, Bristol, Lonron. Truro, Weymouth and Newquay. The best of all was the 8-day furlough I received in January and spent it in Glasgow, Scotland. That's the best town I have found outside of the United States and I really enjoyed my furlough. I also spent a day each in Edinsburgh and Lock Lomond, which were nice to see.

"Thanks again for the Recorder and hope to get it wherever I am stationed.

"Tell my friends hello and keep smiling. Your friend from Rabbit Hash."

Ed. Note: Thanks Dale for the interesting letter telling of England: I am sure it will be interesting to all our readers.

We are in receipt of the following letter from Nicholas S. Furnish F 1/c, Bks. C. Upper West 223, Naval Training School, Dearborn Mich.:

"I'll try to write you a few lines now as I have a full schedule ahead of me while here. I was sent here to Dearborn, Mich., for advanced training in Diesel. I will get my training in one of Mr. Ford's

"How is everything in Boone Co., now? I was home a few days last week, but not enough time to make all the visits I would like to have made. The worst part was leaving the day the basketball tournament started. I sure hated to miss that. I suppose Burlington and Hebron clashed with the same old spirit as in the past.

"Again I want to thank you for sending me The Recorder and give you my new address."

• • •

Pfc. Lee R. McNeely, ASN 358-01278, Brks. 1046, AFS, NYPE, RP Camp Kilmer, New Jersey, writes:

"I hate to bother you again so soon, but you see, I'm on the move again. I get a little closer each time I move, so it will not be too long now.

"This is the best camp I have been in and the food is good. I am only thirty-five miles from New York City, and both trains and buses run on a good schedule. The town of New Brunswick is only three miles from camp and has a population of thirty or forty thousand.

"I am not accustomed to this cold weather, but will be soon, I am sure. Tell all my friends on Boone County, 'hello.'"

Combining romance and laughter with a graphic portrait of our national capital in wartime, RKO Radio's "Government Girl" stars Olivia de Havilland and features Sonny Tufts in one of the season's gayest film offerings.

Tufts, making his second appearance on the screen, portrays a two-fisted business executive assigned to an important production job in Washington, while Miss de Havilland, as an experienced secretary, tries to keep him out of trouble.

Can You Picture KENTUCKY without Doctors?

Today, Kentucky's doctors and nurses by the hundreds are serving with our Army and Navy from Alaska to Iran, from Australia to Italy—bringing back to health the men who are helping win Victory for the United Nations. But on the home front, other thousands of doctors and nurses are fighting doubly hard to keep their fellow-citizens of Kentucky in good health—doing everything in their power to prevent or minimize interruptions in our State's war effort.

In a very real sense the well-being of Kentuckians is in the capable hands of approximately 600 physicians and surgeons and about 1,300 nurses. At their disposal are the facilities of 98 hospitals which have beds for over 17,000 patients at one time. In an average year nearly 160,000 patients are admitted to these institutions. To the Kentucky Department of Health goes well deserved credit for the high standards of medical care prevailing in our State.

We of the Greyhound Lines pay tribute to these fellow-citizens of ours who are doing so much to make our State a finer place to live in. They're doing a big job—a vital one. Greyhound's job is quite different—but vital, too! Providing safe convenient transportation service is particularly important now. By making near neighbors and good neighbors of all the communities we serve in Kentucky, we are helping unify the war efforts of this State — keeping them rolling toward Victory!

of your tractors, trucks and farm-machinery, so that they can do their part in producing the additional food our Boys need for Victory! Remember—idle rust and grinding wear help the Axis.

Every Southern farmer is doing his share in planting the 16,000,000 acres more than last year's record total. With a shortage of manpower, his tractors, trucks and machinery must be on the job—constantly—to do their share.

There are more than 500 Standard Oil bulk storage plants in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, and Mississippi, with willing men in each of them to help you in maintaining the efficiency and prolonging the life of farm machinery. This is nothing new to them—they have been doing it for years. Their service and Standard Oil products are available everywhere. Let them help you in this "Food Fights for Freedom" program.

Kill Clothes Moths Now, Warns Home Demonstration Agent

Warm weather will bring clothes moths into activity which may cause great damage to woolens, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent. Now is the time to kill moths and eggs by thoroughly brushing or cleaning furniture and clothing that are made with woolen material. The moth may soon ruin a woolen garment that had been intended for use again.

Knowing the lift habits of the clothes moth will help the homemaker keep moth damage to a minimum. The flying adult moth lives only a few weeks but during that time lays from one hundred to three hundred tiny soft eggs in cracks, folds, and pockets. Moths are less active in cold weather but it takes one to two days of zero weather to kill them. Because the worms are less active in cold weather, they often are not noticed around the house until warm spring days arrive. The moth egg is very delicate and easily crushed and dislodged by thorough brushing every two weeks.

There are several effective methods of control. Spray, available in stores under trade names kill only the insects actually hit or made wet and they do not render the sprayed objects immune to moth attacks. Dry cleaning or washing in a strong solution of neutral soap kills all moths, but does not protect again reinfestation.

Clothing just dry cleaned or washed, if wrapped in paper with its edges well folded back or sealed carefully will remain free from moths indefinitely if the paper is not broken. Moths cannot stand bright sun. Be sure that clothes are aired on a screened in porch so that they cannot be reinfested while in the sun. Paradichlorobenzene, (PDB) is good to use in closets or trunks. Use one pound to each 100 cubic feet of closet space. Place the crystals on top shelf or hang in muslin bags from hooks. The fumes from P. D. B. will stop moth larvae from feeding and will eventually kill them if the fumes are concentrated. Cedar chests, to be effective, must be made of ¾-inch heartwood and are then dependable protectors provided they are tight and in good condition and the clothing is freed from all stages of clothes moths before it is placed in them.

House cleaning time gives the homemaker an excellent opportunity to kill all moth larvae and pack away all winter woolens in tight closets or bags.

It is thought that more hybrid corn will be planted in Ohio county this year than last, when 70 per cent of the corn produced was hybrid.

FARM MACHINERY SURVEY PLANNED

POWER MACHINERY AVAILABLE FOR CUSTOM WORK, BEING LISTED, ACCORDING TO WILL SMITH, LABOR ASSISTANT.

A survey of all power machinery that may be available for custom work as plowing, discing, and seeding is being made, according to Will Smith, County Farm Labor Assistant. Most farmers with a normal season, will probably be able to get their spring plowing and planting done. However, if a late season results as was encountered last year, large amounts of custom machinery work will be necessary.

Last year custom machinery operators and neighborhood cooperation were the largest contributing factors in getting our war food crops planted and harvested. One hundred farmers last year according to reports from neighborhood leaders who owned tractors, assisted in emergency work. If a complete report could have been secured, this number could have been higher.

Farm labor needs can not be evenly distributed throughout the year as is the case with industry. The rush periods are usually the limits to maximum production. Labor saving devices and labor saving equipment are necessary if our war food goals are to be reached in the fact of increased labor and machinery shortages. One man with a tractor and equipment can do five times as much work as a man with a team. Two or more men working on many jobs such as stacking hay, housing tobacco and many other jobs can do considerably more than each man working separately.

Maximum food production demands that farmers cooperate more fully this year, not only in the countywide machinery survey, but also on a neighborhood basis. Contribution to the war effort will be the only reason most farmers will use their machinery for custom work in 1944.

The location of farm equipment available for emergency and regular custom work will be made available at the County Agent's office in Burlington.

DUE TO CONDITION OF ROADS—WALTON SCHOOL REMAINS OPEN, BUT BUSSES ARE NOT ON REGULAR RUNS.

Boone County schools were closed Monday of this week, due to snow and sleet which fell here over the week-end. Roads throughout the county were said to be dangerous for travel.

With warmer temperature roads began to clear Monday afternoon, and by Tuesday morning school busses were able to operate, and all schools in the county system resumed their regular schedule, according to D. H. Norris, County Superintendent.

Busses operating out of Walton for the Walton-Verona High School were not in operation Monday, but the school remained open with all classes operating according to schedule for children within the city limits.

Warnings were issued Monday to all motorists to stay off the highways with their cars unless their trip was very necessary.

The monthly business meeting of the Burlington P.-T. A. will be held at the school Friday night, March 24th at 7:30 p. m.

CONTROL METHODS ARE SUCCESSFUL

SHEEPMEN REPORT HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL RESULTS FROM USE OF PHENOTHIAZINE FOR PARASITE CONTROL.

All sheep owners who have followed the new county parasite control program report highly satisfactory results, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. The treatment, using Phenothiazine, while relatively new, seems worthy of being recommended to all sheep owners.

The recommended control program is as follows:

1. Treat all adult sheep in the flock individually with two 12½ gram Phenothiazine tablets or the Phenothiazine drench about April 15th or as soon as the flock is through lambing and before they are turned out on pasture. The drench probably would be preferable but the tablets for most sheepmen are easier to use and probably just as good. The lambs are not treated as they are usually free from internal parasites at this time. The only other individual treatment would be around next December 1st. A balling gun or a good set of forceps are necessary to give the tablets.

2. Summer treatment, from around June 1st, to November 1st, keep available before the sheep at all times a mixture consisting of nine parts salt and one part powdered Phenothiazine. Experimental work indicates that the worm eggs passing from the sheep having access to this mixture do not hatch out giving hope to the possibility that all intestinal parasites may be eliminated from the farm in a few years. Plans for a special feeder to keep the weather from the mixture is available at the county office.

Profitable sheep production without a good parasite control is practically impossible. Approximately fifty percent of the sheep owners in the county are expected to practice the above treatment this year. The largest handicap to the above program is the cost of the Phenothiazine and it is hoped this can be remedied.

APPLICANTS FOR SUBSIDY MUST FILE

FOR PAYMENT BY MARCH 31—PAYMENTS WILL BE MADE FOR MARCH AND APRIL, ACCORDING TO REPORTS.

Milk producers who have not filed an application for the Dairy Feed Subsidy payment for January are requested to file by March 31st, and for the month of February by April 30. The payment for these two months will be at the rate of 35 cents per hundred pounds of milk, and 5 cents per pound for butterfat, or its equivalent.

Information has been received at the Agricultural Conservation Office that payments will also be made for March and April, and that the rate of payment will be increased to 50 cents per hundred pounds of milk, and 8 cents per pound for butterfat. The payments for March and April will be combined and evidence of sales should be submitted for both months together.

Tentative plans call for a seasonal reduction in rates of payment for the month of May, June, July and August. These rates will be announced later.

Home Food Production Needs Are Stressed

Home food production including victory gardens have been listed as the major contribution in food production in 1943. Home food production will be even more important this year.

The following goals for farm families have been set for 1944, according to the County Agent and Home Demonstration Agent's offices:

Dairy—Two cows, one spring and one fall freshening.

Garden—One-tenth acre of good garden per member of family with at least 15 different varieties of vegetables.

Fruit—72 fruit trees, 200 strawberry plants, 10 grape vines, 100 berry bushes.

Hogs—Two medium sized hogs for family of five.

Poultry—Raise at least 15 chickens and five laying pullets per person.

Many farmers have already plowed their gardens and are making early plans for good crops. Plans should be made immediately for fertilizer, seeds, and other supplies needed for victory garden production. While apparently there is going to be plenty of commercial fertilizer if ordered early, there appears to be a shortage of certain vegetable seeds.

YOUTH OF COUNTY INVITED TO JOIN

IN FOOD CONTEST—$6,000 IN SCHOLARSHIPS TO BE GIVEN WINNERS—A. & P. SPONSOR CONTEST.

Kentucky boys and girls, between the ages of 14 and 22 and with two years' experience in vegetable gardening, are eligible to compete in the $6,000 wartime food production and marketing contest of the National Junior Vegetable Growers' Association, it was announced today.

G. L. Herrington, contest chairman for the Southern region, joined with Earle Parson, Jr., twenty-year-old Northampton, Mass., president of the association, in inviting both farm and town youth to register immediately for the fourth annual contest. Additional information may be obtained from vocational training instructors or 4-H Club leaders or by writing Herrington, 4-H Club Specialist for the Agricultural Extension Service, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tenn.

Contestants from this county will compete for a $500 national scholarship, a Southern regional award of $200 or for one of the ten sectional awards of $100 from a scholarship fund provided for the association by the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, Parsons said. In addtion two $25 war bonds are offered to other outstanding contestants from the state.

"Our association feels that by encouraging boys and girls to study and utilize for efficient methods of producing and marketing vegetables we are helping conserve manpower in a year in which every pound of food is needed," Parsons said. "In this contest it is not how big a vegetable grower you are, but how good a grower."

Winners of the 1944 contest, who will be announced in December, will be based on grades achieved in studies of a five-unit course on production and marketing methods, a report on the contestant's vegetable project and a summary of community activities.

SEED IS PRODUCED BY LOCAL FARMERS

BOONE COUNTY ONE OF FEW COUNTIES TO PRODUCE SUPPLY OF ADAPTED CERTIFIED HYBRID SEED CORN.

Boone County is one of the few northern Kentucky counties that has a locally produced supply of needed adapted certified hybrid corn seed, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Corn is one of our most needed war food crops that should be produced with a maximum yield for the land and labor required.

Wilton Stephens, County Tax Commissioner has produced 600 bushels of high quality U. S. 13, one of the most popular Boone County adapted hybrid seed. Lloyd Siekman, of Petersburg, has done an excellent job of producing approximately 1000 bushels of Kentucky 103, one of the highest yielding, high quality adapted hybrids. He has also produced approximately 300 bushels of Kentucky adapted 203 white hybrid.

Both of the above farmers are pioneer Kentucky certified hybrid seed corn producers, starting in the Utopia Club Members' Cooperative hybrid seed corn production project in 1935.

Kentucky certified adapted hybrid seed in 1943 produced an average of 31¼ percent increase in yield over open pollinated varieties. Ten additional bushels of corn were received for every dollar spent for adapted hybrid seed.

The great danger confronting Boone County farmers is buying hybrid seed that is not adapted to Boone County soils. Each year farmers buy hybrids that are highly advertised but are not adapted locally and as a result secure disappointing yields often much lower than would be produced by the old open pollinated varieties. Such a practice results a waste of labor, land and money.

Kentucky and Boone County adapted certified hybrid corns are: Yellows, U. S. 13, Ky. 102 and Ky. 103; Whites, Ky. 69, Ky. 72-B and Ky. 203.

There has already been a large sale of corn seeds. Farmers are urged to buy or speak for their seeds now. The supply of adapted certified hybrid seeds is limited and difficulty in securing seed at planting time should be anticipated.

Arrives In New Guinea

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hollis have received word from their son 2nd Lt. Roger Lehman Hollis that he had arrived safely in New Guinea. He wrote that it was about as expected, mostly jungle, but could be worse. He says Kentucky is the best place in the world to live.

He would appreciate hearing from any of his friends. His address is 2nd Lt. R. L. Hollis 0-810509 310 Fighter Sydn., 58th Fr. Group, APO 503, Unit 1, San Francisco, Calif.

SECOND PRECINCT GOES OVER TOP

IN RED CROSS WAR FUND DRIVE —COUNTY AS WHOLE HAS COLLECTED APPROXIMATELY HALF ITS QUOTA.

Verona, with Mrs. G. C. Ransom as chairman, is the second Boone County precinct to go "over the top" in the Red Cross War Fund Drive. Belleview reported filling its quota last week.

County chairman, Irvin Rouse, says, from data now at hand, it appears Boone County as a whole has collected about one-half of its quota of $8,700.00. As the drive ends March 31, this means increased effort must be put forth by all citizens.

Each precinct's quota is based on its assessed valuation, which is the fairest way possible. Belleview and Verona, by their untiring work have said to their Service Men, "We are behind you one hundred per cent. We appreciate what you are doing in fighting for us, and we are doing all we can to see that you have what comforts are possible." Service Men from the other precincts are looking to their homes to see if they will say the same. We must not fail them.

If you are not solicited, go to your local chairman with your money, or send it direct to Mr. Rouse in Burlington.

Most of you have more money in your pockets today than you have seen for many years. The high prices received for your crops, and the high wages paid in the factories are the direct results of War. It is BLOOD MONEY. Your boys are out there suffering and dying to win this war for you. The Red Cross offers you the opportunity to return a little of this blood money to the boys in the form of comforts obtainable only through the Red Cross. Can you deny this plea?

"Make your gift as big as your heart."

Mrs. Mary G. Walton

Services for Mrs. Mary Graddy Walton were conducted at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Taliaferro funeral home, Erlanger. Burial was in Bullittsville Cemetery.

Mrs. Walton died Monday at her home, 100 Commonwealth Avenue, Erlanger, where she lived for 26 years. She was a member of the Erlanger Baptist Church.

She is survived by her husband, Courtney Walton; a daughter, Mrs. Richard G. Cooper, and a brother, Joseph J. Graddy.

Philip Taliaferro, Erlanger funeral director was in charge of arrangements.

PRIVILEGE GIVEN SCHOOL HEADS

RIGHT GIVEN TO CONTINUE CONTRACTS UNDER NEW TEACHER TENURE LAW, ACCORDING TO REPORTS.

The new teacher tenure law grants to school principals, supervisors and attendance officers the same rights to continuing contracts as teachers have and enables Boards of Education to extend these rights to school superintendents, according to an explanation given Friday by John Fred Williams, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Frankfort, Ky.

Those eligible for the continuing contracts—good until retirement age unless revoked for cause—must have certificates issued on a basis of graduation from a standard four-year college, plus four years of successful teaching experience. If a school superintendent recommends them, the law requires that Education Boards must grant the continuing contract, unless four of the five board members vote against it.

In the case of the superintendents, granting of the continuing contracts is within the discretion of the district education boards, Williams explained. In case a board does not see fit to grant a superintendent the long time contract, he may be employed from year to year or on a one-two-three or four-year basis as are teachers and others who are ineligible for continuing contracts.

The new law became effective without Governor Willis' signature March 8, as he neither signed nor vetoed it within the required ten-day period.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL
SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

THE SACREDNESS OF LIFE (TEMPERANCE LESSON)

LESSON TEXT: Gen. 1:27, 28; Matt. 12: 11, 12; Rom. 14:19-21; I Cor. 6:19, 20.
GOLDEN TEXT: Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit?—I Corinthians 6:19.

A high and ennobling concept of the value of human life is an important element in Christian thought. The Word of God always regards human life as sacred—a gift of God to be used for His glory, never to be exploited for gain or destroyed at will.

This important truth needs constant reiteration in a social order which is so shortsighted and sinful that it will permit the destruction of man through the sale and use of alcoholic beverages. The lesson has a real application to the liquor problem.

I. God Honored Man (Gen. 1:27, 28).

It should be of primary interest and concern to discover what the Maker and Lord thinks of His creation, man. He knows what is in man and if we learn of Him we may come to evaluate man aright.

1. He Made Him in His Own Image (v. 27).

The teaching of Scripture makes it clear that this image was not anything material or physical, but rather a likeness of personality. As God is a personal, moral, intelligent Being, so is man.

How tragic then that man will not only reject that grace, but will subject his God-given personality to the narcotic and destructive influence of alcohol.

Not only did God make man in His image, but—

2. He Gave Him Power and Authority (v. 28).

This is the very thing man is seeking, and here we learn that the only One who had a right to give it—God Himself—bestowed it upon man.

Having dominion over the entire earth, man is in a place of responsibility, not only for his own moral choices, but for the welfare of others. Think that over as it relates to the ever-growing liquor problem.

II. Man Should Honor Man (Matt. 12:11, 12; Rom. 14:19-21).

Since God has such a high regard for man, it is clear that we ought to have real respect for our fellow man. "Man's inhumanity to man" is often declared to be the world's greatest difficulty. It would not be so if God's Word were obeyed. Man would learn that—

1. He Should Recognize His Fellow Man's Value (Matt. 12:11, 12).

Property values are so well to the front in the thinking of all, that it requires no argument to convince anyone that a sheep that has fallen into a pit should be rescued. But the sad thing is that the man who would run for help to rescue a sheep in that predicament will hardly cast an interested glance at the drunk in the gutter, or lose a few minutes sleep over the girls who are going to hell by way of our countless taverns.

The plain fact is that we do not regard a man as of more value than a sheep. Many a neighborhood has been stirred to angry reprisal over the poisoning of a pet dog, but will let the liquor dealer poison men and women—all for a small license fee.

The man who loves his fellow man knows that—

2. He Should Sacrifice for His Fellow Man's Good (Rom. 14:19-21).

Paul here states a high principle of Christian consideration. He makes clear that man is his brother's keeper and must do nothing which will tempt his brother to do that which will harm him.

III. Man Should Honor Himself (I Cor. 6:19, 20).

Man is told not to think more highly of himself than he ought to think (Rom. 12:3), and that is good counsel. But at the same time he ought to think as highly of his own being as God does. He should recognize that—

1. His Body Is the Temple of the Holy Spirit (v. 19).

The Bible teaches that the moment a man believes in Christ his body becomes the dwelling place of the Holy Spirit. That means that he must never take that body in any place (such as a tavern) to do anything or partake of anything (like intoxicants) which would dishonor the Holy Spirit of God.

2. He Belongs to God (v. 20).

Men have been given a free will by God. He has given them the right of self-determination. That does not abrogate God's right to man's devotion and love.

The fact that we are free to choose should make us the more determined that the right choice should be made—that we shall glorify God in our bodies, which are His.

Does it take even a moment's thought to tell us that the violation of that body (and every bit of scientific evidence proves it to be a violation) by the use of alcohol is not only disobedient, but sinful rebellion against God.

FIGHTING PARTNERS

The boy in the tank and the man on the tractor are partners — fighting partners — in this war for Freedom! We on the home front must furnish the food (16,000,000 more acres of it than last year's record total), to supply our boys with what they need for Victory.

With farm labor short, every piece of farm machinery must be kept in the fields working, in fighting-trim, and not in the shed for repairs. Rust, dirt and wear — must be prevented.

In this More Food Production fight, your Standard Oil man is also a fighting partner. He is helping the Southern farmer keep his trucks, tractors and machinery fighting-fit by giving helpful service and advice on farm machinery maintenance and making dependable fuels and lubricants available everywhere.

Always anxious to serve, your Standard Oil man can certainly render you extra service now. Ask him for a free copy of his 64-page "Wartime Maintenance Manual."

Don't Fly Your Kite Near a Power Line

KITE flying is great fun but danger lurks when kites are flown near power lines. Many a child has lost his life by using wire for kite string or climbing a pole to get a tangled kite. Don't take any chances. Play safe by following these suggestions:

Rules for Safe Kite Flying

1. Don't use wire or metallic kite string.
2. Don't fly your kite with wet string or in damp weather.
3. Don't use metal kite sticks.
4. Don't climb poles to get tangled kites.
5. Don't poke sticks at tangled kites or try to pull them down by their tails.
6. Always fly your kites in open fields away from power lines and busy highways.

If your kite becomes caught in electric wires, call our office. We know how to remove it safely without causing a service interruption.

CO. FARMERS PLAN FOOD PRODUCTION

FOR YEAR 1944—FEW FARMERS PLAN TO EXPAND LIVESTOCK NUMBERS — FEED IS FARM PROBLEM.

Food, feed and tobacco are foremost in local farmers' plans for 1944, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Few farmers plan to expand their livestock numbers and many are planning to adjust livestock in relation to feed supplies.

Home food productions are major plans for all farmers. The outstanding job of last year will be repeated in 1944, probably with greater consideration to the actual needs of the family. Commercial vegetable growers are working under many handicaps but indications are that they will do an excellent job.

Feed for livestock is presenting one of the greatest farm problems in the county. Farmers are confronted not only with a machinery and labor shortage but are unable to buy much of the feed that was normally imported into the county. This means that our farmers this year are going to have to grow both more hay and more corn.

Tobacco is the most important cash crop produced in the county from the dollar value. The government in asking that more tobacco be raised. Farmers have in general expressed their desire to grow the full allotments requested.

The 1944 production problems presents one of the most difficult problems that local farmers have ever had to face. They are however shouldering 100 percent of their war job and pushing off into one of the most important food production years in history. They will be called upon to cooperate with neighbors in emergency jobs, exchange work with farm machinery, hire inexperienced labor and to do many jobs without the needed equipment best suited for this work.

CONFERENCE IS REVEALING

HELD SATURDAY, MARCH 25 AT FLORENCE SCHOOL — YOUNG PEOPLE DESIRE BROADER KNOWLEDGE.

The Rural Youth Conference which was held last Saturday, March 25, at Florence School, revealed many interesting facts. The program consisted of registration from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m., devotion led by Rev. Elmer Kidwell, pastor of Florence Methodist Church, which was followed by a one-hour discussion period from 11:00 to 12 noon. These discussion groups were led by such of our county leaders as Judge C. L. Cropper, Supt. D. H. Norris, County Agent H. R. Forkner, Secretary of AAA, John Crigler, County Nurse Elizabeth Lowry, and James Gilpin of the State Conservation Bureau.

At 12:00 a well-balanced and tasty lunch was served in the school cafeteria by the Florence P.-T. A. At 1:00 o'clock the conference reconvened for a half hour of instructive motion pictures portraying wildlife conservation and nature study in Kentucky. This was followed by a half hour of devotions led by Rev. Noble Lucas, pastor of the Bullittsville Christian Church.

The program closed with a forty-five minute period of illustrated Bible facts presented in a very interesting manner by Rev. W. E. Garrett, pastor of the Methodist Church of Erlanger. Pastors of five different Christian denominations in Boone County were present and added to the program.

Several observations have been made: 1. That the young people of our County have a sincere desire for a broader vision and knowledge of what the State, the Church, and the School has to offer them in the trying days ahead; 2. That there is also among the various leaders of our county, both political, religious, and educational a sincere interest in the helping and working together to give to our young people all that is possible; 3. This conference produced among our young people a higher and greater respect for the leaders of the county in all lines of endeavor; 4. This conference would not have been possible without the great advantage which this County has that many do not realize, and that is a decided Christian and cooperative leadership; 5. That the young people of this County do not want only entertainment. Of all that were interviewed following the Conference the outstanding interest was not in the fun they had but in what they learned, especially in the discussion groups, in which they had an opportunity to express themselves; 6. This Youth Conference pointed out a fact that many have been thinking of but nothing has been done about, that there is a definite need in our County to give to our young people interests of a high nature both in the field of religion and education to direct their thinking in worthwhile things and in the building of character.

In conclusion we may say that the outstanding benefit of such conferences in which the youth of our County mingle with trained leadership of the County is going to regain that lost sense of neighborliness which the County has cherished and profited by thruout its whole history. Or to put it another way—at this conference we saw the 'Golden Rule" in action.

REPRESENTATIVE MAKES STATEMENT

IS PRAISED BY SPEAKER OF HOUSE AND MAJORITY LEADER OF SENATE—HAS BEEN ABLE LAW MAKER.

The following statement was handed to the editor of The Recorder by Mr. R. M. Hall, State Representative of the 54th District:

Since there has been quite a bit of publicity concerning the results of the current session of the General Assembly recently adjourned, it is the intention of your representative to advise the citizens of the two counties, (Boone and Gallatin) the facts as they were known to the members of the 1944 session.

It is an admitted fact that the present administration was left a cash surplus of approximately $11,000,000 by the preceding administration. The department of revenue anticipated an income of approximately $62,000,000 for the ensuing biennum (July 1944 to June 1946) which added to the surplus now on hand would total approximately $73,000,000. The House of Representatives passed a budget of approximately $68,000,000 for the succeeding two years and the Governor indicated that he would approve same although it did not conform to his exact wishes in some of the details. The Senate modified the bill as passed by the House by writing in the provisions that the different departments of the Commonwealth should not spend more than the allotment provided by the budget and explained their action by showing that both the Chandler and Johnson Administrations had operated under exactly the same provisions. The Senate also wrote into the budget that the cash surplus over and above the amount provided by the budget for operating expenses should be invested in War Bonds until such time as the present emergency should end and certain capital improvements could be made at the different State institutions. The Governor refused to accept the actions of the Senate as stated above and the Republican members of the House voted against the entire budget. The Democrats, (50 of 56) voted for the budget as amended by the Senate.

Your Representative was one of the 50 Democrats that voted for the budget bill. If the above budget bill had been passed and approved by the Governor, both the school teachers and the recipients of old age benefits would have received substantial increases in the allotments contained herein. As it now stands, unless the Governor goes to the expense of calling an extraordinary session of the General Assembly he must operate under the preceding budget of the Johnson administration and the different departments of the state government will not receive the additional appropriations which they sorely need.

For the sake of the record two letters received by your representative from the Democratic leaders of the House and Senate are reproduced herewith:

"Hon. R. M. Hall
Walton, Ky.

"Dear Coke:

"Now that we have had a few days to 'reconsider' the session just closed, to me it is filled with pleasant memories of our association.

"I am extremely grateful to you for your courtesies to me and your generous help.

"I look forward to our association in any future session.

"You have made a good representative. You have served with honor and distinction. May I commend you for your efforts. You will certainly receive the commendation of your people.

"With kindest personal regards and best wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,
Harry Lee Waterfield."

Letters of Earle C. Clements, Majority Leader of Senate, follows:

"Representative R. M. Hall
Walton, Kentucky

"Dear Coke:

"The willingness of the majority of members of our party to withstand the temptation of patronage, bribery and other means used by a Republican administration in their efforts to get legislation enacted not to the best interest of Kentucky will receive the commendation of all informed members of our party.

"I cannot commend too strongly the staunchness of your stand, and, the voters of your district will, with all the facts known, give complete approval of your acts.

"Our association during the session," will remain one of my pleasant memories. I trust that we will soon renew that association.

Sincerely,
Earle C. Clements."

It is the earnest desire of your representative to support any and all constructive measures and any advice or criticism that you may have to offer will be welcomed at all times.

Local Man Reports Good Catch Saturday

Hubert Brady, Burlington, reports splendid luck fishing Saturday. Mr. Brady stated that he caught approximately 12 pounds of the finny tribe on the waters of Woolper last Saturday.

Among the catch was a black sucker which weighed 3 pounds, the largest to be reported caught in these parts for sometime.

TAX COLLECTOR TO VISIT COUNTY

APRIL 12 AND 13TH TO ASSIST INDIVIDUALS IN PREPARING APRIL 15 DECLARATION RETURNS.

Collector of Internal Revenue S. R. Glenn announces that a deputy from his office will visit Burlington on April 12 and 13, 1944, for the purpose of assisting individual taxpayers in preparing their April 15, 1944 declaration returns. Mr. Glenn says that the new Revenue Act is in many particulars different from the laws previously in effect. Special attention is called to the group of taxpayers who will be required to file their declaration returns by April 15, 1944.

A declaration should be made by every citizen of resident of the United States who, if—

1. Single, or married but not living with spouse (whether or not head of a family), expects to receive in 1944—

(a) more than $2,700 of wages subject to withholding; or

(b) more than $100 of income from all other sources, provided his total income is expected to amount to $500 or more.

2. Married and living with spouse expects to receive in 1944, either alone or together with his spouse—

(a) more than $3,500 of wages subject to withholding; or

(b) more than $100.00 of income from all other sources, provided their total combined income is expected to amount to $1,200 or more; or his total separate income is expected to amount to more than $624.

Farmers on calendar year basis are given until December 15 to file declaration returns if 80 percent or more of their gross income is from farm activities, and if on a fiscal year basis will be given until the 15th day of the last month of the taxable year to file their return.

The collector says that the many changes made cannot be explained in a short notice, but that his deputy is familiar with the law and is being sent here to be of real service to the taxpaying public. The service is absolutely free. Collector Glenn urges the taxpayers of this county to see the deputy and let him help them with their income tax problems.

BOONE SHORT IN RED CROSS DRIVE

FOUR PRECINCTS HAVE REACHED QUOTA—LET'S BACK OUR RED CROSS IN THIS WAR FUND DRIVE.

At the time this article was written only four Boone County precincts had reached their quotas in the Red Cross War Fund Drive. They are Beaver, with Mrs. Ruth Greene as chairman, being the third to report "over the top, and Carlton, with Mrs. John Ryle as chairman, fourth. Belleview came in first, with Verona second.

Reports are not complete, but it appears Boone County has raised only a little over one-half of its quota of $8,700.00. The drive ends March 31, and it is now up to each of you to decide whether or not you have given every penny you can.

You are familiar with the aid and comfort which only the Red Cross can give to Service Men and their families, at a time when, because they are fighting for you, they are not able to help themselves. But do you realize that the duties of the Red Cross are now eleven times those of peace time, and that with the decisive battles of the war yet to be fought, still greater demands will be made on it?

The local solicitors have tried to contact everyone personally, to make it convenient for you to give, but if for some reason, you have been overlooked, or if you feel you could make a large contribution, send it to your local chairman, or to County Chairman, Irvin Rouse at Burlington.

The soldier bleeding on the battlefield has given his all for you. Are you sure you have given your limit for him?

Following is a list of precinct chairmen: Beaver, Mrs. Ruth Greene; Belleview, Miss Kathryn Clore; Bullittsville & Hebron, Mrs. Jameson Aylor; Burlington, Mrs. J. G. Smith; Carlton, Mrs. John Ryle; Constance, Mrs. George Kottmyer; Florence, Mrs. Lewis Houston; Hamilton, Mrs. J. C. Acree; Petersburg, Mrs. Raymond Witham; Union, Mrs. Martha Huey; Verona, Mrs. G. C. Ransom; Walton, Mrs. Clayton Jones.

SCHOOLS JOIN IN CLOTHES DRIVE

SCHOOL CHILDREN ASKED TO BRING FIVE POUNDS OF CLOTHES IN "CLOTHES FOR RUSSIA DRIVE."

Boone County schools will cooperate in the "Clothes for Russia Drive," which will be conducted throughout the State on April 6th, according to D. H. Norris, Superintendent.

It is hoped that every school child will bring at least five pounds of clothes and a pair of shoes for the drive. Last year, the schools of Kentucky did a magnificent job in this campaign, sending 14½ carloads of clothes to Russia. They all got across, were distributed by the Russian Red Cross, and are now being worn by the needy Russian people.

Posters are now on display in the various schools of the county concerning the "Clothes for Russia Drive."

Mr. Norris asks the support of P.-T. A. organizations, students and parents in this campaign. Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated.

SAUL BECOMES A NEW MAN

LESSON TEXT: Acts 9:1-9, 13-19a.
GOLDEN TEXT: If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature.—II Corinthians 5:17.

The lives of great men inspire us with an eagerness to make our own lives count for God and for country. Particularly is that true of the life of the apostle Paul, for he combined personal greatness with an absolute surrender and devotion to Christ, which made his life doubly effective.

We recall, however, that this peerless leader for Christ was at first the bitter enemy of everything Christian and we ask, "What changed this man?" The answer is—the redeeming grace of God—but that is the story of our lesson. He became a changed man as he went—

I. From Threatening to Trembling (vv. 1-7).

The enemies of God and of our Christ are often loudmouthed and terror-spreading individuals, who, for a time, strike fear into the hearts of men. Such was Saul of Tarsus, and such are the antichristian leaders of our day. They seem to be so powerful and able to sweep all before them.

But wait! Luther said of God's archenemy, "One little word shall fell him," and it is true. See what happened to Saul. Off on his journeys of persecution and destruction, bold and determined, he met Jesus on the Damascus road, and the great threatener is found to be "trembling and astonished" (v. 6).

The Lord is still on His throne, and one day every mouth shall be stopped (Rom. 3:19), and all His enemies shall tremble before Him. Would that they would do it while there is time to repent.

II. From Persecuting to Praying (vv. 2, 8, 9; see also v. 11).

Paul utterly devoted to the rooting out of this hated sect of Christians was on his way with letters authorizing their imprisonment. It was all very official, zealous and marvelous in men's sight, until he met Jesus, and it all blew away.

Ananias, that faithful layman (may his tribe increase!), was called of God to go and speak to the stricken Saul. When he feared to go, God encouraged him (v. 15), for the powerful persecutor had now become a penitent pray-er (v. 11). That's what a face to face meeting with Jesus did for Paul—yes, and will do for any man or woman.

III. From Scoffing to Suffering (vv. 1, 13-16).

Saul doubtless gloried in the breathing out of threatenings and slaughter of which we read in verse 1. He was riding high in the seat of authority and of official approval. It was satisfying to his fleshly pride to make known his dreadful purposes of destruction and imprisonment for these helpless Christians.

Did we say helpless? Oh, no, they had on their side all the power of the Eternal One. He who touches the people of God touches the Lord Himself. Paul thought he was fighting a little sect of Christians, but found that he was fighting the Lord Himself (v. 5).

But now that he had met Jesus and was ready to turn in devotion to His sacred cause, he was to learn what it meant to suffer. Let us note well that suffering for the sake of one's faith may be entirely within the will of God, yes, and for His glory.

IV. From Spiritual Death to Spiritual Life (vv. 17-19).

Men have tried to explain the experience of conversion on the ground of psychology, as a cataclysmic change in the life of an individual who has gone through some great sorrow or trial, but it simply will not go down. There is in real conversion a regeneration which means a completely changed life.

Saul did have a sudden and moving experience on the Damascus road, but it was not just because of a blinding light and a mighty voice. It was a light "from heaven" (v. 4), and the voice of the Lord.

Saul was "filled with the Holy Ghost," and received his sight. He was ready now to be used of the Lord as the greatest missionary evangelist and theologian that the world has ever known.

This change was one which reached down into his inmost being and transformed his beliefs. The Jesus he had hated, now became his all consuming passion and love. He no longer looked to his works to save him, for now he knew the personal Saviour.

What happened within showed itself in his attitude toward those without. It always does. He now came to love the very people he had hated and persecuted, and turned every bit of his strength and ability into the task of working with them in the spreading of the gospel throughout the world.

Men and women—yes, boys and girls—today need this same change from death to life. Too long have we been trying to polish up the exterior of lives unchanged within.

REFLECTING the stepped-up production tempo of a nation geared for war, 52% of all the electricity distributed by this company goes to industries essential to the war effort and to military establishments.

Since June, 1940, when the national defense program got underway, our industrial power sales have more than doubled. Today, we are supplying almost as much electricity for wartime industrial and military use alone as we supplied for all purposes as recently as 1938.

And although this tremendous increase in the use of electricity for war purposes has been piled on top of record residential consumption, the demand has been met with a minimum use of vital war materials for additional facilities and despite a heavy loss of skilled employees to the armed services. There has been no loss of production by any industry on our lines due to shortage of electricity, and there has been no curtailment of essential electric service on the home front.

FREE! This booklet shows how to build modern, improved-type poultry houses for all climates. Shows structural details.

Housing your hens in a comfortable, sanitary, rat-proof concrete poultry house is a good way to insure bigger egg production. When built of concrete a poultry house will last a lifetime and its modest first cost will be practically the last.

Long-lasting concrete is the thrifty material for feeding floors, dairy barn floors, milk houses, foundations, grain storages, manure pits, water tanks—improvements that help you raise more needed foodstuffs.

Send today for "how to build" booklets. If you need help, get in touch with your concrete contractor or building material dealer.

COVINGTON NEWPORT

Joe And ARC

This is not a fairy story, although you will meet a Fairy Godmother, and it begins "Once Upon A Time" there was a boy named Joe, who was very happy with his family an his job because he was assured of regular promotions to a high place in the Company. But one day some demons across the water started a war, and Joe's Uncle Sam said, "You must go across the water to fight the demons, to keep them from coming over here and destroying our homes. Not all boys are able to fight the demons, so you must do the job for them." Joe did not want to leave his family and job, and he did not like being told what to do, but he saw it was his duty, and he went.

It was soon after he put on the uniform Uncle Sam gave him that he first met his Fairy Godmother, ARC. His wife became seriously ill, and it was ARC who secured the furlough which enabled him to stay at her side until she was out of danger. ARC then gave temporary financial assistance, and found a more suitable place for the wife to live and grow strong again.

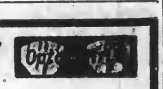
Before long Joe was on his way across the water. As he started for the boat, ARC handed him a warm sweater and a kit containing toilet articles, stationery, etc. On the way over ARC did all possible to make the long trip interesting and to take his mind off the danger.

Before Joe was allowed to leave his boat in the foreign land in which he found himself, he was warned not to eat the native food, for it would make him sick, and to be considerate of the native customs or he would get into trouble. On the first day he had free from fighting, Joe started out to see the sights, and was very happy to find that ARC had established a Club where he could eat, sleep and obtain information. This was a real touch of home, and it felt mighty good to sleep between sheets, eat American food, read books, and go on sightseeing trips arranged by ARC.

When he had to return to fighting again, some of his hours were made more pleasant by the visits from ARC in a Clubmobile, bringing coffee, doughnuts and entertainment, right behind the firing lines.

But one day Joe was wounded in battle. Quickly he was taken to a Casualty Clearing Station, and his life was saved by blood plasma supplied by ARC. For further treatment he was taken to a hospital for which ARC had recruited nurses, and his wounds were wrapped with dressings made by ARC.

When he started to get well, ARC helped him pass away the hours by reading to him, or writing his letters. When he worried about his family, ARC got in touch with them and found out they were fine.



If Joe had been taken prisoner, ARC would have been there to give him weekly packages of food and clothing and to provide entertainment.

Joe is almost well now, and his mind is at ease, for he knows ARC is looking out for his home folks, teaching them home nursing, training nurses' aids, teaching nutrition and first aid, giving disaster relief, and providing many other services.

This is not a fairy story, for you have already recognized ARC as the American Red Cross, and its services are not performed by magic. It takes good hard cash, and all of it must come from voluntary contributions. It is up to you to keep its services flowing to Joe and his buddies, who are fighting for you.

"Make your gift as big as your heart."

PETERSBURG HOMEMAKERS

The Petersburg Homemakers step out in front again with four beautiful Afghans made and turned in to Miss Gillaspie for the Red Cross.

The paper drive was a real success and we will have another one soon.

This club was the first to turn in their 1944 payment on the Floral Hall Building at the 4-H and Utopia Fair Grounds.

The club joined the Red Cross again. The club met March 10th at the school library and the morning was spent making bulletin files, which are useful and attractive.

At noon a delicious lunch was served on a decorated table with a birthday cake and candles on it, as Mrs. Julia Rector was having a birthday. The club presented Mrs. Rector with a beautiful handbag. After lunch the meeting was opened by the president, Miss Gladys Klopp.

Mrs. Frankie Chambers gave a reading on Tunisia. Miss Edna Berkshire gave a talk on plants, roses and trees. Mrs. Watts gave a report on 4-H work.

Please save your papers, they will be collected.

Mrs. Klopp, Reporter.

TAKES $200 AWAY FROM PINHOOKER

Ira Warren of Pulaski county has reason for thinking that the auction market is the best place to sell tobacco, according to Farm Agent Justice L. Pidcock. Mr. Warren was offered what he though was a good price by a pinhooker and would have sold had he not been encouraged to sell on the competitive market. As a result, Warren's crop of 1.7 acres brought nine cents more a pound than had been offered him, making a total saving of $200.

ROLLERDROME IS DESTROYED

BLAZE DISCOVERED AT WALTON HALF HOUR AFTER CLOSING LOSS ESTIMATED AT APPROXIMATELY $7500.

The Walton Rollerdrome was destroyed by fire late Wednesday night, after three fire departments battled the blaze for several hours.

The fire was discovered in the large two-story frame building shortly after 11:30 p. m. Chief D. Hess Vest, of the Walton Fire Department, summoned the Florence Fire Department for aid, immediately upon arrival at the fire. Several members of the Erlanger Fire Department also responded.

Members of the three departments prevented the fire from spreading to adjacent property, but were unable to save the skating rink, which was burned to the ground. The blaze attracted many spectators from all sections of the county.

Clifford Pruett, owner of the rink, said he closed the business at 11 p. m. following a skating party. Loss was estimated at $7500.

The blaze started in the front of the building, according to Chief Vest.

A large number of skates, a juke box and restaurant equipment were destroyed in the blaze.

Firemen worked until 5:00 a. m. Thursday to extinguish the fire. Residents of the town commended the firemen for their splendid work in keeping the blaze from spreading to adjoining buildings.

CIRCUIT COURT OPENS MONDAY

BRIEF SESSION EXPECTED DUE TO LIGHT DOCKET, ACCORDING TO OFFICIALS — CIVIL CASES TO MAKE UP DOCKET.

The regular April term of Boone Circuit Court will convene Monday morning, April 10th at 9:00 a. m., with Judge Ward Yager on the bench and Commonwealth Attorney, R. L. Vincent in charge of the Commonwealth's interests.

According to officials, the April session will be very brief, due to the light docket, with civil cases taking up the majority of the session. No criminal cases have been reported for this session.

Jurors notified to appear Monday morning are pleased to learn that the April session will be brief, on account of spring work on the farm. Many farmers are very busy burning tobacco beds and getting their ground in condition for spring planting.

In all probability court will be in session only a few days after the grand jurymen hand in their report.

BURLINGTON P.-T. A. TO MEET

The Burlington P.-T. A. will hold its regular meeting on Monday, April 10 at 7:30 p. m. at the school building. Election of officers will be held at this time. A social hour will follow the business session at which time refreshments will be served. All women are requested to bring cookies.

CORRESPONDENCE OMITTED FROM PAPER

During the past few weeks we have been forced to omit some of our correspondence, due to the heavy run of advertising at this time. We regret that we were forced to omit this news, and believe that in the future, or at least during the summer months this will not be necessary.

Our correspondents have been faithful in sending in their news weekly, even though their column was omitted the week previous. We thank you for your cooperation.

County Surveyor Enters Armed Service

Noel G. Walton, County surveyor left Tuesday for service with Uncle Sam's army. He was elected surveyor of Boone County several years ago, which position he has filled very efficiently.

During the construction of the Kenton County Airport near Hebron, Noel held a nice position with the construction company.

During the past few years, while acting as surveyor he has met and made many friends throughout Boone and adjoining counties, and he will be greatly missed thruout this section.

Mrs Walton makes the following statement:

"I wish to take this opportunity to thank all you of Boone County and other counties who have elected me and for whom I have done work. I hope to see you again sometime and resume pleasant relations.

Noel Walton."

Quail Distributed In County By Sportsmen

Members of the Boone County Fish and Game Protective Association distributed one hundred and fifty quail in Boone County Tuesday of this week.

This was a smaller number than allotted this county last year, but this was due to decreased revenue of the Fish and Game Division. However, birds were distributed in sections where they will have plenty of feed, cover and water, and placed only on farms where sportsmen will be allowed to hunt.

The restocking program this year will be handled by members of the local club, and birds will not be released to non-members, although birds were released on farms of non-members, where hunting is permitted.

Draft Reclassifications Announced For Men Under Twenty-Six Years Of Age

In an effort to assure a continuing supply of young men for the armed services without inducting those who are indispensable in war activities, the national selective service system has ordered preinduction physical examinations for all class II-A and II-B occupationally deferred registrants under 26 who have not been physically examined.

Local boards have been ordered to review cases of registrants under 26 in classes III-A, II-B, II-C, and III-C before reconsidering registrants 26 through 37 years of age. Registrants under 26 in III-A, II-A, II-B and III-C are to be reviewed, and if such action is warranted are to be reclassified regardless of existing deferment termination dates. Registrants under 26 found unfit for military service or fit for limited military service only, may be reclassified into II-A or II-B provided they are contributing to war production or war supporting activities.

NEW METHODS TO BE STUDIED

IN PREPARATION OF HOME CANNED AND STORED FOODS —FLORENCE IMLAY SPEAKS AT TRAINING MEETING.

They want at least one homemaker in each club to have a herb garden this summer.

NEW GUINEA SOLDIER DONATES TO RED CROSS

Sunday's Enquirer reported a gift of sixty dollars to the Red Cross from a soldier in New Guinea, saying "To show my appreciation to the American Red Cross for everything they are doing to make us happy."

He was not asked to give. He was not expected to give; but we here in Boone County who are expected to give, have not raised our quota.

We would hang our heads in shame if this obligation was not met. If you have not given your share to the Red Cross, or if you feel you can possibly give more, be a real Home Front Soldier. Send your money to your local chairman or to County Chairman Irvin Rouse.

A second prize of a 1945 membership in the Boone County Farm Bureau, The Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation and The American Farm Bureau Federation will be awarded the family scoring the next highest in home canning and food storage.

The county "Live at Home" program committee has recommended a second contest to be made available to the family that scores highest in home canning. The entrants in this contest will not be eligible for competition in the canning and storage contest.

$436.63 NEED TO COMPLETE DRIVE

BY BOONE COUNTY RED CROSS, ACCORDING TO CHAIRMAN— FIVE PRECINCTS FAIL TO REACH QUOTA.

When all reports were in Monday, it was found Boone County was still short of reaching its goal in the Red Cross War Fund Drive by $436.63. Three more precincts had reported "over the top," namely: Union, Mrs. Martha Huey, Chairman; Petersburg, Mrs. Raymond Witham, chairman; and Constance, Mrs. George Kottmyer, chairman. Other precincts previously reporting over are Belleview, Verona, Beaver and Carlton. A donation of $30.97 was made from a collection taken Saturday night during the program given by the colored Jubilee Singers in the court house.

There are now five precincts in the county which have not reached their quotas, and this extension of time for the drive will give them the opportunity to make the special effort necessary to meet this obligation and be able to look their service men in the face and say "we are with you."

We must not, we cannot fail! Boone County's one thousand service men are looking to use to see if the home folks have at least ten dollars worth of interest apiece in their welfare and comfort. That is what it amounts to. Ten dollars contributed to the Red Cross for each man in the Service from Boone County would more than raise our quota of $8,700.00.

Only the Red Cross is in a position to give those men certain necessary services. Only the Red Cross collects life saving plasma, sends field workers right along with the troops to help with their troubles, maintains service clubs for their recreation, and establishes contact with families in cases of emergencies.

Those and many others are the functions of the Red Cross. You hear of its work every day from the boys themselves. If any one of these boys asked you to do him such a favor, you would do it gladly. But now that you cannot be at his side to do it personally, you can send your contribution to the Red Cross to do it for you. As Eddie Cantor said, "Help the Red Cross serve the boys who are fighting to save our homes."

Even though you may have given once in this drive, consider again the sacrifices the boys are making. Can't you find a few more dollars with which to say "Thank You" to them?

Send all contributions to your local chairman, or to County chairman Irvin Rouse in Burlington. Do not allow Boone County to fail!

All precinct chairman, please note: Be sure to to get your final report to Mr. Rouse before noon, Saturday, April 8, so that a County report may be made in next week's paper.

FARM BUREAU IS SPONSOR

OF SHEEP IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM—WILL SECURE AND SUPPLY NEEDED MATERIAL FOR PARASITE CONTROL.

The Boone County Farm Bureau, in a meeting at Burlington on Monday, voted to sponsor for its members a special parasite control program in sheep this year. All members are urged to treat their flocks with either the Phenothiazine drench or tablets before turning on pasture and to feed the Phenothiazine one part, and salt nine parts, mixture during the summer months.

The Farm Bureau will secure and supply to members the needed material for treatment at cost, according to Lloyd Siekman, president. Members are urged to leave orders for their needs with the president.

Reuben Asbury, sheep salesman of the Cincinnati Producers, addressed the members at their meeting Monday and urged that all members treat their flock. He stated that experience at the stock yards and in grading work on the farm indicated that parasite control was the most important problem confronting farmers today in the production of quality lambs. He urged all sheepmen to treat their flocks. Phenothiazine has been found the most effective treatment.

CHRIST'S VICTORY OVER DEATH

LESSON TEXT: I Corinthians 15:41-58.
GOLDEN TEXT: Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.—I Corinthians 15:57.

"If there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen: and if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain" (I Cor. 15:13, 14).

In other words, the truth of the resurrection is an indispensable foundation stone upon which the structure of Christian doctrine rests. Beware of those who would spiritualize or explain it away!

The facts are there—fully proved and dependable; there is no need for doubt or question.

In our lesson we find:

I. The Great Change (vv. 41-50). Since it is obvious that our present bodies are not suitable for the spiritual world (v. 50), and that there comes, sooner or later (and almost always, it seems, too soon!), an end to their existence, there must be a radical transforming change. This takes place in the resurrection of the body.

To make such a blessed—and to the human mind, almost inconceivable—truth clear, Paul uses the effective method of comparison and contrast. Following his skillful use of the illustration of the sowing of grain, which dies that it may live again (I Cor. 15:35-39), he gives us a picture of the resurrection body.

That which we must put away in the silent earth at the end of life's day is a natural body, weak and lacking eternal glory (v. 43). It has already shown the evidences of decay and corruption, which we know shall be completely manifested in a short time. Marvelous as it has been as an earthly body, it cannot go with us into eternity (vv. 47, 48), for it is natural and not at home in the spiritual world.

Note, then, the great change that takes place. In the resurrection, the body for the eternal activity of the believer stands out as glorious, incorrupt and incorruptible, powerful, spiritually quickened, and heavenly. What more could be said?

Here we stand amazed and at the same time encouraged by the revelation of what God has in store for us who believe on Christ. Death does not end all—it is only the beginning of real fullness of life and usefulness for the Christian.

And all that is because of—

II. The Great Victory (vv. 51-57). Death is an enemy, indeed man's great enemy. There are those who have tried to deny that fact, to explain it away. They talk about death as "the great adventure," etc., but when one actually comes to face it, the truth is realized. It is an enemy.

But in Christ, death is a conquered enemy. The blessed message of Easter day is that "death is swallowed up in victory" (v. 54). Death could not hold our Lord (v. 57), and He was the "first fruits of them that sleep" (v. 20). This assures us that because He lives, we too, who believe on Him, shall live.

So death has lost its sting, and the grave its victory (v. 56). With Paul we cry out today from the depths of our beings, "Thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ" (v. 57). This is a day of joy, of singing, of victorious faith.

But the joy of Easter is not simply something to warm one's heart. It is—

III. The Great Incentive (v. 58). Living for Christ and serving Him in this world is our greatest privilege, but we are all so human that we need encouragement. We need an incentive.

The Bible speaks much of the rewards of God to those who are faithful, and gives many assurances that we are not engaged in a vain task. At times it seems as though men only reject, and the work of the Lord moves but slowly, if at all.

Let us not be discouraged or disheartened. We follow and serve a victorious Christ, One who has triumphed over death and hell. What we do for Him is never done in vain.

Note the helpful thought here. We are to be "unmovable," and yet "abounding." That seems paradoxical, but it is not, for it is only the life steadfast and unmovable at the center which can abound at the circumference.

That center is the resurrected Christ, and when we are established in Him, we are ready to live the abundant life for Him.

Easter is a glad day for a believer, but it is a sad day for the unbeliever. He may attempt to maintain an outward appearance of joy, but he will know in his heart that the message of the day is definitely not for him. And yet it is, for today he may by faith take as his Saviour the Risen One and enter into fullness of joy in Him.

So many people "celebrate" Easter all their lives, year after year, but never truly "keep the feast." May many such friends make this Easter day, 1944, the beginning of a new life in Christ!

Don't Forget The Address

1046 MADISON AT 11TH, COVINGTON, KY.

Now's the Time to Check Up on Your Refriqerator!

IF your refrigerator is not operating perfectly, have it checked by a competent serviceman NOW. Don't wait until hot weather arrives. Repairs take longer these days because of manpower and parts shortages. If you wait until the rush season, you may find yourself temporarily without refrigeration just when you need it most.

Follow These Tips—For That "Ounce of Prevention"

Defrost whenever frost reaches thickness of one-quarter inch.

Wash interior, including freezer, with weak baking soda solution each time you defrost.

Wash exterior with mild soap and warm water. A thin coating of wax will help protect finish.

Wipe grease from the door gasket promptly. Grease deteriorates rubber.

See that gasket makes tight seal. Do not open door oftener than necessary and always close it quickly.

Cover all liquids and keep defrosting tray dry to retard formation of frost on freezer.

Don't set control for colder temperature than necessary. Use fast freezing sparingly.

Keep unit compartment clean. Do not let dust accumulate on condenser coils.

If an open unit model, check to see that belt is not worn and fits properly.

Oil open unit models periodically as per manufacturer's instructions. Sealed unit models need no oiling.

Place refrigerator in coolest part of kitchen where there is plenty of room for ventilation.

WITH OUR BOYS IN SERVICE

Cpl. R. W. Tryling 35801266 Btry C. 759th F. A. Bn., Camp Rucker Ala., writes the following letter:

"A few lines to say hello and that I am sorry I haven't written sooner. I really miss The Recorder when I went on maneuvers in Louisiana and then returned to Texas. The address must have been mixed for I haven't received a copy of The Recorder since January, and now I am in Camp Rucker, Ala. and will be stationed here for sometime, so would appreciate receiving the paper again.

"I have lost touch with my friends already, and I like to see the address of those I know. I am sure everyone receiving the paper certainly appreciates it. I hope to hear from you soon. I will write more often now that I have settled down for a while."

• • •

We are in receipt of the following letter from Stanley Tanner, stationed at Little Creek. Va.:

"I will be here in Norfolk until the 10th of April and then will go to Mobile Ala.

"Say Pete do you have the addresses of Vernon Clifton, Bill Chapman and David Tanner? If you haven't maybe some of my friends in Boone County will have them.

"I have been here a month today (March 27th) and I haven't much more to go. We go to sea one and two times a week and practice sweeping mines. You sure do learn some interesting things about the advantages we have over our allies also quite a few disadvantages.

"In our school we study seamanship, gunnery and mine sweeping. We have examinations on what we cover every week.

"Well Pete, thanks for the paper, but I am wondering how I am going to get it when I leave here and go to sea. Will you keep sending it?"

Ed. Note—Your paper will follow you Stanley, no matter where you may be sent.

• • •

We are in receipt of the following letter from Pvt. Thomas W. Rogers, 15362231, Co. B. 136th Ord. Maint. Bn., APO 446, Camp Campbell, Ky.:

"This is another letter informing you of a change of address. No doubt these come quite often. I believe I have sent my share, too. However, I hope this one will last for a while. The battalion commander assures me of this.

"My college days are over, at least for the present, and I'm in an active unit. I have been assigned to Ordnance, and enjoy the work very much. My company's specialty is tanks and half-tracks. I do none of the actual work, as my job is principally clerical. As the unit has just returned from maneuvers, we have been rushed, and I haven't had too much time off. However, we are almost caught up.

"I seriously considered sending a change-of-address card, but I decided that would be a most indecent thing to do. I really appreciate the paper, and to show it I would have to write after each copy. As that is impractical for both of us, I'll let you know that I thank you most heartily.

"I've almost come to know you, and when I get home I'm going to be sure and meet you. I've been in your office once, it was about the program for the band's first minstrel show. That has been some time ago, hasn't it?"

• • •

Pvt. Elmer S. Dickey's new address is ASN 3559803, Co. B. ASP, TCRTC, Hotel Monroe, Monroe, La. Pvt. Dickey will have nine weeks of specialized training in the railroad shop at Monroe. After completing this training he will be a machinist.

• • •

Pvt. Wilbur C. Gray 35881567, Co. A. 185th Engr. (C) Bn., Ft. Jackson, S. C., writes:

"I thought I would write a few lines to thank all the people for their nice letters.

"I have been here for sometime. The engineer battalion is a real outfit. We work and fight both, being the first to move ahead and the last to leave.

"I will soon be through with my training. Army life is O. K. and it will make a man out of you.

"I am starting to school tomorrow, studying machine gun—that will be my job most of the time.

"Thanks for The Recorder."

• • •

Jimmy Smith, stationed at Sioux Falls, S. D., writes:

"Just a few lines to let you know how much I appreciate you sending The Recorder to me. I received this week's copy today and have been receiving the paper regularly ever since I have been here. It not only lets me know what is going on back in Boone County, but also helps us boys in the service to keep track of our friends who are scattered all over the globe. I thought that Dale Williamson's letter, which you published last week, was one of the most interesting that I have read.

"I have now completed five weeks of my 20-week course here and I find it very interesting. This is a Radio Operator-Mechanics and as the name implies, we are learning both how a radio works and how to work a radio.

"Harry Cook is attending school here too, but I haven't been able to see him but two or three times. We are in different squadrons and go to school on different shifts, so are rarely ever both free at the same time.

"I attended part of the South Dakota State high school basketball tournament here last Friday and Saturday. There were some very good games and I enjoyed them a lot. Sorry to hear that Boone County didn't get far in the tournament this year.

"Again thanking you for the paper, must close for this time."

• • •

Pvt. Charles E. Craddock, ASN 35873801, Co. R. 3rd Bn. 1st PTR, Fort Benning, Ga., writes:

"I am ashamed of myself for not writing soon, but really have been busy. I have completed my jump training and now going to communication school. I want to thank you for The Recorder, because without it, it really would be lonesome.

"News is very scarce around here. The Weather is real nice, it being always hot, which I don't like at this time of the year—but that doesn't seem to matter.

"Well Pete, will close now, but if anyone would want to write me I would be very glad to hear from them and will answer their letters."

• • •

Pvt. Eugene Setters, Co. B., 801 T. D. Bn., APO 230, care Postmaster, New York, N. Y., writes from England:

"Just a few lines to let you know I am fine and hope all of my friends are the same. I was going to write you last week, but am pretty busy these days.

"I'm planning to go to London next week-end. They have been bombing London every night. I like England fine, but I prefer Boone County.

"I'm working in the kitchen, but we don't get eats like we did in the U. S. A. but we don't go hungry either.

"They have blackouts here every night and boy do we get lost in the city."

Farmers Should Order Soybean Meal

Boone County farmers have been faced with an acute protein feed shortage during the past year. Protein feed increases efficiency in production and saves large amounts of grain feeds, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent.

The County will receive a carload of soybean meal allotted thru the War Food Administration for delivery the last of this week or the first of next week. Farmers needing this feed should file their order immediately at the AAA office in Burlington. All soybean meal thru the above source must be ordered from the car. Approximately half of this carload has not been ordered to date.

The last carload of soybean meal received about two weeks ago was delivered at the car for $54.42 per ton, which is cheaper than many farmers are paying per ton for shelled corn or cornmeal. Forty-five pounds of soybean meal will replace five bushels of corn feeding hogs in a dry lot. Farmers should not overlook the possibilities of saving their feed supply by balancing their rations with a protein supplement of this kind when it is available.

THE SEABEE'S CAKE RECIPE

The following was written by Marvin Courtney:

Two cups Hitler, ½ cup Mussoline, 6 cups Japs, 1 teaspoon rising sun, 1 teaspoon Manila. Directions: Sift Hitler three times through barbed wire, chop Mussolini, then crack the shell Japs, add rising sun, and beat like hell. Then add Manila and the more you beat the better. Grease the pan, America pour the mixture in it. Put it in the oven and slam Corregidor, turn on gas to 95,000 degrees, then go see "Gone With The Wind." Upon returning home put on gas mask, open all windows and doors to let out odor. Remove from oven and submerge in Atlantic to cool. Then go home and buy War Bonds so all us boys can come home to our loved ones.

New Ideas Useful For Homemakers

Here are several housecleaning ideas that are proving useful and time saving to homemakers, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent. Each idea has been tested either by Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics or by the United States Department of Agriculture.

To remove the gummy accumulation on wood furniture brought on by the use of too much furniture polish, give it a good washing of a mixture of one quart of hot water, three tablespoons linseed oil and one tablespoon of turpentine. Rub the furniture with a soft cloth wrung out of the solution which is best warm, then wipe dry and rub to a polish with another cloth.

Black marks on waxed floors made by wartime rubber heels and soles may be removed with liquid wax, turpentine or cleaning fluid. The grease solvent removes the wax along with black, so wax should be applied to the floor after removal.

Miss Ida C. Hagman, Home Management Specialist, University of Kentucky, gives the following cleansing soap recipe: 1 quart boiling water, ¼ cup sal soda (washing soda) and one-half cake shaved yellow soap. Add soda and soap to boiling water. Remove from heat, stir until dissolved, then cool. Use on painted walls or woodwork with a damp cloth or sponge. Rub continuously, but not too hard, until dirt loosens. Rinse with clear water. Polish with a soft dry cloth. This soap is good for washable painted walls and linoleum.

Now that we have plenty of mud, mud stains are among the most frequent clothes cleaning problems in the spring. Textile experts advise letting the mud dry, then brushing off as much as possible. If the mud is on washable fabric, soak in clear cool water first, then wash with soap and warm water. If the fabric is not washable, sponge with denatured alcohol. On rayon or on colored clothes, use very dilute alcohol—twice as much water as alcohol. Red mud often contains iron and must be treated like a rust stain with lemon juice and salt, or some other rust remover.

Lloyd Society Entertained

The Lloyd Society was royally entertained at the home of Mrs. Carl Anderson on Dixie Highway in honor of her mother, Mrs. Ella Anderson.

At the noon hour guests were invited to the dining room where an elaborate spread was served. Everyone departed thanking Mrs. Anderson for her hospitality. She proves herself a charming hostess.

Farmers Should Take Advantage Of Soil Building Payments

Farmers should take advantage of the Soil Building payments for the 1944-45 program, as this will be the only payment next year.

During the last two weeks community sign-up meetings have been held so farmers may make their plans. Every farm in the county has what is called a soil-building allowance. In order that you get full credit for this allowance you must use it up in one of several different ways. Then over and above this allowance there is an unlimited allowance of $1.50 per acre for contour cultivation, that is farming on the level. In order to qualify for the payment, the crop land must be staked off by someone designated by the AAA committee. In some counties the person designated received 30c per acre for running guide lines.

So far 36 farmers have asked that 545 acres be staked so they can qualify. Of course, $1.50 per acre is a good payment, but the big payoff is the increase in crops. Corn yields have been increased from 5 to 8 bushels per acre and tobacco from 75 to 200 lbs. per acre.

Other erosion control practices and payments are: (1) Terracing, $1.00 per 100 linear feet of terrace constructed; (2) diversion ditches, 8c per cu. yd. of dirt removed; (3) waterway outlets, 75c per 1000 sq. ft., of sod wate way established; (4) ponds or res rvoirs, 15c per cu. yd. of dirt removed. These four practices must be approved by the AAA committee for payment.

Probably the best way to use up the general soil-building allowance is by using lime or phosphate or both. These materials are furnished by grant of aid or in other words the payment to be received pays for the material, or you get lime and phosphate instead of money. If you haven't put in your application for this material do so at once. All Boone County soils need phosphate and 95 percent of the land needs lime. Only one-third of your allowance can be taken up in phosphate, but you can get part or all of your entire payment in lime. In addition to lime and phosphate you can use up your allowance by sowing cover crops in the fall of 1944, establishing a good stand of lespedeza, establishing permanent pasture; reseeding depleted pastures; mowing pastures; turning under cover crops, etc. These latter practices are practices we have been carrying out for years, and it seems that we, to make our farms better, should attempt to use up our allowance in lime or phosphate or some of the newer practices.

Surgical Shoes

N. TULCH
Foot Comfort Specialist at—
PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE
814-816 Madison, Covington

HISTORY—Mrs. G. E. M. suffered headaches and neckaches. Her neck ached so intensely at the base of the skull she could hardly see. Days at a time she could not get out of bed because of the severity of the pains. She read one of our ads., telling of the good work we were doing, and decided to see what we could do for her. After a very short time wearing surgical shoes, pain in the head and neck lessened till finally it disappeared entirely and she is well and happy. It is now possible for her to do her own work even when it is necessary for her to climb stepladders. Surgical shoes seemingly worked miracles for her.

COMMENT — Strain on ligaments and tendons naturally has a weakening effect upon muscles. Continued neglect of these conditions may be the cause of your aches and pains in the neck and back and you have been unable to get relief, come in and let us see what we can do for you.

If your ankles are weak and you are constanty rolling them, surgical shoes are definitely the answer to your problem.—Adv.

ADJUSTMENTS MADE IN WLA

PROGRAM FOR 1944 ACCORDING TO MARY HOOD GILLASPIE—ALL WOMEN CONTRIBUTING TO PRODUCTION, ELIGIBLE.

Some adjustments have been made in the policies of the Women's Land Army for 1944, according to Mary Hood Gillaspie, Home Demonstration Agent. The WLA is a program rather than an organization. Women merely register and signify their intention of participating in the production of food, feed and fiber.

No longer is one month's service a requirement for membership. All women who make a contribution to wartime production on the farm are eligible. This applies both to non-farm and farm women performing agricultural tasks, as well as to those who, by performing household duties, relieve a farm woman for agricultural work. Anyone eighteen and over are eligible to be a member. Women working food processing plants such as the Walton cannery are eligible to be a member of the WLA.

The five purposes of the WLA are: (1) to make maximum use of all available woman power in the production of food, fiber and feed; (2) to give women recognition for the part they are playing and can play on the agricultural front, as industry is doing on the industrial front; (3) to have a record of women's part in agricultural production; (4) to make available to women doing warm work the W. L. work outfit, and (5) to make available to women doing farm work, accident insurance.

Emphasis will be placed on registration of women for work on their own farms and for season work.

Boone County women who qualify for membership in this program of work are urged to obtain a membership sheet from the Home Agent's office or by calling Burlington 412. Certifications of membership in WLA will be supplied for women who register for farm labor on their farms or who are employed for season or year around farm work.

Farmers Not Required To File Estimated Income Tax Now

In answer to many requests regarding the estimated income tax for farmers, we have been requested to publish a notice to the effect that farmers are not required to file their estimated 1944 income tax until December 15, 1944.

The estimated return will be made on or before December 15th and the regular return made on or before March 15, 1945, as usual.

One Hundred Names Added To Service Board

Over one hundred names were added to the Boone County Service Board last week. This makes a total of 830 names on the board.

The homemaker's committee who made the initial arrangements for the board hopes that the names of all Boone County men and women in the service are on the board. If anyone's name has been omitted, please call Mrs. Sam Sleet, Walton 1393, or Mary Hood Gillaspie, Burlington 412.

The committee wishes to thank Noel Walton for painting the eight hundred thirty names on the Service Board.

Farmers Order Two Cars Protein Feed

Two carloads of soybean meal have been ordered from the War Food Administration through the County AAA office during the past ten days. This much needed feed, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent, will not only help relieve the acute feed shortage for many dairymen, hog and poultry raisers, but will aid livestock health and make the home grown feeds more efficient.

Farmers should carefully study their feed needs and secure those protein feeds that are needed when they are available. It has been practically impossible to purchase straight protein feeds during the past year. Orders may be filled at the County AAA office now for future deliveries.

Sidelights On The Red Cross War Fund Drive

Burlington's Midget basketball team, composed of eight boys from the Fifth and Sixth grades, made up $10.25 among themselves to contribute. In addition, one member of the team collected 3.53 from other fifth and sixth graders who did not belong to the team. Members of this team are John Cropper, captain, Billy McBee, Harold Congleton, Estel Ryle, Maurice Perkinson, Wendel Ryle, Jimmy Ryle, and Bobby Scroggin.

At New Haven a basketball game was played with Walton, the proceeds of which were contributed to the Red Cross. This, together with the money collected in the "Mite Boxes" placed in each room, brought New Haven's contribution to $63.98.

It is known one contribution of $1.50 was made to the Red Cross out of a total monthly income of $10.00.

When it appeared Burlington would not reach its quota, Mrs Smith made a list of people she intended asking for an additional five dollar contribution. Not one refused and Burlington went "over the top."

At the colored Jubilee Singers' Concert a collection was taken, started by the colored pastor with one dollar, $30.97 was obtained, which was given to the Red Cross.

Burlington's Baptist Church made a special collection for the Red Cross and obtained $12.50, most of which came from people who had already contributed individually.

APPROVED INCOME FORMS AVAILABLE

TO FARMERS THROUGHOUT THIS SECTION — SIMPLIFIED RECORD BOOK MEETS ALL SPECIFICATIONS.

In view of the fact that most all farmers are now required to file federal income tax returns, some simple form of bookkeeping is necessary so that all information is readily available for filling out the income tax forms at the proper time.

The Recorder has secured a limited supply of Farmers' Record Books which are very simple and clear, in which to enter every farm transaction so that, at the end of the year, much time can be saved a taxpayer in making out his income tax return, and will very probably save something in the way of taxes by having an accurate account of all business done during the year.

If these books are kept up to date, it is possible for a farmer to bring his book to the one usually making up these returns and not wait for the return to be completed, thereby saving a long wait at some office for the return to be completed, or the farmer may be able to complete his own return.

One of these books will last an average farmer three or four years. The price of these books is $1.00 each and may be secured at The Recorder office or from Wilton Stephens.

You should secure one of these books now and bring your transactions up to date from the first of the year and then enter your transactions each day as made.

This book has the approval of the Federal Income Tax authorities and they recommend that all farmers keep a record of this kind.

Wilton Stephens, having made out many returns for farmers the past year, and knowing the difficulty encountered and the unnecessary time taken because of inefficient records, is instrumental in providing these books at this small cost to farmers, and insists that every farmer have a record of his type before next December 15 when farmers will be required to file their estimated income for the year 1944.

Completes Special Course

Edward Smith, Seaman 1st Class of the U. S. Navy, has recently completed a specialized training course at San Diego, Calif., and was one of the few of a class of 60 to graduate with high honors. He had a general average of 93.50 for his entire training.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are now enroute home to spend a visit with their parents in Boone County, after which Ed is being transferred to Norfolk, Va.

FARMERS SET UP 1944 HAY GOALS

ONE ACRE OF LEGUME HAY TO BE PRODUCED PER COW—FARMERS URGED TO COOPERATE IN FEED PRODUCTION.

Boone farmers have set up a goal of one acre of alfalfa or other legume hay per cow in their 1944 agricultural improvement program, according to H. R. Forkner, County Agent. Farmers and especially dairymen who did not produce enough legume hay for this past winter have been faced with a serious feed problem.

Present indications are for more serious feed problems if farmers do not produce their needed supplies for the coming year. Because Boone County normally imports both hay and grain, the feed situation may become more serious.

Spring is an ideal time to seed alfalfa. There are thousands of acres of land in the county that has been limed during the past five years. Good application of lime lasts five to twenty years or longer and phosphate two or three years or longer. Much of the recently limed and phosphated land will grow alfalfa and good legumes with no further fertilizer treatment.

Now is an ideal time to seed alfalfa. Twelve pounds of alfalfa and eight pounds of orchard grass per acre makes an excellent seeding mixture. Innoculate the alfalfa seed. Alfalfa should always be seed with a grass. There is no finer way to secure a good bluegrass field than seed 12 or more pounds of innoculated alfalfa seed and 8 to 14 pounds of bluegrass seed. Three years is plenty long to plan on cutting almost any alfalfa field. Most farmers in seeding alfalfa have expected the field to produce indefinitely.

Farmers are urged to help efficiently and profitably feed Boone County's livestock next winter by planning their feed programs now. Oats as a nurse crop may be seeded with the alfalfa where it is feared one crop of alfalfa may not be harvested this fall.

Wet Weather Delays Farmers In Spring Work

Wet weather of recent weeks has again delayed local farmers in their spring work. The heavy rain on Tuesday morning of this week flooded creeks and put off spring plowing and garden planting for several more days.

The wet weather is not without benefit. Pastures and hay crops are helped much more with a wet spring than with an early drouth.

Will Smith, County Farm Labor Assistant, the past week has contacted many of the farmers who did custom work last year. Practically every operator contacted reported he planned to help more neighbors with his power equipment this year than he did last year. The later the spring, the greater the need for more custom plowing, land preparation and planting.

FIRE DEPARTMENT READY FOR SERVICE

MAIN TRUCK READY FOR OPERATION THIS WEEK—WORK MEETING SET FOR FRIDAY NIGHT.

Property owners living in and around the town of Burlington will be pleased with the announcement that the Burlington Volunteer Fire Department has their main fire truck ready for service and will be available at all times for fire protection.

Although progress on the apparatus has been extremely slow because of wartime demands and a shortage of all fire fighting equipment, the people of this community will now be able to receive fire protection at all times.

The second truck which will complete the rural fire fighting unit, is well underway and will be completed within the next month.

A special work meeting has been called for Friday night, April 14 at 7:00 p. m. at the firehouse and eevryone is requested to be present and prepared to work.

Complete instructions on how to report a fire will be published in this newspaper in the near future, as well as the general detail and regulations under which the fire department will operate.

Harry Hufnagel

Funeral services for Harry Hufnagel, who resided near Limaburg were conducted at 10 o'clock Monday morning at the Philip Taliaferro funeral home in Erlanger, Ky. Burial was in the Hebron Cemetery.

Mr. Hufnagel was 52 years of age. He died early Saturday morning, April 8th in Christ Hospital, Cincinnati, where on Tuesday of last week he had undergone a major operation and later developed lobar pneumonia, which caused his death.

Mr. Hufnagel was employed by the Boone County Road Department as a patrol grader operator, and he had been a resident of Boone County about 15 years.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Isabella Rouse Hufnagel, of Limaburg, Ky., and three sisters who reside in Price Hill, Cincinnati, O.

Rev. H. M. Hauter, pastor of the Hebron Lutheran Church, conducted the funeral service. Pallbearers were A. B. Renaker, A. S. Burcham, A. E. Kirkpatrick, D. L. Kirkpatrick, Fred Bennett and A. J. Ogden. The songs were rendered by a mixed choir from Hebron and Burlington.

AIRPORT BUILDING WILL COST $85,000

FINAL CONSTRUCTION PLANS FOR ADMINISTRATION BUILDING HAVE BEEN APPROVED, ACCORDING TO MANAGER.

Construction plans for an administration building at the Kenton County airport, near Hebron, have been approved by the county's airport board, the Kenton Fiscal Court and representatives of three major commercial airlines, Oscar R. Parks, airport manager, announced last week.

Construction work on the building will start immediately after approval for needed material is given by the War Production Board in Washington. Construction work is expected to be started in May, and the field should be ready for operation by July, the manager added.

A. A. Hohnhorst, county auditor and secretary of the airport board, said the cost of constructing the building is estimated at $85,000 and is to be borne by Kenton County. The county already has invested aproximately $175,000 in the airfield, known officially as the Greater Cincinnati Airport.

Priorities for concrete, iron, special woods and brick, such as will be used in the construction of a permanent building are impossible to get at present, and the building to be erected at present will only be used temporarily as the administration building. The temporary structure will be modified and converted to other uses, possibly for space required by the Civil Aeronautics Administration or for airline freight storage accommodations after the war, it was announced.

According to plans, the building will be of concrete block construction. After the building is converted it is planned to add an outside wall of four-inch brick.

The building will be a one-floor plan 296x91½ feet, facing north, with an observation tower atop the outside. A section of the center of the building is to be two stories in height, but most of the additional height is for the purpose of bringing more natural light to the vestibule which occupies the mid section of the structure.

CAA officials have declared the airport is the largest commercial field contemplated in the nation, having runways larger than LaGuardia Fields, New York City. The four runways, each 5500 feet in length, will be connected with taxi lanes. The largest airfield is the Army Airport at Celina, Kan.

COUNTY GOAL REACHED IN RED CROSS DRIVE

THREE MORE PRECINCTS REPORT "OVER THE TOP"—COMPLETE REPORTS HAVE NOT BEEN RECEIVED.

Boone County, as a whole, has raised its quota of $8,700.00 in the Red Cross War Fund Drive which ended April 8. Three more precincts have gone "Over the Top"—Burlington, Mrs. Jim Smith, chairman; Hebron, Mrs. Jameson Aylor, chairman; and Walton, Mrs. Clayton Jones, chairman.

Complete reports have not been received, but it is anticipated total collections will exceed the goal by several hundred dollars. This shows the hard work done by the County Chairman, Irvin Rouse, all precinct chairmen and their solicitors. It reflects the fine spirit of Boone County people, who put forth this special effort to raise an amount of money far in excess of any previously asked. The amount collected this year is twice that of last year, and it is evident that all contributors must have greatly increased this year's gift over last.

Boone County's Service Men will be grateful to its citizens for their whole-hearted response to the call of the Red Cross. You have said to them, "We are behind you one hundred per cent. We have made our gifts as big as our hearts."

Congratulations to everyone in any way connected with the drive.

SPECIALISTS FIND JOAN KIGER INSANE

MENNINGER NEUROPSYCHIATRIC CLINIC OF TOPEKA KANS., REPORT GIRL DANGEROUSLY INSANE.

Joan Kiger, who was found not guilty by a Boone County jury of 12 men on a charge of murdering her brother, Jerry, is dangerously insane and should be confined to an institution for life, according to findings of specialists at the Menninger Europsychiatric Clinic in Topeka, Kan.

Specialists have determined that the Covington high school girl is a victim of dementia praecox. She did not have a nightmare when she killed her brother and her father Carl C. Kiger at their home near Devon last August 17, but she was suffering from something even worse—an incurable mental disorder—and was not responsible for what she did.

Hypnosis was one of the methods used in probing into the girl's mind. In this state she was reported to have told all the details of the fatal shooting of her brother, and her father.

Reports received from the clinic by Fred Williamson, the girl's uncle, Joan told the doctors that she set out to kill her whole family, then kill herself, but she ran out of bullets. The specialists said she related that she lay and thought about this for two hours before actually starting to fire shots from three revolvers which her father had in the house.

At the trail she told of having a nightmare in which she shot her relatives. She deceived her lawyer, a jury of 12 men at Burlington and even Dr. George S. Sprague, director of a sanitarium near Lexington, Ky.

Mr. Williamson was notified two weeks ago of the conclusion reached by the doctors at Topeka, Kans., and began making arrangements at that time to have her kept in an institution for life.

Guns allegedly used in the murder of Carl C. Kiger and his son Jerry were viewed by the Boone County grand jury Monday. Raymon L. Vincent, Commonwealth Attorney said the jury was "just curious" about the celebrated murder case and desired to view the guns.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

Lesson for April 16

SAUL'S EARLY PREACHING

LESSON TEXT: Acts 9:19b-30; 11:25, 26.
GOLDEN TEXT: I am not ashamed of the gospel: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth.—Romans 1:16.

"A changed man"—that oft-used expression assumes real meaning as it is applied to one who has experienced the redeeming grace of God in Christ. In a special way this was true of Paul, whose transformed life amazed those who knew him before he had met Christ on the Damascus road.

In our lesson we find him in three different cities, serving his new-found Master and Lord.

I. At Damascus—Confounding the Jews (9:19-25).

"Straightway." What a good word to apply to the servant of the Lord. Paul did not hesitate to declare his faith in Christ, to proclaim that the One who had redeemed him was able also to save others.

It is the normal and proper expression of Christian faith to give testimony to others. That should be true of every believer. With Paul there was the added element of his call to preach, for God had ordained that he should be His chosen vessel for that purpose (Acts 9:15).

One is impressed by the prompt and unquestioning obedience of so many of Christ's followers of whom we read in the New Testament. No doubt that explains their power and wide usefulness. We could learn of them.

Paul's message was Christ. He proved to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ (v. 22), the One of whom their Old Testament Scriptures spake and for whom they professed to be looking. He declared Him to be the Son of God (v. 20).

They were unwilling to accept the message. They were "amazed" at Paul and "confounded" by the truth he proclaimed, but they rejected both it and him, and he had to escape for his life. But another city must hear his witness, so we find him—

II. At Jerusalem—Disputing With the Grecians (9:26-30).

Knowing his violent persecution of the church, the disciples in Jerusalem were suspicious. Perhaps there was a measure of justification for such an attitude, but one is glad that there was present the generous, open-hearted Barnabas, ready to believe in his new brother in Christ and to sponsor him in the church.

A word of admonition to the church of our day is necessary, regarding the making of a new convert or a stranger at home in the fellowship of the saints. There is no need of putting such a one quickly into office or a place of honor, but let him know that he is accepted and believed in, and thus give him an opportunity to grow.

Paul remained in Jerusalem this time for two weeks (Gal. 1:18), going in and out, that is, in friendly fellowship. That is just what the young Christian needs, and should seek.

He also had something to make right. He had joined the Grecian Jews when they disputed with Stephen (6:9) and stoned him. Paul had agreed with and joined them on that occasion. Now by the miracle of regeneration he is a new creature and is on the exactly opposite side. Now he disputes with the Grecians, declaring that Jesus is the Christ What a blessed change!

They refused to tolerate that word, and prepared to kill him. But the servant of the Lord was kept by Him, and delivered through the good offices of Christian brethren. How often it is true that the minister must look to the brethren for that kindness which delivers him from distress and danger.

Paul returned for a time to his home city of Tarsus, but when a need of his services arose he was called out, and we find him—

III. At Antioch—Teaching the Christians (11:25, 26).

Persecution spread the believers abroad (Acts 11:19), and like the scattered brands of a beaten fire they carried the flame of Christianity far and wide. Thus the gospel came to Antioch, the third greatest city in the world of that day. A revival broke out, and Barnabas was sent from Jerusalem to be of help.

Good and spiritual man that he was (Acts 19:23, 24), Barnabas did nothing to hinder the work of God, but admonished the people to "cleave unto the Lord," that is, to follow Him closely. Would that all spiritual advisers had such a spirit and such sound judgment.

He was also wise in sensing his need of help. So he went after Paul, the very man to teach these young Christians, and to lead them out into a radiant and abundant life for the Lord.

Here it was that the beautiful name of "Christian" was first applied to believers. It is believed to have originally been a term of ridicule, but even then it was a testimony, for it declared that these believers were devoted to Christ and concerned only with pleasing and serving Him.

Now's the Time to Prepare Your Refrigerator for Summer Service

THE coming of warmer weather means extra duty for your electric refrigerator, so give it the care and attention it needs to operate at peak efficiency. If an open unit model, see that it is properly lubricated. Check condition of belt and door gasket. Keep unit compartment clean. And if you have reasons to suspect mechanical trouble, have your refrigerator checked over by a competent service man NOW. Repairs take longer these days, and if you wait until the rush season you may find yourself temporarily without refrigeration just when you need it most.

Follow These Tips on the Use and Care of Your Refrigerator

- Your refrigerator needs breathing space. Place it in coolest spot in the kitchen where there is plenty of air circulation below, behind and above it. If it has ventilating flue at back, see that it is not obstructed.
- If possible, locate refrigerator away from hot stove, direct sunlight or other heat source. This protects finish and saves operating cost.
- Check door seal by closing it on a strip of newspaper. If you can slide paper up and down, seal is imperfect. Gasket should be replaced or door latch adjusted.
- If an open unit model, lubricate motor in accordance with manufacturer's directions. Sealed units need no oiling.
- Keep unit compartment clean. Remove dust and lint from condenser coils.
- Check belt on open unit model. If too loose, have it tightened. If badly worn, have it replaced.
- Defrost whenever frost reaches thickness of one-quarter inch. Keep liquids covered and defrosting tray dry to retard formation of frost.
- Use fast freezing sparingly. Don't open door oftener than necessary. Don't store hot foods.

TONIGHT AND FRIDAY

"Destination Tokyo" based on our Navy's submarine warfare in the Pacific waters, will be the new attraction at the Gayety tonight and Friday. The new Warner Bros. film stars Cary Grant and John Garfield and features Robert Hutton, Warner Anderson and Dane Clark, young newcomer who scored in "Action in the "North Atlantic." Others in the cast include John Ridgely, Alan Hale and William Prince.

SATURDAY

Some of the most beautiful scenery of western America forms the background for the story of "Dawn on the Great Divide."

Principal roles in this thrilling story of the frontier are played by Buck Jones, Mona Barrie, Raymond Hatton, Robert Lowery, Christine MacIntyre, Rex Bell and Betty Blythe.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Mario Silva, member of the Warner Bros. music department and vocal coach for Dennis Morgan, revised an obscure Sigmund Romberg melody for a specialty number by Dennis Morgan in "The Desert Song," Technicolor musical coming to the Gayety.

The song, "Long Live the Night' was originally written as part of the score of "The Desert Song" but was never used.

Silva not only revised the song but he wrote a complete new verse, while Jack Scholl wrote the new lyrics for it.

It is heard along with the familiar melodies of "The Desert Song," "One Alone," and the title song.

Will they thank you for good strong feet?

Oh, you mother of a child—you want his manners to be nice, you want his brain to be quick, you want his hands to be agile—but don't you want his feet to be sturdy and true, well-shaped and graceful? Are those of your daughter?

You mother of a child, twenty years from now his feet will be walking up to get a diploma, or confidently marching in to get a job, maybe walking up to an old church altar to meet a bride in white. (Or it may be the bride herself). Your child may never thank you for good strong feet, he'll take them as a matter of fact. But what will he think if they're not good strong feet? Sure he'll still love you—but "why didn't mother make sure I was growing up right?"

It is a responsibility, just one of the many a mother takes on when she brings a child into the world.—Adv.
